THE LUNGS.

CONSUMPTION and BLEEDING AT THE LUNGS CURED,
By the use of "DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY."

MISS EMELINE YEAGER, aged seventy-two years, writes, "I was the age of sixteen with a slight cold, which she neglected until the LUNGS fell a prey to that sucking-demon, CONSUMPTION, when application to a physician was made, but to no effect, she described her condition as follows: "I was prescribed but little medicine for her. In the meantime she discarded great quantities of blood, with much expectation of thick phlegm and cough. Her body became emaciated, and she was unable to walk. Her last was anxiously looked for by her friends, at her sufferings might be judged by the pains of death. During the time her physician frequently called, and, as the last remedy, he prescribed DR. J. C. WENDEN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY," having noticed some extraordinary cures performed by the medicine in similar cases. He at once obtained five bottles and administered it for three weeks, and she was able to walk, and coughs gave place. He continued giving the medicine for eighteen days; at that time she was rendered able to be walking in her bed chamber."

nier, to the astonishment of his friends.
He states: "I continued using the medicine four eight weeks, when she declared herself entirely free from disease and pain, and now pursues her daily occupation in perfect health."
A small pamphlet accompanies this medicine, which gives a full description of diseases, the manner of treatment, &c.

LICKING VALLEY REGISTER.

RICHARD C. LANGDON, EDITOR.

COVINGTON.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1845.

As we have a new carrier in Covington, some of our subscribers will perhaps be neglected. They will please call and get their papers, and let us know, that they may hereafter get them regularly.

CINCINNATI CORRESPONDENTS will please direct all their Communications and Advertisements to Licking Valley Register, care of Box 315, Cincinnati.

We are authorized to announce Dr. JOHN BENNETT as a candidate for re-election to the State Senate for this District.

Our Paper.

It will be seen by a notice in another column, that this paper will, in future, be conducted by the Editor and H. B. Brown, Esq., of Maysville, Ky. Mr. B. is a gentleman of high standing in society, of considerable experience in the political world, and combining tact and talent as an editorial writer. The continued ill health of the senior editor, has rendered this arrangement necessary, and we doubt not it will be found equally interesting and profitable to our patrons. Mr. Brown will take up his residence in our city in about two weeks, when he will be found at his post, and when, we doubt not, our numerous citizens will be pleased to make his acquaintance.

Celebration of the Twenty-Second.

The military companies of this city, will meet at the City Hall, at 1 o'clock P. M., on the 22d inst., and after marching through the various streets of the city, will proceed to the Methodist B. Church, on Scott street, at half past 3 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of hearing addresses suitable to the occasion. The companies will meet again at the City Hall, and then repair to the Christian Church, at 7 o'clock P. M., where other addresses will be delivered. The public are respectfully invited to hear the addresses.

FIRE.—It is said there were five different carpenters' shops set on fire in Cincinnati, on Tuesday night last.

Two attempts were made in the day time to fire an old stable, in Covington, on Tuesday and Wednesday; and on Tuesday night, we understand, an attempt was made to fire a large board yard, which proved unsuccessful.

The Congress.

The National Intelligencer, in discussing upon the proceedings of the "ninth week of the session," holds forth in a truly patriotic and philosophical manner upon the State of the country, and the dispositions of parties in Congress. In speaking of invited war, the acquisition of countries, unsuited to our Government, it is well said: "we will have caught at empire and lost self-government." We recommend the article of the Intelligencer to those who prefer honorable quietude to questionable turmoil.

A communication appeared in the last number of the Maysville Eagle, calling upon JOHN D. TAYLOR, Esq., of Mason county, to become a candidate for Congress in this district.

CASSIUS M. CLAY, Esq., on behalf of himself and others, has issued proposals for publishing in Lexington, a weekly paper under the title of "THE FREE AMERICAN." The paper will advocate a "gradual and constitutional emancipation" of the slaves of Kentucky.

The difficulty between Messrs. J. C. Mason and G. W. Ewing, which it was supposed would terminate in a duel, has, by the intervention of personal and political friends, been settled upon terms which are alleged to be "highly honorable to both parties."

