

DEMOCRATS DISAPPOINTED.

Washington Daily Register.
Our readers know, she has studied an array of resolution and foresight must have selected.

With a decided majority of Democrats we have started a Whig government... with our Whig Senator in all the important committees of the coming session... Among the number will be an act to distract the State, under the late law of Congress... A law resorted to for the purpose of securing a Whig ascendancy, but which was never before thought necessary or proper since the organization of our Government.
It is the first time that Congress has interfered with State elections—but such a Congress, has never met before in our Government, and if they ever adjourn, let us hope and pray that such no one may never meet again. Mr. Finley perhaps as reasonable as any of my party, but will, no doubt, confirm the old adage, "Birds of a feather flock together," and our Democratic district will be disgraced as a Whig misrepresentation. Congress, until our principles are expressed and restored to the good old republican principles of 30 years ago. But it is the foolish course of a leader in power, not confidence there, that will lead him to be converted though one should rise from the dead. Nearly all the other States in the Union have opened their eyes, but Kentucky is joined to her hide the worship of Bless and Clay, which Nebraska and the Banks have done.

On the subject of present relief, Mr. Finley will permit. This is more than I can say concerning the mode of the elastic materials rec-ular to the leaders of his party. He thinks should look to Congress or the Banks for relief, and that the world at large must be regulated before we can stop a Constable from selling a poor woman's bed for three bits. Yet, with all his expanded and magnificent views, I fear that Mr.
F. will trifle to that overwhelming Dark influence, which has governed the high minded people of Kentucky for so many years. Still let us hope for the best, and if Mr. Finley should prove an exception to the confirmed falsehoods of Whig policy he will give all the credit he deserves.

The Democrats of Kenton County have been faithfully warned on these subjects, but without effect; they were bent on division and defeat, and must take the consequences. Shall we now learn wisdom by experience; or shall we suffer ourselves to be again foisted by the arrogant pretensions of incompetent men? Shall our most intelligent and respectable democrats be obliged to vote for an adversary, or not sole all rather than feel themselves disgraced by ignorance and presumption?

It is the very apopall all the world over that our men are not qualified for self-government. On the 1st of August, 1840, when we saw late election, it might seem possible that such was the fact; and so long as we are galled by stamp orators, who have generally more asturance than principle, we shall continue to be the dupes of our own folly. Men of real worth and self-respect, will not degrade themselves for the honor of serving us.

Mr. R. C. Lanierow, Sir:—I send you a letter written by Senator Allen of Ohio, in which they jameos truth with poetry. His statements are stubborn facts, and if such be the case, how can an honest man support a cause so reckless, extravagant and 可笑? Surely the mere spirit of party, will not justify a patriot in assisting his consciousness and his country for a name.

W. W.

Washington City, 23d July, 1841.

My Dear Sir:—Your obliging letter of the 8th instant, came to me several days since, and would have been immediately answered, but for the pressure of business with which I could not dispense.

I would gratify, I assure you, were it in my power to attend, as you invite me, the Young Men's State Convention on the 28th instant. I should be gratified for other reasons, but especially so, that I might be able to take once more by the hand, hundreds of the noble spirits whom it has been my pride to call personal, as well as political friends; and with many of whom I became first acquainted, when, (inviting the State to offer my aid in the contest) '35, and in whose terrible struggle of '40. But the madness of the dominant majority, seems likely to make the meeting of Congress as long, as it has already made it's value; and I have, therefore, no prospect of being present in person—in soul and sentiment, however, I shall be with the Democracy then, and always whilst I have reason enough left to appreciate the value of freedom.

When the Convention meets, it will find the National Government, for the first time, brought down by its own acts; in sixteen months of prolonged peace, to a point of distress as low and as humiliating, as could well have resulted from the most protracted and disastrous war.
This great calamity is the first-born offspring of Federalism, since it assumed the name of Whig party, and embodied its principles; and its particulars.

For many years prior to 1840, the leaders of that party had been busy collecting into a common focus, all the disused elements of society.
In that year, they found the public mind fitful and restless. They found thousands discontent, whom the reaction of their own system of currency and credit had ruined. They found bankruptcy, indolence, avarice, rapacity, impudence, venality, prodigality, cupidity, and greed, all standing ready to leaven with ambition for the power and plunder of the country.— The league was formed, and every feeling of the human heart, that lay within the reach of terror or corruption, was then stimulated—into revolt against the Democratic party. The prices of all things were suddenly reduced, because the politi-cals had prompted the banks thus to aggravate the public distress, by the reduction of their discount and circulation.—The people were openly loaded with contempt, by the brutality of the agents of their masters. Fraud and folly; the most criminal and ridiculous, were employed to distract their attention, bewilder their minds, and mislead their virtue. To effect their imaginations, over things from the gorgeous ensign of the magnificence, with its stars and stripes streaming from its halberds, down to the skin of the most fearful beasts, was displayed to the popular eye. Glitter and cushion, banners and trophies, arms and banners, banquois and music, revelry and feasting, the grandest and the boldest, impreg-nant, blustering, boldness and belligerence; all things that could minister to confusion, were made to abuse in the general air. Reason was silenced in the fibrous, and truth, for once, in our country, regarded its empire to falsehood, fraud and fertility. If these leaders condescended for a moment to speak seriously to the people, it was but to denounce things as abuses which did not exist, and to make the pledges of reform they never intended to fulfil. They deplored the want of money, they had themselves occasioned, and professed abundance in their accession to power.

