

LICKING VALLEY REGISTER.

Devoted to General Intelligence, Politics, Morality, Literature, Education, the Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Commerce, and Advertising.

VOLUME V.

COVINGTON, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1846.

NUMBER 38.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HENRY B. BROWN.

TERMS.

Weekly on a Double Mountain sheet, $2 00
Fifty cents will be added to each subscription, when not paid within the year.
Single numbers in wrappers 61 cents.
Persons wishing to discontinue the paper, must settle all arrears before it can be done, unless at the option of the Publishers.
Advertisements, of 12 lines, or less, will be charged for the first insertion 75 cents, each subsequent insertion 25 cents. Longer ones in proportion.
A liberal discount made to yearly advertisers.
No advertisement to be considered by the paper, unless specified on the manuscript or previously agreed upon between the parties.
The number of insertions must be marked on the advertisement, or it will be continued until ordered out, and charged accordingly.

DENTAL OPERATIONS.

DR. CARTER having permanently located in the City of Covington, Ky., returns thanks to his old friends and customers in this and the several adjoining counties, for their liberal patronage for the last six years, and by his unceasing attention to business, he hopes to merit a continuance of the same. He is prepared to perform all operations relating to dentistry, (surgical or mechanical,) with the best and most select materials.

For the satisfaction of those who have never had an opportunity of testing the goodness and durability of his operations and those who may favor him with their custom, he would state that he has been engaged in the dental profession for more than sixteen years, during which time he has spared neither time nor pains in acquainting himself with all the various improvements made in the profession—six years of which time has been exclusively spent with three very eminent workmen from the East, for improvement in the dental art. From the universal satisfaction that he has heretofore given, he does not hesitate to say that in all available cases, however difficult, he insures success.

Office on 4th near the corner of Scott st.

Rev. Mr. Lynn, W. Herndon, Esq.,
W. R. Respass, Esq., Dr. Shanlin,
Dr. Stevenson, Dr. Menzies,
S. T. Wall, Gen. Benj. Fowler,
March 21, 1846.

Henry B. Brown & Co.,
REAL ESTATE AGENTS,
Covington, Kentucky.

RE prepared to effect speedy sales of all Real Estate. Their arrangements are such as to enable them to sell at the shortest notice, all Farms, Towns, Lots, &c., that may be placed at their disposal. Persons having Real Estate to dispose of would do well to give them a call.

Office on Market Place, at the Office of the Licking Valley Register.
March 21, 1846.

GINSENG PANACEA!

THE GREAT REMEDY;
APPROVED BY THE FACULTY.
For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, and all other affections of the Bronchial tubes.

PREPARED entirely from the Ginseng and warranted to contain no preparation of Antimony, Mercury or Opium.
More than 2000 bottles have been sold in the City of Cincinnati, alone, within two months, and in no case has it failed to give entire satisfaction.

The Ginseng Panacea is now endorsed by Physicians of the first respectability, in their regular practice, and its claim to be considered the only article ever discovered capable of speedily and permanently allaying bronchial irritation, which is the source of cough, asthma, bronchitis, and according to Dr. Eberle who expresses the opinion of all the first authorities in Europe and America, of two-thirds of all the cases usually regarded as fatal tuberculous consumption, can be considered as forever settled. We select the following names from a long catalogue of persons who have felt its healing influence, and we wish it distinctly noted that they are

IN OUR OWN CITY.—
Persons accessible to all who wish to enquire, we attach no certificate. If you are at all interested for them for yourselves, they are scattered over the city and can be easily found.
G. W. Phillips, Broadway, between 5th and Harrison streets.
W. Parvin, Broadway, near Vestman.
G. W. Coffin, Buckeye Bell Foundry, 2d st.
J. Vanduzen, at Hope's warehouse, Sycamore st.
J. A. Tinsler, Surgeon Dentist, Congress st.
Bigger, Sec. Equitable Ins Co., 3d st.
H. Jones, from J. F. Fair & Co., Sycamore and Lower Market.
N. Noble, Canal Company's Office.
M. Gutrie, Holmes' paper store, Main, near 5th street.
A. Maish, Tinner, 2d pent Hamilton Co. Superior Court.
J. Jones, Assistant Clerk Hamilton Co. Superior Court.
Shepherd, 5th st. east Broadway.
Davis, Columbia.
E. H. Wheaton, from Wheaton & Blinn Auctioneers.
Dr. Kerman, 14th st. between Vine and Racine.
O. F. Benjamin, Importer, 3d st. between Main and Sycamore.
A. Newell, Tinner, Symmes st.
H. Lyon, Finishes, Front st.
W. Johnson, Carpenter, 3d st.
Capt. Adams, Columbus House.
B. V. Jones, corner Longworth and Race.
S. Sterling, corner Vine and Centre.
Mrs. Hunter, at J. D. Jones, 3d st.
N. M. Florer, Sycamore st.
J. Farris, corner 9th and Vine.
Dr. Drake.
Cincinnati, March 7, 1846.

POETICAL.

From Dickens's London News.

CLEAR THE WAY.
Men of thought! be up and stirring
Night and day,
Sow the seed—withdraw the curtain—
Clear the way!
Men of action, aid and cheer them,
As ye may!

There's a fount about to stream,
There's a light about to beam,
There's a warmth about to glow,
There's a warmth about to glow,
There's a midnight blackness changing
Into glory.

Men of thought, and men of action,
Clear the way!
Once the welcome light be broken,
Who shall say,
What the unimagined glories
Of the day?

What the evil that shall perish
In its ray?

Aid the dawning, tongue and pen;
Aid it, hopes of honest men:
Aid it, paper—aid it, type—
Aid it, for the hour is ripe,
And our earnest must not slacken
Into play.

Men of thought, and men of action!
Clear the way!

Lo! a cloud 's about to vanish
From the sky;
Lo! the right 's about to conquer,
Clear the way!