Samuel H. Smith, Esq., treasurer of the National Monument Society, at Washington, reports the amount of money on hand, principal and interest, in different investments, to be $49,783 70.

DANIEL S. DICKINSON was on Tuesday week elected Senator of the United States by the Legislature of New York, for six years from the 4th of March next. The Whigs voted for John C. Clark, and the Natives for Robert Taylor.

The sixth attempt has been made to elect a Mayor in Boston, and again no choice. Davis, Am. Rep., received 4,429 votes; Parker, Whig, 3,489; Homer, Dem., 1,504; scattering, 40.

By a late eastern paper we learn the seawall election has since been held, and yet no choice.

The Philadelphia papers announce the death of Manuel Byrne, Esq., one of the oldest and most respected residents of that city.

The Richmond papers of Friday say James' River was frozen over, being the third occurrence of the kind since 1787. The steamer Pocahontas was detained by the ice.

McNULTY.—The investigation of the case of Caleb J. McNulty, late Clerk of the House of Representatives, was brought to a close on the 13th inst. He was held to bail to answer in the sum of $17,000. Hon. Messrs. Leonard and Potter security.

Nineteen hundred dollars reward for the murderer of Mr. Edwards.—We see by the Chillicothe Advertiser, that the Governor of Ohio has offered $1000; Mr. Edwards' Administrators $500, and the citizens of Chillicothe $400—making in all $1900, for the apprehension of Henry Thomas alias Thomas Deau, who, it is believed, took a principal part in the murder of Mr. Edwards, of Bourneville.

John Powers, recently pardoned from the Kentucky Penitentiary, in which he had been incarcerated for robbing the mail, has been arrested at New Orleans, charged with abducting a slave, and committing forgery.

FORGERY.—A successful forgery was committed a few days since, on the Union Bank of Baltimore, in the name of M. Doyle, lottery dealer and exchange broker. The amount thus secured by the fraud is $1,755 55, in a single check, $1,000 of which was paid in three notes of that bank, of the denomination of $500 each; and there is but one other note of that denomination out, it is hoped that so much of the amount will be unavailable to the rogue.

It is natural for spiders to spin, but it is not natural for our modern young ladies to do any such thing.

THE GREAT BRITISH STEAMER.—The London Sun alluding to this new steamer says that, with the working of her "Archimedean screw," she can run, it seems, from eleven to twelve knots an hour, not stretching a yard of her canvas. "Her mighty fabric is said to be unaffected by the vibration of the steam engines which work the colossal propelling power, and the passengers in her spacious cabins can scarcely detect the momentary of her speed. In less than seven traversings of her deck from stem to stern, the astonished voyager will have paced one mile; and between two and three of our old 36 gun frigates would present no more than her own single storage of 3300 tons."

The Expositor, printed at Independence, Jackson county, Mo., says the number of emigrants which will leave that place for Oregon, about the first of May next, will be about eight thousand.

Adjournment of the Legislature.

The Legislature of this State adjourned sine die, on the 10th inst. Previous to adjournment the usual complimentary resolutions to the presiding officers were passed. The valedictory addresses of Mr. Morehead, Speaker of the House, and Lt. Gov. Dixon, President of the Senate, are highly spoken of by the members with whom we have conversed.

Steamboat Burnt.

The Memphis Eagle, of the 11th inst., says:—The Captain of the Steamboat Louisville reports the loss by fire of the steamboat Path-finder, below Rodney, on Saturday morning about 4 o'clock together with some ten or more lives; how many was not known. The Louisville saved about 20 persons floating in the river and on shore, coming up soon after the accident; there were fifteen passengers on board, and 1400 bales of cotton; the boat burnt to the water's edge and floated down stream. One of the cabin boys and another person got possession of the yawl and put ashore with it; the Clerk swam after them, and got aboard, but was compelled to suffer them to get on shore, when he returned with the yawl and saved the pilot's wife, the only lady on board.

Steam Boat Accidents.

