TOWNS VALLEY RESIDENCE OF THE RESIDENCE

Acvoted to General Intelligence, Politics, Moraliy, Literature, Education, the Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Commerce, and Advertising.

VOLUME IV.

COVINGTON, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1845.

Number 26.

R. C. LANGDON & W. C. MUNGER

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

TERMS. Weekly on a Double Medium sheet, $2 00 Fifty cents will be added to each subscripion, when not paid within the year. Single numbers in wrappers 64 cents.

ADVERTISEMENTS, of 16 lines, or less, will be charged $1 00 for the first three, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in proportion.

25 per cent. discount, paper included made to yearly advertisers. The number of insertions must be on the advertisement, or it will be continued until ordered out, and charged accor

Persons wishing to discontinue the pa per, must settle all arroars before it can be done, unless at the option of the Publishers.

POETICAL.

For the Register. TO A DEPARTED FRIEND. Where is that lovely friend on whom I used to gaze with longing eyes, Whose life seemed one continual bloom Of happiness, and cloudless skies?

She sleeps the sleep of death; -no more We'll see her lovely form on earth; Her race is run; her time is o'er, She rests beneath her mother earth.

No more we'll hear that plaintive voice, With richest melody resound, In strains that made our hearts rejoice, And with extatic joy rebound.

No more we'll hear her merry tone Of laughter ringing in our ears, Silent and cold she sleeps alone, Regardless of our falling tears.

She's gone;-O death thy ruthless hand Hath snatched the fairest flower of earth But bore her to a happier land, Where pain or sorrow ne'er had birth.

She's gone ;-but memory cannot die: Thy image in my dreams I see, And will until I mount the sky, ION. And meet thee in eternity.

THE PRAIRIE GRAVE. He will slumber as well and as soundly there

As a prince in a banner'd aisle, And his dust will as many true tear drops shar As the gorgeous marble pile! No words to be read are over his head, And no sculptur'd praise to save The fame of the pilgrim, pale and dead, In his lonely prairie grave!

But the whispering breezes wander there. And they speak of the sky above him, Of the stars that are there, all bright and fair Like spirits that watch and love him. And a bright stream flows near his lone repose While each lowly murmuring wave, Seems to heave a sigh as it hurries by The grass-grown prairie grave.

O, the one sleeps in that lonely spot, Left fundness and love behind him. And there's one yet weeps who has not forgot In her heart of hearts to find him! Ah! that lonely mound in the prairie wild, Comes oft to a mother's musing, When she bends and prays for the absent child She has sighed for ever since losing.

Ere the sun ce'r the prairie rose, That we dress'd the dead for his lowly bed And bore him to his repose. O, the silence then of the broad, broad sky, And the wide spread green below, Seem'd to hush e'en the waters roling by Into a strange and solemn wo!

Not a willow twig, not a stone was there, To be left on the simple mound, But the grass is green, and the flow'rs are fair That are sprinkl'd there around. No words to be read, are over his head, And no sculptur'd praise to save

The fame of the pilgrim, pale and dead, PHAZMA In his lonely prairie grave.

THE SPOTTED FAWN. [Words by W. D. Gallagher: Written for S. B. Duffield, and by him arranged to a popula melody.] The air is "Poor Lucy Neal."

On Mahketewa's flowery marge The red chirf's wigwam stood, When first the white man's rifle rang Loud through the echoing wood: The tomahawk and scalping knife Together lay at rest,—
For peace was in the forest shades, And in the red man's breast.

Oh, the Spotted Fawn! Oh, the Spotted Fawn!
The light and life of the forest shades With the red chief's child is gone.

By Maliketewa's flowery marge The Spotted Fawn bad birth, And grew, as fair an Indian girl As ever blest the earth. She was the red chief's only child, And sought by many a Brave, But to the gallant young White-Cloud,

Her plighted troth she gave. Oh, the Spotted Fawn!" Oh, the spotted Fawn! The light and life of the forest shades, With the red chief's child is gone.

From Mahketewa's flowery marge Her bridal song arose
None dreaming, in that festal night,
Of near encircling foes:
But through the forest, stealthily,
The white men came in wrath; And fiery deaths before them sped

And blood was in their path. Oh, the Spotted Fawn! Oh, the Spotted Fawn! The light and life of the forest shades With the red chief's child is gone.

On Mahketewa's flowery marge, Next morn, no strife was seen; But a wail went up where the young Fawr

And White-Cloud's dyed the green; And burial in their own rude way, The Indians gave him there, While a low and sweet-toned requium The brooks sang, and the air,

Oh, the Spotted Fawn! Oh, the Spotted Fawn! The light and life of the forest shades, . With the red chief's child is gone.

The great pleasure of life is love; the greatest treasure contentment; the greatest possession is health; the greatest case is sleep, and the best medicine a true friend.

Honor, honesty, and industry, are the best capital that a man can have to begin life with. If he have principles of honor, he will always be respected. If he have honesty, he will always be credited. If he have industry, he will never lack the means of bettering his fortune.

THE SELFISH .- No mortal perceptions are se blunt as those of the selfish; theirs is the worst of nearsightedness—that of the heart.

SELECT TALES.

From Godey's Lady's Book, for January, 1845.

ENGAGED AT SIXTEEN. BY T. S. ARTHUR.

"Mr Lee is quite fortunate with her daughters," revarked a visitor to Mrs. Wyman, whose oldest child, a well grown girl of fifteen was sitting by. "Yes; Kakand Harriet went off in good time. She has only Ponny left."

"Who is to be married this winter?"

"Fanny." "She is engaged to Henry Florence." "Indeed! And she is only just turned of sixteen. How fortunate ruly! Some people have their daughters on their hands until they are two or three-and-twenty, when the chances for good matches are very low. I vas only sixteen when was married."

"Certainly; and then I had rejected two or three young men. There is nothing like early marriages, depend upon it, Mrs. Glayton. They always turn out the best. The most desirable young men take their pick of the youngest girls, and leave the older ones for second rate claim-

"Do you hear that, Anna?" Mrs. Clayton said, laughing, as she turned to Mrs. Wyman's daughter. "I hope you will not remain a moment later than your mother did upon the maid-

Anna blushed slightly, but did not reply. What had been said, however, made its impression on her mind. She fel! that to be engaged early was a mutter much to be desired. "My mother was married at sixteen, and here am I at fifteen, and without a lover." thought Anna as she paused over the page of a new novel, some hours after she had listened to the conversation that passed between her moth er and Mrs. Clayton, and mused of love and matrimony From that time, Anna Wyman was another girl. The sweet simplicity of manner, the un-conscious innocence peculiar to her age, gradually vanished. Her eye, that was so clear and soft with the light of girlhood's pleasant fancies, grew earnest and restless, and, at times, intensely bright. The whole expression of her countenance was new. It was no longer a pla-cid sky, with scarce a cloud floating in its quiet depths, but changeful as April, with its tears and smiles blending in strange beauty. Her heart, that had long beat tranquilly, would now bound at a thought, and send the bright crimson to her cheek-would flutter at the sight of the very individual whom she, a short time before, could meet without a single wave ruffling the surface of her feelings. The woman had suddenly displaced the girl, a sisterly regard, that pure affection which an innocent maiden's heart has for all around her, had expired on the altar where was kindling up the deep passion called love .-And yet Anna Wyman had not reached her sixteenth year.

All at once, she became restless, capricious unhappy. She had been at school up to this period, but now insisted that she was too old for that; her mother seconded this view of the mat-ter, and her father, a man of pretty good sense, had to yield.
"We must give Anna a party, now," Mrs.

Wyman said, after their daughter had left school. "Why so?" asked the father. "Oh-because it is time that she was beginning to come out."

"Gome out, how?" "You are stupid, man. Come out in the list of young ladies. Go into company."
"But she is a mere child, yet—not sixteen."

"Not sixteen! And how old was I pray, when you married me?" The husband did not reply.

"Hew old was I, Mr. Wyman?" "About sixteen, I believe." "Well; and was I a mere child?" "You were rather too young to marry, at least," Mr. Wyman ventured to say. This remark was made rather too feelingly.
"Too young to marry!" ejaculated the wife, in a tone of surprise and indignation—"too young to marry; and my husband to say so, too!

Mr. Wyman, do you mean to intimate—do you mean to say!—Mr. Wyman, what do you mean by that remark ?" "Oh, nothing at all," soothingly replied the husband; fonly that I----" "That I do'nt as a general thing, approve very early marriages. The character of a young lady is not formed before twenty-one or two; nor has she gained that experience and knowledge of the world that will enable her to choose with wisdom." "You don't pretend to say that my character was not formed at sixteen?" This was accompanied by a threatening look.

Whatever his thoughts were, Mr. Wymar took good care not to express them. He merely

"I believe, Margaret, that I haven't volunteered any allusion to you." "Yes, but you don't approve of early marrlages. WPene !!

"Well, didn't I marry at sixteen? And isn't your opinion a reflection upon your wife?"
"Circumstances after cases," smilingly returned Mr. Wyman. "Few women at sixteen were like you. Very certainly your daughter is not." "There I differ with you, Mr. Wyman. I believe our Anna would make as good a wife now as I did at sixteen. She is as much of a woman in appearance; her mind is more matured, and her education advanced far beyond what mine was. She deserves a good husband, and must have one before the lapse of another year."

"low can you talk so, Margaret? For my part, I do not wish to see her married for at least five years." "Preposterous! I would nt give a cent for a marriage that takes place after seventeen or eighteen. They are always indifferent affairs, and rarely ever turn out well. The earlier the better, depend upon it. First love and first pricious child; can forgive much and love much. "Well, Margaret, I suppose you will have these matters all your own way: but I don't agree with you for all."

"Anna must have a party."

"You can do as you like." "But you must assent to it." "How can I do that, if I don't approve?"

"But you must approve." And Mrs. Wyman persevered until she made him approve—at least do so apparently. And came in when he pleased and went out when he so a party was given to Anna, at which she was pleased. He required service from all, and gave introduced to several dashing young men, whose love matters, will appear in the following conversation, held in secret with Clara.

"Did you say Mr. Carpenter had been to see you since the party?" asked Clara. "Yes, indeed," was the animated reply.

"Yes, indeed," was the animated reply.

"He's a love of a man!—the very one of all others that I should set my cap for, if there was any hope. But you will, no doubt, carry him off."

Anna colored to the temples, half with conusion and half with delight. "He used to pay attention to Jane Sherman.

'm fold." "Yes; but you've cut her out entirely. Dulint you notice how unhappy she seemed at the party whenever he was with you?" "No; was she?"

"O, yes; every body noticed it. But you can carry off all of her beaux, she's a mere drab of a girl. And, besides, she's getting on the old maid's list; I'm told she's more than twenty."

"It's true." "Oh, dear; there's no fear for her then. If I be nothing to her—he must be everything. To left of them.

were to go over sixteen before I got married, I secure a husband early, was the great point, and should be frightened to death."

"Suppose Carpenter offers himself?" self-complacency. They were still on the shores of expectancy. She had launched her boat on the sunny sea of matrimony, and was already another in my cur ?? "I hone he won't just yet."

another in my eye."
"Reject! Nonsense! Why should you reject an offer?"

sixteen, and rejected two of them."
"Was she married so early?" "Ob, yes; she was a wife at sixteen, and I'm a heart they were offering up upon its strange inst going to be a day longer, if possible. Ind like to decline three offers and get matried into the bargain before a year passes. Wouldn't that of all my life." exclaims; and so our young lady certainly was.

When a very young girl gets into love matters, she shoes them up,' as the saying is, quite fast; she does'nt mine matters at all. A maiden of twenty is cooler, more thoughtful and more cautions. She thinks a good deal, and is very careful how she lets any one—even her confidante, if she should happen to have one, (which is doubtfu')—know much beyond her external thoughts. Four or five years make a good deal of difference in these things. Bot this need hardly have been

"You are going to Mrs. Aston's on Wednes-day evening, of equise?" said Clara Spenser to Anna, on visiting her one morning, some weeks after the introduction to Carpenter had taken olace. "Oh, certainly; their soirces, I'm told, are elegant affairs."

_ "Indeed they are; I've been to two of them Fine music, pleasant company, and so much freedom of intercourse—oh, they are delightful!"

"Did you ever see Mr. Carpenter there?"
"Oh, yes, he always attends." "I shall enjoy myself highly."
"That you will—the young men are so aften

Wednesday night soon came round, and Anna was permitted to go, unattended by either of her parents, to the so-called soirce at Mrs. Ashton's. As she had hoped and believed, Carpenter was there. His attentions to her were constant and flattering; he poured many compliments into her ears, talking to her all the time in a low, musical tone, Anna's heart fluttered in her bosom with pleasure; she felt that she had made a conquest. But the fact of bringing so charming a young man to her feet, and that so speedily, prickened her pride, and made it seem the easiest thing in the world to be able to reject three lovers and yet be engaged, or even married, at

Besides Carpen'er, there was another present who saw attractions about Anna Wyman. He wore a moustache, and made quite a dashing appearance. In the language of many young ladies, who admired him, he was an elegant looking young man-just the one to be proud of as a beau. His name was Elliott.

As soon as he got access to the ear of the ning and inexperienced girl, he charmed it with circle. His eyes fascinated her, and his voice nurmured in her ear like low, sweet music. A short time before parting from her he said— 'Miss Wyman, may I have the pleasure of cal-ing on you at your father's house?" "Oh, yes sir; I shall be most happy to see ou." She spoke with feeling.

"Then I shall visit you frequently. In your society I promise myself much happiness."

Anna's eyes fell to the floor, and the color eepened on her cheek. When she looked up. Elliot was gazing steadily in her face, with an expression of admiration and love.
Her heart was lost. Carpenter, that love of a man, was not thought of-or, only as one of her rejected lovers.

When Anna laid her head upon Mr. Elliott. He had, she conceived, as good as offered himself, and she, much as she wished to reject three lovers before she accepted one, felt strongly inclined to accept him, and so end the maiter.

Now, who was Mr. Thomas Elliott? A few words will portray him. Mr. Elliott was twenty-six; he kept a store in the city; had been in business for some years, but was not very successful. His habits of life were not good his principles had no sound, moral basis. was, in fact, just the man to make a silly child like Anna Wyman, wretched for life. But why did be seek for one like her! That is easily ex-plained. Mr. Wyman was reputed to be pretty well off in the world, and Mr. Ellioti's affairs were in rather a precarious condition; but he managed to keep so good a face upon the matter, that none suspected his real condition.

After visiting Anna for a short time, he offer-ed her his hand. If it had not been that her sixteenth birthday was so near, Anna would have declined the offer, for Thomas Elliott did not grow dearer to her every day. There were young men whom she liked much better and if they had only come forward and presented their claims to favor she would have declined the offer. But time was rapidly passing away. Anna was ambitious of being engaged before she was sixteen, and married, if possible. Her mother had rejected two offers, and she was anxious to do as much. Here was a chance for one rejection-but was she sure of another offer in time? No! There was the difficulty. For some days she debated the question, and then laid it before her mother. Mrs. Wyman consulted her husband who did not much like Eiliott; but the mother felt the necessity of an early marriage, and overruled all objections. Her advice Anna was to accept the offer, and it was accepted accordingly. A fond, wayward child of sixteen may chance to marry and do well, spite of all the drawbacks she will meet; but this is only in case she hap But give the happiness of such a creature into the keeping of a cold, narrow-minded, selfish, netulent man, and her cup will soon run over Bitter, indeed, will be her lot in life. Just such a man was Thomas Elliott. He had sought only his own pleasures, and had owned no law but his own will. For more than ten years he had been living without other external restraints than those social laws that all must observe who desire to keep a fair reputation. He pleased. He required service from all, and gave it to none-that is, so far as he needed service attentions almost turned her young head. In two weeks she had a confidant, a young lady named Clara Spenser, not much older than hernamed Clara Spenser, not much older than her-self. The progress already made by Anna in was confirmed. When he married, it was with an end to the good he should derive from the union not from a generous desire to make another happy in himself. Anna was young, vivacious, and more than ordinarily intelligent and pretty There was much about her that was attractive, and Elliott really imagined that he loved her but it was himself that he loved in her fascinating qualities. These were all to minister to his pleasure. He never once thought of devoting himself to her happiness.

On the night of the wedding, which took place soon after Anna's sixteenth birth-day, the bride vas in that bewildered state of mind which destroys all the rational perceptions of the mind. Her whole soul was in a pleasing tumult and yet, it crossed her mind, would cause her to look around upon her maiden companions with proud moving steadily away under a pleasant breeze. Alas! young bride. Thy hymenial altar is an altar of sacrifice. Love is not the deity who is presiding there. Little do they dream, who "My mother had three offers before she was have led thee, poor lamb! garlanded with flowers to that altar, how innecent, how true, how good the bargain before a year passes. Would'nt that be admirable? It would be something to boast f all my life."

Pretty well advanced! the reader no doubt in a chair, with arms folded, and his chin resting on his bosom. His face was contracted into a gloomy scowl. Anna, who looked pale and troubled, was sewing and touching with her foot a cradle, in which was a babe. The little one seemed restless—every now and then it would start and moan, or cry out. After a time it awoke, and commenced screaming. The mother lifted it from the cradle, and tried to hush it up-on her boson, but the babe still cried on. It was evidently in pain. "Confound you! why don't you keep that shild quiet ?"-exclaimed the husband, impatiently asting at the same time, an angry look upon his

Anna made no reply, but furned half away rom him, evidently to conceal the tears that suddenly started from her eyes, and strove more enruestly to quiet the child. In this she soon

"I telieve you let her cry on purnose, whenever I am in the house, just to annoy me," her husband resumed, in an ill-natured tone. "No, Thomas, you know that I do not," An na said.

"Sir Ilie, why don't you?" "Oh, Thomas, how can you speak so to me." And his young wife turned towards him an earnest, tearful look. "Bah! don't try to melt me with your crying.

I never believed in it. Women can cry at any noment."

There was a convulsive motion of Mrs. Elliot's head as she turned quickly away, and a choking sound in her throat. She remained si-Ten minutes passed, when her husband said, in a firm voice-

"Anna, I'm going to break up." Mrs. Elliott glanced around with a startled ir.

"It is true, just what I say-your father may think that I'm going to make a slave of myself to support you, but he's mistaken. Ile's refused to help me in 'my business one single copper, though he is able enough. And now I have taken my resolution. You can go back to him as quick as you like."

Before the brutal husband had half finished the sentence, his wife was on her feet, with a cheek deadly pale, and eyes almost starting from her Thomas Elliott was her husband and the head. a deeper charm than Carpenter had been able to him with a fir deeper love than he had deserved, impart. She felt almost like one within a magic. This had caused her to bear with coldness and neglect, and even positive unkindness without a complaint. Sacredly had she kept from her mother even a hint of the truth. Thus she had gone on almost from the first, for only a few months clapsed before she discovered that her image was dim on her husband's heart.

"You need not stand there staring at me like one moon struck"—he said, with bitter sar asm and a curl of the lip. "What I say is the truth. I'm going to give up and you've got to go home to them that are better able to support you than I am, and have a better right, too. I'm think

There was something so heartless and chilling in the words and manner of her husband, that Mrs Elliott made no attempt to reply. Coverthat night, it was not to sleep. Her mind was the chair from which she had risen, more deeply lileges and opportunities wasted, duties neglectoo full of pleasant images, central to all of miserable than she had ever been in her life.—
which was the elegant, accomplished, handsome From this state she was aroused by the imperative question.

"Anna, what do you intend doing?" "That is for you to say" -- was her murmured reply. "Then, I say, go home to your father, and at Without a word the wife rose from her chair, with her infant in her arms, and pausing only long enough to put on he: shawl and bonnet, left

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman were sitting alone late on the afternoon of the same day, fainking a-bout, and conversing of their child. Neither of them felt too well satisfied with the result of her marriage. It required not even the close observation of a parent's eye to discover that she was far from happy.

