

LICKING VALLEY REGISTER.

RICHARD C. LANGDON, EDITOR.

COVINGTON.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, HENRY CLAY, OF Kentucky, VICE PRESIDENT, THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN, Of New York.

WHIG ELECTORS FOR KENTUCKY. State at large. BENJ. HARDIN, of Nelson, J. R. UNDERWOOD, of Warren, 1st dist. ROBT. A. PATTERSON, of Caldwell, 2d dist. PHILIP THURPEY, of Davies, 3d dist. B. MILLS CRESSWELL, of Barren, 4th dist. JOHN KINCAID, of Lincoln, 5th dist. W. R. GRISSON, of Nelson, 6th dist. GREEN ADAMS, of Noos, 7th dist. WM. J. GRAVES, of Louisville, 8th dist. LESLIE COMBS, of Fayette, 9th dist. L. W. ANDREWS, of Fleming, 10th dist. W. W. SOUTHGATE, of Kenton.

PRINCIPLES OF THE WHIG PARTY. 1. A sound National Currency, regulated by the will and authority of the Nation. 2. An adequate revenue, with fair protection to American industry. 3. Just restraints on the Executive Power, embracing further restrictions on the exercise of the Veto. 4. A faithful administration of the Public Domain, with an equitable distribution of the proceeds of the sales of it among the States. 5. An honest and economical administration of the General Government, placing public officers perfect freedom of thought, and of the right of suffrage, but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections. 6. An amendment of the Constitution limiting the incumbent of the Presidential office to a single term.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The "Democratic Barbecue—immense rally—10,000 Democrats expected to be present," came off on Wednesday last, pretty much after the mode of a great cry and little deed.

Barbecue. Boon. The Whigs of Boone intend giving a Barbecue in the neighborhood of Burlington, on the 30th inst. We understand the Whig spirit is alive in that county, and great numbers will no doubt attend. Let us all go and break bread with our brother Whigs of old Boone.

Truth is Omnipotent and Public Justice Certain. There is a sense of justice in the people that will come to the rescue of the vilified and slandered. Whence it is made to appear that when a public man has been basely slandered for base purposes, the people will avenge his wrongs.

James G. Birney for Polk. We have assurance from two living witnesses that the following statement from the Buffalo Commercial is correct. Birney has just come out with a letter to the people, in which he has taken up the question of a Federal Tariff, and in general opposition to Whig doctrines and measures. He has been nominated for the Legislature of Michigan by the Loco-Focos of his County. We presume he will pretend to decline the nomination, but it is all an unmeaning pretence, and he will not be deterred without an understanding, and a clear stipulation of reciprocal service? We cannot—N. Y. Tribune.

Coalition of James G. Birney with the Polk Party. The evidence of a corrupt juggle between James G. Birney, Abolition candidate for President, and the Polk Party, comes to the public daily. The Detroit Daily Advertiser of the 4th says: THE COALITION COMPLETED.—We are not surprised to learn that the Loco-Focos of Saginaw have nominated James G. Birney, the Abolition candidate for President, as the Loco-Foco candidate for Representative in the State Legislature. He received the nomination on Saturday last, after starting the rumor that he had previously been consulted, and acquiesced; so he himself related to a gentleman of Saginaw before leaving home. The Loco-Focos have exhibited a just sense of Mr. Birney's services to their cause during the past year. No man has labored so hard, or so faithfully, to secure the electoral vote of Michigan for Polk. It was right therefore, that he should receive from them this mark of their confidence and gratitude. His present mission to the East, we have also good reason to believe, has been undertaken at the instance of leading Loco-Focos as well as Abolitionists of New York, though cloaked under the pretence of a visit to one of his children in Connecticut. His conference with Gen. Haswell at Flint, if divulged, would doubtless disclose that fact. Leading Loco-Focos in this city have at any rate openly exulted over his New York mission at this crisis. We did not need this additional evidence of Mr. Birney's sympathies with Loco-Focism in the presidential struggle; but others did, and their eyes will now be opened. Whig Abolitionists will not, we predict, consent to be made Mr. Birney's stepsons in such a game for the exclusive benefit of the Loco-Foco party, when they come to see this conclusive proof of his position. They will not follow their Presidential candidate into the camp of Loco-Focism. A correspondent of the same paper adds: The Loco-Focos of Saginaw held their convention on Saturday, and strange to tell, James G. Birney received the nomination to represent Saginaw county in the State Legislature. Will the Liberty men now doubt that he is working into the hands of the Loco-Focos? They can say he had no agency in the matter on account of his being absent, for I have it in my power to prove that he was consulted before he left, and was pleased with the idea. Connect the fact that Mr. Birney has received a nomination from the Loco-Focos with the fact of his first marriage into the Marshall family, and a person of ordinary capacity can account for his ingratitude to Henry Clay. Yours &c. A. P. DAVIS. Flint, Sept. 30th 1844.