The Diadem is just up from New Orleans, and brings sad accounts of loss of life and property. The Path Finder, engaged in the Yazoo trade was burned below Vicksburg. She was loaded with cotton. That was damaged or destroyed, and worse still, some seven or eight human beings are reported as missing.

The Agnes and Col. Harney, laden with cotton, are said to have been sunk in Red River. How, whether by snags or otherwise, we are not informed.

The Pearl River was lost in the Washita, below Akademeia, laden, also, with cotton.

Trade of Kentucky river.

We were informed by a merchant yesterday, that New Orleans goods had been received here to re-ship to Lexington. The Packet Shelby, instead of losing money the first year, as was expected, has made money and the trade is increasing. When our Rail Road is finished to the Lake, the business of the North with Kentucky will take this route, and a great avenue of new business will be opened.—Cin. Chron.

The great February snow storm of 1845, commenced in New York on Tuesday morning, the 5th and continued to lay down on Wednesday morning. The snow fell to the depth of fifteen inches on a level, and the violence of the gale was very great. On Tuesday evening between five and ten o'clock, the wind blew a perfect hurricane, and the streets, owing to the huge drifts were nearly impassable.

Gen. Lewis Cass has been agreed upon by the majority of the Legislature, for United States Senator from Michigan, for six years from the 4th of March next.

Another New Invention.

The Boston Post of Saturday gives this account of an invention, which, if successful, is likely to be a formidable competitor to Mr. Morse's magnetic telegraph:

"We were highly entertained yesterday afternoon by an exhibition of an invention for transmitting letters or packages any distance which may be desired with the rapidity almost of lightning. The process by which this is accomplished is very simple, consisting merely of an air chest, which is charged with air by a force pump contiguous to the chest. When the chest is sufficiently charged with air, the letter or package is placed in the feeder, and is immediately discharged through the pipe with great velocity, and Col. Reed, the inventor, is of opinion that an outlay of $60,000 would insure the transmission of letters and packages between Boston and New York, with perfect safety, in the space of half an hour!"

The Post-Office Bill.

This bill has, at length, got into a pretty good shape, though it is doubtful whether the House pass it. If they amend they will not get it through. Possibly, however, the urgency of the case is such that the bill may be passed. The principle features are:

1. A uniform rate of five cents postage is fixed for letters.
2. A single letter is any thing less than half an ounce weight.
3. The franking privilege is continued to Members of Congress; but not to exceed two ounces for each document.
4. A newspaper is not to exceed 1,900 square inches.
5. Newspapers may be sent otherwise than by mail.
6. Private Expresses are forbidden by a penalty.

On the whole, this is a pretty good law.—Cin. Chron.

A Thief arrested by a Dog.

The Dayton Transcript of the 12th inst. notices a singular instance of the sagacity of a dog. It seems that a person named Spangler called at the store of Col. Green, in Dayton, under pretence of wanting to purchase some stores. After some inquiries he left, but soon returned apparently intoxicated, and took a seat in the counting room. Col. G. was soon called out, and in his absence Spangler took the key out of the safe and attempted to depart. The dog had been watching, and immediately seized and detained him until his master returned, when Spangler again attempted to leave, but was again detained by this self-same officer. Col. Green's suspicions were aroused; Spangler's pockets examined, and the key found upon him, and restored to its place, when the dog seemed satisfied. The thief confessed, was arrested and committed to prison.—Orion.

Annexation in Maine, again.

The following resolution was, on the 30th ultimo, presented to the Senate of Maine, by one of the advocates of immediate unconditional "annexation," and its second reading refused by a vote 13 to 6:

"Resolved, That this Legislature highly approve the resolves passed by the House of Representatives, January 25th, 1845, admitting the territory of Texas into the Union."

The same resolution was presented to the House of Representatives, by a Calhoun member of that branch, and indefinitely postponed by the very decided vote of 85 to 8. Thus Maine has condemned the scheme of Annexation passed by the House of Representatives of the United States, and approved of the stand taken by a majority of her delegation in Congress.—Nat. Ed.