"I wish she were only single"—Mr. Wyman at length said. "She married much too young —only eighteen, with a cold hearted, and I fear, unprincipled and neglectful busband. It is sad to think of it." "But I was married as young as she was, Mr. Wyman?"

"Yes; but I flatter myself you made a much better choice. Your condition at eighteen was very different from what her's now is. As I said before, I only wish she were single, and then I would'nt care to see her married for two or three years to come."

"I can't help wishing she had refused Mr. El liott. If she had done so, she might have been married to a much better man long before this. Mr. Carnenter is worth a dozen of him. O dear! this marriage is all a lottery after all. F.-w prizes and many blanks. Poor Anna! she is happy.

At this moment the door opened, and the child y pale, her lips tightly compressed, and her eyes videly distended and fixed.

"Anna!" exclaimed the mother, starting up puickly and springing towards her. by the father, as he, too, rose up hastily.

But there was no reply. The heart of the shild was too full. She could not utter the truth. She had been sent back to her parents by her cousband, but her tongue could not declare that! her babe in her mother's arms, and then fling herself upon the bosom of her father.

All was mystery then, but time soon unveiled he cause of their daughter's strange and sudden appearance, and her deep anguish. The truth this world; and if these pangs be but the begingradually came out that she had been deserted by her husband, or what seemed to Mrs. Wyman more disgraceful still, had been sent home by him. Bitterly did she execrate him, but it avail-Anna was engaged at sixteen, and married soon after; but eighteen, alast she had come home a deserted wife and mother! And so she remained. Her husband never afterwards came near her. And now, at thirty, with a daughter well grown, she remains in her father's house a quiet, thoughtful, dreamy woman, who sees little in life that is altractive, and who ravely stirs beyond the threshold of the house that shelters her. There are those who will recognize this picture. So much for being engaged at sixteen!

Good Advice. Girls are somewhat deceiving in their appearances. Most of them wear false smiles, false color, false bosoms, false hips, and she did not feel happy; and why? Spite of the false retrospective projections, vulgarly called solemn promise she had made to love and honor "bustles" Young men who think of commither husband above all men, she felt that there ting matrimony, should be careful, and never were others whom she could have loved and hon- get taken in by fastening their affections upon ored more than him, were they in his place. But any of the female tribe, who are made up wholly this, reason told was folly. They had not pre-sented themselves and he had They could come to strip the feathers off there is nothing remidical agent.

EDUCATIONAL.

Lecture Sixth.

BY ELDER DANIEL M. ANDREWS.

United with the pleasures of youth, there is one of a negative character worthy of investi- tioned with admiration and praise. The gation-a comparative freedom from self-re- following annecdotes will forcibly illustrate proach. I speak now of those whose morals are untainted, and whose general habits are laudable. I would not hint that any young person is free from guilt; or, in the sanctified eye of Heaven, pure or acceptable. That word which can-firmness of the ladies of your country. Had not err, has taught us that "there is none that your men but half their resolution, we worketh good, no, not one ." But youthful character may be seen, comparatively. We may be invincible." think it moral, as opposed to the dissolute; we may think it lovely, as opposed to the refractory; we may speak of it as pure, in opposition to the artful and intriguing. In this light there are, an authoritative manner demanded the key indeed, fewer persons of self-reproach in youth of her trunk. "I seek for treason," was th than in mature life.

"The spirit of a man will support his infirmiprecept of inspired philosophy is adapted to all, and the question with which it concludes imit of its grandeur, and annihilates its lofty aspirations. The arrows that drink up the soul flict, like the baneful darts of the ancients, are a minute investigation, disappear into air. So been left by accident. empty, and so hypocritical, often is the pretended happiness of many who are victims of selfreproach. It cannot be disputed that He who to the defenders of our country, were highly formed the soul, placed within it a faculty which, creditable for their ingenuity and of infiof the enemy. He who regards not this monitor, and voluntarily opens the chambers of the soul to unlawful desire, must purchase his indulwhen they have made it, they learn too late that they have leaped the prohibited limit, which has debarred them for ever from the early paradise of their joys. They can never retrace their nal mercy holds out to the desponding eye. If they embrace it, peace may again be restored to the bosom, and self-reproach may assume the inted, and the commission of positive sin. As we move in life it is natural to look back upon the past; but the scene is not one on which | Washington." "Your wish Col. might be the heart delights to dwell. There is promiscuously a green spot in our retrospective glances; but the majority of mortals must heave a sigh over favorable opportunities lost, and precious favors misimproved, multitules must be covered with shame at the thought, that the period when the plastic soul might have taken an impress which would have fixed them in an honorable and useful place, was loitered away in idleness and ignorance. As often as the delinquency recurs, and recur it will, we experience anew the misery of disappointment and remorse. In reviewing privileges neglected, and opportunities lost, raises an inward regret, but does not doubtless afford so much that is painful and pungent as the reco'lection of duties omitted. It is the nature of man to grow better or worse-he cannot be fixed-bis habits of feeling and action are hourly accumulating strength. If their bearing is good, he is "growing in grac ," but if evil, he is becoming "hardened by the deception of sin;" of course, that religious duty, which might once have been fulfilled with comparative case, becomes, in after years, almost impracticable .--The disposition and ability to perform it decrease immensely as the years of supineness and neglect increase. This fault is felt in many a breast that reviews its early being with a melancholy self-reproach for having neglected du-consequent upon tight lacing: the little of whom they were speaking, with her infant in her arms, came hurriedly in. Her face was dead-ties, which have lost none of their claims by long sun shade which puts you in mind of a six omission. I have seen many a man whose confessions on this point have almost paralyzed his end of a rgc straw, or a cookee on the end frame, and spoke of the stormy conflict within. "My child, what ails you?" was eagerly asked I have heard him sigh out his regret, and speak of such omissions with a melancholy tone, which pointed prophetically of the hopelessness of his condition. But if with misimproved privileges, and neglected duties, he have spent a life of dis- backs of forms east in the moulds of human Pride, shame, wounded affections, combined to sipation, there is annexed to the load, already perfection, and puts one in mind of a bean-hold back her words. Her only reply was to lay too oppressive, an incumbent load of auguish which weighs down the soul, and makes it al times almost wish that vitality might cease.-Oh the feelings of regret! how painful, even in ning of what shall be increased and perpetuated in another and eternal world, what heart, thus pained with guilt, can be indifferent to the calls ed nothing. Her ardent wish had been gratified. of that Redeemer who came into the world to save the chief of sinners, and wash awar the loulest stains! Although they were as crimson. they shall be washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb;

> Tobacco Canby .-- This article, said to be so vastly superior to the most celebrated of the day, is now made in North Carolina It is made from the boiled extract of tobacco stems. It is very dark in color of course of a bitter sweet taste, inferior in point of pleasantness to hourhound. we were not before aware that tobacco, had so much sacchharine about it; this can'ly however, exhibits in a very high degree. Tobacco possesses many valuable and medicinal qualities, and this method of preparing it. may render it a very efficient and agreeable

COMMUNICATIONS.

American Women.

The women of the Revolution .- The zeal with which the cause of liberty was embraced by the women of America, during the war of our Revolution, has often been menthe extent and strength of this patriotic feeling: To Mrs. Pinckney, the wife of Col. Charles Pinckney, a British officer once said. "it is impossible not to admire the might give up the contest. America would

Mrs. Daniel Hull having obtained permission to pay a visit to her mother on John's Island, was on the point of embark ing, when an officer stepped forward and in reply. "You may save yourself the troub-le of search then," said Mrs. Hall. "You ties, but a wounded spirit who can bear?" This may find plenty of it at my tounge's end. An officer distinguished by his inhumanity, and constant oppression to the unfortunate, meeting Mrs. Charles Elliottin a garplies, that the misery of self-reproach is of the den adorned with a great variety of flowers, most weighing and pungent character. There asked the name of the camomile, which is nothing that so unveils the soul, or dissolves appeared to flourish with peculiar luxurience-the "Rebel Flower," she replied .-"Why was that name given to it?" asked are self-reproach; and the wounds which it infliet like the handful dusts of the angests.

The soul the officer. "Because," rejoined the lady "it thrives best when most trampled upon." So much were the women attached to curable only by a medicament that is divine .- the whig interest, habituated to injuries, To nourish in the bosom this baneful companion and so resolute in supporting them, that of guilt, to acquiesce with it in pleasures which they would jocosely speak of misfortunes, cannot please, and to marks of beauty which we though at that moment suffering under their affect to admire; to feel it deride the eye, and pressure. Mrs Sabina Elliot, having witnessed the activity of an officer who had orcontradict the tongue, when eye and tongue deced the plundering of her poultry houses, are, to all appearance, eloquent with praise .- | finding an old Muscovy drake which had Ah! this is too much for mortal man to bear, escaped the general search, still straying Often that which passes for pleasure, and signs about the premises, had him caught, and which seems to motion delight, are frequently mounting a servant on horseback, ordered like those visions that mock the eye of the mariner, they substantiate but illusions which, upon officer, with her compliments, as she concluded in the burry of departure, it had

The contrivance adopted by the ladies to carry from the British garrison supplies like a sentinel, sounds the alarm at the approach | nite utility to their friends. The cloth of many a millitary coat, concealed with art. and not unfrequently made an appendage to female attire, has escaped the vigilence true knight who did not feel the obligation to defend them to the last extremity.

In the indulgence of wanton asperities towards the patriotic fair, the aggressors strument of humility and contrition. This toil- were not unfrequently answered with keensome burthen, which so oppresses the hearts of noss of repartee that left them little cause for triumph, the haughty Tarleton vaunting | ral buzz rises on every side, of "What a his feats of gallantry to the great disparagement of the Continental Cavalry, said to in the habit of studying half the night, of ı lady at Wilmington, "I have a very earnest desire to see your far famed hero, Col. fully gratified," she promptly replied, "had you ventured to look behind you after the battle of Cowpens." It was at this battle that Washington had wounded Tarleton in the hand, which gave rise to a still more pointed retort. Conversing with Mrs. Wiley Jones, Col. Tarleton observed, "you appear to think very highly of Col. Washington, and yet I am told that he is so ignorant a fellow that he can hardly read his own name." "It may be the case," she readily replied, "but no man better than yourself, Colonel, can testify, that he knows how to make his mark."

From Tyros' Casket. Bustles. We laugh when we look at the belles of incient days, and as we gaze upon the hend-dress running up steeple high, like a un-flower gone to seed, or at the enormous hoop that renders them unapproachable, we are disposed to say, how rediculous!-What fools they must have been! But stop a bit, just direct your eyes from these pictures of ages gone by, and take a squint at a modern fashionable dressed lady. See the variegated colors, which chameleon-like change and glitter at every step; the waist rivalling a wasp in dimensions, and a look at which makes you breathe with difficulty The hubling, rolling walk, and shuffle penny bit hammered out, and stuck on the of a fork, which is used to keep the light of heaven out of her pretty face; and at last though not least, the modern Bustles the invention of the nineteenth century, the nome of fashion; the artificial protuberance that makes Camels, Dromedaries, and humpa pedlar with a hugo pack on his back, a squaw with a papoose, or indeed anything else unnatural in shape or disgusting to the sight, and then laugh at follies of by gone days if you can. This saddle, on which the Goddess of fashion rides triumphant is now considered the perfection of grace; fullness of form and beauty of dress. Can

"New customs; Though they be ever so ridiculous, Nay, unwomanly, yet are followed." The bustle reigns now supreme. What will next spring up and usurp its place, no toungue can tell, though we defy it to be more unsightly, or more outrageous,

come it in what questionable shape it may

SMIKE, Jr.

promises to pave the way for the election cares and make you wretched.

anything be more ridiculous? How true

it is that

PROPHECY!-The New York Herald thus aunches a prophecy for 1849: "Mr. Polk has only succeded to the fate and destiny of Mr. Martin Van Buren, and of Mr. Clay in 1848, by one of the most overwhelming majorities that ever carried a popular man to the Presidency ."

Parson Miller thirty years behind the Indians.

Parson Miller it appears from late accounts, perceiving that this "terrestrial ball" continues still to run its wonted rounds, contrary to his figurative revelations, has been induced to "calculate" over his former exercise, and in so doing detected some slight errors of addition or subtraction. From his more recent reductions few more days of sunshine and rain are allowed to illume and make glad this "bright little world of ours" before it shall he "rolled together as a scroll." In speaking of this discovery, a day or two since to a friend, we were not a little surprised to learn that the Catastrophe Preacher and his enlightened followers are treading almost in the very footsteps of some old Cherokee conjuror and his benighted followers who have gone before them. Some thirty years ago a declaration spread a-mong the Cherokees and gained credence of many, that the world would be destroyed on a certain day not then far distant; not, however, by the raining down of fire and brimstone, but by wind and storm, and the falling of bailstones large as the mortars in which was pounded the corn for making hominy. The destruction was not to be complete; one small spot, of some ten acres square, was to be spared, and to which all who fied would find security in the boar of woe and annihilation. So firmly fixed was this belief in the ninds of many that descring their negroes, their orchards their bees, and almost every thing that came from or savored of the pale faces, they tore themselves amid the entreaties and tears, from their unbeleving friends, and started for the reservaion, located in that part of their country, now in Western North Carolina, Such, however, after proceeding a day or two on their journey, became convinced that the end of all things was not yet at hand, returned to their homes, and, unlike the Millerites of the present day, resumed their duties ashamed of their folly .- Cherokee Advocate.

WAS IT PROVIDENCE!

BY MISS SEDGWICK: Take, for example, a young girl, bred delcately in town, shut up in a nursery in her childhood—in a boarding school through her youth, never accustomed either to air or exof the gaurds expressly stationed to prevent ercise, two things that the law of God makes father of her babe, and as such she had loved gence, or his gain, by forfeiting the calm joys of smuggling, and speedily converted to regi- essential to health. She marries, and her an approving conscience. But how frequently is mental shape and worn triumphantly in strength is inadequate to the demands upon it done! How many make the sacrifice? and battle. Boots have in many cases, been re- it. Her beauty fades early. She languishlinquished by the delicate wearer to the ac- es through her hard office of giving birth to tive partizan. I have seen a horseman's children, suckling and watching over them, helmet concealed by a well arranged head and dies early. "What a strange Providress, and epauletts delivered from the dence, that a mother should be taken, in the folds of the simple cap of the matron. midst of life, from her children." Was it path, nor regain that purity of mind which had Feathers and cockades were much in de- Providence?—No!—Providence had assignpreviously marked their youth. They have only mand, and so cunningly hid and handsome- ed her three score years and ten; a term long one hope remaining-it is the hope which eter- by presented, that he could have been no enough to rear her children, and see her children's children; but she did not obey the laws on which life depends, and of course she lost it. A father, is cut off in the midst of his days. He is a useful and distinguished citizen, and eminent in his profession. A genestriking Prouidence." This man has been passing his days in his office and the courts, of eating luxurious dinners, and drinking various wines. He has every day violated the laws on which health depend. Did Providence cut him off? The evil rarely ends here. The diseases of the father are often transmitted; and a feeble mother rarely leaves behind her vigorous children. It has been customary in some of our cities, for young ladies to walk in thin shoes and delicate stockings in mid winter. A healthy blooming young girl, thus dressed in violation of Heaven's laws, pays the penalty; a checked circulation, cold, fever, and death. "What a sad Providence!" exclaimed her friends. Was it Providence, or her

A beautiful young bride goes, night after night, to parties made in honor of her marriage. She has a slight sore throat, perhaps the weather is inclement; but she must wear her neck and arms bare; for whoever saw a bride in a close evening dress? She is consequently seized with an inflamation of the lungs, and the grave receives her before her bridal days are over. "What a Providence!" exclaims the world. "Cut off in the midst of happiness and hope!" Alas! did she not cut the thread of life herself? A girl in the country, exposed to our changeful climate, gets a new bonnet instead of getting a flannel garment. A rheumatism is the consequence. Should the girl sit down tranquilly with the idea that Providence had sent the rheumatism upon her, or should she charge it on her vanity, and avoid the folly in future? Look, my young friends, at the mass of diseases that are incurred by intemperance in in eating or in drinking, or in study, or in business; also being caused often by neglect of exercise, cleanliness, pure air, by dressing, tight lacing, &c., and all is quietly imputed to Providence. Is there not implety as well as ignorance in this? Were the physical laws strictly observed from generation to generation, there would be an end to the frightful diseases that cut life short, and of the long list of maladies that make life a torment or a trial. It is the opinion of those who best understand the physical system, that this wonderful machine, the body, this goodly temple, would gradually decay, and men would die as if falling asleep.

MAN WANTS BUT LITTLE -Our brother of the Portland Tribune, discourseth in this wise on this text: "Goldsmith was right when he said. "Man wants but little here below."

But how few believe the doctrine. All men are striving for as much again as they have obtained; no matter what it is-gold or honors. So they are discontented and unhappy. How much more pleasant life would be mankind were but contented with what they possess. Enough is sufficient for all, and that is but little. A little farm, a little home, a little wife and a little baby, will make a man just as respectable, contented and happy, as if he possessed a large farm, a large house, or a large wife. It is not what you possess that makes you happy. It is the right use of it. Think of this, ye who are striving for great estates and great honors. Benton, Calhoun, Cass, Wright, and all, Yield up your unhappy feelings and become will materially destroy one another. So true and happy men. Certainly you can enthat the prospect of the ruin of the Demo- joy but little here below, no matter how cratic party, in consequence of its intes much you possess. All that you have above tine feuds, is brilliant in the extreme, and your real wants, serves but to increase your

We are sorry to see hints or suggestions thrown out, that Mr. Clay may be run for the Presidency in 1848. They are no wise friends of his, who throw out suggestions, for they keep alive party fauds and personal hostility, and "justice" never can be done Mr. Clay, till that personal hostility is removed. Thousands believe, for they have so often read it in Loco Foco prints, that Mr. Clay has "murdered" somebody: and that he is a "blackleg," gambling Sabbath nights, they have no manner of doubt. Time, and absence from party strife alone can remove these lies from their effect on ignorant minds. For fifteen years now, they have been so constantly dinned into the ears of ignorance, that justice can only come when he is off the arena of ambition, so that ambitious men in the Loco Foco ranks, who have some magnanimity, can afford to correct the lies their co-laborers have spread. The frankness, generosity and fearlessness of Mr. Clay's life and character, have exposed him to being lied down: and his is a signal and melancholy tory will do him justice. His country and his whole country will do him justice, perhaps in his own day, if his country has need and has only made him dearer in the hearts of his friends. His honor and his moral victory are just as great as if he had the disagreeable duty of distributing the spoils of victory. Such a great party, with its majorities, if they do not actually hold the reins of Government, yet hold such a check over them, that their principles, if not actually dominant, must powerfully influence the men who have control of affairs. By those prin-ciples let us stand, as Mr. Clay advises, with the disposition to judge Mr. Polk fairly, and in due time, be ready to offer our candidate for the Presidency.—N. Y. Express.

Letter from Mr. Clay.

The following letter from Mr. CLAY to a committee of the citizens of New Haven, Ct., transmitting to Mr. C. the proceedings of a public meeting of the whigs of New Haven, will be perused with interest. ASHI AND, 17th Dec., 1844.

Gentlemen:-I duly received your friendly letter, transmitting the proceedings of a public meeting held in the city of New Haven, in respect to the late Presidential election.-The patriotic spirit manifested in the whole of them is worthy of Connecticut, worthy of its own renowned seat of learning, and worthy of the Whig cause. For the sentiments of attachment, confidence and friendship toward myself, which they exhibit, and which you so kindly reiterate in your letter, I offer the warm acknowledgments of a grateful heart. My obligation to Connecticut, and my friendly intercourse with many of her eminent sons, during a long period of time, will be faithfully remembered while I contin-ue to live. I share with you, in regrets, on account of the unexpected issue of the recent election. My own personal concern in it is entitled to very little consideration, although I affect no indifference in that respect. The great importance of the event arises out of the respective principles in contest between the too parties, the consequence to which it may lead, and the alleged means by which it was brought about, of which, however, I do not allow myself particularly to speak.

