August 14, 1969

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KENTUCKIAN NAMED TO POST IN SPAIN

Clarence L. Miller, prominent Shelbyville farmer, has been named Agriculture Attaché to the American Embassy in Spain. The announcement was made in Washington today by U.S. Senators Marlow W. Cook and John Sherman Cooper.

Miller, who will serve on the Ambassador's staff, will move his residence to Madrid around September 15, 1969. A major function of his office will be to work for the increase in exporting of agricultural commodities to the Spanish nation.

In making the announcement, Senators Cook and Cooper expressed satisfaction that a Kentuckian had been selected for the high post. Cook said, "It is especially gratifying to see this appointment given to one so qualified in his profession. Clarence Miller's extensive agricultural experience at the state and national levels makes him extremely capable to handle this important assignment."

Miller was Vice President of the Kentucky State Fair Board, 1950-1953; Vice President of the Kentucky Farm Bureau, 1952; Kentucky State Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, 1953-54; Director of Tobacco Division, U.S. Department of Agriculture, 1954-1956; Associate Administrator, U.S. Department of Agriculture, operating county and State ASCS committees throughout the nation, 1956-1958; Assistant Secretary of Agriculture from 1958 to 1961, during the Eisenhower administration; for the past four years he has been Marketing Consultant for the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation; and he currently serves on the Governor's Commission on Agriculture.

-30-