And a broken wrong to crumble
Into clay.

With that right shall many more
Enter smiling at the door
With the giant Wrong shall fall
Many others, great and small,
That for ages long have held us
In their prey.

Men of thought, and men of action,
Clear the way!

From the Lady's National Magazine.

ETERNITY.

BY W. W. WILLSON.

Roll on thou vast Ocean, Eternity roll!

Thou Throne of the Godhead, thou home of the soul—

Oh, endless duration! comparison fails—
How false, how vain, and how feeble,
How intelligence shrinks, and proud intellect

O'erwhelmed to unwind perpetuity's coils;
How starts the spirit! and trembles to sever
The chord that unites it with Time and forever!

Roll blissfully onward—eternity roll!

In the splendor and might of Jehovah's control,
When ministers seraphic unceasingly play,
And immortals are bathed in a sea of delight

Where a glorious noontide of infinite day,
With benedictions celestial everlastingly bright;
Stretch eternally onward, a fathomless deep,
With thy grandeur and rapture Eternity sweep!

The Perjured Husband.

A tale in the magazine style.

BY JOE MILLER.

The Introduction.

"Coming events cast their shadows before."

"Dear me, Amabella, did you hear that Augustus Snooks was introduced to Julia Sniggers last evening, at Mrs. Fitz Faddle's party?"

"La, no, you don't say!"

"Emity Pumpkin was telling, she says that old Sniggers, whom you know, is as blind as a bat, intended to introduce young Julius Numbcull, and mistook Augustus for Julius, and introduced him to the handsome Julia as his friend Numbcull."

"Happy to have the honor of your acquaintance, Miss," said Augustus, with a friendly smile.

Sniggers has made a mistake, however, my name is Snooks."

"Indeed! what will Angeline Simkins think when she hears it?"

"I guess she won't like it—very singular introduction, was it not?"

"Very."

CHAPTER II.

The Courtship.

"The course of true love never did run smooth."

The roseate tint of the setting sun was gilding the scarlet hair of the beautiful Julia Sniggers, with its last faint beam, and the head of beauty shone like a snow-bottle, in a pharoscent moon, with a light behind it. Upon the door at the feet, knelt the young Augustus; and, in his heart, and in his eye, and in his voice, "May I hope, dearest?" enquired he in the agony of his passion. "The beautiful cheeks of the lovely Julia, flushed with blushes, and her handkerchief, as she tried to hide the intensity of her feelings. "Nay, Augustus spare a virgin's young affections," she faintly murmured, "some other time." "Alas, is it so?" said Augustus, "I never had a denial—just now, in a pharoscent moon, and I stand alone in a cold, solitary life, beside a filled up grave. No; no; but if the heart be indeed immortal when friend meets friend in the eternal world, then may the pulse throb with undying love. Immortal eyes become dimmed with tears of joy, and the lips that can never move grow pale, murmur and endeavor, apparently, to extricate himself from some annoyance. As he approached the ship, the struggle continuing and becoming more violent, it was perceived that a fish, apparently about twenty feet long, held him by the jaw, his contortions, spoutings and throes all betokening the agony of the huge monster. The whale now threw himself at full length from the water, with open mouth, his pursuer still hanging to his under jaw, the fish issuing from the wound and drying the sea for a distance around; but all his flourishes were of no avail; his pertinacious enemy still maintained his hold, and was evidently getting the advantage of him. Much alarm seemed to be felt by the many other whales around. These "killers," as they are called, are of a brownish color on the back, and white on the belly, with a long dorsal fin. Such was the turbulent way which he passed, that a good view could not be had of them to make out more nearly the description. These fish attack a whale in the same way as dogs bait a bull, and worry him to death. They are armed with strong, sharp teeth, generally seize the whale by the lower jaw. It is said that the only part of them they eat is the tongue. The whales give more marvellous accounts of these killers, and of their immense strength; among them, that they have been known to drag a whale away from several boats which were towing it to the ship.—Lieut. Wilkes.

The Confession.—A cloud was seen to pass suddenly over the features of Maria. The lustre forsook her dark eyes. Her spirit seemed troubled.

"Triumphs the folly now on that young cheek, Where bloomed the rose."

Ten times that evening did Harvey importune her to acquaint him with the cause of her sadness; but not a word escaped her lips. Sadly and silently she sat:

"And now and then a sigh she stole,
And tears began to flow."

"Breathes there a wretch so base as to injure you—my dear—by word or action? Tell me and by thine heart as pure as heaven's! I will never rest till I've redressed thy wrongs!" "Zany awful mystery looked up in thy bosom—that I must not know! Tell me the secret—and by the ringlets of thy hair, I'll never reveal it, though the blackest tortures rack me pour out of thy soul; tell thy own Harvey what lies heavy in thy breast?"

She blushed—she placed her fair hands across her bosom—looked languidly into her lover's face and softly—like the last low breathings of an expiring saint—she thus confessed:—"Tis them damned green apples I ate!"

CHAPTER VI.

The Fun.

"The deeply sworn, we will see anon."

Months rolled on, and Augustus and Julia were happy—economy and neatness presided over all their domestic arrangements. "I think"

said Julia one evening at their pleasant meal, "I think I should like some coffee for breakfast; will you get up early in the morning and purchase some?" "Dearest, I will," answered the husband. "Nay," replied the fair wife, "you are such a vile deceiver, I can hardly believe you." "Hear me swear, said Augustus—by yonder altar, I swear that you shall have half a dozen coffees for breakfast to-morrow; let the oath be registered."

CHAPTER VII.

The Perjury.

"Take them; I implore thee, take them."

Bithely the young wife rose on the morrow, to a breakfast which she deemed would be happy—Augustus came, in his right hand he held a string of fish; but were they catfish? Stand against, ye heavens, when you hear it; they were perch! Julia caught one glance—her delicate spirit could not stand the shock. "Perch!" she wildly cried, and sank, lifeless upon the ground.

