

AGENCY,
1st Street,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Has been transacting extending of REAL ESTATE has been induced by his acquaintance, transacting in the west. His agency, an Office, at his Corner of Main and where he has been presiding, beyond his usual work, has now removed to the corner of all the Street, and where he is ready to receive purchase and sale of property, in Cities, Towns, moste argument by and in most of the large the last twenty-five years, and advantages in processance. His thorough-unrivalled facilities for control of affairs and of the United States, can more readily make

and advantages of processance. (As a "good and remark, that on a for-single year, within a leaps, farms and towns 600,000—those belonging mediate nature, from note parts of the Union, to the amount of $150, he will warrant, he will,

many duties of a local practice of visiting the as often as once in six propositions before ap-plain more, charts and Manufacturing com-
 Joint Bank Societies,
 , etc.—to require orders, functions, as pertain to between the east and the the south, or with various persons wishing to sell or real estate, are responsible office as above described. Satisfactory references will be always shown of the nature of the establishment will all others, in the east believed to be the best through the Post Office.

require prompt attention.
 FROM 9 TO 3 O'CLOCK.
C. GOULD,
General Land Agent.

USE FOR BEEF AND

The following commensurate, Professor Eddy of N. Y., in addition to humanly respectable should require reasonable person of police efficiency of Japan's TON, Feb. 18, 1840.

 Sir—I cannot say that I can say that it appears to be of no use to me. I had not finished the whole change was made.

of the lead to which it is worth of some shiny hair infatigable, appearing and hair and I have had quite recently began again, the hair a good deal drooping from the front, and so that the effect is genuine it would otherwise have been the Tonié with little or no hair to be successful on my head, confidence in your statement to others, and I was so contented when I saw the effect of the appearance of my hair. I assure you the hair quite an inch long at the back that was nearly as you saw me. It was quite thick. I am finished with my hair, and I am of my usual complexion, by the tonic which (could all the world have been advised, I have been advised, I have trained to believe in what "that it will make the State," at least on some

GEO. W. EATON,
millinery literary and Poet-on the Rec. C. C. Park-b, at Haddonfield N. J., s, N. J., Feb. 12, 1830.
Sirs—Take great pleasure the bottle of Hair Tonic of last October, has last hair, had for a long time in; But for two or three out, that I had become wonder the necessity of
of the side over it, and thus now after using about half I have no complaint
C. C. PARKER.
Who can longer doubt the Hair Tonic, when ev-best article in the world own baldness and, heartily following from the Rev. John 1831
the Hair Tonic which I ob-has been of service in 1931 of my hair. Indeed these young hair in my head.

young, exceptionally
J. P. HALL
at No. 20 South Third St
For sale at the Comb
Travel
V. SHEPPARD Agent.
1945 87-42

P. GOODS."
R. WINSTON.
and deer show first,
ing their Spring and Summer
AND GROCERIES.
J. QUINN & SONS, INC. is in possession of the rights and we continue to sell the Ginseng at prices, for cash country produce.
CASH,
Cigarettes, Leaf Tobacco

...s, Feather, &c. &c.
 ...s and prices.
FURNITURE
 ...NGTRY, manufactures
 stantly on hand CHAIRS,
TABLES, BEDSTEADS,
SEEN, &c. &c. of the best quality. No 5, Fifth street, west of Walnut.
 29, 1845. 261y
prices.
 ...s, Cinnamon, Ginger, &c.
 ...s or augmented, by the quantity.
 For sale low by GEORGE LIGHT,
 Syracuse at Cincinnati.
 40 y)