Georgia. We are at length informed of the result of the election in all the Congressional districts in Georgia. The second district has given a small Loco-foco majority, diminished as compared with last year's vote. The delegation from this state in our next Congress will therefore embrace four members of each party, being a Whig gain of two. Their names are as follows: Locos. Thomas Butler King, Stephen Jones, Washington Poe, H. A. Haralson, Alexander H. Stephens, John H. Lumpkin, Robert Tombr. Whigs. James G. Birney, John H. Lumpkin, Robert Tombr.

est administration. They cannot make his political principles unpopular, unless perchance it may be done by rendering him personally unpopular. Here is their last chance for plunder—Hence these slanders and venomous personal attacks. They have been made, reiterated and vociferated; and they have all been refuted—completely disproved. Public justice will sustain Henry Clay, and as certainly as the people's judgment is pronounced, will his revilers be rebuked, and be triumphantly vindicated.

Abolitionism and Loco-focism—A Coalition. James G. Birney is intriguing to secure the election of Polk. What are the "leaders" in the South to do now? It was, a short time ago, the bitterest reproach they could make upon the Whig party to charge it with affiliation with the abolitionists. But the following extracts from the N. Y. Tribune will conclusively show that Mr. Birney has made a bargain with the Polkites. He admits the impossibility of his election, and consents to become a Loco-foco candidate for the County of Saginaw, in Michigan; at least consents to be nominated. He takes a trip to the North, on the way expressing his preference for Polk over Clay. His bargain, no doubt, binds him to exert himself in the North to transfer the abolitionists to Polk. Now what is to become of the hypocritical Southern cry, of Whig amity with abolitionists? The great man of the abolitionists is certainly in the Polk interest, and looked to as an auxiliary. Birney is right. He knows more sense than all the Southern Locos. He knows that their silly free trade doctrine is just the thing to bring about the object of political abolitionists. Free trade, "low wages," and abolition, are kindred spirits; and as the latter is Birney's paramount object, it is wise in him to consider the first. Let the people of the South consider well their true interests; and they will see that Henry Clay ought not to be distrusted by the South, because he is the friend of the whole Union; because his enlarged patriotism desires the welfare of the North as well as the South; because he is a national man.

Letter from James G. Birney. New-York, Oct. 8 1844. To the Editor of the Tribune. Your paper of this morning contains a statement which I wish to correct. It is that on my passage from Detroit to Buffalo, I did not feel free to give my preference for Mr. Polk and his Lie Locos party generally. On the contrary, I gave no opinion on the general policy of the Democratic party: Nor did I speak of any preference that I had, as between Mr. Clay and Mr. Polk; but I spoke of them both, as I always have done, as utterly objectionable. In remarking on the danger of an annexation to the West, I said, "I should Mr. Polk be elected, but a good deal should Mr. Clay be elected. I placed my fears on the ground that Mr. Clay, as well as Mr. Polk, would be a successful annexationist, and that he could not, would not, and would not be content with Mr. Polk's incompetency to lead his country. I considered Mr. Clay as the ablest as well as the boldest, party tactician we have; whilst Mr. Polk had shown no extraordinary skill and had comparatively little experience in party management. If I had been nominated for the Legislature of Michigan by the Democrats of the county, I would have declined it. My election to the Liberty party and my uncompromising opposition to the annexation of Texas, I well understood there are elsewhere. If I had been nominated by any portion of my countrymen, it has been neither as a Democrat nor as a Whig. But as I have received no official or authoritative notification of such nomination, it would be premature in me now to take any further notice of it. Respectfully &c. JAMES G. BIRNEY.