The Denouement.

"Man's inhumanity to woman makes countless thousands mourn."

Sadly they bore her to her long home; flowers were strewn over her grave, and the face of all her acquaintances was a lugubrious aspect.

"Not for joy, I found that I could write no more," said Augustus, "I found that I could write no more."

Wildly he rushed forth, and sought consolation in the bowl—it was not there—and gazed on to frenzy, one day he walked calmly down to the Navy-yard and enlisted in the marines.

PHILADELPHIA, 1846.

New Year's Night Thoughts.

FROM JEAN PAUL RICHTER.

The new year unfolds its portals. Deity stands between the glowing clouds of the rising sun, and the funeral pyre of the departed year. For what wishest thou, Natalie?

"Not for joy, I found that I could write no more," said Augustus, "I found that I could write no more."

For the rose-leaves soon fade, and their odor was exhaled. The brightest sun but heralded the wildest tempest and the light which seemed to glitter on my path was but the reflection of the sword which the coming day was to plunge into my bosom. No, I ask not for joy, it makes the desiring heart so empty. Sorrow alone can fill it!

Destiny is portioning out futurity. What dost thou desire, Natalie?

"Not love, Oh, we press to our heart the thorny white rose of love till it bleeds, and the warm joy-tears which fall from its cup first become cold, and dry up for ever! Is not love, in the morning of our life, bright and glowing as the aurora of heaven? But approach not that radiant atmosphere, it is formed out of clouds and tears. No, no; I wish not for love. Let me die of a nobler agony—let me fall beneath a loftier prison-tree than this myrtle."

For what prayest thou, Natalie?

"Not for friendship. No, we all stand side by side upon hollow but unseen graves; and though our hands be twined together ever so firmly, though our hearts be knit together so the sufferings of many years, yet the lovely Julia, who is as blind as a bat, intended to introduce young Julius Numbcull, and mistook Augustus for Julius, and introduced him to the handsome Julia as his friend Numbcull."

"Happy to have the honor of your acquaintance, Miss," said Augustus, with a friendly smile.

Sniggers has made a mistake, however, my name is Snooks."

"Indeed! what will Angeline Simkins think when she hears it?"

"I guess she won't like it—very singular introduction, was it not?"

"Very."

CHAPTER II.

The Courtship.

"The course of true love never did run smooth."

The roseate tint of the setting sun was gilding the scarlet hair of the beautiful Julia Sniggers, with its last faint beam, and the head of beauty shone like a snow-bottle, in a pharoscent moon, with a light behind it. Upon the door at the feet, knelt the young Augustus; and, in his heart, and in his eye, and in his voice, "May I hope, dearest?" enquired he in the agony of his passion. "The beautiful cheeks of the lovely Julia, flushed with blushes, and her handkerchief, as she tried to hide the intensity of her feelings. "Nay, Augustus spare a virgin's young affections," she faintly murmured, "some other time." "Alas, is it so?" said Augustus, "I never had a denial—just now, in a pharoscent moon, and I stand alone in a cold, solitary life, beside a filled up grave. No; no; but if the heart be indeed immortal when friend meets friend in the eternal world, then may the pulse throb with undying love. Immortal eyes become dimmed with tears of joy, and the lips that can never move grow pale, murmur and endeavor, apparently, to extricate himself from some annoyance. As he approached the ship, the struggle continuing and becoming more violent, it was perceived that a fish, apparently about twenty feet long, held him by the jaw, his contortions, spoutings and throes all betokening the agony of the huge monster. The whale now threw himself at full length from the water, with open mouth, his pursuer still hanging to his under jaw, the fish issuing from the wound and drying the sea for a distance around; but all his flourishes were of no avail; his pertinacious enemy still maintained his hold, and was evidently getting the advantage of him. Much alarm seemed to be felt by the many other whales around. These "killers," as they are called, are of a brownish color on the back, and white on the belly, with a long dorsal fin. Such was the turbulent way which he passed, that a good view could not be had of them to make out more nearly the description. These fish attack a whale in the same way as dogs bait a bull, and worry him to death. They are armed with strong, sharp teeth, generally seize the whale by the lower jaw. It is said that the only part of them they eat is the tongue. The whales give more marvellous accounts of these killers, and of their immense strength; among them, that they have been known to drag a whale away from several boats which were towing it to the ship.—Lieut. Wilkes.

The Confession.—A cloud was seen to pass suddenly over the features of Maria. The lustre forsook her dark eyes. Her spirit seemed troubled.

"Triumphs the folly now on that young cheek, Where bloomed the rose."

Ten times that evening did Harvey importune her to acquaint him with the cause of her sadness; but not a word escaped her lips. Sadly and silently she sat:

"And now and then a sigh she stole,
And tears began to flow."

"Breathes there a wretch so base as to injure you—my dear—by word or action? Tell me and by thine heart as pure as heaven's! I will never rest till I've redressed thy wrongs!" "Zany awful mystery looked up in thy bosom—that I must not know! Tell me the secret—and by the ringlets of thy hair, I'll never reveal it, though the blackest tortures rack me pour out of thy soul; tell thy own Harvey what lies heavy in thy breast?"

She blushed—she placed her fair hands across her bosom—looked languidly into her lover's face and softly—like the last low breathings of an expiring saint—she thus confessed:—"Tis them damned green apples I ate!"

CHAPTER VI.

The Fun.

"The deeply sworn, we will see anon."

Months rolled on, and Augustus and Julia were happy—economy and neatness presided over all their domestic arrangements. "I think"

American Sheep Husbandry.

