Affidavit

J. B. Jones

of

Aug. 27, 1896

and

Affidavit

J. R. Cooper

of

Aug. 28, 1896

Affidavit of

Scott Street M. E. Church

South

of Corieaton

Key.
State of Kentucky
County of Kenton

J. B. Jones says that he is now and has been a resident of Covington since 1853, that he is now the Cashier of the First National Bank of said City.

He says that he was a member of the Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church of Covington at the time said Congregation purchased the property on Scott Street about 50 feet North of Sixth Street. That he was present at the laying of the corner stone of the church built on said property in the year 1844 and that said Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, has been in continuous, open actual and adverse possession of all the property now held by said church on Scott Street about 50 feet North of Sixth Street; and that to the best of his recollection, there never was an alley on either the North or the South side of the church building.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. B. Jones this 27th day of August 1896.

[Signature]

Notary Public
Kentucky
County of Kenton.

John R. Cooper says that he was born in the year 1842 in the City of Covington Ky. and that he has been a resident of said City ever since.

He says that he has all his life lived within a very short distance of the Scott Street M.E. Church of Covington, situated on Scott Street, about 50 feet North of Sixth Street, and that as long as he can remember there said Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church has been in continuous, actual, open and adverse possession of all the property now held and occupied by said church on Scott Street, about 50 feet North of Sixth Street, and that his memory extends back at least forty years and he says that to the best of his recollection, there never was an open alley on either the North or South side of said church building.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by John R. Cooper, this 29th day of August 1896.

[Signature]

Notary Public
Kenton Co. Ky.