WHEREAS, on or about the eleventh day of January A. D. 1897, the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Covington (commonly known and styled as The Trustees of Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Covington, Kentucky) a religious corporation created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Kentucky, of the City of Covington, County of Kenton and State of Kentucky, and Marshall A. Hill, Louis O. Auxier, James R. Hawley, William C. Blades, Benjamin P. Graziani, Edward W. Ward, James L. Johnson, Richard F. Caldwell, Kirtley J. Morris, Richard K. Tarvin, Montroville L. Swetnam and John N. Wooliscroft all of the County of Kenton and State of Kentucky, and Benjamin D. Best and David L. Carpenter, both of the County of Hamilton, in the State of Ohio, executed and delivered to The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, a corporation of the State of Wisconsin, their bond bearing date on that day, conditioned for the payment to the said Insurance Company, or to its certain attorneys, successors or assigns, of the sum of ten thousand (10,000) dollars in five (5) equal payments of two thousand (2,000) dollars each payable respectively at the expiration of one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) years from the date of the said bond, with interest thereon, until paid, at the rate of six (6) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and of November in each and every year; and at the same time the said Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Covington (commonly known and styled as The Trustees of Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Covington, Kentucky) executed and delivered to the said Insurance Company a mortgage, bearing even date with said bond, upon certain real estate lying and being in the County of Kenton, City of Covington, in the State of Kentucky, and more particularly described in the said mortgage as security for the payment of said bond, and which said mortgage was recorded in the Clerk of the County Court's office of the said County of Kenton, in the State of Kentucky, on the fifth day of February A. D.
1897 at ten o'clock A. M., in Mortgage Book 78, on page 509; and

WHEREAS, payments to the amount of six thousand (6000) dollars have been made to the said Insurance Company on the principal of the said bond and mortgage, as follows to wit: two thousand (2000) dollars on January 11th 1898; two thousand (2000) dollars on January 16th 1899 and two thousand (2000) dollars on February 21st 1900; and

WHEREAS, the interest has been paid to the first day of November 1902, and there remains unpaid on said bond and mortgage of the principal thereof, the just and full sum of four thousand (4000) dollars, with interest thereon from the first day of November 1902; and

WHEREAS, the said Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Covington (commonly known and styled as The Trustees of Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Covington, Kentucky) and Marshall A. Hill, James R. Hawley, William C. Blades, Benjamin P. Graziani, Edward W. Ward, James L. Johnson, Richard P. Caldwell, Kirtley J. Morris, Richard K. Tarvin, Montroville L. Swetnam, John N. Wooliscroft, Benjamin D. Best and David L. Carpenter have requested the said Insurance Company to extend the time of payment of the said balance of four thousand (4000) dollars remaining unpaid on the principal of the said bond and mortgage, until the twenty-second day of July A. D. nineteen hundred and seven (1907), with the privilege of paying one hundred (100) dollars or more of said principal sum on any interest paying day after the twenty-second day of July A. D. 1903, and before maturity, and with the further privilege of paying one thousand (1000) dollars of said principal sum at any time after the date of this agreement and before maturity, and the said Insurance Company has consented and agreed to make such extension as requested; and

WHEREAS, the said Louis G. Auxier, above named, who signed the aforesaid bond, has declined and neglected to execute this instrument but each and all the other parties hereto, having notice of the declination and neglect of said Louis G. Auxier to execute this agreement, have consented and now here consent to execute the same notwithstanding the said declination and refusal of said Louis G. Auxier;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of One Dolar to them in hand paid by The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed and acknowledged, the said Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Covington (commonly known and styled as The Trustees of Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Covington, Kentucky) and Marshall A.
Hill, James R. Hawley, William C. Blades, Benjamin P. Graziani, Edward W. Ward, James L. Johnson, Richard F. Caldwell, Kirtley J. Morris, Richard K. Tarvin, Montroville L. Swetnam, John N. Wooliscroft, Benjamin D. Best and David L. Carpenter hereby agree to and with The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, to pay interest on said sum of four thousand (4000) dollars, being the principal sum remaining unpaid on said bond and mortgage, from the first day of November A.D. 1902, until paid, at the rate of six (6) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and of November in each and every year, and to pay the said principal sum of four thousand (4000) dollars on the twenty-second (22nd) day of July A.D. nineteen hundred and seven (1907), with the privilege of paying one hundred (100) dollars or more of said principal sum on any interest paying day after the twenty-second day of July A.D. nineteen hundred and three (1903) and before maturity, and with the further privilege of paying one thousand (1000) dollars of said principal sum at any time after the date of this agreement and before maturity, both principal and interest payable at the office of the said Insurance Company in the City of Milwaukee in the State of Wisconsin; and the said Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Covington (com-only known and styled as The Trustees of Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Covington, Kentucky) hereby covenants and agrees that said mortgage shall continue and remain as security for the payment of said principal sum of four thousand (4000) dollars, remaining unpaid on said bond and mortgage, and interest as hereinbefore stated, from the said first day of November A. D. 1902, until paid; and in case of default in payment of any installment of principal or interest at maturity, the provisions of said bond and mortgage making the principal sum due at the option of said Insurance Company shall be in force (notice of such option being hereby expressly waived); and the said bond and mortgage and all their covenants and conditions shall remain in force except as modified by this agreement; and all the parties hereto expressly consent to the omission of the said Louis G. Auxier from this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Covington (commonly known and styled as The Trustees of Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Covington, Kentucky) has caused its corporate seal to be hereto affixed and these presents to be signed by its President and Secretary, and by its Board of Trustees this tenth day of December A. D. 1902, in pursuance of two resolutions, one adopted by the members of said Church corporation on the thirtieth day of December A. D. 1896, and the other adopted by its Board of Trustees on the eighth day of August A. D. 1902, and the said Marshall A. Hill, James R. Hawley, William C. Blades, Benjamin F. Graziani, Edward
W. Ward, James L. Johnson, Richard P. Caldwell, Kirtley J. Morris, Richard K. Tarvin, Montroville L. Swetnam, John N. Wooliscroft, Benjamin D. Best and David L. Carpenter have hereunto set their hands and seals this tenth day of December A. D. 1902.
