GOD AND LIBERTY.

BY G. W. CUTTER. In the beginning-ere the dawn of time, Ere chaos woke from an eternal sleep, When all was shoreless, silent and sublime, And God alone was on the mighty deep. No planet burned upon the sable sky, No boreal flame or comet's daring flight, The earth was void and formless to the eye, dreamless nothing in the womb of night; God said "let there be light and there was light."

Then order rose-then time began his march-Then earth was roll'd from out Jehovah's hand, Flung to its circle in the mighty arch, To fill the purpose of his high command. The sun arose and gave the morning birth, The moon came forth upon the azure even, Bright Orion shouted o'er the infant earth, The angels leaned them from the courts

These bonds were purchased by my advice, with money which had been paid into the Treasury under an act of the 18th of Fabruary, 1842, entitled, "An act to invest the Craddock fund." The money was lying idle in the Treasury and bearing interst against the State, and it was though best to apply it to the purchase of State bonds which were also bearing interest, and thereby save the State from the burthen of double in terest. Including the amount already received, there may be paid into the treasury, of that fund $20,000; and it is submitted your consideration whether provision should not be made for its appropriation to some

Total amount of Bank stocks, $1,270,500 This sum deducted from the entire amount of debt, as above stated, leaves $3,138,956, which may be considered as the actual burthen of debt on the State. But when we consider that, to meet this indebtedness, the State has a very River Navigation, which are yearly becoming more productive to the State, and therefore more valuable; and that the State also owns the Railroad, which is in successful operation, and yielding a handsome rent to the State-it will be seen that the indebtedness may be considered as greatly diminished by these vast assets, and all fears of oppression of the people, by reason of their State debt, dismissed as groundless and illusory. This gratifying fact furnishes a conclusive answer to such persons as are disposed to reproach those who were instrumental in carry-ing out the internal improvements which are adding so much to the wealth, convenience and comfort of the people.

The means appropriated by law to that pur-ose were sufficient to pay the interest of the public debt for the fiscal year ending the 10th October, 1845. The interest is payable semiannually, and much the greater portion on the first of January and July, in each year, in the

Looking to the past, nothing is discovered to excite apprehension that the receipts of the Sinking Fund will diminish; but, on the contrary, we have reason to anticipate an increase in those receipts in future.

A greater amount will probably be received in dividends on stock in the Bank of Kentucky, and there is no likelihood that less will be received receipts of toli from the turnpike roads and river navigation are increasing, and will likely continue to increase. Shortly after the adjournment of the last Legislature, Thomas Porter and George B Kinhegislature, Thomas Tuter Indicated First kend, Eqsis., were commissioned, under an act of the 16th of February, 1845, to andit and settle the accounts of the President of the Bank of the Commonwealth, and to audit and settle the accounts of the Sinking Fund. It was afterwards found impracticable for Mr. Potter to levote the time and service necessary to a faithful discharge of all the duties required by the act; and he accordingly resigned his mission. Whereupon, H. I. Bodley, Esq., was commissioned to supply his place. Messrs. Kinkead and Bodley entered upon their duties in Sentember last, and after some months of patient and laborious investigation, brought their labors to a close-a full statement of which, embodied there will be received into the Treasury, in the fiscal year ending the 10th October, 1846 $363,sum of $396,906 97. And the expenditures for the same year are expected to amount to $377,-084 20, which deducted from $396,906 97, the amount of expected receipts, leaves a balance of $19,822 57, expected to be in the Treasury on the 10th of October, 1846. The report of the Second Auditor exhibits an increase of about five per centum in the tax re-ceivable on property listed by the Commissioners of Tax in the year 1845, above what it was on property listed in the preceding year; and the increase, I am satisfied, would have been much greater if the duties of taking in the taxable property had been, in many cases, conferred on more competent Commissioners, and performed by them with entire accuracy. It is perfeetly apparent that many of the Commissioners are destitute of the necessary qualifications to discharge correctly the duties enjoined upon them by law, and it is much to be lamented that the public interest should be brought to suffer from the ignorance of agents selected as Commissioners of Tax too frequently without regard to their qualifications or fitness for the station. It will give me great pleasure to untie with the Legislature in any constitutional measure which may, in their wisdom, be devised to remedy the evil and prevent its recurrence in future.

It may not, in this place, be inappropriate to make a suggestion or two is reference to the collectors of the public revenue. Sheriffs, at present, are entitled to a commission of seven and a half per contum on the amout of revenue collected by them, and they are required to city of New York.

