

COVINGTON, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1949

[illegible][illegible]

Without going into a description of the Pick-up party, at which Hansen was induced to give in his oriental costume, while Elm Pick-biology quite as confused, which were not all made up of marrow for the loss of her sister—making the matter will be at the throat of spec-

Mr. Griffin then bent across the back of the car, joined their hands and went through the country, ring and all. The ladies came up.

The History of Mathematics and Philosophy

FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor of the Washington Post, dated July 2, 1864.

It is with much interest that we have read the account of the late General Sherman's visit to the city of Washington, and the impression which it has produced upon the public mind. The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor of the Washington Post, dated July 2, 1864.

It is with much interest that we have read the account of the late General Sherman's visit to the city of Washington, and the impression which it has produced upon the public mind. The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor of the Washington Post, dated July 2, 1864.

It is with much interest that we have read the account of the late General Sherman's visit to the city of Washington, and the impression which it has produced upon the public mind. The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor of the Washington Post, dated July 2, 1864.

It is with much interest that we have read the account of the late General Sherman's visit to the city of Washington, and the impression which it has produced upon the public mind. The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor of the Washington Post, dated July 2, 1864.

It is with much interest that we have read the account of the late General Sherman's visit to the city of Washington, and the impression which it has produced upon the public mind. The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

FROM THE EDITOR

From the Editor of the Washington Post, dated July 2, 1864.

It is with much interest that we have read the account of the late General Sherman's visit to the city of Washington, and the impression which it has produced upon the public mind. The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

The General's visit was a most successful one, and it is to be hoped that it will result in a more complete understanding of the military situation of the country.

Advertisements and other notices.

[illegible]