THE War for the Offices—Breakers Ahead for Mr. Polk.
The Madisonian and the Globe are hounding some harsh words at each other. The Madisonian hopes to become the Government organ under Mr. Polk; and the Globe is quarrelling with that hope.

Mr. Polk, when he comes into office, will be placed between two fires, by one or the other of which he must be scorched. The Tyler office holders will insist upon holding on to their places; the old Bourbon men will insist upon going back to their old places. Here in this city, an old Collector desires to come back, and hold office under Mr. Polk; an old Surveyor, an old Postmaster, an old Naval officer, an old Surveyor, the old in short want the places of the new.—As here so every where Bourbon or Napoleonist? Vive le Roi or Vive l'Empereur? The "Napoleonists" are scorned by the whole school of the Ancients and Honorables, from Benton down.

The "Napoleonists" as it seems to us, however, have the advantage. They have the officers now in possession in nine points in politics, as well as in law. Retention in office is an obsolete idea, except in the military world, where holding on to office, or if rolled out, only rolled out of a poor place to be rolled into a better one. The Ancients have got to sue out the writ of ejectment, and get in.

Again, as we hear, Polk promises Tyler, indirectly, not to directly, to keep Tyler men in, if Tyler would wheel into the Polk line. Is it so? Let us hear perhaps you will say "no," perhaps you will turn up your eyes with affected horror at the charge, but if not so, we are misinformed, and Mr. Tyler will be a great deal better off. Mr. Polk's brother for a foreign mission. Why this nomination but to close a bargain? Why, too, the confident tone of the Madisonian? Why the denunciation of Benton by the Nashville Union? Why the general war of the southern press upon the Van Buren men? Why all this, but to prepare the way for keeping the Tyler and Calhoun office holders in, and the Benton and Van Buren office seekers out?

The rock upon which "democracy" will split will be the rock of patronage. There are not offices enough for the Tyler men, and they will almost every body now-a-days, wants one. The times must go in, and the outs will fight, if they can't get in.—N. Y. Express.

Oregon.

The letter of our Washington correspondent conveys the important intelligence that the House of Representatives of the United States has nearly consummated its work upon Oregon. If men will pause upon the subject, and who have favored that measure, and who have opposed it, they will be struck with the dangerous spirit in which the most important business of this nation is conducted. Age, experience, lofty views, and high talents, are nothing in the scale against the young zeal for popular uprisings, and his ad captivum outbreaks of patriotism, and his loud advocacy of the extended rights of man. This is a mournful state of the case, and a lamentable specimen of republican purity—a wretched comment upon the boasted virtues of our institutions. Perpetuity seems to be nothing compared with expansion; and we are selling the future of a nation for an expansion of the present, instead of making arrangements for extending our time of existence, and maintaining our physical and political integrity.—[U. S. Gazette.]

From the New Orleans Courier—Extra, Feb. 6.
Late and Important from Mexico.

The news of Santa Anna's capture confirmed!! By the arrival of the schooner Water Witch, Capt. Dupre, at a late hour last night from Vera Cruz, we are in receipt of full files of Mexican papers to the 23d ult. inclusive. Owing to lateness of the hour at which the papers came to hand, we have not had time to examine our files minutely, nor have we space for long extracts—this evening or to-morrow we hope to be able to give full particulars. The most important news by this arrival is the confirmation of the recent capture of Santa Anna, and the capture of Santa Anna. The Mexican Congress on the 17th ult. the fact of Santa Anna's capture, and read the following official communication conveying the intelligence:

HEADQUARTERS OF CONSTITUTIONAL MILITIA, At Vera Cruz, Feb. 1st, 1845.
His excellency Don Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, has just been brought in by four of our men, and is now in our power. I am in too much haste to write the particulars before to-morrow.

PEDRO LLERA.
To His Excellency the Minister of Exterior Relations.

JALAPA, January 16.
The minister further informed Congress that Santa Anna would be conducted to the fortress of Perote, to wait the decision of Government. A proclamation, dated January 14th, announced the re-establishment of peace in Mexico. The members of the provisional government of 1841 have been requested to form part of the assembly under the same charter. The commanding officers at Vera Cruz and under their command.