I am highly gratified at the various indications I have observed in the American Agriculturist, of a disposition favorable to an extension of sheep husbandry in the United States. This is a subject in which I have always taken deep interest, because I believe it will not only greatly promote the agricultural interest but tend in an eminent degree, to advance the wealth and prosperity of the whole Union. The difficulty of finding an adequate market for our rapidly increasing agricultural products, renders it necessary that we should avail ourselves of as many new sources for the profitable employment of land and labor as possible. Nothing, in our present circumstances, is better calculated for this purpose than sheep husbandry. We have land in great abundance, whilst labor is comparatively scarce. Sheep husbandry requires much land, and is attended with the advantage of requiring comparatively few laborers; and instead of exhausting tends greatly to fertilize the land thus appropriated. Sheep husbandry may be practiced in almost every part of our extensive country, but doubtless more profitable in those better adapted to the business, and it can be carried on more economically, than in others. Without pretending to speak disparagingly of other parts, allow me to set forth the claims of Kentucky as eminently adapted to this useful branch of agriculture. To illustrate its fitness for this purpose, suffer me to refer to my own practice in a small way.

For some years after I commenced raising sheep (my cleared land and pastures being very limited), I had them during the winter months, and fed them with hay, sheep oats, and occasionally with corn. But when my cleared land and pastures became more extensive, I found that I could winter my sheep to better advantage by suffering them to run on blue grass pastures, kept in reserve for them, hauling out and scattering on the turf cut fodder, when the grass became too short, or was covered with snow. This mode of feeding required less labor, and was less expensive, than housing them; and experience soon taught me that my sheep passed through the winter in better condition than when housed, and fed on hay and grain.

I have now about 300 acres of cleared land; nearly one half of which is in meadow, clover and blue grass—poa pratensis; and the other half reserved for cultivation in corn, wheat, hemp, &c.; and 150 acres in woodland, the greater part well cleared and sown in blue grass. I have been taught by experience, recently, that sheep will do remarkably well on the rankest clover, which will enable me in future to keep more of blue grass pastures in reserve for winter feeding.

During the last fall (the season being favorable) my clover fields furnished my flock, of somewhat less than 400, sufficient pasture till the month of January; and they have been since kept on my blue grass pastures, without the necessity of feeding, except some four or five days when the ground was covered with snow, and they were still able to find food.

The low price of hemp, and agricultural products generally, has induced me to sow down my cleared land in clover, which will enable me to keep double the number of sheep I now have, without interfering with my farming operations; and when I get the whole of my woodland cleared up set in blue grass, I expect to extend my flock to 1000 sheep. Thus you see we are neither under the necessity of incurring the expense of erecting buildings to shelter our sheep, nor of raising grain for their food; nor even to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantageously to sheep husbandry. This is a very much force in this objection if they were much appropriated to that purpose. But not so when sheep husbandry is combined with large hemp and corn crops. Hemp has hitherto been a profitable crop, though now it is too low to justify its extensive culture; and large corn crops are necessary with a view of raising horses, mules, cattle and hogs. There is no system of husbandry so well calculated to prepare our lands for large products of corn and hemp, as to employ laborers to feed them, except during the short time it may become necessary to haul out fodder for them, when the ground is covered with snow. And in a single day enough may be hauled out on sleds to last them a week or more.

It is argued by some that our rich lands are too valuable to be appropriated advantage

COMMERCIAL.

The River.—The Pittsburgh Gazette of Wednesday, says: "The weather yesterday was excessively warm, far too much so for the season, but sure to bring rain after it, and so far is encouraging. Rain must come and with it a rise in the rivers. Five feet water last evening."

Cincinnati and Covington Markets.

April 10, 1846.

BEESWAX—26c per lb.
BUTTER—Packers pay 10a 11; Retail—fresh print 13a 18c; good crock—12a 15c
CANDLES & SOAP—Current rates this week are as follows:—Candles, per lb. 8c for Mould, 20a 22c for Star, and 23c for Adamantine. Soap, per lb. 4c for No. 1, and 4c for a-line.
CATTLE—The supply of Beef Cattle is good, and our Butchers purchase choice animals at $3.50, a 3.50 per 100 lbs. nett.
HORSES—A good article brings readily 7a 8a per lb.
EGGS—Packers pay 5c Retail 6c per doz.
FEATHERS—The best qualities from wagon command 35c per lb, 26 to 30 from store.
FLOUR—Commands $3 65 a $3 70
GRAIN—Wheat 75c per bushel of 60 lbs.; Corn sells from store at 33 a 35 per bushel.
GROCERIES—Sugar 6 a 6c per lb. Rio Coffee 8 a 8c.
NAILS.—The following are the regular rates of approved quality, viz: 20d and 10d a 4c per lb. 8d a 4c, 6d a 4c, 5d a 4c, 4d a 4c, 3d a 4c, 2d a 4c, 1d a 4c.
OLDS.—Oils are firm at our last week's quotations, viz: Tanners Oil $14 a 18 per barrel; Castor Oil 65c per gal; Lard Oil 63 a 65c; Hemp seed 62a. Sales of Lard Oil at 70 a 75c, and in good demand. Sperm Oil, winter, at 1 20 a $1 25
PROVISIONS.—Current rates of new are as follows: viz: Mess 9 50 a 10; Prime 7 75 a 8 Lard 6 25 a 6 50
SALT—17 a 18c per bushel.
SEASONS.—Clover remains at about last week's prices. $4.80 to 5.00 from wagons, 4.80 to 5.20 from store.
TOMATOES.—Best brands Six twelfths firm at 62 and some held at 7c per lb. Inferior 5 a 6c. Twelves 5 a 12a.
VEGETABLES.—Potatoes retail now at 37 a 40c per bushel, and sell by load at 37c.
WHEAT.—20a 30c embrace extremes.
WHISKY—17 a 17c.

BANK NOTE EXCHANGE LIST.

CORRECTED WEEKLY.

