

COVINGTON, BOYLE

THE authorities looking on the home, would respect
the public, and try to be pleasant
and prepared to accommodate him with a talk. He has so often made such their attention as an

[illegible]

horses can be furnished with hay for their accommodation, and supplied with and grain of all kinds, on the most reasonable terms.

GEORGETOWN HOTEL
Corner of Main and Main-Cross Streets
GEORGETOWN, KY.

In public generally, that he has taken term of years, the large and convenient H situated on the corner of Main and Main Streets, Georgetown, Ky. He respectfully cite a share of public patronage, and pled
his readiness to give satisfaction in a

KENTUCKY CHAIR MANUFACTURERS
DAVID E. ACKER
Respectfully in for

friends and the public get
that he has established in the above business on the corner of Scott & Fifth
where he manufactures
tends to keep constantly a

a general assortment of
and Grecian Mahogany, Black Walnut
ed Maple CHAIRS, stained, painted, apmented Cane and Rush seats. Also assortment of Windsor Chairs, scollop-slat and grey Back SEATERS of all forms. ROCKING CHAIRS of every description which he will sell low for Cash—and he calls close attention to business, to merit a public patronage.

—All orders will be promptly attended to, and articles delivered at short notice. The N. B.—Chairs painted and repaired in the neatest manner, and on reasonable terms.

Covington, Sept. 15, 41.

NEW YORK HATS.
I HAVE received my New manufactured Hats
 men who have been waiting, and others prefering
 made as above, are invited

H. F. DAVIS
Corner of Main & Fifth streets
Sept. 29, 1892
BARLEY WANTED.
THE UNDERSIGNED will purchase

JOHN SYKES
Corner of Columbia & Byramore sts.
Sept. 22.

THE CULTIVATOR.
A CONSOLIDATION OF BURL'S CULTIVATOR AND GENESEE FARMER.)
A monthly periodical designed "to improve the soil of the Mind," and to "Elevate the Condition of the People."

W. GAYLORD and L. TUCKER, Editors.
Published at 211 West N. Y., by Luther Tucker, Proprietor.
TERMS—One Dollar per annum—Six Dollars for Five Dollars—20 per cent commission.

Twenty-five or more subscribers, 25 per cent.
One Hundred or more. All subscribers to commence with a volume.

☛ The papers can be furnished from commencement—Vols. 1, 2, 3, and 4 at 50 cents; and Vols. 5, 6, 7, and 8, at $1.00

THE publisher of the Cultivator has the pleasure of Presenting to the friends of Agriculture in the United States, the prospectus of a new volume (the 31st commencing January 1st) of that periodical. This paper is now well known in every part of the country, as to render population of its objects and contents, is unnecessary. The range and variety of titles—its list of contributors, (embracing most distinguished agriculturists in every part of the Union) unrivalled in numbers, a scientific and practical skill—the super-

its mechanical execution; and, the number, rich variety and superior be its illustrations, embracing in the last times about TWO HUNDRED ENGRA representing the improved breeds of HOLLAND, SWITZER, SWISS, BURGUNDY, JURA

&c. and on every subject connected with agriculture, have contributed far and near it with all classes interested in the cultivation of the soil, and given it a circulation hitherto known among the agricultural periodicals of the country amounting to about twenty

Grateful for the favorable consideration work has received, and the extensive praise awarded, the publisher would state that no expense will be spared to give new and interesting to the volume for 1913.

ded to devote a large portion of the week (one page monthly) to the subjects of sex and the narcotic; and to enlarge the funds devoted to CONSUMERS AND RURAL and to the SUBJECTS OF ANIMALS, so as to make them as profitable to all those citizens. To accomplish this, such arrangements have been made as will place within the hands of all European periodicals and publications, at least in agricultural and veterinary matters, they will be made available in such a manner as to render the Cultivator accessible to all.

the patronage it has received, and when all things considered, the cheapest and best Rural Paper published in this country.

the standing and character of the cultivation of the American soil," are respectfully invited to use their influence in promoting its cultivation by acting as Agents in their respective States.

CASH will be paid for Ginseng, Beech
Standard Seed, at

Del. 13 WILLIAMSON Drug alone, Covington

