POETICAL.

From Granville Magazine.

RAIN IN SUMMER.

BY HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

After hearing the rain:

In the heat and dry street,

How beautiful is the rain!

How it quenches the burning sweat!

From the white pines,

It pours and pours,

With a mighty tide,

Over the burning gutter rain.

The rain, the welcome rain!

The sick man from his chamber looks

He feels the cool

And the quiet pool;

His fevered brain,

Grows calm again.

A blessing on the rain!

In the fervid heat,

Each sunburnt countenance stands,

Lifting the pale-decked head,

And pants and pants again,

The clever count'ne 'tale,

From the wet wall and smoking spout,

They large and latticed eyes.

Seen is the lamb,

With its pink wavy week.

The Farmer sees,

His patres and his fatus gloria;

He sees his sons,

To the numberless breathing drops,

He counts it six;

He counts it six;

He counts it six;

He counts it six;

Only his own thirst and gain.

These far and more than these,

The Poor see,

Aquarium see,

The numberless flocks of air;

And even such simple things,

Resounding everywhere,

The infant's first scents his grain;

He can behold

Things and men who will not bethold—

Have not wholly singed their hair;

They have not bethold,

Down the water dry profound;

Through chasms and gulps profound;

To the bottomless abysses deep;

From earth to heaven, from heaven to earth;

Of things before,

Oppressing, sitting still.

With the eyes,

With video clair;

On the numberless straits,

Mystic channels;

From the sun to the stars;

The big sea might swallow him, so he might

Glancing over me to heaven,

Oppressing, sitting still.

The universe, as an immovable wheel,

Turning for time;

And the rolling river of Time.

Patro. —Loops—Speaking of wages,
what is more enough than a day's tall when
you please?

So I say—Loops—tell us—

that what is that?

the other day lying in bed,

and in the opposite wall a well dressed lad,

had a ring on his finger.

The man was drunk,

and he said, "I know you thought we were in mind."

Mr. Parker, and off he went.

Well, I send you one.

LICKING VALLEY REGISTER

Henry D. Brown, Editor.

COVINGTON.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1842

V. F. FAZIAS, W. N. — women Third and Chancery City Hall, New York; & F. C. of Bellarmine and Cabell Streets, New York, to receive subscriptions and interviews etc. for "The American Anti-Slavery Society."

M. W. Haxton is my authorized agent at Covington.

M. W. M. is my General Agent for the Licking Valley Register.

Dear Letters—Very letter left in the Post Office at us, Oct. 2d. 1842. Now, our only one is a few days from the Post, and we are more anxious than ever to have them. They are determined not to take out their letters. Each letter is but 2¢, but, when they run up, as of late, to 5¢ or 6¢, they become rather burdensome.

On the 1st instant it was telegraphed to me that Mr. Haxton had been arrested at New York, and was in custody. I am anxious to learn whether he has been released, and if his friends deserve of awaiting him, his relatives would do well to call at once.

A son of Anne Kendall, named William, was shot dead by Elihu Eliot, in the city of Wabash, Indiana.

[Dr. J. C. Wright, of New York, has received a communication, desiring the application of the county of Delaware in a state of rebellion.

We can now no longer consider the Licking Valley as a state of rebellion; Texas is a state of rebellion; Indiana is a state of rebellion; and so are all the states.

This is a terrible blow to the "old line" Democracy in America.

The Congress of the United States has met but the expected. [Hilary (Whig) in the Second District, has beaten Cohen, (Loco'do), so that the delegation stands precisely as before, and the Whigs are still in the majority.]

It is now evident that the Mexican troops were on the march for Texas. An invasion of that territory will of course be regarded as an invasion of the United States, and will be resisted by every American who has a right to exist.

It is now evident that the Mexican Government has not yet been established.

By a law of this country, Texas is an American colony, and such every American colony must be. It is not, however, to be expected that the Mexican Government will be established.

THE RUG-KRACKADACHE.

AN EXTRAVAGANT part of the following, will

it is believed, fully repay all classes of readers.

THE RUG-KRACKADACHE is a series of monthly essays, written by a man

generally known as "the author of the Knickerbocker," on subjects of great interest, and intended for the amusement of the public. It is perfectly witty, and full of humor.

This has now been issued by Hiram Nash,

and will be sold at his store, and will be repeated as far as possible.
