

COVINGTON, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1843. N

NUMBER 9.

that his father having as, he must of course joined the regiment, "regiment." He allowed a small sum voluntarily remitted to his discharge, valued at $400, and their mutual and a rule for a suband minimal to a sub-

[illegible]

a certain prediction of all matters in: 2 y.

It states the mind and spirit. It reveals the and shows the way to other Gods, and shows all that trust in them will, to show right and left, that condemn all was; a book of truth, and a book of error;
 and the way from error to compensation; the most authentic, and the most every was published, of all antiquities, of all sciences, heroic deeds, and of the celestial history and the origin of man; tribes, and devilish the most accomplished and artist. It will and the most every mathematician—purple philosopher, and con-

[illegible]

displays the riches of India and proclaims the infinite

It discloses to us
— It reveals all of the Father, the of the gracious son-— Jesus Jesus Christ by — nation; and sets forth — justification by his — given by his Spirit; it — which relate to God's and glory, to man's de— and it is the own in-— crown all, is that the — without hypocri-— tishness, or shadow
— speech.

is recently made by a — student: "There is no
— never did, nor ever — could defeat it." The last — words are poor little, gra— tuitous, and shallow dis— tinguished though death work every day. I have ed it in as well

...notes supposed to
...Beak, have been
...Mr. Larnard, who had
...bill.

[illegible]