Ohio	100	98
Ind. & T. Co.	100	98
Lafayette	100	98
Franklin	100	98
Commercial	100	98
Mech. & Traders	100	98
COUNTRY BANKS.
Massillon	100	98
Cincinnati, (old)	100	98
W. Star	100	98
Knox	100	98
Sandusky	100	98
Grange	100	98
Nowak	100	98
Zanesville	100	98
Steubenville (old)	100	98
Marion	100	98
Mont Pleasant	100	98
St. Clairsville	100	98
Clinton B. of Colum	100	98
New Lisbon	100	98
Dayton	100	98
Western Reserve	100	98
Franklin B. Colum	100	98
Chillicothe	100	98
Bank of Scioto	100	98
Lancaster	100	98
Hamilton	100	98
Dayton	100	98
Cleveland	100	98
Miami Ex. Com	100	98
Urbana	100	98
Granville	100	98
Union	100	98
Yonahon	100	98
Minisburg	100	98
New Steubenville	100	98
New Circleville	100	98
Madison	100	98
Stale B. & Brant's	100	98
Kentucky	100	98
All Solvents	100	98

PHOENIX BRAND FACTORY.

Venitian Blind. Pivot Shutter Blind.

T. J. RECORDS.

Scott Street, between 4th and 5th, COVINGTON, KY.

MANUFACTURER of Cedar, Curled Maple, and Oak Blinds, a variety of which are kept constantly on hand. Window Curtains put up in the most approved mode, and Blinds refitted and painted.

ALSO: SIGN AND ORNAMENTAL PAINTING, neatly executed, in all its branches at the Phoenix Brand Factory. Prices low. 34-6m.

AFTER ALL Medicines have failed, Doctor Duncan's Expectant Remedy must do the Healing and Curative business, after all. Why is it that so many persons are in the habit of grasping after the more deleterious nostrums published in the papers, put up by persons who have no knowledge either of the theory or science of medicine; neither could they be forced to swallow their own mixing which they intend for others. Almost daily are these persons calling at our office whose countenances and debilitated structure denote the evils of the poisonous physic palmed upon them in their affliction. If our grave yards could speak they would astonish the world of the vast amount carried there from the effects of poisonous medicines administered to them by persons who have grown wealthy upon the credulity of those whom they have duped. Let it be borne in mind that Dr. Duncan's Expectant Remedy is well known throughout Europe, and approved of by the faculty, both in Dublin, Edinburgh, and a part of London, and has met the approbation of Physicians generally throughout the United States. It is therefore to be hoped that persons suffering from disease of the Lungs or any of the symptoms that may likely lead to Consumption, that they immediately obtain Dr. Duncan's valuable medicine and yet be spared.

Western Office 150 Sacramento Street, Cincinnati. Advice given in all diseases.

Light's Quick Yeast.

A CONSTANT supply of this excellent article kept on hand and for sale at the Family Grocery of A. MOSSETT.

Market Space, Covington, Ky. Feb. 28, 1845.

BLANKS

For sale at this Office.

BRASS WORKS.

THE WORKS of every description, such as Gages, Cocks, Stop Cocks, Oil Globes, Hose Joints, Salt Well Joints, and all Valves of every description. Persons in want of any of the above articles, or any thing usually found in Brass Foundries, would do well to give him a call. Shop on Walnut street, West side, three doors above Second street, Cincinnati, at the Cincinnati Scale Manufacturing.

CHARLES A. TOOKER.

March 28, 1846. 36-ly

FAMILY FLOUR.

A superior article of Family Flour, on hand and for sale by

HOBART & RICHARDSON,

30 Sycamore st. Cin.

Isaac Cooper & Co.,

Market Space, Covington, Kentucky.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS AND DRY GOODS DEALERS, &c.

1200 lbs Coaklin's pure White Lead; 100 lbs Coaklin's, assorted, No. 2 & 3; 7 lbs New Orleans Sugar; 100 lbs N. O. Molasses; 200 lbs Nails, assorted sizes; 200 lbs Rio Coffee; 100 lbs good Family Flour; 100 lbs Kanawha Flour; 100 lbs Taro; 200 boxes Ky. Tobacco, 12 lump & lbs; 12 Missouri Tobacco, lbs; Together with a general assortment of Hardware, Queensware, Castings, Locks, Chains, Hames and Collars, &c. &c. ALSO—A general assortment of Dry Goods, suitable for the Spring trade, together with a general assortment of Groceries, Shoes, &c. Purchasers will please give us a call, as we are determined to sell low for cash. March 28, 1846.

New Goods and Cheap!

THE subscribers are now receiving from New York, and opening a new and beautiful assortment of DRY GOODS, QUEENSWARE, HARDWARE, GROCERIES, &c., which they are prepared to sell as cheap as any house in the West. We invite the Ladies and Gentlemen to give us a call. Market Space, adjoining Mackay's Store, Covington.

March 28, 1846. A. W. GAINES & CO. 36-ly

Farms and Gardens.

I HAVE several superior FARMS and GARDEN PATCHES to rent with comfortable houses; not only of my own but (as Agent) for Mr. Kenner—of all that splendid tract of Rice Swamp next to our me. Rented either for cash or on shares.

ALSO—About 300 acres of Grass lands, well watered and good tenements; and will be soon (the rails being out) reduced, by cross fencing, to small fields.

Enquire of the subscriber on the premises.

March 28, 1846. J. L. LUDLOW. 36-6t

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER DRY GOODS.

PETER A. WHITE & CO.,

No. 54 Main street, Cincinnati.

