SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Covington, Ky., Jan. 12, 1903.

To the Board of Trustees, Covington Protestant Children's Home:

Covington—We have the honor of presenting to you, our worthy and esteemed board of trustees, the twenty-second annual report of the institution, for the year 1902.

We feel assuring that this period contains something to interest, concern and encourage those who are to notice sympathy with the work of improving the condition of human society and especially of those in distress. We are pleased to report that the number of children who have been cared for during the year 1902 has been considerable. Our goal is to continue this work in the future and to expand it to meet the needs of the community.

One of the encouraging features of this report is the large number of persons who are represented on the list of contributors. It contains the names of many people who, in their generosity, are being thanked and honored with gratifying success by the adoption of the so-called "Covington Chip" method. The lodgers deserve much praise from the fact that they do not let the home go to waste, but they cheerfully sacrifice a great deal of time and convenience, enabling the management to carry on the work more efficiently.

The Board of Managers met with gratifying success by the adoption of the so-called "Covington Chip" method. The lodgers deserve much praise from the fact that they do not let the home go to waste, but they cheerfully sacrifice a great deal of time and convenience, enabling the management to carry on the work more efficiently.

The statistical report hereafter, if compared with that of a year ago, presents some very satisfactory results. There was an increase of twenty-four in the number admitted, and an increase of eighteen in the number for which provision was made. Thirty-three children were returned to parents and friends, which seems to indicate that those from whom they had been received, and became accustomed to do an able and good job in the home for them. It is apparent when the Board is in a thrifty condition, the demands made upon the board will be considerably diminished.

By referring to the statement of expenditures, it will be observed that quite a large sum was expended for improvements and repairs, which, in connection with the increased cost of articles that it was necessary to purchase and the small number of children present during

A period of the year, has added materially to the expense of

The management, therefore, was expanded for the support of each child

Fortunately, there has been no serious illness, with the exception of one case of typhoid fever, which required the services of a specialist for a few days. Dr. W. H. Ranflav was called in the case and the child recovered his strength and faithful attention until his recovery

The illness is under medical observation to all of the physicians

Those have cheerfully and promptly responded when called upon.

Thanks are extended for their invaluable services.

To our regret, at the close of the year, Dr. W. H. Kelly resigned the position which he had so acceptably filled for most twelve years. For the faithful services to conscientiously bestowed, for so long a time, he is tendered hearty thanks and best wishes. He has been succeeded by Dr. W. T. Tarliss, who has kindly consented to fill the vacancy.

The anniversary of the Home was celebrated on the evening of November 25th. A fine program had been arranged by the committee in charge, and its rendition delighted all those who were fortunate to be present, where thanks are extended to those who kindly volunteered their services. As a token of appreciation, we have given to the present a place in our report.

During the year the children have received many visits of attention and visits from friends. We are truly sorry children in the teacher's and pupils of the school of the city, also those of West

Covington, Inland, Erlanger, Cincinnati and Covington, for liberal donations to the Home.

An occasion of special interest was the visiting at Clergy island given the children by Rev. L. H. Brooks, who told the story of the campers' conscientious plantation. They were welcomed with their reception. The party was a happy one, and the after-effects of their ge-ral host shall never be forgotten.

Ovember 7th, "Fairly Day," was observed at the Home by the Sunday-school, and on December 31st a Christmas party was held for the children the children were given presents of the program, and they did so well that these presents were much planned. Rev. J. H. Mitchell delivered an appropriate address at the former occasion and Rev. L. F. Seidler on the latter. Dr. G. and Mrs. Seidler will be delighted to have their call and see the Sunday-school. A most please to the presence occurred at the moral lesson shall never be forgotten.

Very respectfully,

A. F. GREENE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

Covington, Ky., Jan. 15, 1901.

To the Board of Trustees of the Protestant Children's Home:

Gentlemen—we have come to another landmark in the pathway of life, and on it is written 1901. As we turn the last page of the record of life in 1892, and see before us the white, unmarked pages of the book of 1901, we earnestly raise our hearts in prayer to our al-

We are pleased to find that for the last year we have had no deaths or serious illnesses to record, either in the "Home," or among the members of our children's club, and have a great little riding the child when they first come to our "Board." The editions of the "Home" express the best of health for the first in March and a short siege of sickness. We have not to report any other serious illness except a satisfactory truth with regard to the health of all connected with the establishment.

Every year until this time the present Secretary has been in office, we have had to recite with satisfaction the record of some of our members, of which we are quite proud. The last year we had on the staff Father we have spent that affectionately. When the report for last year was written, we gave no apologies of our energetic and efficient work. As they had been so much, this year in the "Home" we could not form a part of their activities. In the past year their sacrifices have been greatly appreciated, not only in the显而易见的, but also in the Children's Home, and the children show evidence of kind and careful management.

The "Board Party" last Thursday in October was rather above the average in some of the school's activities, the "High School" and "Dancing" being better than usual and very delightful. "Board" also made several donations during the year, especially this one at Thanksgiving. We appreciate great kindness to our "Board," but especially in this case when it is an evidence of interest and real devotion to the work, and upon our shoulders we have to hold the burden of all the charities of our city in the future, and a testing now in intelligence and giving, which are the surest sign of interest in the work, is also a good preparation for future responsibilities along these lines, in connection with the "Boys Party" we find ourselves grateful to Miss Hadley Children of Brantford, who for the last two years has been in the contributing and bringing to the "Home" of aid from the Brantford School.