They condemned removal from office for the sake of spinster, and invoked Heaven to witness that their practices should cease. They promised the unfortunate a reparation of his fortunes—the laborer an increase of his wages—the farmer an addition to his price—the hopeless of every description the gratification of being soon surprised in their dependency, by the timely bounty of Government, to be distributed among them.— To the nation at large they promised opulence and contentment, the restoration of law and order, the healing of all wounds—the restitution of right—the reparation of all wrongs—the cure of all ill—the remedy of all disorders—the obsurance of all obligations—the reduction of all burdens—economy in all things—security, plentiful, and happiness to all men. Thus was exercised every passion of our nature, to its extremest limit, by the means which the joint energies of ambition and rapacity would employ. Thus was the public heart torn, and lacerated—the public mind stung and gashed—and there was an “unrest” conducted by man, and overthrown by the most stupendous conspiracy that was ever plotted against the liberties of a nation.

What has been the result?

On the 4th of March, 1841, the whole power of the country changed hands. Mr. Van Buren and his friends retired without a murmur, and gave place to Gen. Harrison and his. The event of the contest had not months been known, and from that momental procription for opinion, ceased to be a crime. Throughout the land our wild and universal cry was heard for the blood and decadence of the Democrats in office. Before had left the banks of the Ohio, the President elect was by intruders without a murmur, and im-portunities beyond the power of gratification.—

On his arrival in the Capital, he found it already besieged by thousands who had trooped together from all parts of the Union, to demand of him the spoils of a conquered country. There was an impotent fury in their looks, like that of a carnal sonider, whom restrained for a moment from his plunder and of a subjugated nation. They were bold, but treacherous, and boldly uttered the words of their master, “We will not give him the command of the army.”

These men came into power, as we were told, upon the holy mission of guarding the sanctity of the constitution, the law, and all human obligation.— So picus was their reverence for the observance of contracts, that some of their number were willing that this government, though pensiless itself and plunging in debt, should assume the debts of the States, rather than witness their repudiation. Nevertheless, these very same men are the closest and the anointed guardians of all the laws sacred by one general act, with the name of bankruptcy for its caption, repudiated the debts of the larger debtors throughout the entire nation. By his single catch, they allowed the interested party, if his debts were large and his means considerable, to cancel his bonds, and thus to ruin the friend or the neighbor, who a creditor or security, had confided in his honor. I say, if the debts were large, because in small, and the debtors pose the expense of the process makes the law unavailable, and, therefore, nullity, to him.
To execute the act, the Federal Judiciary possesses the holy prerogative, usurps the royal judi-cition of the local courts, debts and spurns the sovereignty of the States. But no matter for that—the greater bankrupts, the magnificient millions of paper system, were brought to a standstill by the federal millon loan as a beginning; but, on the contrary, they proceeded immediately to add further millions to that—the last being intended as the basement stock of the Fiscal year, in an amount far exceeding the sum of all the existing bank more hideous, infinitely in all its features, was the former institution, whose corruption, decay and dissolution have appalled the world—doomed to penury no man family and impaired so much impunity to the social and political morals of the country.

Nature never abandons men absolutely to their own indiscretions; for even in the gross confusion of public affairs, she often interposes her silent authority to check the domineering power in a state, whenever it threatens to inflict a degree of misery she never intended mankind should experience. The evil sprouts the worm, and the worm the evil. Yet this clause, which is the essence of an avarice, seeking to gratify itself in the gambling of speculation, and then wasting, in splendid profusion, all that the fortune of the nation had yielded, was inserted by the federalists, that their debts should be treated as gambling obligations and spurned by the law and an oath. And this pledge alone, of the many made, has federalism faithfully fulfilled.

Economy, it is to be remembered, had been promised as a policy proper, in itself and especially in the then necessitous state of the treasury.

And yet by this very convention of congress at a time not appointed by the law, three hundred and ninety-one thousand dollars were wasted in the Senate, and whilst he was yet descending the eastern portico of the Capital, his friends in the Senate admonished him of the haste he was expected to follow; and from that day to the day of his final affliction, whether in his mansion or in his walk, in public or in private, under all circumstances, and at all times, the office-seekers still clattered around him. It was not the plea of his infirmities, or that of his attendants, nor was it, the lifting of his thin withered hand with a gesture to retire, that could remove the dense mass who pursued and impeded him. In spite of all these, they had still thicker hours, until at last, like horns they stung him to death. Now, the power to waste, to abuse, and the solemn condition of an expiring man, sufficient to silence their clamor or stay for a moment the removal of his subordinates were making in his name. For, upon the authority of that name, though insensible himself, and sinking to the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor resolution, which is now performed, had then greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above the humility of asking such favors, from any quarter, whatever. Still the money was requested from the treasury as if there were nothing to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her,
or necessarily found in her particular circumstances. So far from any such necessity then existing or likely to exist, it was a fact well known
and declared of the time, that the private fortunes
of that respectable lady placed her above
the humility of asking such favors, from any
quarter, whatever. Still the money was re-
quested from the treasury as if there were nothing
to the name, though insensible himself, and sinking to
the grave, the mere credit of his counsellor
resolution, which is now performed, had then
greatly advanced, as was visible in the popular
opinion, upon the widen of the late

President, and this, without any request from her, or