The policy of the country in regard to the protection of American industry, a few months ago, seemed to be rapidly acquiring a permanent and fixed character. The Southern and South-Western portions of the Union had been reproached at the North for want interest and sympathy in its welfare. Yielding to the joint influence of their own reflections and experience, the Slave States were fast subscribing to the justice and expediency of a tariff for revenue with discrimination for protection. At such an auspicious moment, instead of cordially meeting the Slave States and placing the principle of protection upon impregnable and durable ground, a sufficient number of the free States to be decisive of the contest, abandoned what was believed to be their own cherished policy, and have aided, if not in its total subversion, in exposing it to imminent hazard and uncertainty. Discouragement had taken the place of confidence in the business of the country, enterprise is checked, and no one knows to what employment he can now safely direct his exertions. Instead of a constantly augmenting home market, we are in danger of experiencing its de-cline at a time when the foreign market is absolutely glutted with American productions, cotton especially, which is now selling at a lower price than was ever before known. It is probably destined to fall still lower. The final and not distant result will be, especially if large importations shall be stimulated by low duties, a drain of the specie of the country, with all its train of terrible consequences, on which I have neither inclinations nor time to dwell.

If the cause of the Whigs had triumphed. the distribution of the proceeds of the sales of the public lands would have been secured, and that great national inheritance would preserved for the benefit of the present and future generations. I shall be most agreeably disappointed if it be not wasted in a few years by graduation and other projects of alienation, leaving no traces of permanent benefit behind.

I could not touch upon other great measures of the public policy, which it was the purpose of the Whigs to endeavor to estabhave aimed at the purity of the government, impartial world, to severe animadversion.

But our opponents have prevailed in the late contest, and the Whigs are, for the present, denied the satisfaction of carrying out their measures of national policy. Believing that they are indispensable to the welfare of their country, I am unwilling to relinquish the fond hope that they may be finally established, whether I live to witness that event or not. In the meantime, those to whose hands'the administration of public affairs is confided, ought to have a fair trial .-Let us even indulge an anxious desire that the evils which we have apprehended may not be realized, that the peace of our country may be undisturbed, its honor remain unsullied, and its prosperity continue unimpeded. To guard, however, against adverse results, the resolution of the Whigs of the city of New Haven, steadfastly to adhere to the Whig cause and principles, is wise and pat-

I should be happy to visit once more New offiction. I shall embrace, with great pleas-persisted findly in their resolutions.

In the meantime, on the 29th ult., the deathure, any opportunity, should any ever offer to accept your obliging invitation. I tender to you, gentlemen, my cordial thanks for your friendly wishes and kind regards for me and mine, and I hope that one and all of you may long live in health, happiness and prosperity. I am faithfully your friend and obedient

H. CLAY. sei vant, Messrs. P. S. Galpin, Jas. F. Babcock Thomas R. Trowbridge.

From the N. O. Bee, of Dec. 30. Highly Important from Mexico. OVERTHROW OF SANTA ANNA.

FORMATION OF A NEW GOVERNMENT

On Saturday the schooner Ventura from Vera Cruz arrived in our port, bringing dates from that city to the 19th inst., and from Mexico to the 9th. The news is of the highest importance, and is as serious as unexpected, since previous advice had induced every one conversant with Mexican affairs to believe that Santa Anna memento of the danger of "carrying your would succeed in quelling the insurrection head heart in your hand," as a public man. History will do him justice. His country and from the tenor of our intelligence, that the outbreak in question was not merely one of peri odical seditious movements to which that counhaps in his own day, if his country has need emphatically of him, and he is not always kept on the stage,—for never did such men pass off without leaving a name and a fame pass off without leaving a name and a fame the high for which the world at last was grate. behind for which the world at last was grateful.

The defeat of Mr. Clay by the curious cowith the insurgents, and so rapid and overwhelms of Transa Nullisary No. 27 July 18 alition of Texas Nullifiers and New York ming was its course that in an incredibly short time nearly all Mexico had joined in the movement, the administration was displaced and nearly all Mexico had joined in the movement, the administration was displaced and the movement of the administration was displaced and the property of the control of the con Santa Anna hurled from power and transformed from a Dictator to a skulking fugitive. A singular and satisfactory feature in this revolution s the comparative peacefulness with which i nas been effected.

For the following copious details we are in great measure indebted to the polite attention of a Commercial House from which we have frequently acknowledged similar favors. We hav also received several particulars from the Mexi can Consul.

In the city of Mexico the disturbances com menced by a formal denunciation of Santa An na by both branches of the Mexican Congress, whereupon Gen. Canalizo, who during the ab-sence of the President at Queretero, fulfilled his functions ad interum issued an order com man ling Congress to dissolve, and for the purose of preventing the publication of the decree of that body, forcibly closed every printing office in the city, save Santa Anna's immediate organ, the Diario del Gobierno. The order in prestion was signed by Canalizo and his four ministers, Rejon, Haro, Barnande and Boyadre. As soon as this tyrannical decree was promulga-ted, great excitement rose; the news was rapidy spread about, and the garrison and people of Pueble, on the 3d inst. declared against the Goernment and offered an asylum to the member Congress. In the meanwhile, both the Liberals and the Clergy in the Capitol united in the revolutionary movement, and began to make preparations against the common enemy. Congress, as well as the Ayuntamiento, succeeded, in spite of Canalizo's decree, in having secret circulars printed, which were actively disseminated among all classes. The Government troops about the palice, seeing symptoms of the coming storm, began to waver. After a few days of intense, though quiet excitement, Congress and the party at-tached to the Constitution, assembled at the Convent San Francisco, and a large number of young men, belonging to the middle and better classes, armed themselves in defence of the outraged Legislature and violated Constitution .-From the Convent of San Francisco they murched to the National Palace, in which are situated not only the Military Banacks, but the Hal's of Congress, and called on Canalizo to surrender The Provisional President at first attempted to offer resistence, but his troops exhibited strong symptoms of irresolution and faithlessness, and Canalizo perceiving that no dependence be placed in them, fled terrified into the interior of the Palace. At 2 o'clock p. m. Gen. Herera, leader of the Constitutional party, sent a mes-recognizing the Constitutional Government, and acknowledging the full exercise of its powers.— Canalizo consented to deliver up the garrison upon condition that his person and those of his four ministers should be respected. One of our an entry into the Palace, but that Canalizo in the confusion managed to escape. Another account declares that he was captured and detain ed a prisoner in the Palace, together with Salas the Commandante General, Rejon and Baranda fled, while the Ministers of War and the Home Department were set at liberty upon giving se-curity for the observance of the laws, and their acknowledsment to the Constitution. General Herera next issued the following Prolamation: "Jose Joaquin de Herrera,President of the Coun cil of Government, to the inhabitants of the Capital:

"Mexicans:—A blind and audacious Government had violated the laws, believing that soci-ety was wholly dependent upon its decrees. But I, having been invoked by all claeses, and by the principal commanders and chiefs of the Garrion have re-established Constitutional order and am proud of having spared to Mexico and her vast population the anarchy and dissentions arising out of merely isolated efforts. I therefore invite every patriot to rally around the legitimate government which I represent through the Constitution: and the National Congress which has assembled within a few hours, will ac complish every thing which the safely of the country requires from it. Thus will this momentous event be rendered worthy of national pride -a hope which is sincerely shared by your felow-citizen. JOSE J. DE HERRERA. Mexico, December 6th, 1844."

On the 7th inst. a new Government was or ganized. Gen. Herrera was constituted Provis-ional President of the Republic. His Cabinet consists as follows: Don Pedro Echeverria, Minster of Internal Affairs; Don Luis G. Cuevas Minister of Foreign Affairs; Don Sariano Riva-palacio, Minister of Justice and Public Instruction: Gen. Pedro Garcia Conde, Minister of War and Marine. The new ministry, we understand, is composed of the ablest and most honest men in the Republic. Around it are arrayed all the power, wealth and influence of the nation. purpose of the Whigs to endeavor to establish, without giving to this letter an unsuitable length. They may be briefly stated to cial world for its respectability and influence. He was educated in England, and is a man of enlightened and sagacious intellect. Senor Cuethe greater prosperity of the people, and ad-ditional security to their liberties and to the Union. And, with all, the preservation of the peace, the honor and the good faith of the nation. The whigs were most anxious to inster it is a diplomatic career, and figured once as minister, to Prussia Cende is chief of the engineering. avoid a foreign war, for the sake of acquiring neer corps; he is the son of a Spanish General, a foreign territory, which under the circum-and said to be a clever young man. We have stances of the acquisition, could not fail to reason to believe that under the new government produce domestic discord, and expose the no alteration will take place in the foreign relacharacter of the country, in the eyes of an tions of Mexico, but that on the contrary, they However he granted Pulnam's request will be maintained with increased vigor and en

> No sooner was the revolution in Mexico com pleted than the city appeared to be filled with rejoicings and festivities. Every trophy of Santa the wedges behind the rudder, in the cavita Anna, his portraits and statues were torn injury between the rudder and the ship and to shreds and shattered to pieces. His amputa-ted leg which had been embalmed and burried with military honors, was disinterred, broken to pieces and kicked about the town with every mark of indignity and contempt. . .

The revolution at Vera Cruz is best described in the following letter from a correspondent:

VERA CRUZ, 11th Dec. 1844. Political affairs in this country have since taken a rather violent turn, but as yet without blood being shed. The States of Querelaro Zacatacas, Aguasculientes, and Simalda had joined already in Paredes' plans, when Santa Anna, at the head of about 10,000 troops and 25 pieces of artillery marched on Queretaro on the 22d ult., where he arrived soon after, de-manding that the "disponencias," but which, al-England, and especially New Haven, which ta Anna's mercy, was not complied with; on though the authorities were left entirely at Sanjority ever given in that city in a contested them in case of refusal to the Castle of Ulloa blow to government was struck by the latter it-self. Gen. Canalizo, as President ad interim, with his ministers issued a decree on that day, by which the sittings of Congress were dispensed with for an uncertain period, the Executive de-claring itself invested with unlimited power to decide any question, without consulting the Congress. This bold step created an immense sensation and excitement. First, Peubla rose, declaring against the Government; then Mexico followed, which had in its consequence the immediate overthrow of the Government, the restitution of Congress and the formation of a new Government, with General Jose Joaq. de Herrera Presidente de Conseja de Gobierno as Provisional President, who constitutionally had to take the chair in case of a vacancy, or a temporary absence of the acting President of the Republic. On the news of the pronunciation of Mexico being received here on the 9th, the authorities of this place immediately defermined on following the example, acknowledging the on following the example, acknowledging the new order of things, as established at Mexico, after the pronunciation there.

The removing of Congress, although not open The removing of Congress, although not openly dispersed by Santa Anna, yet it may be taken for granted has been done at his desire, and with this view of things; at Mexico, Puebla and here, every thing bearing the name of Santa Anna or relating to him, his statues, portraits, &c., have been completely destroyed by the peo-ple, who it may be said, hardly ever before show-ed so much interest and enthusiasm for their just cause. I am happy to advise that no exceses have been committed, at least not any of moment; here every thing passed off very quietly.

According to the last information, Santa Anna remains inactive at Queretaro. Congress, it is said, has outlawed him, in case he should not lay down the command of the troops, which latter it may be expected will gradually abandon him, and then he is doubtless done forever. Appearances are quite against him.

Trade is, under such circumstances, not much thought of. Several robberies, to some extent, have been committed on the road to Mexico and further in the interior, by which some merchants lose considerably.

We have likewise seen several letters from va

ious parts of Mexico, all of which speak in glowing terms of the pacific accomplishment of the revolution, and of the beneficial results which are likely to flow from the establishment of a frm, vigorous, and above all, honest Government in lieu of the military despotism and grinding exactions, which have, under the dictatorship of Santa Anna, crushed the people for the last few Royal & Royal vears.

The escape of Santa Anna is highly problematical. At the last advices he was at Queretaro with about 2,500 men. His troops were daily thinned by dissertions. There is every probability that he will be ultimately left alone and that he may be so hemmed in be his enemies, as to leave him no chance of quitting the country.— Should be sucreed in escaping, he will proceed, as we are informed, to Cuba, where with his princely revenues, he can still live in l is accustomed splendor. His private fortune is estimated at some four millions of dollars. For the last twenty-three years, Santa Anna has, with very brief intervals, wielded the destines of Mexico, but his career appears now to be really drawing to a close, leaving him the alternative of a disgraceful dight or an ignominious d ath. We have been favored with a copy of the varions protests and documents connected with the rise and progress of this revolution. We do not publish them in full as they have merely a local interest, and we have given so comprehensive an account of the whole affair, as to render their insertion unnecessary.

On Dirs,-The New York Courier and Enquirer says—

We have good authority for stating that the Post Office Committee in the House will probably present a bill reducing the rates of postage to five and ten cents for distances under and over one hundred miles. They have not as yet decided upon this, though there is reason to believe they will do so.

The Bill for the annexation of Texas will be called up in the house on the 23d. it is scarcely probable that any action for any considerable disscussion, will be had upon it until after the holydays.

day and Thursdays, at 10 o clock A. m., and upon days are party and Independence, arrives every faturday, at 2 o clock P. M., and departs at 3 P. M. sage to Canalizo, requiring him to issue orders it until after the holydays.

The Rose.

I saw a rose perfect in beauty; it rester gracefully upon its stalk, and its perfume filled the air. Many stopped to gaze upon it, many bowed to taste its fragrance, and ts owner hung over it with delight. I passed again, and beheld it was gone—its stem was leafless-its root had withcred the enclosure which surrounded it was bro ken down. The spoiler had been therehe saw that many admired it: he knew i was dear to him that planted it, and beside it he had no plant to love. Yet he snatched it secretly from the hand that cherished it; he wore it on his bosom till it hung its ead and faded, he flung it rudely away But it left a thorn in his bosom, and vainly did he seek to extract it: for now it pier ces the spoiler even in his hour of mirth .-And when I saw that no man, who had lov ed the beauty of the rose, gathered again its scattered leaves or bound up the stalk which the hand of violence had broken, I looked earnestly at the spot where it grew. and my soul received instruction. And said, Let her who is in full beauty and admiration, sitting like the queen of flowers in maiesty among the daughters of women, le er watch lest vanity enter her heart, beguiling her to rest proudly upon her own strength, let her remember that she standetl upon slippery places, "and be not high minded but fear." - Mrs. Sigourney

Gen. Putnam. During the last war in Canada, between he French and English, when General Amnerst was marching across the country to Canada, the army coming to one of the lakes which they were obliged to pass, found the French had an armed vessel of 12 guns upon it. The General was in great distress; nis boat was no match for her, and she alone was capable of sinking the whole army, in the situation in which it was placed. Gerthat ship must be taken." -"Ay," said Amherst "I would give the world if she was taken," "I will take her," says Putnam. Amherst smiled and asked how? "Give me some wedges, a beetle and a few men of my own choice." Amherst could not perceive how an armed vessel was to be taken by a few men and a beetle and wedges. When night came, Putnam with his mate rials and men, stole quietly in a boat under the vessel's stern, and in an instant drove ity between the rudder and the ship, and oft her. In the morning the sails were the middle of the lake, and being presently blown ashore, she was easily taken.

SCALLOP, EDGE SUN SHADES AND PARASOLS,
OGETHER with every variety of change-able, fig'd, and plain Silk Shades and Paralowest prices; silk, cotton, gingham, of good quality, by the piece, at the Undrella Store on Fish St. east of Main.

N. L. COLE.

Blanks, Blanks. DEEDS & MORTGAGES, of an improved and highly approved form, printed on excellent pape - ALSO—JUSTICES' & CONSTABLES' BLANK has done me so much honor, by giving the contrary, the Juda Departamental, notwithme, at the late election, the largest mastering Santa Anna having threatened to send of a good quality, for sale at this Office.

Cincinnati, jy. 27

From the Frankfort Commonwealth. Cassius M. Clay's Position in Regard to Slavery.

We insert the following letter from C. M Clay, at his request, in order that his true position, which has been entirely misconceiv ed by many, may be correctly understood by the country. Those who have supposed him an abolitionist, in the sense of the term as commonly understood in political circles, will see that they have misunderstood him.

T. B. Stevenson, Esq: Sir:—I ask the liberty to make through your columns, a summary statement of my views upon the subject of slavery .-By a portion of the people of this State, I never expect to be fairly represented. To the great mass of the people who have no interest in suppressing truth, I would appeal against the calumnies of unscrupulous parti Slavery is a municipal institution. It exists by no other right and tenure than the Constitution of Kentucky. I am opposed to depriving slave holders of their slaves by any other than Constitutional and legal means.—Of course then I have no sympathy for those who would liberate the slaves of Kentucky in other ways. I have no connection with any man, or set of men, who would sanction or undertake the illegal liberation of slaves; and I feel bound, by my allegiance to the State of Kentucky, to resist (by force, if necessary) all such efforts. Whilst I hold that the United States Constitution has no power to establish slavery in the District of Columbia, or in the Terri tory, or in any place of its exclusive supremacy; so I contend, that in the States, once admitted into the Union and thereby become sovereign and independent, Congress has no power or right to interfere with or touch slavery, without the legitimate consent of the

I believe that the addition of new slave states, or slave territory, to this Union, is unconstitutional and impossible.

I am the avowed and uncompromising ene my of slavery and shall never cease to use all Constitutional, and honorable, and just Born a Kentuckian and a slaveholder, have no predjudices nor enmities to gratify; but impelled by a sense of self respect, love of justice, and the highest expediency, I shall ever maintain that liberty is our only safety. For the freedom of speech and of the press. I never shall cease to battle while life lasts. If there is any Kentuckian so base to vield these constitutional and glorious priviliges, without which it is the veriest mockery to talk of being a free people, I envy him not:

—A slave to slaves, let him sodden in his infamy: With such I hold no fellowship; from such I ask no quarter. All I ask is an open field and a fair fight. Your ob't Serv't. C. M. CLAY. Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 8, 1845.

Arrivals and Departures of the Mails, AT COVINGTON.

Eastern and Northern Mail, arrives daily, Sundays excepted, at 10 o'clock A. M., and departs same day at 8 A. M.
Southern and Western Mail, arrives daily, Sundays excepted, at 10 o clock A. M., and de parts same day at 8 A. M. Lexington Mail, via Georgetown, Williamstown, Crittenden, Florence, &c., arrives Mon-

Wednesdays and Saturdays at 4 o'clock A. M. Closes the evening previous, Cynthiana Mail, via Falmouth, Licking Grove, Flour Creek, Tibbatt's M. Roads, Alexandria, Newport, Ky., and Cincinnati, O., arrives Monday and Thursdays, at 10 o'clock A. M., and de-

A daily mail route has recently been estab lished by the Post Office Department, upon the Kentucky River, which connects with the daily mail from Cincinnati to Louisville, by mail matter can be for office daily to Frankfort and Lexington, via Cin-cincinnati, &c., Sundays excepted. Closes at 8 o'clock A. M. The Post Office opens at 7½ o'clock every more ning, Sundays excepted, and closes at 4½ P. M. during the winter. H. MARTIN, P. M. December 7, 1844.

GREAT WESTERN LAND AGENCY,

No. 30, Front Street,

CINCINNATI, OHIO. The undersigned having been heretofore ex tensively engaged in the selling of REAL ES-TATE in the eastern cities, was induced by his numerous friends and acquaintances, to resum that branch of business in the west. He ac cerdingly opened, temporarily, an Office, at his Lecture room, North East Corner of Main and Fifth Streets, Cincinnati, where he has been patrenized for the last year, beyond his most san guine expectations. He has now removed to Front Street, in full view of all the Steam boat arrivals and departures, where he is ready to receive propositions for the purchase and sale of Real Estate, of every variety, in Cities, Towns, or Country.