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

PETER A. WHITE & CO., have largely increased their stock, and are daily receiving additions of Spring and Summer Goods, which have been selected in all the Eastern markets with the utmost care, and offer them at the lowest prices this market can afford. They will be receiving additions to their stock throughout the season, and their assortment will be well supplied with every article usually kept by Wholesale Dealers. They respectfully invite the attention of their customers and purchasers generally, to examine their stock previous to purchasing elsewhere—The list of their stock consists of the following articles:

American, English and French Cloths. Wool Black, Blue, Brown, Olive, Invisible, Green, Cadet Mixed and Oxford Mixed. Blue and Black mixed, and a variety of Plaid and Striped Fancy Cassimeres. Satinets. Blue, Black, Oxford Mixed, Cadet Mixed and Fancy Satinets. Blue, Black, Cadet and Fancy Mixed, Oxford Mixed, Plaid, Striped and Fancy Jeans. Woolen and Cotton Treests. 6-4 and 3-4 Grey, Gold Mixed and Dark Mixed; also, Blue and Black Treests. Brown Satinets and Strappings. BRANDS—Dixie A.; Indian Head, New Market, Cincinnati, Sea Island, Singleton's, Indian Family and Oneida. Brown and Blue Suffolk Drillings. FICKINGS—4-4 Pennsylvanian Mills, 4-4 Ashland 4-4 Cumberland, 7-8 Darby, 4-4 Bristol, 7-8 Greenfield and Co. at, and Sussingham. CANTON FLANNELS—white, Plaid, Fgd and colored. BLENDING MACHINES: Apron Checks; FURNITURE CHECKS; Marine's Shirtings; Gait Flannels; Plain and Striped Linseys; Canvas and Padding. Plain and Fancy Wool Gambrozes; Plain and Twisted Summer Cloth; New style Summer Cording and Pant Stuffs; A full assortment of Collonettes, including beautiful article, new style. White, Green, Scarlet, Red and Yellow Flannels. Black Satin Vestings, of every quality and style of Merino and other Vestings. Marcelline Vestings—a complete assortment; 100 cases Prints, new styles, all prices; Gripe de Lyons. Black and Blue Linens, for bonnets; Fancy Linens, Gingham Linens; Cape Linens and Lace Linens; Baringes, Balzorines; Pink, Blue, Black, Buff and Green Chambray Gingham. Domestic Gingham, of all qualities & prices; Brown and Black Linen Hollands; Irish Linens, of all qualities; Dobby, Brown, Black, Pink and Blue Chambray; Dobby, Brown and Black Fancy Silences; Fancy and Plain Pant Stuffs, of every variety of quality and patterns; Suffolk Blue Drillings; Plain Linen Drillings; Fancy do do; Pantaloon and Coat Linens; Linen Check Coat Gingham; Cotton do do; Cambrics; Jacquets; Swiss, Mull and Black Muslins, at all prices and every variety of styles; Black and White LACES and EDGINGS, from 1 to 10 cts per yard; Black and White LACE GOODS, Figured and Plain; Pongee and Flage Silk HDKES, a complete assortment; Gingham and Cotton HDKES, every quality; Black Italian CRAVATS; Fancy Silk TIES; TOSSELY, of all descriptions and all prices; Scotch and Russia DIAPERS; Red Pading and Coat Canvas; GUN and COTTON SUSPENDERS; SILK SEWINGS and TWEIST; Black and White LACE; LINEN TABLES; LINEN TABLE CLOTHS and NAPKINS; CORDED SKIRTS; LINEN LAWNS; Black and White Nettings; Black, Pink and White Silk Florence; Black and White BUCKRAM; White Fringes; Bonnet, Cap and Taffeta Ribbons; LINEN ROSOMS and COLLARS;—Woolen, Black, Silk and Cotton GLOVES; Cambric, Linen and Cotton THERMID; TAPES; BUTTONS; SCOT COTTON; &c. &c. &c.

BONNETS, Hats, and Palm Leaf Hats.

COUNTRY MERCHANTS who are going to the Eastern Cities to purchase their Spring supplies, would do well to call and examine our Stock, as we have no doubt they can supply themselves upon fairer terms in this market than by going East.

March 28, 1846. 36

GENERAL AGENCY AT WASHINGTON.

Opposite the Treasury Department, in the building formerly occupied by Corcoran & Riggs.

MATTHEW ST. CLAIR CLARK

MATTHEW ST. CLAIR CLARK has associated for the purpose of attending to claims and business of all kinds, requiring an agency at Washington, before Congress or the several Departments. As it is unnecessary to enumerate all we select the following: Pensions of all kinds; Revolutionary claims against the States or United States, including claims for lands; Commutation for half-pay and bounties; Claims arising out of contracts with the United States; Investigation of titles and procuring patents for lands; Return of duties erroneously exacted, or paid under protest, written or verbal; Florida claims generally, and all which may arise under the annexation of Texas. Communications must be post-paid. Mr. CLARK, having resided in this city for many years, is well known, as a public officer and private citizen, to all gentlemen who have been in Congress or other public stations. CLARKE & QUANTRILL, January 26, 1846.

GENERAL AGENCY AT COVINGTON, KY.

OFFICE, CORNER 2d and GARRARD STS.

THE undersigned has opened an office in Covington, for the purpose of investigating and attending to the collection of claims for Pensions of all kinds—Revolutionary claims against the United States, including claims for lands; Commutation for half-pay and bounties; Procuring patents for lands, &c. &c. He has facilities for ascertaining the validity of claims, which will be found of much value to applicants. All claims placed in the hands of the subscriber for collection, will (by agreement) be forwarded to Clarke and Quantrell, of Washington City, who will give their immediate and undivided attention to the collection of the same without any additional charge beyond what may be agreed upon between the holder of the claim and himself. All communications, post-paid, will be promptly attended to by CHAS. S. CLARKSON.