Whig Electors for Kentucky. State at large. BENJ. HARDIN, of Nelson, J. R. UNDERWOOD, of Warren, 1st dist. ROBT. A. PATTERSON, of Caldwell, 2d dist. PHILIP THURPEY, of Davies, 3d dist. B. MILLS CRESSWELL, of Barren, 4th dist. JOHN KINCAID, of Lincoln, 5th dist. W. R. GRISSON, of Nelson, 6th dist. GREEN ADAMS, of Noos, 7th dist. WM. J. GRAVES, of Louisville, 8th dist. LESLIE COMBS, of Fayette, 9th dist. L. W. ANDREWS, of Fleming, 10th dist. W. W. SOUTHGATE, of Kenton.

Barbecue. Boon. The Whigs of Boone intend giving a Barbecue in the neighborhood of Burlington, on the 30th inst. We understand the Whig spirit is alive in that county, and great numbers will no doubt attend. Let us all go and break bread with our brother Whigs of old Boone.

Truth is Omnipotent and Public Justice Certain. There is a sense of justice in the people that will come to the rescue of the vilified and slandered. Whence it is made to appear that when a public man has been basely slandered for base purposes, the people will avenge his wrongs.

James G. Birney for Polk. We have assurance from two living witnesses that the following statement from the Buffalo Commercial is correct. Birney has just come out with a letter to the people, in which he has taken up the question of a Federal Tariff, and in general opposition to Whig doctrines and measures. He has been nominated for the Legislature of Michigan by the Loco-Focos of his County. We presume he will pretend to decline the nomination, but it is all an unmeaning pretence, and he will not be deterred without an understanding, and a clear stipulation of reciprocal service? We cannot—N. Y. Tribune.

Georgia. We are at length informed of the result of the election in all the Congressional districts in Georgia. The second district has given a small Loco-foco majority, diminished as compared with last year's vote. The delegation from this state in our next Congress will therefore embrace four members of each party, being a Whig gain of two. Their names are as follows: Locos. Thomas Butler King, Stephen Jones, Washington Poe, H. A. Haralson, Alexander H. Stephens, John H. Lumpkin, Robert Tombr. Whigs. James G. Birney, John H. Lumpkin, Robert Tombr.

not the honest yeomanry of the land, but young sprouts of locofocism, and gin shop loafers. Most loudly he abused the Whigs and their candidate, at the same time eulogizing Polk and Texas even to the skies, and at last concluded by telling his listeners, who seemed to swallow every word as if it was 'sweet as honey,' that the whigs were not opposed to Mr. Polk, but to the people (great cheering); that they wanted to get all the power into their hands so as to keep the people down, and to prevent them from assuming any of those rights and privileges reserved only for the rich and well born. (Tremendous cheering.) The crowd seemed delighted that their orator had made so happy a hit; sundry shouts are heard, and remarks of good! good! good!!! The noises cease, and the orator goes on; but it is unnecessary for me to follow him in his tirade, suffice it to say that I know this gentleman, and know him to be a proud, intelligent man, with more aristocratic ways and notions than any other man in his county; and had been addressing an intelligent audience he would not have made the speech he did, but he knew who he was addressing—an assembly of ranting locos, who would not have dared question any assertion he might have made, no matter how far it might have been from the truth. Some parts of his speech were very flattering to his audience. In fact, he "poked so much soft soder" at them, as Sam Slick says, that I could, in imagination, see them swelling with their own vain importance, hailing down the "vile Whigs," and striding about them with all the majesty of the ass decked out in a lion's skin. I merely give this sketch of what I heard to show that the ignorant have been gulled and deceived by cunning men.