His extensive and intimate acquaintance in all the Eastern States, and in most of the large cities of the Union for the last twenty-five years will give him very decided advantages in procuring purchasers from a distance. His Stenographic profession has given unrivalled facilities for correspondence with hundreds of editors and publishers in different parts of the United States, by which means he can more readily make known the relative merits and advantages of property brought within his agency. (As a proof of his facilities, he would remark, that on a former occasion, he sold in a single year, within a eral Putnam came to him and said, "General lots to the amount of $600,000—thus bringing single county of Pennsylvania, farms and town into the pockets of his immediate neighbors, from the large cities and remote parts of the Union, cash in hand payments, to the amount of $150,-000 within the year.)

As soon as patronage will warrant, he will, in addition to the ordinary duties of a local "gent, resume his former practice of visiting the large Eastern Cities, as often as once in six menths-to spread his propositions before capitalists, to exhibit and explain maps, charts and descriptions; to organize Manufacturing companies, Land Companies, Joint Stock Societies, Social Communities, etc., etc.-to receive orders, and perform such other functions, as pertain to a general land agency, between the east and the seen fluttering about-she was adrift in west, the north and the south, or with various countries of Europe.

In the mean time, persons wishing to sell fully invited to call at the office as above described, where the most satisfactory references will be given, and abundant evidence shown of the nupossess, over every and all others, in the east or

All communications through the Post Office. IF POSTAGE PAID, will receive prompt attention OFFICE HOURS FROM 9 TO 3 O'CLOCK. M. T. C. GOULD, General Land Agent. Cincinnati, 20, 1844.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CITY CLERK.

To the Honorable, President and Common Council, of the City of Covington,

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with the duties imposed upon me, by the Ordinances of the City and the Charter incorporating the same, I herewith tender, most respectfully, my annual Report as City Clerk, for the year 1844, commencing January 1st, 1844, and ending January 1st, 1845.

	RECEIPTS.
	Cash in Teasury 1st January, 1844,	$76
	Proceeds of Tax Bills.	4,049	22
	" from City Marshal for 1841, '42 and '43,		10
	1844,	765	70
	" from J. Mackoy, Tax on Lots 288, 289,	90	09
	From the State of Kentucky, School Fund,	165	00
			$5,2	11 11
	LICENSES.		-
	Taverns and Coffee Houses,	$ 285	00
	Wagons, Carts and Drays,	62
	Market House rents,	ւ82	00
	Shows and Exhibitions,	28	50
	Auctioneers,	20
	Grave Yard privileges,	5	00	/
			48	32 50/
	STOCKS.			/ /
	Sale of 13 Shares of N. B. Stock,	$1,200
	Dividends on same,	45		/
	on Turnpike Stock,	120		~ ~~
			— J 80	5 73
	MISCELLANEOUS.	41 850	~~/
	Borrowed of the N. B. Kentucky,	$1,750
	Drafts in the hands of sundry individuals, Jan. 1st, 1845,	751	A 9.50	11 41
			2,00	11 21
_			$9,56	 30.75
			$2,00	,0 10
	DISBURSEMENTS AND APPROPRIATIO	יאלי
	DISBURSEMENTS AND AFFRORMATIO	/
	eets, Street cleaning, Culverts, &c.,		2 51
0	or, Poor House, Jail, Grave Yard and Physicians' fees,	34	2 23	****
		-		$934 74
	PRINTING. /			59 00
r	advertisements, Blanks, &c.,		,	59 00
	INTEREST.	A1 70	00.00
	erest on City Loan,	$1,50	.0 00 36 32
C	change and Discount,			1,566 3
	\ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \	_		1,000 0

1,566 32 PUBLIC WELLS, PUMPS AND CISTERNS. 100 86 Repairing Wells, Pumps, &c., MARKET HOUSE. 37 96 Repairs on Market House, Stalls, &c., LEGAL FEES. 172 82 Marshal, Clerk of Court, and Attorney fees, COMMON SCHOOL. 768 22 For Teacher's salaries, repairs, OFFICERS' SALARIES. $75 00 150 00 150 00 Assessor for City, 1844, Clerk, Treasurer, " 50 00 50 00 45 46 Attorney, " "
Police Commissioner. CITY HALL. MISCELLANEOUS. $1,200 00

Market Master's salary, 520 46 Cash appropriations, To Wm. Leathers, in payment of a Loan, To Fire Department, Tax refunded on over assessment, &c., '43 and '44, 45 10 53 00 Expenses City Council, Council Chamber, &c., For Postage account, Drafts in the hands of sundry individuals, January 1st, 1844, and paid 1 25 612 39 2,587 87 this year, Scrip issued in 1843 and paid in 1844, Cash on hand 1st January, 1845, 1 10 4,519 58 60 00 Expenses preparing Index Book,

RESOURCES OF THE CITY. $56 25 Due from Collector of Revenue Tax, 1836, 37 74 264 00 City Marshal on fines for 1838, Collector Revenue Tax for 1840 and '41 ° 270 40 Sheriff of Campbell County, Also 100 Shares Cov. and Lex. Turnpike road, at $50 per Share, LIABILITIES. $677 50 days and Fridays at 6 n'clock P. M. and departs Scrip issued and payable 1st June, 1845, All of which is respectfully submitted, B. W. FOLEY, City Clerk.

January 2, 1845.

FACTORY

WALKER, has permanently established WALKER, has permanently standard himself in this city in the Hat manufacturing business, and solicits public patronage. He will supply his customers with Hats of a good quality and fashionable style, cheaper than they can be had in Cincinnati or elsewhere. Merchants will be supplied on advantageo Merchants will be supplied in admiraged the starting of terms. Hats made to order, on the shortest notice. Shop on Scott street, opposite to the store of Gedge & Brothers.

Covington, June 1, 1844

45tf

Those who Counterfeit a good medicine for the purpose of adding a few dollars to their pocket, are far worse than the manufactu-rers of spurious coin. For while the latter only rob us of our property, the former take property and health and life away. Dr. Wistan's Balsam of Wild Cherry is admitted by thousands of disinterested witnesses to have effected the most extraordinary cures, in cases of a pulmanary and asthmatic character, ever before recorded in the history of medicine.

The young, the beautiful and the good, all speak forth its praise. It is now the favorite the lots are desirably located, high and airy, and medicine in the most intelligent families of our the soil fine for fruit trees, and well adapted to the soil and the Wine, it being near the Such a high stand in public estimation has been achieved by its own merits alone. And so long as a discerning public are careful to get ton. The property will be sold on favorable

WISTER'S BALSAN OF WILD CHERRY, and refuse terms for time. with scorn counterfeits; and every other article proffered to them as a substitute, so long will cures—Fositive cures cheer the fireside of many a despairing family.

Sanford Park, (at the new store, corner of Fourth and Walnut,) Agents for Cincinnati.

FRANKLIN HOUSE, Main Street, between Third and Fourth, CINCINNATI OHIO.

THE subscribers beg leave to announce to their friends and the public in general that they have leased this well known House, situated on Main, between Third and Fourth Streets. This Hotel has gone through a general change; it has no Bar attacked to it, which will render it more pleasant to those who wish to be retired from the noise and bustle attending a bar room. No pains will be spared to make those who may favor them with a call comfortable. The rooms are large and commodious. The travelling community are respectfully invited to call, as they will find it much to their advantage; the house is centrally situated in a business; art of the City, convenient for Country Merchants, and those traveling East or West.

The Lines of STAGES leave this House on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, one for Brookville and Indianapolis, Ia., the other for Hilsborough, Bainbridge and Chillicothe, Ohio.

A. L. ROSS,
L. P. FRASIER,
Cincinnati, Nov. 2, 1844.

Cincinnati, Nov. 2, 1844. PURE WINES FOR MEDICINAL PUR-

HAVE a few casks of Pune Old Port, Ma

DEIRA AND SHERRY WINES, which I selected with great care in Boston, expressly for medici farms, town lots, or other real estate, are respect- nal purposes. They are recommended as of the very best quality, and having had them an-alyzed, I know them to be pure. Persons wishing a pure Port or other Wines, are desired to ca and examine for themselves. I have also fine old merous facilities which this establishment will and Pure Brandies,, selected for the same purpose, old Cognac and Champaign, some thirty old. For sale by ALLISON OWEN, Columbia St. six years old. Cin. Sept. 14th.

JOHN W. VENABLE.

PORTRAIT and MINIATURE Painter has and Fifth, over Mr. Steward's tailor shop. removed to Scott street, between Fourth

100 00

A. L. & T. GREER, Wholesale and Retail dealers in Dry Goods, Hardware and Groceries, which they offerlow, for Cash or Country Produce, such as Wheat

Wanted,

Insurance.

SPLENDID COUNTRY SEATS FOR SALE.

HE subscriber offers for sale in lots of 5 and 10 acres, a few situations that command a fine view of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport,

The property will be sold on favorable for time.

JULIUS BRACE.

Reference is made to Mr. Henry Emerson, W. W. Southgate, Esq.

BBLS. Licking Cement for sale by C. L. MULLINS & CO. Cov March 15, 1844. 34

REMOVAL.

HOUSANDS! TENS OF THOUSANDS!

No. 28 North Second street, Philadelphia will for one day louger be tormented with the

For sale by J. W. SHEPPARD, at the Comb Store, Main st. Cincinnati

Glass Ware.

400 BOXES Fillet Glass Ware, consisting of Saltmouths, Tinctures, Jere flute and plain Tumblers, Wines, Decanted

Molasses Cans, Lamp shades and Chimney Cake Covers, Pepper, Vinegar and Mustam Cruets, Salts, Cup-plates, &c. &c.

For sale by

O. ALDRICH, Agent.

158 Main st., Cincinnati.

N. B. Country Druggists will be furnisted.

with all kinbs of Apothecaries furniture, Vials

Oils, &c., at manufacturers prices.

Main st. Cincinnati. 10tf.

Calvin Fletcher,
Dr. J. A. Warder,
Lowel Fletcher,

A. L. Greer,
J. T. Levis,
P. S. Bush.

Lowel Fletcher, P. S.

Cincinnati.

Covington, July 27, 1844.

Groceries, Queensware, &c.

Price one dollar.

Sept. 28 1834.

Feb. 24, 1844.

or barter, only. Covington, June 22, 1844. 43-tf.

Covington, April 13.

Covington, June 22, 1844.

$777 50

Cincinnati, Nov. 2, 1844.

CONSUMPTION. Reader! such an enemy is Consumption!

Females Beware!

It is an indisputable fact, demading serious and solemn consideration, that thousands of the Deaths of females to far exceed those of males, and that the greatest portion die in the bloom of youth, before they attain the age of twenty-five, nay twenty! Consumption is a disease that spreads its insiduous ravages throughout the Universe and nips both great and small.— Listen then to a warning voice which echoes constantly in your ears and guard yourcelves rivised in your system. It is only at this time for the first, you will begin to be concerned about

Boots and Shoes, Cotton Yarns, Batting, &c., EXPECTORANT REMEDY which they will sell at Cincinnati prices, for cash A medicine prepared especially for diseases of

HOUSANDS: IEMS OF INCUSANDS:
are now suffering under that bane of Life, FRVER AND AGUE. Not one, however, who knows and can procure a bottle of ROW-LAN'S IMPROVED TONIC MIXTURE. at Always enquire for Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy. A fresh supply just received and for sale by

H. FRAZIER,

Sycamore st. one door below Third,

Cincinnati, Ohio.

The only place it can be obtained in "wretched complaint."

We estimate that 500,000 cases have been cu-

Hamilton county.

Price—One Dollar per bottle, or six bottles red by this unrivalled remedy, during the 15 years that it has been used throughout the Uni-6 Twist Tobacco.

Beware of all Tonic Mixture that has not a label over the top of the bottle, with the E want at least 2000 kegs for our fall sales, and can also do well for consignments. A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S. pritten signature of John R. Rowland upon it.

Cincinnati, Oct. 26, 1844. Hayden & Callawn,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS, Market Space, Covington, Ky.

WHOLESALE Grocers and Dry-Good dealers, corner of Market Space and Market street, have a good assortment of Greceries and Dry-Goods, which they offer to sell low for cash, or exchange for country produce.

cash prices, every description of Grand oduce, Pittsburgh Man Jactures, &c.
A. G. RICHA JSON & BRO'S., A. G. RICHA JSON & 14-tf. Cincinnati, Oct., 1844.

DELA IS DANGEROUS.

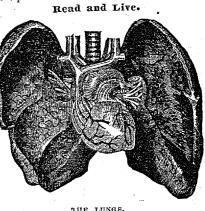

Groceries, Cc.

We are receiving and Aling at the lower cash prices, every description of Groceries.

DELA IS DANGEROUS.

Dr. Dunce's Expectorant Remedy.

THIS me cine, from its general use, has acquire'a famous reputation, consequently, certificaty, setting forth its valuable qualities, are unny essary; it has only to be used to establish the far which so many have certified to—the best mediane now in use for Coughs, Colds, Pain in the freast and Side, Consumption, &c. Persons we are desirous of examining certificates can be drommedated by calling upon the agent at this commodated by calling upon the agent at this place. Having used Dr. Duncan's Expectorant, we can safely recommend it to others as the most effectual remedy for Coughs, Colds, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Breast and Side, now offered to the public .- Democratic Mirror, Marion, O.

THE LUNGS. DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, consumption, Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breath-ing, Asthma, Pain in the Side, Breast and Chest, Whoop-ing Cough, Croup, and all Discases of the Liver and Lungs.

Positive and convincing proofs can be furnished to those who are yet skeptical to the wonder-ful healing properties of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy for Consumption, &c. Those who are interested in procuring a suitable remedy, who do not wish to trifle with disease, are requested to call on the agent and procure the addresses of a large number of citizens who will bear convincing testimony to the assertion that Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy is the best medicine for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, &c., that is now offered to the public.

Many deny that Consumption is curable, but it has been demonstrated by the use of Dr. Dun-can's Expectorant Remedy, that it can be cured, and numerous cases are known, in which the patients were given up by their physicians, and their recovery pronounced impossible, who have been restored to health by the use of this great Remedy. This can be proven to the satisfaction of the most incredulous. The corrupt and morbid humors that fasten on the lungs and make them diseased, are removed by expectoration.

At this season of the year no family should be without it; at the first appearance of a cold, a small quantity will give immediate relief; thus the origin of a protracted and dangerous disease the origin of a protracted and dangeton distance is removed. Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy is entirely a Vegetable Composition, and very pleasant to take. For sale at

H. FRAZIER'S, Sycamore St.,

One door below Third, Cincinnati, Ohio. The only place it can be obtained in Hamilton county.

Price—One Dollar per bottle, or six bettles for Five Dollars.

When first it marks you for its victim, by fastening on your lungs a disease however slight it may be, it commences its tones of warning telling you not to forget that the citadel of life is for Cash or Country Produce, such as Wheat Corn, and Tobacco. Store corner of Scott and Market space. Highest price, cash, paid for Wheat, at their Union Mill. Fresh Flour always on hand, by the barrel or otherwise.

Highest results that the interest late of the state of the st COVINGALLY on hand a large lot of double Rectified Whiskey, low for cash. C. L. MULLINS & CO.

Covington, April 13. son and judgment respond a negative—tell you plainly you should not. Then if suffering with the long Premonitery seeds of a pulmonary nature, a Cold, Cough, Influenza, Bronchitis, soreness of the throat, as Asthma, Spitting of &c. Will you first of all make a trial of 1000 BUSHELS Flax Seed wanted, for which the highest price will be C. L. MULLINS & CO. Cov. March 15, 1844. 34; Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedys It is a safe and efficacious Remedy, and certain to remove all disease from your system, when THE undersigned has been appointed Agent for the Protection Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Hartford Conn., and is now prepared for taking risks. Office on Market Space, at his Store, under the old Insurance Office.

JOHN MACKOY.

Conincted June 99 1844 48-45 used before it is too late, therefore delay not until your lungs fall a prey to Consumption, and Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy is manufactured at the Principal Office, No. 19, North Eighth street, Philadelphia, and sold by agents generally throughout the United States. Be you careful that some trifling nostrum is not palmed upon you by some sellers of mediines in place of Dr. Duncan's ly into an untimely grave; the unconscious vic-tims of their own suicidal acts! From the Register of Mortality we find the

from the first unerring seeds of this disease which is certain to knit its fatal threads and and hurry you to the solitary tomb! As the rat-tlesnake warns you of its poisonous fangs and you heed it not, until the sting of death is fast The Lord V was a concerned about for the first, you will begin to be concerned about your health, but it may be too late. May these removed to the New Brick building, South side of Pike st., East of Ashbrook's Hotel. Keep constantly on hand every variety of Dry Coods.

Secondary Overnewage &c. DR. DUNCAN'S

> the Respirators Organs, viz—Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Influention of the Mucus Membrane, Spitting of Blood, and Asthma.

Columbia St., near Main.

II.L sell at Ciucinnati prices, for cash and Produce. March 15, 1844.

COOPER, BERRY & CO.

COVINGTON.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1845.

SAMUEL T. HAUSER, of Falmouth, has been appointed Commonwealth's Attorney, for this District.

Wm. C. Marshall.

We see that the above named gentleman is announced, in the Louisville Journal, as a canannounced, in the Louisville Journal, as a can-the following with pain. It is from the Natchez didate for Congress in this District. Mr. Mar-Courier of the 3d inst. shall is a smart man, and has winning ways; but this announcement may be a little premature,

The Kentucky Legislature.

We have received letters from Frankfort, not intended for publication, from which we are able to collect, that there is likely to be but little business transacted by the Legislature at this session. They have passed a resolution to adjourn ture, to interfere with its growth, as, indeed, hope for our share of the public lands. We have pealed, at least, so far as to furnish an excuse for the General Government, to use the proceeds of the public lands. The State of Kentucky should, therefore, be making provision for having looked over the ground of the quarrel, as paying off her public debt. We are not advised, presented in the Washington papers, we feel however, that any motion has yet been made on bound to say, as public journalists, that a more they must de something, by way of excuse for and Bourbon have elected a man to fill the va- head.—Ballimore Patriot, Jan. 11. cancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Morgan, who was elected by Nicholas and Bourbon. The people of Nicholas, we think, very properly complain because there is no man in the Sen-Nicholas now make a district, and Mason's Sen- only one mouthful for him. ator is the representative of Nicholas. The people of Nicholas never consented for Mason's Senator to represent them. It may be bold in us, but we must say we believe the Governor Bourbon, instead of Nicholas and Bourbon.

Scott County.

The Whigs of Scott have announced Manlius V. Thompson, as a candidate for Congress in the eighth District. If we were associated with Scott, as formerly, we would say amen. Mr. Thompson needs "no labored panegeric" as it is justly remarked, by the Whigs of Scott. But let National Intelligencer's report of the pro-Scott remember that Garret Davis, or Charles Morehead, are greatly preferable to any Democrat in the District. The Whigs of Kentucky should be very careful not to allow the State to be misrepresented in the next Congress.

Notwithstanding the complaints of the people of Nicholas, and the glaring injustice of denying that County a voice in the Senate, of its own choosing, the Committee on Elections has reported in favor of the legality of the late election of Senator by Scott and Bourbon, to supply the place of John S. Morgan. The Commistee says Col. Morgan resigned his seat for the 27th land bill. District, and the writs of election were directed to the Counties composing the 27th District, according to the act of '43-4; and, therefore, the proceedings were regular. This reasoning is specious, and the decision works an injustice. which the whole Commonwealth should see remedied. Col. Morgan was elected by the 27th Diserict, composed of the counties of Bourbon and Nicholas. Why were not the writs of election assued to the counties composing the 27th District, according to the act of '39-40? Does the act of 43-4 repeal the action of the people of Nicholas in 1842, when Morgan was elected ?--We take the position, that the Legislature canmot pass an act which can operate to deprive a county of representation of its choice, by apportionment or otherwise. They can refuse to allow the member a seat, when he comes; but they can't either directly or indirectly deprive them of the privilege of sending him.

"Let the Dead alone."