Thanksgiving and Christmas the contributions were abundant, so that the little ones were provided with many of the good things of the season.

To every citizen of COVINGTON who has in any way assisted us in our work the past year we extend our hearty thanks, and so we enter upon our new year's work we ask a continuance of their favors in our beloved charity, and we earnestly hope the "Boards" for 1913 will have more and better work to report to you than has failed to us in the past.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCY C. WILLIAMS, Cor. Sec.
REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER.

COVINGTON, KY., JAN. 13, 1908.

To the Board of Managers, Covington Protestant Children's Home:

Dear Parents—I take great pleasure in stating that our Sunday school is in good standing. The children are very attractive, and through the kindness of your efforts, Superintendent and Matron, I am able to accomplish much work—more than ever before. We rejoice in seeing so many of your names with us at different times. I am grateful you have come to us in the good work being done in our city. I am indebted to Mr. H. H. Lindsey for papers they have helped us greatly. You have wisely chosen faithful servants of God to help give the lesson in every position. We are in love and friendship. I wish to thank all who have given help this past year.

Yours truly,

LIDA V. BOYER, S. S. Teacher.

LETTERS FROM AND ABOUT CHILDREN.

Mrs. R. C. Clark

Dearest Sir—Our little boy is getting along all right. He is perfectly satisfied in his new home. We think lots of him. He has recovered from his first illness very respectfully.

M. A.

[The above little boy is only four years old.]

Mr. and Mrs. C.:—I am going to write to you to tell you how I am getting along. I am well and going to school. I like my teacher and my school. I am reading to see you soon. Are you going to have some Thanksgiving? We have chicken for Thanksgiving dinner. We have a lot of chicken; two dogs, one named Sue, the other Tan. Also have three little pigs, eleven geese and one cow. I have learned how to milk and to brush the horse. I can shop wood and feed the chickens. I go to bed at seven o'clock. I love the country. I have grown big since I came out here. We have turkeys for Thanksgiving. The snows are coming just like summer. I am doing fine with good wishes to all.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. C.:—I hope you are all well. I am getting along very nicely. I am trying to be a good boy. I like my house; my little shoes are growing fast. They are twenty-eight months old. I am going to school. I am at the last lesson in my reader. My teacher says I will go in the Fourth Reader next. I like my teacher very much. I have thirteen small S. S. cards, nine large ones and one big one for a reward. I have a nice blue hat I raised. We have four cows and two oxen, plenty of good milk and butter. This summer we had one grain threshed; it was the first time I ever saw a threshing-machine. We have seventeen hogs in full after it; we are expected to be a little small that. I am getting a new hat. I will send you a picture. Wish you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Yours, truly,

Miss C.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. C.:—This leaves me well and pleased with my home. I love my parents and mamma; they love me. I have a nice home. I am talking much honors on the organ. I have hear of cornfeast. I send you my picture; show it to Albert. I am in the Third Reader school. I am a little Methodist. Love you and all of the children.

Your little friend,

Daisy

Dear Mama:—I was pleased to write to you again. Your letter received, we were glad to hear from you all. I am getting along nicely in school. I have got six hard marks in the spelling class. It is so near Thanksgiving; I thought I would send you some trying chicken. There are a dozen. I hope that will be enough for all. Tell the children to think of me when eating their fried chicken. Tell Mr. C. the lady here has part of his name—Robert. I am thankful for my good home. Love to all.

Yours,

Daisy

Mr. and Mrs. C.:—I want to tell you I have a good home. I love my mamma. I go to Sunday-school and church. I have joined the church. I go to school. I love my teacher. She says I am getting along fine in my books. Mamaw says my pores both to come to see us. Mamaw says I am a good boy, and lots of love to her. I write again soon.

Your little boy,

Daisy.
Mrs. Jane, Mrs. C.:—I am pleased with my home. Sometimes the weather is good, I am going to school. I read the books and bring them to the teacher. I can also bring the books to the library as well as any one and drive everybody. I have a fire when gathering eggs, we take them to the market. Mr. C. I am sorry, but you found me this good home; hope you will find all of the others have a home like this. I am well and a good boy.

F. D. J.

James

This has been a very pleasant year to us in our new work. Notwithstanding the many discouragements that come with this kind, I have personally investigated and tried houses that can not be questioned, for twenty of our children during the year. Have received letters from many of those placed in homes. Have visited a few of the children during the year, and found them doing nicely, and with few exceptions the requirements necessary to the happiness and future welfare of the little ones were all that could be desired. These are only a few of the many letters received, as these is limited.

May the Lord continue to bless us as we are going.

R. S. Corr., agent.

SOMETHING TO KNOW.

It is desirable that the citizens of Kentucky generally, and of Covington particularly, should know that the Trustees of the Covington Protestant Children's Home are desirous of finding suitable homes in private families for the children under their care.

It is desirable, also, that they should know that these children are in general of good physical constitution, of average mental capacity, and that their daily conduct is commendable.

There is not a child now in the Home but that, with proper care and training, would become an intelligent, worthy and respected member of society.

Persons of good moral character, who may need a child to raise, or who may desire to be a blessing to some homeless one, can do a better thing than to adopt one of these children from our Home.