Now the democracy of the locos exists only in the name. This every man knows, who knows any thing at all about democracy, for he can see that every measure of the party, while it swayed the balance of power, had a tendency to injure and degrade the laboring and poorer classes of community. Let us look back, for instance, among a number of others, at the sub-treasury and standing army bill—the acts of the sage of Kentwood, the darlings of locofocism; for in the present we must not forget the past, for by the past we must judge the future. These two "monstrous" gave all power to one man, the purse and the sword, to be yielded over a free and enlightened people; the one tending most sensibly to reduce the wages of the laborer to the European standard, the other to injure and degrade him still more by dragging him from his home and family twice a year for thirty days at a time or more, to a distant part of the country, to do military duty, while his little ones at home, dependent upon his daily labor for support, might cry for bread. And further: if the poor man had not means to furnish himself with arms, he was to be fined, and if not able to pay said fine to be cast in prison, there to remain for so many months, according to the amount of his fine. And this is democracy! And this is the object of free democratic institutions, to oppress the poor and pamper the rich! God forbid it.

Now are we not to believe that a party that would at one time endeavor to inflict such evils upon a community, should they hereafter hold sway amongst us, would originate others equally as revolutionary and disorganizing? Most undoubtedly; and all under the name of that fascinating word democracy. But it is denied by men of the first intelligence, men who have the interests of their country warmly at heart, that this is democracy. They say it is the object of all democratic institutions to alleviate and elevate the poorer classes by allowing and placing in their way all the facilities for acquiring wealth and obtaining a respectable rank in society. This is the democracy in which the Whigs believe, and which they call on all good republicans to aid in establishing and supporting in America, be it the land of their birth or adoption. MOHAWK.

Ducks Patent Cooking Stove. The subscribers have now on hand an assortment of the above celebrated COOKING STOVES, and feel confident they can supply persons wishing to purchase Cooking Stoves, at Wholesale or Retail, with the most perfect article in the Western country. It possesses all the advantages of any other STOVE now in use, with at least one third more oven, which is heated with perfect uniformity, in every part. There are no flues in the oven so constructed, as to carry off the steam arising from the cooking of various kinds of meats, into the pipe, thereby preventing the mixture of flavors. The economy and convenience and dispatch in all the operations of cooking, render the STOVE decidedly more preferable to any other ever offered to the public. For the operation of this Stove, we respectfully refer you to the following persons having it in use: J. K. McKele, Louis Kouckoph, Philip Houck, J. C. Norris, E. Woodruff, Dr. Richards, D. B. Lupton, W. W. Woodruff, R. McCreary, J. D. Carpenter, J. M. Harris, John Sharp, J. Decamp, John Kuyler, Dr. Adrelette, Dr. Woodward, Thos T. Whitehead, M. Moore, B. P. Danagh, Dr. Curtis, Charles Fisher, Wm. Goldsmith, J. H. Collins, John Johnson, J. G. Anthony, Abraham Palmer, A. Veerhey & Young, Robert H. Mordach, David T. Dancy, J. C. Grinstead, C. Oppenheimer, M. Geachin, Sullivan & Scott, J. F. Mayhew, Joseph Goodhue, J. H. Merrivether, Wm. Poyser, John Owen, Dr. J. A. Lon, Joseph Lewis, A. Rubin, Alphonzo Taft, John T. Brooke, Nelson Norris, David Swann, Charles W. Gregory, Charles J. Mose, John Sharp, A. Cutler, Francis Whittier, J. C. Grinstead, J. Kendall, J. W. Taylor, J. W. Madira, W. T. Jones, J. F. MacIntosh, J. F. Sanford, Jacob Snyder, W. W. Wilson.

Locofoco Democracy. In what consists the democracy of the locos? This is a question often proposed, and very prettily answered by the self-styled democrats. 'Tis a question they seem to delight in, and one upon which the meanness of them can hold forth for any length of time; and the contrast which they so beautifully draw between their principles and opinions and those of the proud aristocratic Whigs, is sufficient to extract a smile from the most misanthropic listener. It was but the other day I heard a speech made by one of these professors of locofoco democracy; and I was at times both amused and disgusted; for it was a medley of the "slang bang" of the day, interspersed with numerous witty similes, suitings, though, exactly the mass of those he was addressing—the vulgar—er, in dialect, the most ignorant class of the communi-