A Democratic paper comes to us from Xenia. Dhio, under the imposing name of the "Thom as Jefferson." We copy the following notice from it:

"W. W. Southgate, Esq., died at his residence, retently, in Covington, Ky. He formerly was a member of Congress from that District. In the contest of 1840 he was a prominent speaker in the Whig ranks, and said many things against Martin Van Buren that he will have to

We feel sure that there is not a Democrat in this neighborhood who will not feel disgusted at the unhuman want of taste, or rather the unfeeling meanness of the above notice. Washington Irwin asked a demi-savage, in the Rocky Mountains, to tell the injuries he had received from an enemy, then dead. "Let the dead valone; I have nothing against him," was the dignified answer of the wild son of the forest. practice from the example of the wild man,

WEATHER FENDERS .- Reader, if you wish to weep'n dry head and shoulders, go right strait to COLE'S, on Fifth street opposite the Dennison House, and buy an umbrella-unless you al-House, and buy an umbrella—unless you al-ready have one. There you can find all kinds, ositions previously offered, as amendments and small Wares, will be closed off at greatly sorts and qualities, cheap-dog cheap.

The Louisville "Morning Courier and American Democrat," edited by BRYANT & HALDE-MAN, came out on the Ist Tostant, on a mammoth sheet. The paper is hundsomely printed and ably conducted, and we hope the enterprising proprietor, W. N. Haldeman, will receive a patronage corresponding with the increased size of his paper.

Never judge a person's actions until you undersed by Mr.WELLER stand the motives which prompted them. Mr. Douglass said he had desired to ad-

Fine.-The Fulton Bagging Factory was part- dress the House in support of the amendly destroyed by fire again yesterday. The flames ment; but, if the question could no broke out in the Card Room, a few minutes after he would consent to withdraw it. 12 o'clock, while the workmen were at dinner, and spread rapidly. The fire companies were promptly on the ground, and prevented the total conflagration of the Factory.

We understand that the injury sustained was only to the amount of $1800 to $2000. The damage to machinery is supposed to be about $900, and that to the two-story building $800 to 1000. The Factory was fully insured at six of our insurance offices. It was the three sto ry building that was burnt a few months ago, in the destruction of the Brewery of Schultz & Brothers.—Cin. Gaz. Jan. 16.

SHOCKING AFFAIR .- The many friends of the adventurous and gallant young Combs will read

Young Mr. Combs, son of Gen. Leslie Comb of Kentucky, who was some months since a prisoner in Mexico, and who has a plantation at all events, the Whig candidate of this Disther Mississippi river, near the mouth of Red trict will have some work to do, and we hope, if River, was killed on Tuesday afternoon last, Mr. Marshall sees that another can do more effi-cient work than he, he will not be loth to stand stances are differently related, and we do not feel authorized to relate particularly any ac count that we have heard, as yet. The parties came together in the road between their plantations, Mr. C. being accompanied by a friend, when O'Blenis shot Mr. C. in the leg and in the head. O'Blenis immediately left, and was in this place on Wednesday. He is said to have left here on Wednesday evening.

THE DUEL.-There is no doubt that Messrs on the 1st of February. The increasing state Clingman, of North Carolina, and Yancey, of of the indebtedness of the Commonwealth, may Alabama, have passed through this city, perhaps induce some action on the part of the Legisla- to Delaware, to settle, by mortal combat, a personal controversy. Both these gentleman were we think it ought. We now have no reason to in the city yesterday, with several friends. The second of Mr. Clingman is Mr. Jones, of Washno right to expect that it will not be needed to ington, (son of General Jones,) and the second supply the place of the tariff, which will be re- of Mr. Yancey is Mr. Huger, of South Carolina, (nephew of the Senator.)

We hope that this affair will yet terminate without bloodshed or injury to either party; but wonton and altogether uncalled for attack was There seems to be a strong inclination to re- never made upon any man in the Halls of Coupeal the $250 law, as it is called. But the law gress, than was that of Mr. Yancey upon Mr. will be stoutly advocated by some. It is strange Clingman. It was such an attack as no man That the enlightened policy of that law cannot could receive without resenting it, and though be seen by the Legislature. But we suppose we do now, and must ever continue deeply to regret not only the attack but the consequences staying until the 1st of February. The special that are likely to grow out of it, yet we can have election of Senator for the 27th district, will no hesitation in saying that if Mr. Yancey falls probably cut some figure in the Senate. Scott in the conflict, his blood will be upon his own

An Eagle measuring over seven feet be tween the tips of his wings, was caught in Orange county, New York, a few days ago, by aged about thirteen, with the upper cuvical ed for by her friends, that her sufferings might ate for whom they voted. It is said Mason and means of a fox trap. A pound of beef makes Contentment. - The fountain of content must spring up in the mind, and he who has so little knowledge of human nature as to erred in issuing writs of election to Scott and his own disposition, will waste his life in fruitless efforts, and multiply the griefs which he purposes to remove.

CONGRESSIONAL,

The Senate did not sit on the 3d. In the House the subject of annexing Texas was at last got up. The following is the ly and steadily, and hefore the force be rules prescribing the order of business be soundly all night, and is perfectly well this suspended, and that the House do resolve morning. self into the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union for the purpose of taking into consideration the joint resolution reported from the Committee on Foreign Affairs for the annexation of Texas to the United States.

Annexation of Texas.

The CHAIR stated that the subject first in order was a pending resolution offered the day before by the gentleman from Alabama, (Mr. Houstan) to stop debate on the

Mr. Houstan, said that he was willing the other subject; and he withdrew it accordingly. Mr, Vance inquired whether this was not private bill day?

The Chain replied in the affirmative; but reminded Mr. V, that a motion to suspend the rules took precedence of the business under the rules.

Mr. Vance demanded the yeas and nays on suspending the rules; they were ordered; and, being taken, resulted as follows: Yeas 107, nays 63.

rules. On motion of Mr. C. J. INGERSOLL, the House then went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, (Mr. Horkins, of Virginia, in the Chair.) The CHAIRMAN stated that the business first in order was the consideration of the bill to reduce and graduate the price of the public lands. Mr. C. J. Ingersoll moved to lay aside that bill, and take up a joint resolution reported from the Committee on Foreign Aff.

airs for the annexation of Texas. Mr. CARY, of Maine, contended that the gentleman from Pennsylvania could not make this motion, not having a right to the floor: that the floor was his from the choosing what subject it would take up. The question was then put on Mr. Ingersolls motion and carried: Ayes 85, noes not counted.

The joint resolution was read. Mr. INGERSOLL was about to address the Rich Cashmere Vestings, Committee, when-Mr. Weller asked leave to introduce an amendment (formerly indicated by him, and proposing a different plan for annexation,) which was received (Mr. I. giving Figured do no Super French Cashmere Shawk, The "Thomas Jefferson" might learn how to way for the motion) and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Douglas in like manner obtained Highland Plaid though he may not be able to change his nature. leave to offer another, (also indicated by Woolen Comforts and Mufflers, 25 him some days since,) as an amendment to the amendment.

This, also, was ordered to be printed. Mr. Winthror made a question of order, to a pending bill or resolution. Mr. Weller contended that, if the words were varied the rules forbidding it would not apply.

The objection was overruled. Mr. C. J. INGERSOLL then addressed the Committee in a general explanation of the resolution, reserving as he said, any de ence of it till he heard it attacked.

He was succeeded by Mr. Belser, in fafence of it till he heard it attacked.

vor of the general object. The question recurring on Mr. Doug-LASS's amendment to the amendment propo-

The flames | ment; but, if the question could now be go

Mr. BAYLY said it was obvious the debate was not concluded, but had only come to a temporary suspension. Without any intention to address the Committee when i next met, should his motion prevail, he moved the Committee rise.

The motion prevailed and the Committee rose and reported progress.

Annexation Again.

Mr. Tibbatts, having given notice some days since, asked leave to introduce a bill to authorize the people of Texas to form a constitution and State government, and for the admission of such State into the Union on the equal footing with the original States. Also a joint resolution pledging to the citizens of Texas the protection of this nation until the question of re-annexation shall be definitely settled.

The bill was read the first and second time by its title, and was committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the State

The resolution was read throughout, and s as follows.

"Whereas propositions and negociations are depending between the United States and the Republic of Texas relative to, and having for their object, the re-annexation of Texas to the United States:

"Resolved, that the people of the United States owe to their own honor and to the people of Texas to protect them from all foreign aggression or invasion by any oth er Power during the pendency of such pro positions and regulations. "2. Resolved, That this nation will pro tect the people of Texas from all foreign aggression and invasion until such time as the question of re-annexation shall be definitely settled; and that the President of the United States is authorized, until such definite settlement of said question, to se cure to the citizens of Texes all needful and practicable protection in their persons. business and property, by sea and land."

This resolution was read the first and second time and committed to the Commit tee of the Whole on the State of the Union Mr. Belser obtained leave and introdu ced a joint resolution for the re-annexation of Texas to the United States of America The resolution was read the first and second time by its title, and was committed to the Committee of the Whole on the state of

From the Cin. Gazetle.

Surgery Extraordinary-Neck Stretched. Messrs. Editors :- Last evening Mr. J. Stokes who lives at Southwest corner of Longworth and Western Row, brought to the Botanico Medical College his daughter, vertebrae so dislocated to the right that the head was turned towards the left shoulder, and the right shoulder was thrown downward and backward; and both were so firmly fixed in these positions that they could not be moved in any direction with out producing severe pain. It had been for twenty-four hours in that condition, and was still painful. I gave her some bland, to the vapor bath, which produced profuse perspiration. When removed from the bath, I gave her every five minutes lobelia in broken doses, till she vomited-when not being sustained by stimulants, she was well relaxed. I requested her father to take hold of her head and lift it up, directcame equal to the weight of her body, with my own fingrs, in less than half a minute. I restored the bones to their proper places when the pain instantly ceased, and she Mr. CHARLES J. INGERSOL moved that the could move her head as usual. She slept

From the success of this experiment the B. M. College for the operation. A. CURTIS Yours, truly, Wood. Corn, Oats, Potatoes, &c.

Many of our subscribers have expressed a wish to pay their subscriptions in the above named articles. They can do so if they will attend to it soon. We will give the market to withdraw his resolution to make way for price for Wood, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Chickens Butter, Eggs, &c

MARRIED

On the 14th instant, by the Rev. J. C. Bayess, Mr. Anthony Desler to Miss Mangaret BARMAN.

On the 12th instant, by the Rev. A. Drury Mr. Thomas Cole and Miss Hannah Dean, all of this City.
On the 13th instant, by Eld. James G. Arnold Mr. Samuel R. Rich and Miss Eveline Kney-

07, nays 63.

So the House agreed to suspend the McGowen and Miss Nancy Dargan, all of this vicinity.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

WM. K. & SEP. T. WALL. ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, Office on Market Space, Covington, Kentucky. SEP. T. WALL has permanently located himself in Covington, and will always be found at his office, unless professionally absent. WM. K. WALL will, as heretofore, punctually attend the Kenton, Boone and Campbell Circuit Courts, in which they practise in partnership. January 1, 1845, 26-tf

H. MUSSEY, desirous to reduce his stock of FORFICE AMD DOLLER the floor: that the floor was his from the last sitting of the Committee.

The Chair everaled the objection, on the ground that to admit it would deprive the Committee of the whole of the right of the committee of the right of the bed in the list: Heavy Pilot over Coat Cloths, 37½ pr. ct. dis Dress and Frock Coat Broadcloths 20

Fancy Cassimeres for Pantaloonery, Cassinets, Jeans, &c. do do 37½a50 Rich Mouslin deLaines, 25a374 Cashmere D'Ecosse, Super Silk Warp Lustres, 25a33 do Plain Alapacca do do do Broche do do 25 Fancy Damask do do 25 Worsted Tabs, Caps and Mitts, 25 do

Winter Hosiery (all sizes) 334 do do
A few styles of fancy (evening) Dress Goods, Wrought Collars and under Hdkfs., Linen Cambric Hdkfs., Linens, Muslins, Prints, Flannels, educed prices.

Country Merchants, wishing to replenish their Stocks, will find it for their advantage to call. 181 Main st., west side, bet. Fourth and Fifth, Cincinnati, Ohio. January 18, 1845. 26

Tobacco Agency.

Together with usual supplies of Missouri, and other kinds, will not be more than sufficient for our Spring sales, and we solicit consignments. A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S., Columbia street, near Main, Cincinnati January 18, 1845. 26,

TO MERCHANTS and

MANUFACTURERS OF TOBACCO. E are prepared to make very liberal advances in Groceries, Produce, &c., ON CONSIGNMENTS OF TOBACCO.
A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S., Columbia st., near Main Cincinnati, Jan. 18, 1845. 26.

Sales of Tobocco.

TE know we can't be beat in sales of Tobacco, and solicit a full share of the Ken-A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S, Columbia street, near Main.

Cincinnati, Jan. 18, 1845. 26

SUNDRY CONSIGNMENTS.— TOBACCO.

100 hoxes sweet 12 lump Kentucky; 150 do common 100 do do lb. 60 do Honeydew Mo. 12's;

40 do lb. lump do 100 kegs 6 twist, different brands; 15,000 common Cigars, &c., &c. PITTSBURGH MANUFACTURES. 200 kegs Nails, 10d, 8d, 6d, 4d and 3d; 400 boxes Glass, from 8-10 to 12-20;

60 dozen Painted Buckets; 100 kegs White Lead; 300 reams Medium Wrapping Paper; 100 do Crown do 50 bales Cotton Batting, &c., &c.

CINCINNATI ARTICLES. 100 boxes Candles, best brands; 200 do No. 1 Soap; 6 tons pure Saleratus, &c., &c.

GROCERIES. 25 chests G. P. and Y. H. Teas. 50 bags Rio Coffee; I ceroon S. F. Indigo; 1 tierce Madder; 16 half bbls do

100 doz assorted Bed Cords; 100 gross Shoe Blacking, &c. &c. PRODUCE, &c. 17 casks Potash; 100 bbls Potatoes; 100 bushels Dry Peaches; 11 bble Timethe S 11 bbls Timothy Seed, &c., &c.
All of which we will sell to the city trade of country, at the lowest cash prices. A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S, Columbia st. near Main Cincinnati, January 18, 1845. 26.

CONSUMPTION and BLEEDING AT THE LUNGS CURED.

By the use of "Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTO"
RANT REMEDY."

TISS EMELINE YEAGER, aged seven-MISS EMFLINE YEAGER, aged seven-teen years, was taken when at the age of sixteen with a slight cold, which she neglected until the LUNGS fell a prey to that seeking destroyer, CONSUMPTION, when application to physician was made, but to no effect, he considered her case a hopeless one, and prescribed she discharged great quantities of blood, with much expectoration of thick phlegm and cough. Her bodily frame at length became reduced to a living skeleton. Her last was anxiously look end by the pangs of death. During the her physician frequently called, and, as the last resource, determined to test the virtues of "Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY," naving noticed some extraordinary cures performed by the medicine in similar cases. He at nce obtained two bottles and administered it to her. The fourth day he found some change which gave hopes. He continued giving the medicine for eighteen days; at that tim diffusive, stimulant tea, and had her put in- was rendered able to be walking in her bed chamber, to the astonishment of her friends and rel-atives. She continued using the medicine for eight weeks, when she declared herself entirely free from disease and pain, and now pursues her daily occupation in perfect health. A small pamphlet accompanies this medicine, which gives a full description of diseases, the manner of treatment, &c. &c.

For sale by HIRAM FRAZIER,
Sycamore st., one door below Taird.
The only place it can be had in Hamilton Co.
Cincinnati, Jan. 18, 1845. 26

DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REWEBY.

TANDS ALOOF from the Quack Syrups and Paragoric Compounds which have think I can advise all who want their necks late became a burthen to the public health, and stretched to the best advantage, to come to the B. M. College for the operation.

a suspension to the purse. Why is it that these medicines are taken repeatedly by the sick without removing the complaint in question? The reason is plain and simple, viz:—Because they are composed chiefly of opium and its spiritual preparations which acts on the system as a powerful stimulating anodyne, and by using repeatedly, the system becomes habituated to its narcotic influence, as of those who are given to in temperance.

This fact has become apparent to thousands who have experienced the fatal effects of such medicines, and commenced using Dr. DUN-CAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, which is entirely free from opium and all other poisonous ingredients, and is used with perfect safety by all under any circumstances. It immediately relieves the distressing cough-strengthens and invigorates the nervous system, causing the settled contagious matter to leave its hold from the lungs, and be discharged by the power of Expectoration. Unless this is done, the lungs vill soon become contaminated from noxious matter, and ulcerate, and fall a prey to the fatal worm Consumption. For sale at No. 19 North Eighth street, Phila delphia. Also by HIRAM FRAZIER, Sycamore st., one door below 3d. The only place it can be had in Ham. county Cincinnati, January 18, 1845. 26

Consumption and Death TILL most assuredly be the early fate of those who neglect themselves when afflir ted with the promonitory symptoms of consump-tion, such as a Cold, Cough, Bronchitis, or Soreness of the Throat, Hoarseness, Difficult Expectoration, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, &c.-Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY is expressly prepared for the removal and cure of those dangerous and troublesome diseases.-Therefore, you who are laboring under the in-Therefore, you who are mounting under the influence of these complaints, produce immediately this medicine before it be too late. ONE BOTTLE may be the means of prolonging your life. Always ask for Dr. DUNCANS EXPECTORANT REMEDY, and see that you get it, and not be persuaded by some who sel different medicines to take some of their medicine in preference. These persons obtain some cheap thing, and palm it on the public at full to be on their guard.

Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY is put up in large size bottles, and enveloped in blue paper. The outer form contains a fine steel plate engraving representing "Hope price. It is therefore important for purchaser

Principal Office 19 north Eight Street Philadelphia. Also for sale by HIRAM FRAZIER, Sycamore street, below Third.

Price $1 per hottle. CURE YOUR COUGH

Before it be too late. DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REM-EDY is the only medicine that perfect confidence can be relied upon for the immediate removal of this troublesome complaint. medicine always removes a cough in a few days, and when the disease is seated on the Lungs it causes it to be discharged by Expectoration, thus restoring sound health to the happiness and en-Oyment of those who long have been afflicted. For sale at the Principal Office 19 North 8th

St. Philadelphia. Also by HIRAM FRAZIER. Sycamore st., below 3d, Cincinnati.
The only place it can be had in Hamilton Co. Price $1 per bottle. January 18, 1845. 26

R AISED FIGURED WARE.—A com Dining and Tea Ware, just opened and for sale by U. ALDRICH, Agent, 174 Main street, Cincinnat. I ton County. Nov. 16, 1844.

NOTICE.

HE Stockholders of the Licking Bridge Co. are respectfully notified, that a second in stallment of 20 per cent, upon their subscripstallment of 20 per cent, upon their subscription, or one dollar upon each share, will be required on the 10th of February next.

By order of the Board of Directors,
M. T. C GOULD, Pres't

Office Licking Bringe Co. January, 11, 1845.

WEAK BACKS!--WEAK BACKS!!

CENTS. Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster, the on Scott street, west end Market Space. best Strengthening plaster in the World, and a sovereign remedy for Pains and weakness in the back, loins, side, breast, neck, limbs, joints, rheumatism and lumbago; worn on the lower part of the spine, they entirely cure the piles; applied, to the back of the neck of children teething they give great relief.

In coughs, colds, oppression of the chest and stomach, liver, complaint, dyspepsia, asthma, the Post Office. and all diseases where local remedies are required, none can be better than these plasters. They are tonic, or strengthening, stimulating and anodvne. Physicians recommended them becaus they stick better and afford more relief than DRY GOODS, GROCERIES & COUNTRY PRODUCE any other ever known. One million are sold yearly.