REFER TO: J. W. Hunt, Esq., Lexington. Gen. Leslie Combs, Lexington. Geo. Metcalfe, Carlisle, Ky. Gen. P. Dudley, Dublin, Ky. Hon. J. J. Crittenden, Frankfort. Hon. T. Stephenson, Louisville. Hon. Garrett Davis, Paris, Ky. Hon. Thos. Corwin, Lebanon, Ohio. Hon. Thos. Wainwright, Covington, Ohio. Hon. J. T. Morehead, Lancaster, Ky. Hon. J. W. Graves, Louisville, Ky. Col. John O'Fallon, Hon. E. Bates, St. Louis. Archibald Gamble, Esq., St. Louis.

March 14, 1846. 34

Franklin & Commonwealth and St. Louis Review (Weekly copy) the above advertisement 3 months and send accounts to Chas. S. Clarkson for collection.

Stoves! Stoves!

THE subscribers have received the Agency for the sale of Ball & Davis Stoves, and will keep constantly on hand an assortment of that kind, of every size and description, which they will sell at the lowest prices. They will likewise keep a general assortment of Castings, such as Poles, Ovens, Kettles, Tea-Kettles, Butt-Hinges, &c. &c., all of which they warrant to be of first quality.

LENDRUM & ARTHUR, Scott Street, between 4th and 5th, Fourth. Covington, Oct. 25, 1845.—14 ft.

GUNDY & BACON'S

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Those who Counterfeit a good medicine for the purpose of adding a few dollars to their pockets, are far worse than the manufacturers of spurious coin. For while the latter only robs us of our property, the former takes property, health and life away. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is admitted by thousands of distinguished witnesses, to have effected the most extraordinary cures in cases of a pulmonary and asthmatic kind, ever recorded in the history of medicine.

The young, the beautiful, the good, all speak forth its praise. It is now the favorite medicine in the most intelligent families of our country. Such a high standard in public estimation has been achieved by its own merits alone. And so long as a discerning public are careful to get Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and refuse to accept counterfeits, and every other article offered to them as a substitute, so long will cure be positive cures—cheer the friends of many a despairing family.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

FOR DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND BREAST!

For the cure of all breast complaints, such as Asthma (or Phtisis) Coughs, incipient or seated Consumption.

From Dr. Baker, Springfield, Washington county, Kentucky.

Messrs. Sanford & Park, Springfield, Ky., May 14, 1845.

GENTS.—I take the opportunity of informing you of a most remarkable cure performed upon me, by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the year of 1840 I was taken with an inflammation of the lungs, which I labored under for six weeks, when I gradually recovered. In the fall of 1841, I was attacked with a severe cold, which seated itself on my Lungs; and for the space of three years I was confined to my bed. I tried all kinds of medicines, and every variety of medical aid, but gradually, and thus I was wearied along until the winter of 1844, when I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

My friends persuaded me to give it a trial, though I had given up all hopes of recovery, and my wife had given up all hopes of another winter. Through their solicitations I was induced to make use of the genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. The effect was truly astonishing. After five years affliction, pain and suffering, and after having spent four or five hundred dollars, to no purpose, and the best and most respectable physicians had proved unavailing, I was soon restored to entire health by the blessing of God and the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

I am now enjoying perfect health, and such is my altered appearance that I am no longer known when I meet my old acquaintances.

I have gained rapidly in weight, and my flesh is firm and solid. I can now eat as much as any person, and my Lungs are perfectly sound. I have eaten more food during the last six months than I had eaten five years before.

Considering my cure almost a miracle, I deem it necessary for the good of the afflicted, and a duty to you, the Proprietors, and my fellow men (who should know where relief may be had) to make this statement public.

My blessing be upon God upon the Proprietors of so valuable a medicine! Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. WM. H. BAKER.

The true and genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is sold at established agencies in all parts of the United States.

Sold in Cincinnati on the corner of Fourth and Walnut sts., by SANFORD & PARK, Genl Agents for the Western States. For sale in Covington by THOS. BIRD, Druggist. March 14, 1845. 34-ly

A WORD to those that are Consumptive.

It is a known and decided fact that Consumption of the Lungs leads to a speedy death, unless there are some proper medicines used to arrest the further progress of the disease. Have you not witnessed the departure of many of your intimate friends, hastened thither by the strong hand of this disease? Then why not be alarmed for the safety of your own health, and endeavor to secure a longer lease upon this world? Have you not been prevailed upon, time after time to use Dr. Duncan's Expectant Remedy, which is prepared expressly for the removal of diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial tubes. A few bottles of this medicine at the first attack, always prevents the disease from settling upon the Lungs.

PEARL STREET HOUSE.

THE subscriber (formerly proprietor of the Williamson House, Lebanon, Ohio), has taken this elegant and commodious house, corner of Walnut and Pearl streets, Cincinnati. Having renovated and refitted it, he hereby informs his friends and the Public at large, that he is now prepared to entertain all that may be pleased to call on him, in a style equal to any other establishment in the city. To his friends he thinks it enough to say that he is here, and that no pains shall be spared on his part to render their sojourn at his house pleasant and comfortable. To the public he would say that no house in the West shall surpass it in point of respectability. It will be the Stage House for J. & P. Voorhees' line, east, north and west. Seats in all these lines taken at the bar. Good stable for horses, hacks and carriages when wanted. G. F. WILLIAMSON, Proprietor. Cincinnati, Nov. 15, 1845. 17-ly.

Dr. J. Bennett's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THESE valuable purgative PILLS are too well known to require much puffing to bring them into more general use.

These Pills are compounded with great care and accuracy, by the proprietors, and are warranted to give satisfaction.

Price per single box—25cts. Agents supplied on favorable terms by DR. BENNETT & PRETLOW, Corner of Scott St. & Market Space, Covington, Ky., Oct. 25th 1845. 14

GROVERIES.

A fresh supply of Groceries, Just Received and for sale by J. B. CASEY & CO. Nov. 23, 1845. 19-ly

SUPERIOR HATS & CAPS.