We hear verbally that Santa Anna, previous to his defeat, entered Puebla, pillaged and burnt the town and butchered the inhabitants. His army of 10,000 to 12,000 men turned against him, and he now remains without a friend in his cause. General Ampudia had been recalled, and replaced by Martinez. Ampudia declared that all he had done was by order of Santa Anna. It is said to be the opinion of well informed persons in Mexico, that Santa Anna will be shot, but that he will be kept for some time, before they execute him.

A passenger who came in the Water Witch reports that Santa Anna left Perote under a strong escort for the city of Mexico, on the 23th ult.

ANOTHER ASTONISHING CURE!!
Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
ALWAYS TRIUMPHANT!
CURE FOLLOWS CURE!!
In its onward victorious career.

Ma. J. W. Whitcomb, Esq., of Dayton, Ohio, writes to the Editor of the "Licking Valley Register," as follows:—

"DEAR SIR: As you are the regular authorized agent in Dayton, for the sale of 'Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,' I take this method of making a statement of facts to you (which I hope may be published to the world) in reference to an extraordinary cure, wrought in my case by means of the above invaluable Balsam."

Language fails to describe the salutary effects it produced, and the great benefit I derived from its use.

The citizens of Dayton and vicinity, well recollect that on 5th of August last, I contracted a serious injury from the explosion of a cannon. A portion of its contents entered my right side and neck; and in all probability, some fragments or splinters of the ramrod passed through the "lung," and pierced the liver.

After the lapse of about six weeks, I was attacked with a distressing cough and violent pain in my right side. Some days after this, when in a paroxysm of coughing, suddenly an agonizing pain, mixed with blood, was discharged; most of which passed through the opening of my wound. From this opening there frequently passed a quantity of air, supposed to issue from the lungs. During all this time my sufferings were almost insupportable.

My physicians, meanwhile, paid the strictest attention to me, and did all in their power for my recovery. But with all their skill, they could not reach the seat of distress, after the lungs had become affected. I was visited during this time by at least twenty medical gentlemen. It was now reduced to a certainty, that inflammation of the lungs was rapidly taking place; and that this would terminate my life in a very short time.

At this critical stage, a manager was dispatched to Cincinnati, and a celebrated Physician of that place was consulted. When he was made acquainted with my situation, he remarked that nothing could be done by medical aid, if the constitution itself was not sufficient to throw off the disease.

My friends now despaired of my recovery, and I had no earthly ground of hope to survive many days. Fortunately at this juncture I saw the Medical Guide, of the State of Ohio, containing the name of the "Lung." As I had often heard of dying men "catching at straws," I felt like doing so myself. By the consent of my physicians, I sent to you for a bottle of the medicine described in the Medical Guide, and immediately applied it, which relieved me almost immediately. I had used some five or six bottles. I so far recovered as to be up and about. My cough ceased, and my lungs were restored to a healthy state, and the healing and balm influence, and powerful medicinal virtues of Wistar's Balsam.

Were it not from the external injury, inflicted in my shoulder and arm by the explosion, I feel confident that I might have been working my trade (which is blacksmithing,) but this I have preserved.

By exposure, I have since taken several severe colds; and my only remedy has been "the Balsam." And I now most cordially recommend the genuine Wistar's Balsam to all who are afflicted with Coughs, or Lung Complaints, and become affected with the same. I feel it my duty to state that the Balsam is a real blessing to the world. Any person desiring further information, may call on me at any time.

Yours truly,
CHRISTOPHER R. SMITH.
City of Dayton, Ohio.

Subscribed and sworn to, before me, Justice of the Peace, this 11th day of Feb., 1845.
EBENEZER FOWLER.

Testimony of three highly creditable citizens of Dayton, in confirmation of the above.

We, the Undersigned, being intimately acquainted with Mr. Smith, and having seen and watched over him frequently during his late illness, do not hesitate to say that the foregoing is by no means an exaggerated statement, but is entirely to full credit.

(Signed)