DEATH FROM WORMS. Worms kill thousands. Children are most subject to them, but persons of all ages are liable to be afflicted by them. Bad breath paleness about the lips, flushed cheeks, tickling at the nose, wasting away, leanness, pain in the bow-els, joints or limbs, disturbed sleep, frightful dreams, morning, and sometime a voracious appetite, are among the symptoms of Worms. Many are doctored for months for some othe imaginary disease, when one box of SHER-MAN'S WORM LOZENGES wonl effect a cure. Dr. Ryan, corner of Prince street and the Bowery, cured a man of worms that was reduced to a skeleton, and by only one box of Sherman's Lozenges. He is now as fat as an alderman. The Hon. B. B. Beardsley has saved the life of one of his children by them. The sale of 2,000,000 has fully tested them. They are the only infallable worm destroying medicine known. What family will be without them. Ordinary Cough and Colds. ENOCH E. CAMP, Esq., one of the Editors of the New York Heral, says: "Desirous to benefit my fellow beings, who, like myself, are often afflicted with slight affections of the lungcoughs, &c., that sometimes terminate in Con sumption, I state, that from no source have derived so much relief as from your Cough Lozenges; and from my own experience, I think that their use would cure almost any case of Bronchetis, Influenza, Coughs, or other affections of The Hon. Mr. Archer, U. S. Senator of Virginia, was cured of a cough that threatened to terminate in Consumption by only one small box. He had suffered much from the frequent attacks of coughing, and could get but little rest day or night, until he used these Lozenges. He could hardly believe that medicine could erate so quick and efficiently, especially when it tasted so very pleasant.

Poor Man's plaster, 121 cents! Cough Lozenges, 25 cents! Worm Lozenges, 25 cents!

G. F. THOMAS.

Main Street, between 3d and 4th sts., opposite Gazette Office. Country Merchants supplied at Eastern Cincinnati, Jan. 11, 1845.

Tobacco.

RECEIVED on consignment and for sale by A. L. & T. GREER, 400 Tobacco Boxes, which will be sold low for cash. Tobacco Manufacturers using boxes will please call and examine the same January 4, 1845.

Commissioner's Sale. BY virtue of a decree of the Pendleton Circuit Court, entered up at the last September term, in the case of George C. Lightfoot, Administrator of the Estate of Francis Chalfant, creditors and heirs of said LARD OIL, for sale wholesale and retail deceased, against the creditors and neits of said estate. I will, on the 23d day of January next, on the premises, offer at public auction to the eighth Cincinnati.

The following certificates attest the quality on Stepston Creek, about one mile from Fo ter's lower Landing on the Ohio River, and two miles from the mouth of said creek. This tract of land is somewhat broken; but produces fine crops, and is very valuable on account of Tim ber so convenient to market, about 70 acres is under cultivation. There is also a good hewed log dwelling house on said land and other out houses. The balance is well timbered; said tract containing 283 acres. ALSO .- On the same day on the premises a the mouth of Stepston Creek on the Ohio River, about two miles from the last described tract. (as the property of said decedent. sionary interest in the dower tract containing fifty acres upon which there is a good hewed log dwelling house and other out houses, and a store house. This is a handsome site commanding a Mr. Emery is very similar to the above, as exfine view of River Scenery, and in sight of Mospressed by Mr. Lewis. I cannot discover any cow, Ohio. Said sales will take place between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 3 P. M.

Twelve months credit will be given, and bond nd approved security required, having the force and effect of replevin bonds. WM. C. NAYLOR, Commissioner, Falmouth, Ky., December 27, 1844. 24w3

Milliner.

NRS. E. READ, has removed to Gedge's new building on Scott St. near Gedge & Brother's Store, between 4th and 5th streets where she will be happy to wait upon all her friends and customers who feel disposed to give Cov. Dec. 28 1844.

Indiana Lands

POR sale or exchange for property in Covington or neighborhood. The undersigned offers for sale or to exchange for other property, a valuable tract of land, lo-cated in Hancock county, Indiana, containing puarter section. This land is of fine quality, one well watered, upon which is a good dwelling house, and other buildings with a fine well of water, and orchard of choice fruit. A great bargain can be obtained on application to

PHILIP YELTON,
On the State road, Campbell Co., Ky. Reference can be had to A. L. & T. GREER, Covington. Jan. 4, 1345.

FREDERICK COLTON

HENRY H. GOODMAN.

GOODMAN & COLTON, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, CINCINNATI, OHIO, Office, 119 Main street. All kinds of hus less in the line of their profession, which may b

ntrusted to them, will be punctually attended to

Particular attention will be paid to the collecion of claims in this and the adjacent countie REFERENCES. John Ward & Co., \(\) New York.,

Jacob Little & Co., \(\) New York.,

Atwood & Co., \(\) Philadelphia.

H. R. Seymore & Co. Buffalo, N. Y. Alwood, Jones & Co., Pittsburgh,

Joseph Landis & Co., New Orleans,

Henry Starr, Esq., T. S. Goodman, & Co. } Cincinnati.

Cincinnati; June 22, 1844. 48-tf A large supply of Dr. Duncan's Expecto rant Remedy just received and for sale at HI-RAM FRAZIER'S on Sycamore st. one doobelow 3d the only place it can he had in Hamil-

Cin. Dec. 28 1844,

LAW NOTICE.

. W. TIBBATTS & CHARLES J. HELM AVING associated themselves in the prac-tice of the LAW, will attend the courts of Kenton and the adjoining counties.

Office on South side of Market Space, one loor west of Greenup street. Covington, January 11, 1845.

LAW PARTNERSHIP.

BENTON & MOOAR, M. BENTON and DANIEL MOOAR M. BENTON and DANIEL MOOAR, have associated themselves together in the practice of the Law in the Counties of Camp-WEAK BACKSI--WEAR Covington, January 11, 1845.

S. M. MOORE.

Attorney at Law, --- Covington, Ky., WILL attend to all besiness confided to him in the counties of Harrison, Pendleton, Campbell, Grant, Boone and Kenton. Collections will receive prompt attention i Northern Kentucky, and in Cincinnati, Ohio. Office on Market Space, a few doors west of the Post Office. Feb. 3, 1844 28 ly. January 11, 1845.

Gedge & Brothers. TOBACCO MANUFACTURERS,

Scott Street, Covington, KEEP constantly on hand a good assortment in their line, which they will sell, wholesale or retail, cheap for cash, or exchange for country produce. January 11, 1845. John Mackoy,

DEALER in Dry Goods, Shoes, Queens Ware, &c. Store South side Market Space, where he will sell goods as low as they an be purchased in Cincinnati, for cash only, o roduce at cash prices. He would invite his riends to call and examine his prices before pur

January 11, 1845. A BARGAIN. good bargain can be had, if speedy application be made. That well known business stand, at the corner of Greenup and Second street Covington, is for sale. The lot fronts 472 feet on Greenup and 195 on Secondstreet, upon which are several frame buildings. This property will be sold in whole or in parts to suit purchasers. Apply to M. M. BENTON,

January 11, 1845.

DAILY COMMONWEALTH. We shall, during the ensuing session of the Kentucky Legislature, as we did during the last publish the Commonwealth daily, in which besides the current news of the day, we shall give a faithful report of the Legislative proceedings intending to keep a reporter employed in each House. The pecuniary result of the experiment last session was not very satisfactory t the publishers, though we made little effort to procure subscribers. But the great convenience to the public of such a paper from the seat of government, and the many expressions of appro bation of the adventure, induce us again to make the experiment. We appeal therefore to our friends throughout the State, for their patronage. We hope they will send us good lists of of subscribers from all quarters. Between the members of the Legislature and their coustituents, the Daily Commonwealth will prove the best, fullest, and cheapest medium of communication; and we therefore rely upon them to aid us materially in procuring subscribers. The paper will be of royal size, on good paper, neatly in attendance upon their courts. printed, and edited by Tho. B. Stevenson. The publication will begin on the first of January, the day after the commencement of the session and will continue during the session, about two months. The price will be ONE DOLLAR. payable in advance in all cases. The Weekly commonwealth will go on as heretofore. Those who may desire the Weekly during the session will be supplied at FIFTY CENTS.

Any person procuring 10 subscribers and sending the money with their names, to either pa per, shall have one copy gratis.

HODGES, TODD & PRUETT.

Frankfort, Nov. 19. 1844. Improved Lard Oil!

the steinbest, one to the best bidder a tract of forest land, (as the property of said decedent) lying in Harrison county, Kentucky, on the west side of main Licking River, and about three miles above Claysville, where the following certificates attest the quality of the oil:

"We have used the Lord Oil manufactured by several individuals in this city, and have the county of the oil of the oil." containing by survey 108 acres.

ALSO.—On the 24th day of January next, Mr. Thomas Emery, at his establishment, near found none so uniformly good as that made b on the premises, a tract of land as the property of said decedent, lying in Pendleton county, Ky. it burns with a clear, steady light, and does not gnm in the wick.

the make trial of it, will find it equal to the best Sperm."
Dr. Joseph Ray, Thomas Heaton D. Waterman, F'. Ball, D. B. Sterrit, Southweil Royse. G. R. Hand, D. B. P. Aydelott, Geo, McCollough, Albro & Lewis, F. Feibger, for both,

Henry Miller, F. Feibger, French & Winslow, both. "I have not sufficiently tested the different pecimens of Lard Oil to state which is best, but have used Mr. Emery's manufacture some months, and find it quite equal to Sperm Oil. that I had used for years. Samuer Lewis."

"My knowledge in regard to the Oil made by inferiority at this season of the year to the best C. Donaldson," Lard at all times purchased, or ex-Cin. Dec. 28

23 ly

Texas Lands. THE subscriber has four sections of 640 acres each, in Harris County, Texas. These Lands were acquired by actual advances in cash, before the battle of the Alamo—for the necessities of the Texas Government. They are parchment titles, signed by the President and Secretary of the State of Texasand were located for cotton Land by a special

The subscriber will sell them for cash, or exchange them for City Property in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and Covington, or for any good Farms in this region on fair terms. As Texas will by present indication be annexed to the United States—the property will be worth in time 40 to 80 dollars per age. in time 40 to 80 dollars per acre. The property is about 15 miles above Galveston Bay, on Cedar Bayou, which will give a boat navigation to the Bay and City of Galveston.— The titles can be examined by any person wish ing to buy or exchange, at my house on 4th st Cincinnati. Most of the valuable lands for Cot ton in Texas are already covered. This property will be valuable to any settler.

WALTER GREGORY.

Cincinnati, Nov. 23, 1844.

PARRIS' DAGUERROTYPE ESTAB-LISHMENT, East side of Main, between Fourth and Fifth Streets, Cincinnati.—The subscriber having returned from the East, respectfully invites the attention of strangers and citizens to his Rooms, where, by means of the LA-TEST IMPROVEMENTS, he is enabled to take likenesses with a clearness, distinctness and beauty, unsurpassed in this City or elsewhere.— Having devoted his time practically to the pro-fession ever since the introduction of this beau tiful Art, into this country, the subscriber feels confident he will be able to give perfect satisfaction to those who may favor him with their pat-peculiar mode of operating, the proprietor is en-abled to furnish perfect pictures, at the lowest price charged by the most indifferent operators in the City. Ladies and Gentlemen are invited to call and examine specimens of this wonderful Art, brought ders left with Caoper, Berry & Co., will be to its highest state of perfection.

In consequence of the facilities afforded by his

THOMAS FARIS.

Cameras, Chemicals, Plates, Cases and all the necessary Aperatus furnished, and thorough instructions given in all branches of the Art. Cincinnati, Nov. 30, 1844.

NEW SADDLERY.

and Harness establish. ment, on Pike street, opposite M'Lauchlin & Co's. Store, where he will thankfully his friends and the public, in the line of his husiness pledges himself that all work executed by him, shall be well and hand-Covington, Dec 21, 1844. somely done. He asks public favor and is deternined to merit it.

Regular |Cincinnati and | Frankfort Steam Packet

ISAAC SHELBY—J. T. Washington, Master, will run regularington, Master, will run regularleaving Cincinnati every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 11 o'clock' A. M. reaching Frankfort in time for the Lexington Railroad Cars. Returning will leave Frankfort, every Tuesay, Thursday, and Saturday, at 9 o'clock A. M. uniting daily with the Pittsburgh line of Mail Boats which leave Cincinnati every day at 10 o'clock A. M .- Passengers travelling east from Frankfort and the interior of Kentucky can reach Pitisburgh and Wheeling, in less time and at about one third less expense than by the way of Maysville, also in returning can reach their homes or places of destination in Kentucky in Mill and Cross Cut Saws. W. Rowlands mill saws. 6 64 7 74 ft.

Coffee Mills! Coffee Mills!!

Doz. Adam's no 2 Coffee mills, 10 " " 3 do do do 5 " " 1 do do Wilsons do do
Parker & White's do do
Conenwood's do do "Greenwood's do do
"Adam's Iron hopper box do

Sand Paper! Sand Paper!! REAMS Adam's sand paper a superior article for sale by J. K. OGDEN & CO

No. 163 Main St. Cincinnatti Dec. 14 1844. TRACE CHAINS! TRACE CHAINS!! 758Pr. Trace chains 7 ft, loag

LAW NOTICE. JAMES T. MOREHEAD and JOHN W. STEVENSON have this day united themselves in the practice of the Law, under the firm

Morehead and Stevenson. They will attend to the courts of Campbell, Ken ton, Boone, Gallatin, Grant and Harrison Their Office is on Market street, Covington, Umbrellas. umbrellas! 20 CASES Black Cotton Umbrellas, at the low price of 45c—at the Umbrella and Parasol Store, East Fifth st., near Main, Cincinnati.

N. L COLE.

WILL be sold at the residence of A. P. Howell, deceased, on January 25th 1845, undry articles of Household FURNITURE, FARM-ING UTENSILS & STOCK.

JULIUS BRACE, Adm'r Covington, Nov. 28, 1844.

Ladies' Dress Goods. " Affghan Satins, Rich all wool De Laines Medium Mous De Laines, Superb silk warp Alapacca Lustres, Foulard Silk, Chusans, Orleans Cloths, and -ALSO-A splendid assortment of Cashmere, Broche, Woolen Shawls. For sale at UNUSUALLY

LOW PRICES by W. H. MUSSEY,
181 Main st. bt. Fourth and Fifth. Nov. 9, 1844. 16tf Cincir nati, Ohio.

A Large and well fluished Warehouse OR the Inspection and sales of Tobacco, has just been completed in the city of Covington, Kentucky, where there are about 25 Tobacco Manufactories, and being immediately opposite the city of Cincinnati, the very extensive manufacturers of that place have only 15 minutes' walk to reach said Warehouse.

sale, consignments of all kinds of Tobacco; for which there is a large and constant demand in this market. cultivate the Somerville Cigar leaf, which is in great demand; the same (if not a greater) quantity can be raised on an acre of ground, (it being planted only two feet apart and topped to from 12 to 18 leaves,) and the present sales are at double the prices of the common Kentucky Tobacco. We feel confident the interest of all desirous of making sales in this market of all desirous of the will be greatly promoted.

BENJAMIN YOUNG, Inspectors.

REFERENCES: Warrington & Daugherty, Covington, Ky. Cincinnati, Ohio. Withers & Carpenter, Cutter & Gray, Dover, Ky. Pickett & Applegate, Woodfolk, Fife &

Cleavers. ALSO .-- A variety of patterns of Mincing Knives. For sale very cheap by

J. K. OGDEN & CO.,

No 162 Main st., Sign of the Old Padlock.

Cincinnati, Nov 23, 1844.

Dr John H. Grant's OFFICE removed to the East end of Mar-ket Space. Covington, Doc. 14, 1844.

INp 163 Main st., sign of the Old Padlock. Cincinnati, Nov. 23, 1844. 18 Wood! Wood!!

Nov. 23, 1844.

BLANKS

For sale at this Office.

the same time and with the same expense.

Dec. 10 1844.

21m6. T. & B. Rowlands mill saws 6 64 7 74 ft.
For sale by J. K. OGDEN & CO. No. 162

nain street sign of The Old Padlock. Cincinnati Dec.

3 " "Brittania do do do
For sale by J. K. OGDEN & CO. No 162
main street sign of The Old Padlock.
Cin. Dec. 14, 1844

For Sale by J. K. OGDEN & CO 162 main st. Sign of the Old Padlock Cin . Dec. 14, 1844. 2itf over the Store of Cooper, Berry & Co., where one or both of them will always be found, unless August 3, 1844. if.

Administrator's Sale.

TERMS-For all sums over $10, twelve months credit, with good security notes

UPER Cashmere d'Ecosse,

Plain and changeable do do Plaided and Striped Romelia do

Tobacco.

The undersigned, lately appointed Inspectors, under the law of the State of Kentucky, are now ready to recive for inspection, storage and We would particularly advise planters, to

A. H. JAMESON, S Inspectors.
N. B. We are prepared to prize leaf Tobacco for those planters who are as yet unprepared.

Maysville, Ky. Louisville, Ky. St. Louis, Mo. Ray & Slack, St. Louis, M Covington, Ky., Nov. 23, 1844. 18tf

Coal Hoas. 12 DOZ Coal Hods, assorted from No 12 to 18 on hand and for sale by
J. K. OGDEN & CO.,

PERSONS wishing WOOD, can be supplied, during the winter, with good seasoned wood on application to WM. H. WOOD. Or-

1810

Cleavers. WE have on hand various sizes of Butcher's

LICKING VALLEY REGISTER.

FOURTH VOLUME. ENLARGED, WITHOUT INCREASE OF PRICE Published weekly, in the City of Covington, Kenton County, Kentucky.

THE LICKING VALLEY REGISTER, will be co tinued on the same general principles by which it has hereforore been governed. Becoming more familiar with the people of Kentucky, and better acquainted with their local policy, and general interests, we shall take a still more active part in public affairs. We intend to give the proceedings of the State Legislature, and of Congress, in an extensive summary form; also Intelligence of a general character, Foreign and Domestic.

Kentucky being an agricultural State, goodly portion of the REGISTER shall be allotted to the immediate interests of the Farmer, in the selection of such articles for publication as are directly adapted to our soil, climate, and agricultural pursuits. Information of this kind, at a suitable season of the year, is, to the husbandman matter of vast importonce, and should be regarded as worthy of consideration. The columns of the Register will be open to an honest discussion of political principles whether Whig or Democratic. Whilst we avow Whig doctrines, we shall abuse no party for dif-fering with us in opinion—the right of opinion should be held sacred to all.

We need not urgo upon people of common intelligence, the public utility and importance of a well conducted newspaper. Its advantages are too apparent. No town, village or city. can ever rise into note without this necessary appendage, to give it character and consequence The property of every man owning real estate in town, is increased in value more than double the amount of subscription, by the publication of a good News paper. It invites in-migration: people at a distance are able to form an opinion of the advantages our location present to the enterprising merchant, manufac turer, professional or business man. These things are sought for by persons at a distance more than by those among us, and they can never, arrive at a thorough knowledge of our true position, in any other way than through the medium of the Press, and without which a city have no legitimate claim to respectable can have no legitimate claim to respectant standing among cities. It becomes, therefore, a matter of duty, for every honest man to give it his hearty support; it is, in fact, an evidence of a lack of intelligence, or want of taste for knowledge, for a man not to take a newspaper. he appears willing to remain in ignorance those very things which most deeply concern his best interests. Look to the families of those who subscribe for a paper, their children are intelligent, they have a general knowledge of passing events, and the history of the times, that others do not possess.

In fine, the REGISTER will be made a useful FAMILY PAPER, useful to the husbandman and to the mechanic, and a welcome visiter to the Ladies' Parlor. The Literary department will be blended with moral and instructive tales, essays, &c. With this brief exposition of our course we ask for public patronage.
RICHARD C, LANGDON.
WILLIAM C. MUNGER.

TERMS .-- The Licking Valley Register will be publised at the low price of TWO DOLLARS a year payable in advance, or within six months; after which TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS will invariably be Farmers residing in the country, who find it difficult to raise money, can pay in produce at the market price. Wheat, Corn, Tobacco, Beeswax, Tallow, Bacon, Hemp, Wood, &c., will be received if delivered at some point which shall be agreed upon.