But it not unfrequently happens that pay-ment is not made into the Treasury by Sheriffs until even after the first of January. I suggest il, therefore, as advisable to reduce the mission of Sheriffs to five per centum, and authorize the Second Auditor and Treasurer to allow a premium of two and a half per cent. to all Sheriffs who shall make full payment against the lift centh day of December annually. Something like this would, I am satisfied, stimulate the Sheriffs to greater punctuality in payment and place the Sinking Fund in more easy circomstances.

In looking over the report of the Second Ac titor, his statement in reference to the expen liture for the support of idiots will claim you attention. It appears that from 1829 to 1845, inclusive, there has been paid out of the Treasury the sum of $233.871 43, for the support of idiots-numbering four hundred and lifteen in 1844, and four bundred and fifty in 1845. The President of the Bank of the Common wealth is desirous to relinquish that office, the duties of which have long been discharged by him with great fidelity and ability. The bu-i ness of the Bank has been for years past in progress of liquidation and, in the opinion of its gress of liquidation and, in President, may be brought to a close through the instrumentality of some one of the public cers. No one of these officers is better qualified. and none to whom the closing up of the busines could be more easily entrusted, than the present First Auditor. And I would suggest your consideration, the propriety of having the papers, books and accounts transferred to that onice, and the business of the Bank hereafter transacted and the accounts kept in that office The proceeds of the Bank now constitute part of the Sinking Fund, and there seems to be a peculiar fitness in having the business transacted and the accounts of the Bank kept in the First Auditor's office, where all the accounts of the Sinking Fund are required by law to b cept. The interest of the public would not be injured, I apprehend, by the change, and the husiness would be transacted by the Auditor at a diminished expense to the Cintor It may be expedient to confer authority on the Commis sioners of the Sinking Fund, or upon the Auditor, with the advice and consent of the Commissioners, to settle by compromise, or other-wise, any claims which the Bank has, at present

It is however, to be regretted that the finances of the State are not in a condition; at present, to admit of further improvements on the roads and rivers, without increasing the public debt, or producing additional taxation. The benefibe evident to all, from the rapid and growing in-crease of the tolls received from the roads and river navigation. The stimulus given to com-merce by the increased facility of transportation afforded by those improvements, has brought a nearer and better market to the people, roused their energies and encouraged their industry to greatly multiplied productions. These beneficial results would be further extended and more widely disseminated through the community by an extension of the improvements. Suit has been brought against the late Keeper of the Penitentiary and his securities, by the Attorney General, in accordance with the act of last Legislature; and, under an order of the Chancellor, the property which formed one of the subjects of contest, has been sold by a Commissioner appointed for that purpose. The sale was made on a credit of twelve months and amounts to about $5,000, to be disposed of by the Court when the matters in contest are de-cided. The contest about this property prevented the present Keepers from the use of that amount of capital, which by law, they were entitled to have furnished to them by the State; and it has put them to the necessity of supplying, with their own means the necessary capital carrying on the business of the institution. In their annual settlement with the Keepers the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund did not consider themselves at liberty, nor were they urged by the Keepers, to take into consideration any claim which the Keepers may have against the State for indemnity, on account of their failure to get from the State the anticipated capital. That was deemed by the Commission ers, as well as the Keepers, to be a subject more properly addressing itself to the Legislature, to whose consideration I now commend it. You will have more detailed and full information as to the business and condition of the Penitentia ry hid before you in the report of the Keepers. The authority of the Bank of Kentucky, the Northern Bank of Kentucky and the Bank of Louisville, to issue notes of less denomination than five dollars is made, by an act of 193 eth of March, to terminate on this day. Will there be War?

The New York Evening Post, has an article neaded the "Prospect of War," which comnences, by saying:

"Some of the members of Congress, we pereive, are talking as if war were already at our loors. We do not agree with them. Since the sublication of the correspondence on the Ore-con question, the probability of War has great-y diminished. There is now, almost literally ut one opinion on that question in the United States. Men of all parties now look upon our right to the whole of the territory of Oregon, as a settled matter. "Clear and unquestionable," in the opinion of many of the whigs themselves, are no longer terms too strong to be applied to

The Post also says:

"The consciousness that our country is in the right, has had a surprising effect in quieting men's minds. As long as the argument was not fully understood, as long as the grounds of the American claim on the one side, and the British claim on the other were apprehended but partially and confusedly, as was too generally the case, there was a lurking uneasiness lest we might be insisting on more than we were fairly entitled to take, and lest the peace of the country might be sacrificed for the sake of maintain ing pretensions which to say the most in their favor, are but doubtful."