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, &c. Many of our subscribers have expressed a wish to pay their subscriptions in the above named articles. They can do so if they will apply to us soon. We will give the market price for Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Chickens, Butter, Eggs, &c. MARRIED.—On Tuesday morning last, by Rev. Richard Doring, Jr., Mr. WILLIAM C. RICHARDSON, of Cincinnati, and Miss SUSAN J. STEELE, of this City. Mr. J. H. STEELE, of Cincinnati, and Miss SUSAN J. STEELE, of this City.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

not the honest yeomanry of the land, but young sprouts of locofocism, and gin shop loafers. Most loudly he abused the Whigs and their candidate, at the same time eulogizing Polk and Texas even to the skies, and at last concluded by telling his listeners, who seemed to swallow every word as if it was 'sweet as honey,' that the whigs were not opposed to Mr. Polk, but to the people (great cheering); that they wanted to get all the power into their hands so as to keep the people down, and to prevent them from assuming any of those rights and privileges reserved only for the rich and well born. (Tremendous cheering.) The crowd seemed delighted that their orator had made so happy a hit; sundry shouts are heard, and remarks of good! good! good!!! The noises cease, and the orator goes on; but it is unnecessary for me to follow him in his tirade, suffice it to say that I know this gentleman, and know him to be a proud, intelligent man, with more aristocratic ways and notions than any other man in his county; and had been addressing an intelligent audience he would not have made the speech he did, but he knew who he was addressing—an assembly of ranting locos, who would not have dared question any assertion he might have made, no matter how far it might have been from the truth. Some parts of his speech were very flattering to his audience. In fact, he "poked so much soft soder" at them, as Sam Slick says, that I could, in imagination, see them swelling with their own vain importance, hailing down the "vile Whigs," and striding about them with all the majesty of the ass decked out in a lion's skin. I merely give this sketch of what I heard to show that the ignorant have been gulled and deceived by cunning men.

Now the democracy of the locos exists only in the name. This every man knows, who knows any thing at all about democracy, for he can see that every measure of the party, while it swayed the balance of power, had a tendency to injure and degrade the laboring and poorer classes of community. Let us look back, for instance, among a number of others, at the sub-treasury and standing army bill—the acts of the sage of Kentwood, the darlings of locofocism; for in the present we must not forget the past, for by the past we must judge the future. These two "monstrous" gave all power to one man, the purse and the sword, to be yielded over a free and enlightened people; the one tending most sensibly to reduce the wages of the laborer to the European standard, the other to injure and degrade him still more by dragging him from his home and family twice a year for thirty days at a time or more, to a distant part of the country, to do military duty, while his little ones at home, dependent upon his daily labor for support, might cry for bread. And further: if the poor man had not means to furnish himself with arms, he was to be fined, and if not able to pay said fine to be cast in prison, there to remain for so many months, according to the amount of his fine. And this is democracy! And this is the object of free democratic institutions, to oppress the poor and pamper the rich! God forbid it.

Now are we not to believe that a party that would at one time endeavor to inflict such evils upon a community, should they hereafter hold sway amongst us, would originate others equally as revolutionary and disorganizing? Most undoubtedly; and all under the name of that fascinating word democracy. But it is denied by men of the first intelligence, men who have the interests of their country warmly at heart, that this is democracy. They say it is the object of all democratic institutions to alleviate and elevate the poorer classes by allowing and placing in their way all the facilities for acquiring wealth and obtaining a respectable rank in society. This is the democracy in which the Whigs believe, and which they call on all good republicans to aid in establishing and supporting in America, be it the land of their birth or adoption. MOHAWK.