FINE TEAS, SUGARS, &C. &C. AM now receiving from Philadelphia, New York and Boston, a very large and fine assortment of choice fancy Groceries, Fruits &c.

&c. consisting in part of 12 whole and half chests Hyson Teas,; 15 half chests Young Hyson do. 4 do. Gunpowder Imperial

Black These Teas are of the highest grade imported,—and selected as the best article for sale in New York and Boston,-they are recommended as very superior.

25 bbls. Woolsey & Woolsey's treble refined Loaf, Crushed and pulverized Sugar.

10 bags Old Mocha Coffee; 30 do Old Government Java do; 40 cases "Lynch's" Sweet Oil; 10 do. "Nice" do.

250 cans Sardines; 44 cases Fire Crackers; 12 boxes Shelled Almonds; 5 dozen Rose Water;

2 do Bay Rum; 10 do Extract of Lemon; 2 cases fresh Prunes, in glass jars;

10 hoxes Almond Soap;
12 do White Scented Soap;
10 do English Pine Apple Cheese; do Parmason or Sap Sago do:

do Prepared Cocoa; 14 do Citron: 15 do French Olives; 9 do Spanish Olives;

50 do Naples Figs; do Capers: Anchovies: 10 do Rock Candy;

38 do Lemon Syrup 10 do Orgent, and Raspberry do: do Dr. Stoughton's genuine Bitlers;

6 do Aromatic do; 6 do Richardson's cel. Sherry Wine do; 2 cases Havana Preserves, assorted;

2 cases through Freserves, assorted;
4 do Preserved Ginger;
5 do do Fruits, assorted;
With a very large assortment of Ground
Spices—Pepper, Cloves, Allspice, Cinamon, &c.
Dry and concentrated Mustard; Paoli Vinegar; Genuine Cayenne Pepper; Mushroom and Wal nut Catsup; India Soy; W. I. Pepper Sauce Pickles; John Bull, Harvey, and other rich English Sauces; India Currie Powders; Tamarinds; &c. &c. For sale by ALLISON OWEN, Columbia S

Cincinnati. September 7, 1844.

DOCTOR J. BENNETT'S

ANTI-BILLIOUS PILLS. ROM the constant and increasing demand for DR. BENNETT'S ANTI-BILLIOUS RI for DR. BENNETT'S ANTI-BILLIOUS PILLS, (a remedy which he has used in extensive practice for upwards of twenty years,) the subscribers have been induced to offer them in this way, not as a catch-penny nostrum, but as the best purgative preparation in the whole range of the Materia Medica.

If it was deemed necessary for the purpose of the interest twee will into overs general, we are prepared to the purpose of the purpo bringing these pills into more general use, numerous certificates of Physicians, and others of the most respectable citizens of the City and surrounding country, could at any moment be phained, attesting their great superiority ove most of the purgative preparations in common

These Pills are mild, though effectual in their operation.

They act upon the secretions of the Liver

Kidneys and Skin.
They are alterative in their tendency, parify ing the Blood, and correcting those morbid conditions of the system, which if not arrested, often terminates in serious disease.

They are speedy in their effect, and in case where the bowels require immediate evacuation, may be relied on with the greatest certainty. DIRECTIONS:—As a mild purgative in Dyspepsia, or in habitual cocheeness, take one pill on going to bed, and if it produces no effect, take another before breakfast the following morning—and so on.

For a moderately active purge, take one every hour, until the howels are moved.

For an active and speedy effect, take 4 pills at a dose.

For children, pulverize a pill or two, and give in proportion to their age, in small portions every hour till they operate. Prepared by BENNETT, PRETLOW & CO., Corner Scott street and Market Space, Covington, Kentucky.

Price 25 cents per box—A liberal discount made to Agents.
October 21, 1843. 13

COPARTNERSHIP.

COOPER, R. W. COOPER, and J. W. BERRY, have entered into copartnership (which took place on the 13th of April, 1844) o be known as the firm of Cooper, Berry & Co. April 27, 1844.

Cabinet Ware. P. ROSE, continues to carry on the Cabinet business in its various branches t his old stand on Scott street, between Fourth and Fifth ste., where he is prepared to accommo date his customers with every article in his line of business, on as good terms as can be afforded in Cincinnati. Persons wishing to purchase will do well to give him a call before going elsewhere. He keeps a HEARS in constant readiness for the public accommodation, and all kinds of COFFINS will be furnished on the shortest no-ice and on reasonable terms.

His private residence is on Turnpike street, be ween Scott and Madison sts., opposite the resilence of Mr. Wm. Wason Covington, April 2, 1842.

W. L. SHROCK C. L. MULLINS. C. L. Mullins & Co.,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers, T the corner of Madison & Turnpike sts. where they keep constantly on hand every ariety of GROCERIES, consisting in part of n. O. Sugar, Whiskey, Havanna do. Java do. Mackerel, Pepper, Teas, Ginger, Flour, Saleratus, Copperas, Castings, Madder, Stone & Tin ware Alum, Meal, Boots & Phoes. Glass, casi

Which they offer at the lowest prices r barter only. Covington, March 15, 1844. 34

CORN MILL. THE subscribers would inform the citizens Covington and surrounding country, that hey have established one of Burrow's

PATENT FRENCH BURR MILLS, or grinding Corn and other grains, on the Bank Lick Road, one mile from the city, on the How-ell farm. And they will endeavor to give satisfaction to all who will favor them with their cus STEARNS & CO. Covington, July 13, 1844.

FAHNESTOCK'S LINIMENT NE of the oldest and most established Lin iments now in use. As a remedy in Rheu matism, Sprains, Bruises, and other painful affections, it has no equal. Prepared by

BENNETT, PREFLOW & CO

Price 25 cts Cor. Scott st. and Market Sp
Oct 28, 1843. 141f

OCTOR JACKSON'S, COMPOUND SY UP OF SASSAFRAS AND WILD CHERRY.—This preparation is offered to the public as a safe and certain remedy in Coughs Colds, Bronchitis, pains in the side and chest, Whooping-cough, the cough following measles,

Se. Se. Combining the virtues of the Sassafras one the great purifiers of the blood, and the active principle of the Wild Cherry, long held in the nighest esteem for its healing properties in all liseases of the Lungs, cannot but render this preperation far superior to any hitherto offered te the notice of the public. It has already gained the confidence of the afflicted wherever it has been used, and the distinguished name at the head of this notice is a sufficient guarantee that the Compound is one of the highest value. It has received the sanction of many of the mos enlightened Physicians of the age, and is in every sense an entirely scientific preparation.

The Syrup is not given to the public as a reme dy in all diseases incident to humanity, but for Coughs and Colds, (so often the forerunners of fatal Consumption,) in the forming stages, it is a specific, with but moderate attention to diet and xposure on the part of the patient; and even in the most hopeless cases oftentimes affording inlooked for relief. The proprietors deem it unnecessary to say much ore, or append long lists of certificates to this notice, as it is presumed that every one will wish to experience for himself; they, therefore, with he greatest confidence, recommend the afflicted o give it a faithful trial.

Price only 50 cents per bottle. Prepared only by BENNETT, PRETLOW, & CO. Corner of Scott st. and Market Space. Covington, Ki

A liberal discount made to Agents. Dec. 16, 1843. POOR MAN'S GOLDEN PLASTER. NHE cheapest and best strengthening Plaster ever invented and the most sure and of Lumbago, Fellons, Fever Sores, White Swellings, Inflammation of the Eyes, Weakness in the back and Loins, Ague in the face, Scalds, Bruises, Burns, Scrafula, Ulcers, Chilblains, &c. It is warranted superior to all others, not only n virtue of its healing powers which are truly astonishing, but it has the advantage of adhering firmly while it allows the use of lotions to subdue inflammation without the necessity of loosening he dressing.

Persons suffering from liver complaint, pulmo rersons sourcing from over compact, pulmo-nary diseases, inflammation of the lungs, pairs in the side or breast, quincy, sore throat, &c., will find immediate relief by the use of this plas-ter. In all weather, and in all cases it may be used with perfect safety.
Directions.—Warm the plaster and apply it quickly to the place affected.—Price TEN cents.

Sold by THO'S BIRD,
Apothecary and Druggist, Covington, Ky.
November 4, 1843. 15.

PITTSBURG MANUFACTURES. 500 BOXES S by 10 and 10 by 12 Window sash.
200 Kegs Nails, (choice brands.)

50 doz. Painted Buckets. 1700 doz. Cotton yarns.

100 Kegs pure White Lead. 4 Ton pure Saleratus.
In store and for sale, and will be advanced on onsignment of Tobacco, &c.
A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S.

Columbia st. near Main. Cincinnati, Aug. 31, 1844. Bu Bail! UST RECEIVED, at the General Agency, Sycamore street, one door below Third, Harp's edition Wandering Jew, No. 6, Winchester's Wandering Jew No. 9, Winchester's Wandering Jew No. 9, Pictorial Brother Jonathan, a beautiful double number for January, 1845. For sale by HIRAM FRAZIER,

at the General Literary Depot, Sycamore st. one door below Third, Cincinnati, O.
December 14, 1844.

To Country Merchants. HE attention of Country Merchants is in-vited to a superior assortment of White, Blue rais'd, figured, Blue Corinth, printed, painted and common Earthenware, Pressed and plain Glassware, Lanterns, Castors, &c., now opened and for sale by O. ALDRICH, Agent. 147 Main st. Cincinnati, Nov. 30 1844.

CALLAT J. S. BENNETT & CO'S, TO. 183 MAIN STREET, and examine their stock of New Goods, among which Super English Long Cloth Sheeting Muslin Do Coddington do do
Do Carlisle do do
Do Bartlett do do Do Undressed Irish Linen;

Do Dressed do do;
Do 5-4 Bleached Sheeting:
Do 4-4 do do;
Do 10-4 do do; Do 10-4 Unbleached do; Do Crash for Towelling: Do Russia and Bird's-Eye Diaper; Do 8-4 Damask Table Cloth;

Do 10-4 do do do; Do 8-4 do Brown do; Do White, Scarlet, Spotted Flannels, Cin. Nov. 30, 1844.

Blanks, Blanks. DEEDS & MORTGAGES, of an improved and highly approved form, printed on excellent pape.
ALSO-JUSTICES' & CONSTABLES' BLANK of a good quality, for sale at this Office.

Dental Operation.

N HOUK, is pre-pared to perform all operations connected with his profession, on the mos approved principles, and sopes to merit and receive a share of public pat ronage. Feeling grateful to those who have heretofore patronized him, he solicits a continnance of their favors. He is prepared to insert from one to a full set of teeth. Also with the artificial gum attached. Atmospheric pressure. Also full sets inserted by atmospheric pressure, and in all cases war-canted. He will remain in this place. Office at Mrs. Towsey's, near the corner Scott and Fourth streets, Covington, Ky. Covington, April 13, 1844.

WILLIAM GALLUP, Jr. SILVERSMITH and JEW-ELER; Repairs Watches Clocks, and Musical Boxes,-Clocks, and ourselve.
Shop on Scott street, 2 doors below the corner of Fifth st., near Gedge & Brothers's'ore.
Covington, June 29, 1844 Covington, June 29, 1844 49-tf

Just Received, a Fresh Supply of CARPETS, RUGS AND OIL CLOTHS AT THE NEW WHOLESALE AND RE TAIL CARPET WAREHOUSE, No 170 Main st., (Up Stairs,) between 4th and 5th sts. East side. HE subscriber has just been receiving at extensive and well selected stock of Car peting, &c., to which he invites the attention of the citizens of Cincinnati, Steamboat Captain and Gwners, and the public in general. His stock is entirely new and complete, and direct from the manuficturers. He has also made arrangements in the East to have the new style orwarded, as soon as manufactured, during the coming season. The Stock consists as follows viz: Rugs. Carpets. Wilton and Saxony; Super Chenille: New style Brussels: Tufted and Saxony; Imperial three ply In-Super Brussels; grain; Tufted Chenille; Extra Fine Ingrains; Manilla Jute and Fine and Common do: Alicant Door Mats; -4,3.4 and 5-8 Treble 100 doz. Stair Rods; Twilled Venitian; 4-4,5-4 and 5-8 Plain Ven

Low priced Ingrain Carpets and Venitians, from 374 to 624 cts. Stair Carpets, 124 to 25 cts. New style Floor Oil Cloths, from 2 feet to (24 feet wide, to cut any size. Stair Linens: Druggets and Floor Baizes; French Embissed Piano and Table Covers.

---- \ T.SD---Cloth Damask and Cotton Table Covers; Span sh and Canton Floor Matting, Listing Carpets --- A 1.50 ---Have this day received, -a few sets splendid

Brussels Carpets. -ALSO-A fresh supply of super Ingrain Carpets, Rugs

Just received, a heavy lot of Oil Cloths. P. S .- The subscriber confines himself exclu-sively to the Carpet business, and will be happy to wait upon those who will favor him with a call.

J. C. RINGWALT & CO. Cincinnati, August 8, 1814.

FOX AND COON CANES. TINE Fox and Coon headed Hickory Canes by Gross, Dozen, or Single one. --- ALSO---

A lot of ivory, silver, and horn mounted Walking Canes, and low priced Shiny Canes Fo sale at Umbrella and Parasol Store, Fifth St. East of Main, Cincinnati jy. 27

Tobacco Agency. HE undersigned are giving special attention to the sale of TOBACCO.

A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S. Columbia st., near Main.

Cincinnati, Aug 31, 1844. DR. T. N. WISE, AS removed his office to Scatt street next AS removed his office to occur since to the store of Messrs. General & Brother ers, where he may at all times be found, or at his residence opposite to his office. He has just received and will constantly keep a supply of Medicines of the very best quality.

Covington, June 1, 1844.

45 tf

"CHEAP GOODS." WALKER & WINSTON, Madison street, one door above Sixth,

RE now receiving their Fall and Winter stock of DRY GOODS and GROCERIES. Also—a general assortment of Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Queensware, &c., all of which they offer for sale, as beretofore, at the lowest Cin-cinnati prices for Cash or in exchange for Pro-duce. City and Country purchasers are requested to call and examine our stock before crossing the river, as we are satisfied we can offer them as good bargains, if not better, than can be ob-tained in Cincinnati.

Covington, Oct. 5, 1844. 11 BUCKEYE LARD OIL FACTORY THE subscriber having vented this Factory is now prepared to furnish Oil wholesale and retail. The quality of the Oil heretofore made at this Factory has been pronounced by those who have used of it, equal to any made in the city for burning or for the use of machinery. Purchasers can depend upon always having it of uniform quality.

I. M. BISSELL.

No. 28 Water Street, between Main and Walnut, Cincinnati, Ohio. 1-1f July 27, 1844.

W. III. MUESIET,

Has opened a very large and SPLENDID ASSORTMENT of Fall and Winter styles of LADIES' DRESS GOODS,
Gentlemens' Furnishing Goods,
HOUSE KEEPING ARTICLES, Fine Dress and Overcont Cloths, PANTALONRY AND VESTINGS.

Trimmings,
SMALL WARES,

Hosiery, Gloves, Sec.

Beineen Fourth and Fifth Streets, J. S. BENNETT & CO.

Wholesale and retail dealers in Foreign and Do mestic Dry Goods, No. 197 Main Street, (between 4th and 5th) Cincinnati. INVITE the attention of Gentleman to their assortment of Winter Goods, just received, among which may be found Super super Black French Cloths;

Do do Brown do do;
Do do Blue Black English do;
Do do Brown Invisible Green do;
Do do Olive Green and Brown do Do do Blue Cadet Mixed and Drab do Do do Plain and Waved Beaver do: Do do Black Strp'd and Plaid French Doeskin Cassimeres: do Plain double and single mill de Do do Fancy do do: Do do Black English wool dyed Cassi

Do do do Stocks, Long Tabb.

All of which will be sold cheap for Cash. A we intend keeping a good stock of the above goods on hand, purchasers will do well to call and examine before buying elsewhere. Cincinnati, Nov. 23, 1844.

TARD OIL—12 bbls Lard Oil, pure and good, for sale at the Buckeye Factory, 28 Water street, Cin. Ohio.

I. M. BISSELL.

July 27, 1844.

1-if Refined Lard, ready for examination and sale.

Grocers and Bakers are requested to call and examine it. Buckeye Factory, Water street, Cincinnati Ohio.

1. M. BISSELL.

Tobacco Agency.

E are still offering great inducements to consignments of Tobacco. Our sales now A. G. RICHARDSON & BRO'S., Columbia St., near Main. 26, 1844. 14-tf. Cincinnati, Oct. 26, 1844.

"YANKEE VEGETABLES." AM now receiving a large assortment L these delicious and well known "Vegetables," feetly fresh, without salt, vinegar, or spice, in tin cannisters, hermetically sealed, and are as good and fresh as could be had at any time in New England. They are prepared "Down East" in the State of Maine, and are warranted to keep entirely fresh for ten years, if the air is not ahowee: a penetrate the can.

For a e cheap by ALLISON OWEN,

Columbia St. for we cheap by Ciw ept. 14th.

Glassware &c.

UEENSWARE—Direct importations now opened of superior quality, a large assortment of white, blue, corinth, raised fig'd and black Centre a la Perle Breakfast, Dining, Tea, and Toilet Ware, new styles selected for the retail and wholesale trade. For sale in complete sets, or separate pieces by (). ALDRICH, Agent.

158 Main st., Cincinnati.

 Maree de le care Avidentalise de autr FAIR TONIC .- Every human hair is a per fect tube, with innumerable ramifications of the arteries branching along its inner surface. Through these vessels the blood, which imparts vitality to the hair, circulates, and when from instructions in pores of the scalp, the supply of blood and moisture is cut off, and the hair loses its gloss, becomes dry and harsh, and falls off .--Now it is obvious that unless the pores of the scalp be opened, the capillary action of the blood restored, and the scalp and dandruff proceeding from suppressed perspiration removed, baldness must speedily ensue. Jayne's Hair Tonic will produce all these effects—nay more, it will re-clothe the bald places with vigorous and luxuriant tresses, and ensure a healthful and rednncant growth of hair, as long as it is used in conformity with the printed directions which accom. pany each bottle, and to which are appended nu-merous testimonials of its efficacy, from some othe most distinguished clergymen and physicians For sale at the Comb Store, No. 125 Main st. Sincinnati. J. W. SHEPPARD, Agent December, 20, 1843.

OFFICE AETNA INSURANCE (O. Front st. near Sycamore, Cincinnati. CAPITAL $200 600.

THE undersigned, having been appointed Agent of the Ætna Insurance Co. of Hart-ford, Conn. offers to insure houses, stores, mills, factories, barns, and the contents of each, to-gether with every other species of property, aainst loss or damage by fire.

The rates of premium offered by this Company are as low as those of any other similar in stitution, and every man has now an opportu nity, for a small sum, to protect himself against the losses to which his property is daily exposed Under the liberal and enlightened policy which the Company have pursued for a quarter of a century past, in settling losses, they have gained ; reputation unsurpassed by any other institution. The citizens of Covington and vicinity are invited to call on the undersigned, who is authorised to issue policies to applicants, without delay. Wm. B. ROBINS, Agent.

[DEAFNESS CURED.

SCARPA'S ACOUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deafness, pains, and the discharge of matter from the ears; also, all those disagreea- of cooking, render the STOVE decidedly the ble noises, like the luzzing of insects, falling of most preferable to any other ever offered to the waters, whizzing steam, &c., which are simptoms of approaching deafness and also generally attendant with that disease. Read the following extraordinary cure; if in use: any have had doubts they may now dismiss them, C. Bates, and the most credulous may consider deafness as curable. Numerous cases of cures, and many of them very remarkable, by the use of "Scarpa's Oil" have been published—but this caps the climary Very or characteristics. the climax. Young or old, you may yet recover O. Aldrich, your hearing.