The Post dwells upon the felly of Great Britain in going to war with this country, and doubts that she will do so. A continuation of Mr. Callbour's inactive policy is also recommended, and the Post is confident that no violent step will be taken by the Administration.

A later number of the same paper contains the following paragraph:

"The English news is generally regarded as pacific, and the few who of late thought the dans ger of war imminent, are now modifying their opinions. It is believed that neither the President nor any member of the Cabinet share the fears that have been expressed in other quarters. What would you say should the Oregon question be settled amicably in a few days? Nous verrons, as our good friends of the Union says."

On Being Cross .- There are very many cross people in this world. The phylosophy of sleep has been written, and so has anatomy of melancholy; but who has ever attempted to write the philosophy of crossness, or to analyze this prevalent and most uncomfortable distemper? What is crossness, and how is it produced? Is it not anger; neither is it fretfalness; these are both excited by external provocations, and are talk.

Anger and fretfulness would die away, if they could not get vent; but crossness does not care to speak forthe hour at a time; and when it does speak, it is in short and crusty monosyll bles. Anger is generally short lived; from five minutes to an hour, according to circumstances, is sufficient for most men to get over a fit of anger; and few men fret more than one day at a time; but, if you find one that is cross. you may expect him to keep so a week at

Gov. Owsley's Message.

We lay before our readers, to-day, the annuand explicit, and its recommendations wise and much to the already high reputation of Gov.

We shall content ourselves with a very brief however, that our readers will not forego the pleasure of perusing it.

The Governor very appropriately commences his message by an acknowledgement of our dependence on Him, "from whom all good counsels and just works proceed," and invoking His blessing on the labors of the Legislature. He then proceeds, at once, to the business of the State. The State Debt first claims his attention, and Kentuckian to know that this has been reduced, proudly upheld. The entire state debt, of every description, now amounts to $4,409,456. To meet this the State owns in Bank Stock, the sum of $1,270,500, which deducted from $4,409,456, leaves $3,138,956, which may be considered as the actual burden of the debt on the State. Besides this, the state owns a very large amount of stock in the various Turnpike roads, the entire Kentucky and Green River navigation, and the Lexington Railroad, all of which are now yielding handsome incomes. These vast resources ple, by reason of the state debt, as groundless and illusory, and afford a conclusive answer to improvements, which are adding so much to the wealth, convenience and comfort of the people. The interest of the State debt, has been punctually paid.

The receipts of toll from the turnpike roads and river navigation are increasing and will probably continue to increase. The receipts into the treasury from turnpike roads, during the year ending Oct. 10th, 1845, amount to $24,865 41, and from the Kentucky river, during the same time amount to $17,214 15.

The Governor is for guarding against any diminution of the resources of the Sinking Fund. This fund is set apart for the payment of the interest on the State debt, and he justly says that it is only by fostering the resources and applying the means of the Sinking Fund to the punctual payment of interest, that we can sustain the present deservedly high credit of our State-a credit not to be mentioned without exciting emotions of exultation and pride in the breast of every lover of his coun-

The receipts into the Treasury have been ample to meet all demands against the State, and leave a balance, on the 10th of October last, of $33,444,36.

There has been an increase of about five per cent. in the tax receivable on property listed the past, above the previous year. It would have been much larger, but for the manifest incompetency of many of the Tax Commissioners. A change in the law on this subject is suggested. livered. In the Senate Mr. Haris, a verdant Loco, all the way from the County of Floyd, objected to receiving it because it was not sent by the Secretary of State. He was justly handled by several Senators, and made to understand that the Governor could send his message by whom he pleased, so it be done in a respectful grow out of giving the notice, or even of taking manner. The message was, of course received.

After a warm debate, in which many distinguished Senators participated, the whole subject was laid over for future consideration.

This important question was disposed of a might have been anticipated from the political complexion of the majority in Congress: it was laid on the table. Such a discourteous proceeding is significant.

Ve presume the members from New Hampshire Missonri and Mississippi will be allowed to tual result of any movements on this grave subject, it will be only a small instance o success in battling with the constitution and laws of the land.