Ducks Patent Cooking Stove. The subscribers have now on hand an assortment of the above celebrated COOKING STOVES, and feel confident they can supply persons wishing to purchase Cooking Stoves, at Wholesale or Retail, with the most perfect article in the Western country. It possesses all the advantages of any other STOVE now in use, with at least one third more oven, which is heated with perfect uniformity, in every part. There are no flues in the oven so constructed, as to carry off the steam arising from the cooking of various kinds of meats, into the pipe, thereby preventing the mixture of flavors. The economy and convenience and dispatch in all the operations of cooking, render the STOVE decidedly more preferable to any other ever offered to the public. For the operation of this Stove, we respectfully refer you to the following persons having it in use: J. K. McKele, Louis Kouckoph, Philip Houck, J. C. Norris, E. Woodruff, Dr. Richards, D. B. Lupton, W. W. Woodruff, R. McCreary, J. D. Carpenter, J. M. Harris, John Sharp, J. Decamp, John Kuyler, Dr. Adrelette, Dr. Woodward, Thos T. Whitehead, M. Moore, B. P. Danagh, Dr. Curtis, Charles Fisher, Wm. Goldsmith, J. H. Collins, John Johnson, J. G. Anthony, Abraham Palmer, A. Veerhey & Young, Robert H. Mordach, David T. Dancy, J. C. Grinstead, C. Oppenheimer, M. Geachin, Sullivan & Scott, J. F. Mayhew, Joseph Goodhue, J. H. Merrivether, Wm. Poyser, John Owen, Dr. J. A. Lon, Joseph Lewis, A. Rubin, Alphonzo Taft, John T. Brooke, Nelson Norris, David Swann, Charles W. Gregory, Charles J. Mose, John Sharp, A. Cutler, Francis Whittier, J. C. Grinstead, J. Kendall, J. W. Taylor, J. W. Madira, W. T. Jones, J. F. MacIntosh, J. F. Sanford, Jacob Snyder, W. W. Wilson.

Locofoco Democracy. In what consists the democracy of the locos? This is a question often proposed, and very prettily answered by the self-styled democrats. 'Tis a question they seem to delight in, and one upon which the meanness of them can hold forth for any length of time; and the contrast which they so beautifully draw between their principles and opinions and those of the proud aristocratic Whigs, is sufficient to extract a smile from the most misanthropic listener. It was but the other day I heard a speech made by one of these professors of locofoco democracy; and I was at times both amused and disgusted; for it was a medley of the "slang bang" of the day, interspersed with numerous witty similes, suitings, though, exactly the mass of those he was addressing—the vulgar—er, in dialect, the most ignorant class of the communi-

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, &c. Many of our subscribers have expressed a wish to pay their subscriptions in the above named articles. They can do so if they will apply to us soon. We will give the market price for Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Chickens, Butter, Eggs, &c. MARRIED.—On Tuesday morning last, by Rev. Richard Doring, Jr., Mr. WILLIAM C. RICHARDSON, of Cincinnati, and Miss SUSAN J. STEELE, of this City. Mr. J. H. STEELE, of Cincinnati, and Miss SUSAN J. STEELE, of this City.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

TERRIBLE GALE!!!

Great loss of Life and Destruction of Property!! Our city was visited last night by one of the most severe and destructive gales which was ever experienced here. The whole lower part of the city, extending into Suneca street, on the East side of Main street, presents one general scene of wreck and desolation, throughout the whole length of the city. The water was all of two feet higher than it has ever been known before. In addition to the immense loss of property we have to record still more melancholy results in the death of a large number of human beings. The wind commenced blowing about 11 o'clock last night, and continued until sunrise this morning, when it gradually subsided. The damage done to the shipping in the harbor is immense. Six children, drowned in the vicinity of Williams' boundary—names not ascertained. Also, five grown persons, and two or three children, and two children—little girls. Mrs. O'Brien and her child—a little girl about 3 years old. One lad, about 16 years old, name not known, was drowned while attempting to save the life of Mrs. Smith. The body of a man was brought in, which had evidently been some days in the water. The body of a little girl was found near the workshop of Mr. Sawin, near the foot of Eagle street. As near as we can learn, the number missing and not yet found is about 15—making the whole number lost or missing, 42. The bodies brought in are mostly foreigners, German and Irish, and were drowned from some tempest on the flats. Dead bodies are constantly arriving. The room is constantly crowded with persons in search of missing friends and relatives. Two servant girls were drowned in the cellars of Hull's Hotel. One of them was a Irish girl named Ellen Egan, who has no relations in this country. The other was an American girl named Catherine Reiding, whose parents reside at Collins, in this county. At 1 o'clock the bodies had not been recovered from the cellar. Two other girls were also asleep in the same part of the house, who barely escaped, by breaking through the windows. The bodies of the servant girls have since been recovered. An inquest was held on 23 bodies last evening, and was adjourned until to-morrow. Four others have since been recovered. The wind during the night, though greatly subsided, was still high, and there was a heavy sea rolling. It was chilling cold—the severest night we have had during the season. It will be impossible to-day, to give a list of the sufferers by this gale. All who are engaged in business on the dock have suffered more or less. Among those who are considered the wealthiest houses, however, we have heard mentioned the losses of Messrs. A. P. Yaw, Whitebridge & Hayden, Strong & White, and John Flewinger.