A lady in Smithfield Pe., now about 80 years M. Hunt of age, had been gradually getting deaf for more F Discrens than 40 years, so that it was next to impossible — Smith to make her hear conversation in the loudest Morris Cromline fone of voice. Last winter she was induced to B Sterrett fry "Scarpa's Oil for deafness." It is only netry "Scarpa's Oil for deafness." It is only necessary to add, that she has used two bottles, and that her hearing is perfectly restored: she is cured. This valuable oil is prepared by Dr. B. Bell, and is so'd on agency by Dr. D. Jayne,

R. P. Donogh 305 Broadway.
Price $2 per bottle.

For sale at the Comb Store, No. 125 Main st. Charles Fisher Cincinnati, by J. W. SHEPPARD, Agent. Wm Culbertson May 18. 43

No. 26 Fourth street.

From his long professional experience, and a Mrs Bogert thorough knowledge of all the important improvements that have been made in the Dental Dr J Allen

Art, he feels himself competent to do ample justice to all who may favor him with their patronage.

Those who have difficult operations to perform.

will do well to call upon him, as he executes his work in the most substantial, highly finished, and permanent manner.
He inserts ARTIFICIAL PALATES and ROOFS, without the slightest pain, and with John Sharp such perfect adaptation to the surrounding parts as to be worn without the least inconvenience. Francis Whitton It will be recollected that he received the premium in this city six years ago, for his manufacture of Porcelian TEETH IN BLOCKS, with ARTIFICIAL GUMS attached. Also, at the last fair of the Ohio Mechanics Institute

TEETH UPON GOLD PLATES.

His operating rooms are on Fourth street between Main and Walnut, Cincinnati.

M. I Johnson W. Johnson May 11.

TO PAINTERS. DUTCHER & McLAUGHLIN, Brush Man-Dufacturers, have just finished a large lot of Paint, Sash, Tool and Varnish Brushes, of all sizes, which they offer at eastern prices, Whole-sale and Retail, No 104 Main st., Cincinnati.

Fruits, Condiments, &c. BOXES Fresh Figs, 10 do Italian Citron, 20 do French Prunes in Jars, 10 do E. India and Havana Preserves 15 do Brandy Cherries, 5 do Mushroom Catsup, 10 do Curry Powder, Ashburton, and other sauces, 10 do Sweet Spanish Chocolate, Anchovies, Capers, Sardines, & Olives.

25 kegs Holandish Herrings, and a great variety of other Delicacies. 10 boxes Baltimore Spiced Oysters,

Just received and for sale by HENRY BRACHMANN, No. 17 Sycamore st., near the River. y 18. 43 Cincinnati May 18.

DEFINED LARD-I have a few barrels of Refined Lard, ready for examination and

To Builders, Manufacturers & Others. OR sale, by the subscriber, as Land Agent the following items of valuable property, is large & small lots, for manufacturing sites for full blocks of buildings, or for pleasure grounds, 1st Lot 200 feet by 446; 2d, 200 by 404, 3d, 200 by 346; 4th, 200 by 289. These lots are bounded by streets, on three-sides, and with 200 feet on Licking, between the U. S. Arsenal does all that it promises, and when you have and the rope walk, in Newport, Ky., opposite consisting of fresh Lossters, Salmon, Macker-Cincinnati.

EL, Shad, Codfish and Halibut, put up per-Also—1 Lot 120 feet by 214; and 1 Lot 125 feet by 214. These lots are only two squares from the ferry landing in Newgort. Also-Five or six Lots with Dwellings, and 100 Lots without dwellings-together with a great variety of other property, city, town and country.

M. T. C. GOULD, Land Agent,
No. 39 east Front ts Cincinnati. August 30, 1844.

SUPERIOR PANCY REUSHES. A DAMS' WHISKER, a new and beautiful Large and Superior Hair Brushes: Common and low priced do;

A new article Stove Double and tribble Shoe do; a very con venient style; With every kind of brushes used in house seeping, which we will sell low and warrant of our own manufacture.

Splendid Clothes

BUTCHER & McLAUGHLIN, 104 Main, st. between 3d and 4th. 37 Cincinn Cincinnat SADDLE AND HARNESS FACTORY. THE subscriber returns his most sincere thanks to his friends and old customers, for their very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon him, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their I am constantly manufacturing a large and general assortment of all articles in my line of business, such as Saddles, Bridles, Saddle and Traveling Bags, Martingales, Coach, Gig and factured in the line. In addition to the above I am manufacturing a general assortment of Iron-bound Traveling Trunks. Also, the new and valuable patent Water proof and Life-Preserving Trunk. This trunk has been tested on the Chio River, and ifter placing 310 lbs, lead in it, it was set affoat, and it still retained its buoyancy with a person sitting on the top. Those traveling by water should supply themselves with this article. I am also manufacturing Baldwin's superior pat-ent Spring Saddles, which for safety to the horse and comfort to the rider cannot be excelled All the above articles will be warranted and sold very cheap. ISAAC YOUNG,

100 Main st. 3 doors above 3d. May 4. 41

PRODUCE. TESTERN Reserve Cheese, and Butter. Floor, Bacon, Lard, Dried Fruits, &c.,
Always receiving for sale, and will be advan ced on consignments of Tobacco, &c A. G. RICHARDSON, & BRO'S.

Columbia st. near Main. Cincinnati, Aug. 31, 1844. 61 f The subscribers have now on hand an assortment of the above celebrated COOKING STOVES, and feel confident they can suppl persons wishing to purchase Cooking St Wholesale or Relail, with the most perfect article in the Western country. It possesses all the advantages of any other STOVE now in use, with at least one third more oven, which is heated with perfect uniformity, in every part. There are flues in the oven so constructed, as to carry off all the steam arising from the cooking of various kinds of Meats, into the pipe, thereby preventing the mixture of flavors. The economy convenience and despatch in all the operations

For the operation of this Stove, we respectful ly refer you to the following persons having it

J K McNickle Louis Krouskoph Philip Hinkle Peter Campbell Dr Richards D B Lupton Wm Woods R McMore J D Carpenter Miss Harts, John Sharp — Decamp John Kugler - Cullum Mr. Cook C D Coffin Samuel R Hamilton Charles W Cady Dr A Curtis] - Jones Wm Goldsmith J B. Perine John Jamison J. ALLEN tenders his thanks to the citizens of Cincinati, and vicinity. In the liberal patronage he has received during the last furteen years. He continues the practice of Dental Surgery in all its branches, at his old stand, No. 26 Fourth stree*. J G Anthony Augustus Isham John Hillon - Harrison B McLenan James Pullan Steven Burrows Charles Conahan James Kolp David Stoddard Mr Whiteside Joseph Goodloe J. H Merriweather Gen John Snyder S Menken Wm H H Taylor Joseph Abraham Mr Padgett S B Hayden Daniel Carey

Adolph Leuis A Fithian
Alphonzo Taft
John T Brooke
Nelson Norris J L Vandoren Richard Page Stephen Wilder David Gwynn Jonathan Stabler Edgar M Gregory Samuel Ewart, Ky J P Chamberlain Charles F Morse John Sharp W Sawyer J D & S Bascom, Franklin House \{
Wm Arnold, Walnu J C Geisendorf Kendall street House H F Clark, Howard J W Taylor W. T Jones M F McClure House J L Susser, Main steet

Miss Hanmer, Marshall W. Wilson House

ANDREWS, HAVEN & Co.

14 Columbia st, between Main & Sycamore.
Cincinnati, Oct. 26, 1844. 11-1y W W. Wilson

JOHN W. MURRAY, Barber, Mair-dresser, etc., Late from Albany, N. Y.,

ESPECTFULLY announces to the citi-Le zens of Covington, that he has located him-self in the house recently occupied as a Book Store and Bindery, next door above the printing office of the Register, to which place he gives a general invitation to all who stand in need of his professional skill, either in smoothing the chin, cutting and curling the hair, or cleansing the head of dandriff. From his experience in business he promises to give entire satisfaction.
Oct. 19, 1844.
no 13-tf

SCHOOL BOOKS, STATIONARY, &c. THE undersigned intends keeping on hand a L general assortment of School Books, Stationary, &c., together with new publications, generally. Those who have been in the habit of crossing the river for such articles, are informed that they can be accommodated on as good terms nearer home.

WM. GALLUP, Jr.
Covington, June 99, 1844.

49-tf

I. M. BISSELL, BUCKEYE LARD OIL FACTORY, No. 28 Water Street, between Main & Walnut Gingseng, Flaxseed, Dried A.ples, &c. CINCINNATI. 6tf CINCINNATI.

Dr. Janne's Expectorant

S the only remedy that can arrest with certainty, the various pulmonary affection, under which thousands sink into the grave. No one ever used this Expectorant as directed, without finding relief. It must, from its composition, cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Inflamator Woolen Gloves; Country Knit, Woolen, Merino, tried it fairly, you will be compelled to acknowledge that half its merits have not been told you. Prepared only by D. D. Jayne, No. 20 South Third st., Philadelphia.

Forsale at the Comb Store, No. 125 Main st Cincinnati, O. J. W. SHEPPARD, Ag't. Cincinnati, May 25, 1844.

WATCHES, JEWELRY, &C. HE subscribers have just returned from th Eastern Cities, with the largest and mos implete assortment of WATCHES and JEW. ELRY ever brought to this market, which will be sold at a small advance on the prices of Eastern Importers and Manufacturers.

Our arrangements are such as to enable us to assure our customers and the public, that we shall keep constantly on hand, the best qualities of goods in our line, and on the most reasonable terms. Our friends and the public are invited to call and examine our present stock, which, (not to particularize) comprehends a great variely of usoful and ornamental Goods.

We will open in a few days, the most splen did assortment of fine plated CASTORS, BASKETS, and CANDLESTICKS ever brought to

Just opened, some entirely new patterns Britannia Ware. The higest price always pai for old Silver. McGREW & BEGGS. for old Silver. McGRE Cincinnati, Sept. 7, 1844.

AIR TONIC.—The following communica Hamilton College, N. Y., in addition to hundreds of others eaqually respectable should remove the doubts of every reasonable person of the uniform and singular efficacy of Jayne" Hair Tonic: HAMILTON, Feb. 18, 1840.

DR. JAYNE, Dear Sir-I cannot say that my hair is restored but I can say that it appears to be in as rapid a state of restoration as could be reasonably expected. I had not finished the first bottle before a decided change was mani-Buggy Harness of every description, Stage and first bottle before a decided change was manifest over the bald part of the head to which it styles, together with every other article manumuch like that of an infant appeared and has continued to increase; and I have had it cut two or three times. I have recently begun upon the third bottle, but have been a good deal irregular in the use of the tonic from the first, and from this cause I apprehend that the effect is probably less at present than it would otherwise have been.

I began the use of the Tonic with little or no faith that it would ever be suscessful on my head, though I felt entire confidence in your statement of what it had done to others, and I was as much surprised as astonished when I saw the effect. You reccollect the appearance of my head when in your office. I assure you the hair has been nearly if not quite an inch long at the ter. And physicians of the greatest eminence ter. time I had it cut, on the part that was nearly destitute of any when you saw me. It was however very fine though quite thick. I am flushed with the sanguine hope of final success, by the diligent use of your tonic which (amid all the "hair humbugs" which have been advertised in the papers,) I am constrained to believe is what it pretends to be, and "that it will make the hair grow and no mistake," at least on some heads. GEO. W. EATON, Professor in the Hamilton literary and Theoogical Seminary. Copy of a Letter from the Rev. C. C. Park, Pastor Baptist Church, at Haddonfield N. J.

INDDONFIELD, N. J., Feb. 12, 1838.

DR. D. JAYNE: Sir—I take great pleasure in informing you that the bottle of Ha'r Tonic which I obtained of you last October, has proved concealing it. But now after using about half a bottle of the Tonic I have as luxuriant a growth as ever I had. C.C. PARK. growth as ever I had. PROOF UPON PROOF. Who can longer doubt the excellence of Jayne's Hair Tonic, when everybody says it is the best article in to restore the head from baldness and beautify

P. Hall, of Ridley Pa: DR. JAYNE. The Hair Tonic which I obtained at your office has been of service in preventing the falling off of my hair. Indeed there is an appearance of young hair on my head.
Yours, affectionately
J. P. HALL.

tore, No 125 Main street.

J.W. SHEPPARD. Agent. Umbrellas. CASES of the finest blue and black Cotton ass'd sizes, and made and finished in the best manner, for sale at the low price of 60 cts. For sale at N. L. COLE'S, Fifth st., 3 doors above Main, Cincinnati.

Open till 8½ o'clock in the evening.

Oct. 19, 1844. UMBELLAS. CASES ass'd Cot. Umbrellas at 45c.

CANES! CANES!! CANES!!! A LARGE and splendid lot of Walking Canes, A Silver, Ivory and Gold mounted, and a lot of Sword Canes, of all descriptions.

—ALSO—
Shinney Canes, with carved Eagle, Coon and Dog Heads, and two or three other kind of crit- Wild Cherry Bulsam. ters—Wholesale and Retail.
East Fifth st. near Main, Cincinnati. Oct. 19, 1844. 13 tf N. L. COLE

H. BRACHMANN, DEALER IN FOREIGN LIQUORS, WINES, CIGARS, &C.

No. 17 Sycamore street near the River, DESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he has just returned from New York, Philadelphia, and Baltisters and choice lot in more, with an entensive and choice lot of Liquors, Wines, Cigars, and Sundries, which he offers at Wholesale or by the the Demijohn, at low prices-comprising in part, 15½ pipes Otard, Seignette, and Champaigne Brandy.

8 pipes Holland Gin-various brands. 2 puncheons St. Croix Rum. 2 do Jamaica.

A very superior quality of Old Gin, put up in Old Brandy and Rum in bottles. WINES. 15 casks Old Port;

20 do Madeira:

Cincinnati, May 11.

ther kinds

10 do Pale Sherry;

10 do Malaga do:

10 do Sweet Malaga; 5 do Muscat; 20 do Claret; 150 boxes Rhenish, viz: Johannesberger, Ruedesheimer, Markgraefer, &c. &c. besides various

42

A. G. RICHEDSON & BRO'S. General Commission Merchants, and dealers in PRODUCE AND GROCERIES, Columbia street, near Main, Cincinnati Ohio. Cincinnati articles, Soap, Candles, Starch, &c. &c.
ALSO—For the purchase of Western Produce,
Flour, Bacon, Lard, Butter, Feathers, Beeswax, Gentlemen

TISHING to Purchase Cloths, Cassimeres, Cassinetts, Jeans, Vestings, Wool, Cot-on and Silk; Under Shirts and Drawers; ton and Silk; Woolen Gloves; Country Knit, Woolen, Merino, and Cotion Socks; are assured they will find an excellent assertment at the very lowest prices, at the store of W. H. MUSSEY, at the store of W. H. MUSSEY,

181 Main st., bt Fourth and Fifth,

Cincinnati Oh Nov. 9, 1844. 16tf Cincinnati, Ohio. COMMON EARTHEN WARE. Just received per steamboats Corsair, Patriot and Little Ben. 15 crates Common Teas: 12 do Edg'd Plates, Twifflers and Muffins 4 do do and C. C. Dishes, Bakers and

Napies;

4 do Common Bowls; 2 do C. C. Ewers and Basins;

2 do do Chambers; 2 do do covidão; 3 do painted Teaware The above Goods will be repacked in any quan-

O. LDRICH, Agent, 174 Maln street, Cincinnati. For sale by Nov. 16, 1844.

WHEN CONSUMPTION MAY BE CLAS-SED WITH THE CURABLE DISEASES

A MONG all the famous medicines for Consumption, none seems to be meeting with greater success or obtaining a higher reputation than that most wonderful article, WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

That it stands at the head of other remedies is now universally Conceded. It has cured ousands upon thousands—of all classes in cathroughout our whole country unhesitatingly recommend it, as the MOST POWERFUL CURATIVE

Pharmacy. The sales in the Western States have so far been unparalleled: and the most gratifying proofs of its efficacy have been re-CONSUMPTIVE PATIENTS have already tested its exalted virtues, and confessed its surpassing, excellent and amazing power. The remarkable success of this Balsam of Pulmonary diseases in the whole range of Pharmacy. The sales in the Western States is no doubt owing in a great measure to the pe-culiarly agreeable and powerful nature of its ingredients. It is a FINE HERBAL MEDICINE, new chemical process, with the Extract of Fir—thus rendering the whole compound the most certain and efficacious remedy ever discovered for CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS. Still further evidences of the remarkable curative properties of this inestimable preparation. Messis. Sanford & Park-

Gentlemen:—About six weeks ago I received the agency of "WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," but with some reluctance on my part, for the reason I had been the agent of so many pills and nostrums which were Prepared and sold at No. 20 South Third St cracked up to be something wonderful, but which turned out in the end to be of no account whatever, except to the manufacturer. But I can-Philadelphia. SPrice $1 per bottle. For sale at the Comb didly admit that this time I have been deceived: for the extraordinary cures effected by Wistar's Balsam, have convinced me that "good can come out of Nazareth." Your agent left me one dozen bottles, which are all gone—having been the means of curing several obstinate cases of Consumption—and no mistake; for what I see Consumption—and no mistake; for what I see and know I am bound to believe. One case in particular:—A young gentleman in Winchester, Adams co., O, (10 miles from this place) was cured of Consumption when the doctors had given him up, or at least could do nothing for him, and it was the intention of his friends to CASES ass'd Cot. Umbrellas at 45c.— character of the care of some eminent physician there. But brellas, including a very large variety of all kinds, a friend told him of Wistar's Balsam, and that which will be sold as low as any manufactured in he could obtain it from me. He sent for it, and New York or Philadelphia.

For sale at the Umbrella Store, East Fifth st., near Main, Cincinnati.

N. L. COLE.

Oct. 19, 1844.

no13 tf.

National in Formula in the Solid as low as any manufactured in the count botten me. In each of the was gone he was sound and well, and attending to his every day business. As there are several inquiries for the medicine, it would be well to forward an additional interval and the solid and interval and interval in the solid and in the solid and in the solid and in the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as low as any manufactured in the count of the solid as any manufactured in the count of the solid as a solid tional supply without delay:

Very respectfully yours,

LAMBERT NEWLAND. The above from ! . NEWLAND, Esq., a highly respectable country merchant, commends itself forcibly to the candid attention of all those who have doubted the great merit of Wistar's

व व व व व व व व व व व

The following we have just received from Messrs.
Full, McCracken & Co., agents for the sale of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, at Lancaster, Ohio. TO THE PUBLIC.

I feel it my duty, as an act of kindness to the afflicted, to inform them what Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has done for my daughter. There is many a parent who has given up a beloved daughter or son, as a prey to that iell de-stroyer, Consumption. They have, as I have done, fried all the most skillful and eminent physicians within their knowledge, and all the most popular remedies that seem to hold out most popular remedies that seem to hold out some hope for a continuance or life, without getting any relief.

To all such, who, like me, have been seeking with trembling hope for some remedy of real efficacy, I would say, seek no farther, but try at once Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. My daughter Sarah Jane, aged 17 years, whose life for months had been despaired of, and was supposed a sure prey to Consumption, has been cured! restored to perfect health and that too, by using five bottles of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. JONATHAN COULSON.

Greenfield tp., Farfield co., O.,

March 15, 1844.

BALSAM OF WILD CRERRY. The attention of the afflicted is becoming remedy for Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Consumption, &c. But it is necessary to remind all who would get the true article, to inquire particularly for Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and take nothing else. Unprincipled dealers will tell you that Syrup of Wild Cherry, or some other cough medicine is equally as good. TAVE special agencies for the sale of Western Reserve Cheese and Butter. Kentucky, Missouri, and Virginia Tobacco. Pittsburg manufactured Nails, Glass, Cotton Yarns, WILD CHERRY, that not only relieves but cures!

Price $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5.

For sale in Cincinnati by

SANFORD & PARK,

Western Depot for valuable medicines.

Nov 231y cor 4th and Walnut sts.