The comparative indifference of the public to the whole subject evince a melancholy state of the popular mind. The people are becoming so much accustomed to see these wounds daily inflicted on the Constitution, that this one scarcely excites a shrug. Mr. Barnard, of Albany, distinguished him-

Mr. Schenck will not allow the discussion to fall asleep. A resolution was introduced some days ago, if we recollect aright, on the Locofoco side of the question. Do that party really wish to brazen the matter out? If so, there never was a truer saying than that "those whom the gods destroy, they first make mad." A day of reckoning is coming which will certainly expel the Goths and Vandals from the Capitol.—N. Y. Express. The following proceedings should have appeared in our last, but were accidently forgotten. Public Meeting.

At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Covington, held at the Council Chamber on the 20th day of Dec., 1845, for the purpose of devising some suitable measures for the better security of the persons and property of said citizens.

On motion, George C. Tarvin was called to Montains to the Pacific Ocean, known as the Territory of Oregon," there now exists, and have long existed conflicting claims to the possression of the same between them and Great Britain, the adjustment of which have been frequently the subject of negotiation between the beck, a Committee to draft Resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting. COVINIGTON, JANUARY 1845. DR. WISE-Dear Sir:-My family, as you re aware, have more or less been afflicted with oughs and pain in the Breast, and occasionally attacked suddenly and severely with cough. Having tried a great many remedies, I can with great confidence assert that none has had uch a nowerful effect as your Indian Magica Expectorant-relieving the severest attacks by a few doses. I know of no remedy possessing such virtues as the Indian Magical Expectorant it being pleasant to the taste and witnout an of the unpleasant effects of most medicines. I thus offer my certificate, you being at liberty to use it as you deem proper, being satisfied that all who use it will be convinced of its usefulness. Respectfully yours,
HIRAM BOND.

Covington, April 1845. Dr. Wise—Dear Sir:—Having had occasion at different times in my family to use your Indian Magical Expectorant, I can with confidence declare that its effects have been astonishing in par stopping the severest coughs; and all that I have heard speak of it say, that it has had the happiest effects in curing diseases of the Breast. Respectfully yours,
A. P. ROSE.

COVINGTON, MARCH 1845. DR. Nov. 8, 1845. ORE CURES PERFORMED BY DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REM-

Dr. Dungan-Dear Sir:--You may perhaps remember that I consulted with you at your office in Cincinnati, in June last, when you examined my lungs and informed me that there was a small cavity forming in the lobe of my left lung, with slight ulcerations, and advised me to terms &c. by application to John P. Gaines, take a few bottles of the EXPECTORANT REMEDY, which I bought of you (6 buttles.) I have used 4 of them, and feel as well as I ever did in my life. My cough disappeared after using the first bottle, the pain in my breast also left me, my strength increased, and also my appetite. The medicine caused me to expectorate large quantities of foul matter; after this was all thrown up, I felt relief at once. I think that the who'e world should know something about the good effects of your "EXPECTO RANT REMEDY," for the removal of the first symptoms leading to Consumption. Please inform me if you think it advisable for me to use > the medicine any longer. Yours truly, and ever grateful, HORACE BINNS, Near Hamilton, Ohio

CURE YOUR COUGHS AND COLDS AND PREVENT CONSUMPTION! By Taking "Dr. Jackson's Compound Syrup or

SASSAFRAS AND WILD CHERRY," HIS elegant preparation has established it a self upon a solid foundation wherevit has been tried. It has no equal for the speedy ours of Coughs, Colds and other affections of the lungs, Weakness and Pains in the breast, &c. &c. Amongst many certificates received from those who have used it, we will only extract a few.
The Rev. G. G. Moore, Episcopal Minister

at Paris Ky, writes to us as follows. PARIS, KY. Oct. 6th 1845 Gentlemen, I am pleased to learn that you are about to send your valuable Compound Syrup of Sassafras and Wild Cherry to this place for sale. Having used it myself, and in my family for a year or two past, I am free to say, that in cases of Colds and Affections of the Lungs and CHEST, I have never known anything to equal it. You will certainly deserve the thanks of the Community, and particularly of those afflicted with Coughs, for having provided such a specific: 2 11 inot the thing least to be desired in it, it i asant to the taste.

Yours very respectably G. G. MOORE

Certificate of Joseph Powell Est. Having used the Compound Syrup of Sassafras and Wild Cherry in my family for more than two years in Colds and Coughs, I am fully prepared to testify to its virtues.

