DIRECTORY
"DEDICATION."

"I love thy Church, O God!
Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thine hand."

"For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given
Till toils and cares shall end."
Your pastor has so frequently been asked for a list of members of the church, and there is such a necessity for a directory to be in the hands of all members; when the opportunity offered to publish such directory, without expense to the church, he seized it and now places in your hand this manual. It is not claimed to be perfect, but has been made as near so as time and opportunity would permit. Much of the historical matter has been taken from an old directory, prepared in 1887, only changed in wording and wherever needed to bring it down to date. Some addresses may be wrong, but they have been made as recent as possible.

"This publication it is hoped will prove useful to the members of The Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. It will do so by imparting all that information which is so desirable to those who connect themselves with any society. The origin, history and progress of the Church is here disclosed and its present condition delineated. The manual may be helpful by giving form and character to the Church and by constituting a bond of union among its members—making them acquainted with each other and with all that is done in the Church, thus promoting interest, harmony, and brotherly love.

Let every member now arise and co-operate in the prosecution of the plans of the Church, manifest an affectionate interest in all its members—the poor as well as the rich; then will Zion arise and shine, the glory of the Lord being risen upon her."

Yours faithfully,

JOSEPH RENNIE, PASTOR.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church of Covington, Ky., was organized on the 6th day of February, 1855, in the First Presbyterian Church building, on Fourth Street, which was then in its old location, before removal to its present commodious church building. It was first organized under the name of Second Presbyterian Church, but was afterwards, by an act of Legislature, of April 28th, 1884, changed to: "The Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church."

CHARTER MEMBERS.

As originally constituted, there were twenty-eight charter members; only one of whom remains till the present, viz.: Mrs. Lucy Whittaker. Its first place of meeting was a brick building on the east side of Madison Avenue, south of Ninth, known at the time as the (POTTERY.) Here the congregation met for worship, until Dec. 23rd, 1855.

A committee, previously appointed, in March 1855, purchased a lot on Ninth Street, on which the church building was subsequently erected. The lecture room was first occupied on Dec. 23rd, 1855, and used as a place of meeting until February 1861, when the main auditorium was completed and dedicated. September 21st, 1880, this building was destroyed by fire.

At a congregational meeting held in the Lecture Room, January 26th, 1881, a committee was appointed with instructions to sell the property on Ninth Street and secure a site for a new building elsewhere. Through the foresight of Mr. James Spilman the committee were enabled to secure the lot on Madison Avenue, which in the words of Scripture may be described as: "Beautiful for the situation."

The Lecture Room of the new edifice on Madison Avenue was occupied for the first time on December 17th, 1882, and on the 18th of March, 1883, the Church was dedicated. Rev. J. T. Plunket, D. D., assisted by Rev. J. W. Walden, of the First Presbyterian Church and Rev. Dr. Felix, of the First Baptist Church of this city, were present at the dedication of the Church at this time.

LEFT HOMELESS BY FIRE.

On Sunday morning, January 10th, 1886, this beautiful church building was destroyed by fire. Though this was the second fire in her history, the church did not give up, but under the leadership of her indomitable pastor unanimously determined to rebuild at once. The trustees proceeded immediately to collect the insurance money and a building committee awarded contracts, so that in the spring of 1886, the work of reconstruction was begun.

AGAIN AT HOME.

Sunday, November 21st, 1886, the congregation again assembled in their new and beautiful church home. This building stands to-day, June 15th, 1898, showing marks of age in only two respects. The new church was erected on the old walls, left

In this good work the ladies are still engaged. They have divided the membership of the church in a number of committees on entertainment, each of which during the past few months have done much to contribute to the social as well as pecuniary advantage of the church. They are now engaged in raising funds to pay of a small debt, which has accumulated during the panic of the past few years, and as soon as this is done they propose to enter upon the larger work of adding improvements to the present building. Such is the work our ladies have been doing for the church since its organization, for which they deserve and have the united thanks of all our members.

Our Young People’s Societies are doing much to add to the social, as well as spiritual welfare of the church. The Junior Endeavor Society has a fund on hand for the erection of a public fountain, which we hope may prove a great benefit to the city.

CONCLUSION.

Spiritually, as well as materially, this Church has had its vicissitudes, its periods of coldness, lethargy and inaction, and its times of service, life and activity. The past few years have been years of special trial. Death, removals, and financial distress have taken many from places they once occupied. But we can thank God that in the changes time has wrought, the membership of the church has constantly increased and new men have been raised up as occasion demanded. What the church needs to-day, as at all times, is faith in God, zeal for His cause and an enlarged hopefulness. This will bring, as in the past, a rich harvest of precious souls.

The church has had, during the forty-three years of its history, nine Pastors, whose aggregate pastorates cover thirty-four years of its existence. The remainder of the time it has been vacant or has had a stated supply. It has had during the same period twenty-one ruling Elders and twenty-six Deacons. The following is a list of Pastors, with the time of their installation and dissolution of their pastoral relation.

standing by the fire. The excessive heat of that fire, has caused the bricks on outside walls to peel, giving the appearance of age. The other mark of age, is the inadequate space for Sabbath School, and in not having accommodations for social features of church work, which have become so necessary a feature within the past decade. Beautiful plans have been drawn for such improvements as are needed, which if made will make our church the most beautiful as well as best arranged church in the city.

