"FOREST ACRES"
A Comedy in Three Acts
By Fannie Barnett Linsky

Presented by
Senior Class of Independence High School

Tuesday and Wednesday evenings,
MAY 23 and 24, 1922.

CAST

Lemuel Crockett, a miserly farmer,.............................Arthur Northcutt
Mrs. Crockett, his wife,........................................Loraine Marshall
Elizabeth Crockett, his daughter with high notions.............Cleora Rapp
Hepsibah Crockett, his daughter without notions..............Hazel Stone
Hiram Crockett, his son.....................................Simmie Hoffman
Franklin Arthur, a business man..........................(Summer boarders at the Crockett Farm)Willie Hoffman
Miss Lucy Ruggles, a school teacher..................Alma Wade
Evelina Newcomb, a bashful maid..........................Evelyn Maddox
Andy Hobbs, a country boy..................................Remly Bird
Jeffrey Brixley, president of Brixley Plow and Shovel Co..A. R. Rich
Elise Brixley, his wife.......................................Zella Stephens
Constance Loring, their niece................................Nellie Williams
Nora, the maid................................................Josephine Mires

SYNOPSIS

Act II.—Library of the Brixley town house. Two days later.

Act III.—Scene same as act one. "The Female Comes."

Time—The Present

Printed by J. R. Jameson, 35 Pike St.