Heart-rending, Appalling Disaster. We record to-day an account of a terrific explosion of a steamboat boiler, on Wednesday night, below New Albany, by which 69 or 70 lives are supposed to be lost—also, the particulars of the loss by life and property at Buffalo, and of the loss of the lakes. A U. S. vessel, also, has been lost off our Southern coast.—Cin. Times of Oct. 23d.

Whig Meeting. Whig meeting to-night, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, &c. Many of our subscribers have expressed a wish to pay their subscriptions in the above named articles. They can do so if they will apply to us soon. We will give the market price for Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Chickens, Butter, Eggs, &c. MARRIED.—On Tuesday morning last, by Rev. Richard Doring, Jr., Mr. WILLIAM C. RICHARDSON, of Cincinnati, and Miss SUSAN J. STEELE, of this City. Mr. J. H. STEELE, of Cincinnati, and Miss SUSAN J. STEELE, of this City.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

JOHN W. MURRAY,

Barber, Hair-Dresser, etc., Late from Albany, N. Y. RESPECTFULLY announces to the citizens of Covington, that he has located himself in the house recently occupied as a Book Store and Bindery, next door above the printing office of the Register, in which place he gives a general invitation to all who stand in need of his professional skill, either in smoothing the chin, cutting and curling the hair, or cleaning the head of dandruff. From his experience in business he promises to give entire satisfaction. Oct. 19, 1844. no 13—t

Umbrellas. 20 CASES of the finest blue and black Co. Umbrellas, and made and finished in the best manner, for sale at the low price of 30 cents. For sale at N. L. COLE'S, Fifth st., 3 doors above Main, Cincinnati. Open till 8 o'clock in the evening. Oct. 19, 1844. 13 t.

CANES, CANISH CANES!!! LARGE and splendid lot of Walking Canes, Silver, Ivory and Gold mounted, and a lot of Sewal Canes of all descriptions. ALSO—Shiny Canes, with red Eagle, Lion and Dog Heads, and two or three other kind of cutlers—Wholesale and Retail. East Fifth st. near Main, Cincinnati. Oct. 19, 1844. 13 t. N. L. COLE.

Notice. THE undersigned will come over from Cincinnati, on or twice each week, to give lessons in GERMAN and FRENCH, on very reasonable terms. Ref. to Messrs. GARRA'S STOCKFELD. Covington, Oct. 13, 1844. 13 t.

W. H. MURPHY, has opened a very large and splendid assortment of LADIES DRESS GOODS, Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, HOUSE KEEPING ARTICLES, Fine Dress and Overcoat Cloths, Patterns, &c. &c. Tailors' Trimmings, Hats, &c. &c. WALKER & WINSTON, Madison street, one door above Sixth, are now receiving their Fall and Winter stock of DRY GOODS and GROCERIES. Also a general assortment of Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Queensware, &c. all of which they sell at the lowest prices. City and Country purchasers are requested to call and examine our stock before crossing the river, as we are satisfied we can offer them at a more liberal price than can be obtained in Cincinnati. N. L. COLE, Oct. 19, 1844. no 13 t.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to hand through this channel.

Whig meeting, at the Baptist Church, at half past six o'clock. Let every Whig in the City be at his post to-night. Whigs united—friends of our sacred Union—we want you all to be on hand to-night. Mr. Bane, of Georgetown, Ky., will address the meeting. CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS.—Letters are often addressed to us from Cincinnati, through the post-office, subjecting us to a considerable tax, postage money. We would thank our friends in the Queen City, to direct our letters to Covington, care of Box No. 313 Cincinnati. By this means we shall receive our letters free from postage. Don't fail to think of this. At communications advertisements, &c., will comply safely to