INCORPORATED.

On the 8th of March 1856, the Church organization was, by act of Legislature, made a corporate body, and three trustees chosen by the congregation, and their successors in office, were designated as the legal representatives of this body.

CHRISTIAN COURTESY.

It is deserving of note that our church has been the recipient of much courtesy from sister denominations and from the Masons of this city. During the time that elapsed between the sale of the property on Ninth Street and the building on Madison Avenue, the congregation was left without a meeting place. The following words were written in the Church Directory of 1887:

"The congregation, by invitation from our brethren of the First Baptist Church, made its home with them while the new building was being erected. Our relations with our Baptist brethren were, as you all know, full of Christian sympathy and fellowship, and to them our hearts still go out in grateful remembrance."

After destruction of the building by fire in 1856, the congregation was again the recipient of cordial invitations, from our Baptist brethren on Fourth Street, and many other of the Protestant Churches, to worship with them, until we could rebuild. It was decided best to have a separate place of worship, so these kind invitations were declined and another from the Masonic Fraternity was accepted, by which we were enabled to secure the use of the Masonic Temple on Madison Avenue, for which kindness we are the debtors of that charitable brotherhood.

STATISTICAL.

It is impossible in so brief a history to give any extended statement of our work as a church. Like many other churches mention should be made of the noble, self-sacrificing work the women of the church have always done. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the church was celebrated on February 8th, 1880. The pastor, Rev. Geo. Summey, took occasion to pay the following tribute to the work of the ladies: He said, "The spirit which moved the women who attended upon Christ's ministry to be active in ministering to Him, and which caused so many like Dorcas, Phoebe and Urbane to deserve the name 'Helpers in the Lord,' has ever been in this church, making its women minister to Christ's body—the Church."

This statement, eminently true when made, has been demonstrated pre-eminently, in the subsequent history of the Church; and amidst all the trials and disasters that have befallen the Church since the Pastor paid this just tribute to their faithfulness, a noble band of women, by its active agency, directly promoted every good work and indirectly, by its zeal and devotion, influenced, comforted and sustained the pastor, the officers and the people.
COMMUNION SERVICES.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered at the morning service, on the second Sabbath in March, June, September and December. Preparatory exercises in the Lecture Room, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday afternoon preceding the communion. Children will be presented for baptism at this Saturday afternoon service.

FROM THE COVENANT OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.

Upon being received into the Church, upon the profession of faith, members publicly assent to a solemn covenant, in the presence of the congregation. The following extracts are here inserted, that they may serve as reminders of the vows and promises and obligations voluntarily assumed and remaining binding upon the conscience:

"Relying on Divine grace, you promise a faithful and constant attendance upon all the ordinances of the gospel, as they are here administered. You promise fidelity in the duties of the closet, the family and the sanctuary, believing that communion with God in secret, household piety and the assembling ourselves together for social and public worship are enjoined in the Divine Word, and are essential to increasing holiness and the highest usefulness among men. You promise to walk worthy of Him who has called you to His kingdom and glory, to avoid conformity to the world, to fellowship with God's people in the blessings and bonds of the gospel, and to watch over them and pray for them in meekness and brotherly love, engaging in all things to promote the edification, purity and peace of this Church, and to submit to its discipline until you are regularly dismissed therefrom.

"Should you remove elsewhere, or prefer another communion, you acknowledge it to be your duty to ask, and we hold it to be our duty, ordinarily, to give, a letter recommending you to the care of some other church. Henceforth you can not habitually absent yourself from the house of God, and live in neglect of sealing ordinances, without a breach of this solemn covenant.

PLAN OF BENEVOLENCE.

This Church is supported by voluntary contribution. The Pastor's salary, and every expense incident to the maintenance of its worship, is derived from the free will offerings of the people. As no tax is levied upon any worshiper, so it is reasonably expected that every one will, according to that he hath, give of a willing mind. A subscription list is kept by the Deacons for the enrollment of such persons as are willing to pledge a given amount, to be paid monthly, quarterly, or as is most convenient to the one subscribing. The collection taken during the morning service is devoted, ordinarily, to the same general purpose, with the following exceptions, to-wit:

The collections taken up on the days on which the Lord's Supper is administered will be devoted to the poor.
Collections shall be taken up for the great causes of the Church in the order and time here indicated, viz:

Good Advice.

WM. GILDEHAUS,

Advises all to dress well. It makes a good impression. Good appearance and address have their advantages; they are indications of prosperity, something we are all talking about and want.

A WELL DRESSED MAN LOOKS PROSPEROUS; therefore order a Suit of Clothes from Wm. Gildehaus, 807 Madison Ave., and appear as such.

MAYUDA CREAM.

(A CHEMIST'S DISCOVERY OF GREAT MERIT.)

A substitute for, and greatly superior to, soap for cleansing the face. An invaluable healing antiseptic lotion. Contains no soap or any of the material which enter into its composition; free from poisonous and harsh ingredients; is grateful to the most delicate skin and is one of the best complexion beautifiers ever brought forth from the Chemist's Laboratory. It should be used by both sexes, from babyhood to old age; at all times and on all occasions, whenever it is required to wash the face.
