LICKING VALLEY REGISTER.
COVINGTON, KY.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1844.

General Election.

FOR GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM OWLESLEY
OF FRANCIS.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
ARTHUR DIXON, OF FRANCIS.

Dear Sir, T. Neumann has our best thanks for many kind words he has written to us.

Our Consul is doing a brisk business in wind work, and has little good for the nations' ships of minor import than those of thinnest gauge paper.

The Indiana Representative is Comgratious and good, and his speech was well received.

He said, "We are in the grand task, making all, $27,000,000 worth the money of the deceased Judge Hedges."

What a malignant spirit runs through the veins of this party!

It is true, there are a great many faults in Cincinnati—many springing up, and lying down—but in Covington we are the most perfect, and the best and the fairest, and the most upright and the most benevolent.

We have had a great deal of trouble

in getting up this paper,

but we have it well, I trust, at a short time.
