Poetical.

The Bible.
The Lamb.
The Lambeth.
The Lamb of God and people.
That's ever in my heart about.

Then all the glories.

May were the seas a chalybeate,
and diamonds.

This book were worth them all.

How sweet in anguish's eye.

His blood-wreath spangled stream.

With him a rapture, dream.

Then bear him his grieving heart.

For one more moment crave,

Ask of thy god to save.

For me? the soul I found water.

For me? the soul I found water.

God cannot perceive health;

But here's blessed health appears.

To bear him his grieving heart.

Then bear him his grieving heart.

For one more moment crave,

Ask of thy god to save.

For me? the soul I found water.

For me? the soul I found water.

God cannot perceive health;

But here's blessed health appears.

To bear him his grieving heart.