My son has been subject to the Croup for several years, and frequently came near dying with chair, shart, and in adding the state of all stock, which can be had in a few mine are a second of the state generally, that he has been entirely relieved from every attack at the beginning, by simply taking one or two doses I consider this Syrup invaluable in Colds and Coughs, and have never known it fail of curing the worst Case, when used in time. Indeed so valuable do I consider this Medicine hat I would on no account suffer my family to be without it through the winter season. It need only be tried to be appreciated.

J. W. POWELL, Covington, Ky. Covington, October 7th, 1845.

Drs. Bennett & Pretlow-I have been using the Compound Syrop of Sassafras & Wild Cherry in my family for more than a year, and find it all it purports to be; having always proved efficacious in my family whenever used as directed, in Coughs, Colds, &c., and it gives me pleasure to contribute my evidence in favor of its In the case of a young man who was some time in my employ, its effects were truly wouder-ful! He had laboured under great weakness of the breast, loss of appretife, Dyspepsia, Cough, and general debility, and was for weeks unable to attend to business. I prevailed on him to take this Syrup, which relieved him right away, and by the time he was through with the second bottle was restored to good health. It is now more than a year and he has not been troubled since with disease.

Yours &c., JOHN R. STEWART. Other references, and ample directions accomany each bottle. The retail price is 50 cents per bottle. Agents will be supplied on favorable

erms, by the proprietors.

Cincinnati, Nov. 29, 1843. Messrs. Editors:-To do good to the afflicted and to render justice to Dr. White for a cure so complicated and bad as mine was, is my apology for asking you to publish the following:—

I had been afflicted for five years with fevers, ague and fever, spinal effections, scrofula, colds, and coughs, and other distressing derangements of my saystem which were carrying me rapidly to the last stage of consumption, the most of which time I was under the care and attendance of the best physicians in Portsmouth, in this State, all of whom finally gave me up, and pronounced me incurable. CARD.

Citizens needing a lighter or stronger course of BOTANICAL TREATMENT—that they may in a few hours go about their business—and Travelers, indisposed from fatigue, change of the water, or climate, and others visiting the diet, water, or climate, and others visiting Cincinnati for their health, find Dr. White's in-firmary and residence—under the same roof—not like a house for the sick in appearence, but in cial treatment such as rarely fail to cure the in-valid. His skill in fevers, acute and chronic diseases, and the facility with which he breaks them up, the little loss of time to his patients—often astonishing them and their friends—are the certain effects of these better remedies.

DR WHITE grateful for past liberal patronage, tenders his thanks and continued services to a generous public. DEAFNESS CURED. CARPA'S ACOUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deatness, pains, and the discharge of matter from the ears; also, all those disagreeale noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of vaters, whizzing steam, &c., which are symptoms of approaching deafness and also gener ally attendant with that disease.

Read the following extraordinary cure; if any have had doubts they may now dismiss them, and the most credulous may consider deafness as curable. Numerous cases of cures, and many of them very remarkable, by the use of "Scarpa's Oil" have been published—but this caps the climax. Young or old, you may yet recover vour hearing.

A lady in Smithfield Pa., now about 80 years of age, had been gradually getting deaf for more than 40 years, so that it was next to impossible to make her hear conversation in the loudest tone of voice. Last winter she was induced to try "Scarpa's Oil for deafness." It is only nery "Scarpa's Oil for deatness." It is only necessary to add, that she has used two bottles, and that her hearing is perfectly restored: she is cured. This valuable oil is prepared by Dr. B. Bell, and is so'd on agency by Dr. D. Jayne, 305 Broadway.

Pref. McGuffey's enthusiastic devotion to the cause of Education, his fine taste and discriminating mind, and his practical experience as an instructor, render him peculiarly fitted for the department of authorship, to which he has given his attention. The suggestions of intelligent teachers who had used the former editions of the series, and the valuable aid afforded him in the revision by an experienced educator, have also furnished him with unusual facilities for advantageously revising and enlarging these works.

In this series, comprising as it does, a careful selection of instructive, entertaining and moral matter, progressively arranged, and graduated with reference to the capacity of the pupil, Prof. McGuffey has afforded to parents and teachers, a most thorough, complete, and efficient auxiliary in the education of youth. Its extensive use has been sufficient for the development and just appreciation of its many excellencies. The result is, that intelligent teachers pronounce it the most