WALKER has just received and for sale at his store on Scott Street, a superior lot of Hats and Caps, of all sizes, and made in the latest style, which he will sell as cheap as any House in this City or Cincinnati. Also a general assortment of children's caps, of the latest style. He invites the public to call and examine his stock, as he is sure he can satisfy purchasers, both in regard to quality and price. Covington Dec. 6th 1845. 20-ly

Just Received,

PER Steamer Columbia, direct from Pittsburgh, a general assortment of IRON, NAILS and GLASS, which we will sell at Cincinnati the most reasonable prices.

We have constantly on hand a good assortment of Ploughs, Clover Seed, &c. Feb. 14, 1846. GEDGE & BROTHERS.

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

IT has been ascertained by Chemical Analysis, that in 15,143 parts of Brewer's Yeast, there exists but 15 parts of Carbonic Acid Gas, this becomes disengaged from the Yeast by a gentle heat, and is retained by the dough, which causes the rising of the Bread. It is easily seen what a small portion of leaven is used in any quantity of Yeast—only about the thousandth part, the balance being of no advantage whatever.

LIGHT'S QUICK YEAST is exactly the reverse of this. The larger quantity being the Gas, the smaller the inert principle.

The money will be refunded in every case where it does not give satisfaction, if used according to the directions.

Prepared only by GEO. S. LIGHT & BROTHER, For sale at all the principal Groceries in Covington, Ky. Jan. 27, 1846.

Commercial Institute.

GUNDY & BACON'S

COMMERCIAL INSTITUTE, N. E. Corner of Third and Elm Streets, Cincinnati.

The design of this Institution is to qualify young men in a thorough practical manner, for the Counting House. The Course will embrace Book-keeping by Double Entry, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Letter Writing and Practical Penmanship.

BOOKKEEPING BY DOUBLE ENTRY.

A complete course of practical instruction will be given in this Science, embracing every Department of Trade and Mercantile accounts, viz: Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Exchange, Shipping, Banking, Individual Partnership and Compound Company Business.

The subject of Closing and Re-opening Books, Balancing and Adjusting Individual and Partnership concerns, will be explained and illustrated.

In place of the common method of copying after a particular printed work, the pupil is exercised in opening, making the Original Entries, Journalizing, Posting, Balancing, Closing and making out the Balance Sheets of over twenty different sets of Books, containing Entries in every variety of Mercantile Transactions—thus obtaining in a short time a more extensive knowledge of the science than could be acquired for years in a Counting House.

COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS.

Which will be taught according to the most improved methods used by Merchants and Brokers in the valuations and allowances of Merchandise, Calculations of percentage, Interest, Commission, Exchange, Equation of Payments, &c.

COMMERCIAL LETTER-WRITING.

Embracing the general particulars of Letter Writing as connected with the different branches of Trade, including the general forms of Invoice, Accounts, Sales, Bills of Exchange, &c.

PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP.

Taught in all its variations. In completing the above course, the pupils will be enabled to make every copy a good practical penman.

A good hand writing is not only one of the greatest accomplishments, but it is also indispensable necessary to the business man as well as the accountant. An individual however good in accounts, if deficient in writing cannot be considered properly qualified to take charge of a set of books.

It should then, be an important consideration to every young man entering an Institution to acquire a knowledge of bookkeeping, to go where he can also, at the same time be made a good writer, and thus obtain all, rather than be sent to some distant place, where he is to be taught these qualifications which are equally essential to the business man and the accountant. Reference can be shown from some of the first Business men and Bookkeepers in the city, who have qualified themselves at this Institution. Feb. 21, 1846. 31-ly

WASHINGTON HALL.

NEW LOCATION, Corner of Walnut and Water sts. Cincinnati.

A BNER LONGSHORE, late proprietor of that long established public house, on Water st., between Main and Walnut sts., Cincinnati, known as Washington Hall, returns his sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, and informs his friends and the public generally, that he has removed to that large, airy, and commodious building on the corner of Walnut and Water sts., and having fitted it up in superior style, is now ready to receive their calls, and also travelers by rail or otherwise. Dec. 13, 1845. 6m

S. KNOWLTON & CO.

SOAP AND CANDLE MANUFACTURERS,

No. 7, Water St., Between Main and Walnut, CINCINNATI.

Walker & Winston, Agents, Covington, Ky. will keep constantly on hand a supply and sell at the manufacturers prices. Feb. 21, 1846. 31-ly

H. J. DAKES is now receiving his Fall and Winter Stock, and will continue to receive every week during the season. The following articles viz:

Men's Thick Kip and Calf Boots Boys' do do Youth's do do

Also—A superior article of Gentlemen's fine Calf Boots—City made.

Also—Ladies' fine Double Sole Baskins—City made.

Children's Shoes, of every description.

Also—A splendid assortment of Fur, Seal and Seal-skin Caps.

Which he will sell low at Wholesale or Retail, at the sign of the BIG YELLOW BOOT, No. 38 Lower Market street, 2nd door west of Sycamore, south side.

Removent No. 38. H. J. DAKES. Nov. 8, 1845. 16-6m

ROBERT MITCHELL

CITIZEN'S CABINET WARE-ROOMS, Columbia street, between Main & Sycamore, CINCINNATI, Ohio.

MANUFACTURERS and keepers constantly on hand, a large assortment of the most fashionable Cabinet Furniture, and Chairs, of every description. Also—plain Furniture, all of which he will sell at the lowest prices. The public are invited to call and examine for themselves. Cincinnati, April 12, 1845. 38-ly

NEW GOODS.

THE subscribers have just returned from the East, and now offer for sale, a neat and well assorted stock of STAPLE & FANCY GOODS, all of which were carefully selected; and they flatter themselves that they can please the most fastidious taste as it regards quality and style, from the young lass of sixteen to the grave matron of sixty. They invite the ladies in particular to call and examine the public generally to call and examine their stock before they purchase elsewhere. They are determined to sell cheap for cash or country produce. They likewise invite their country friends to give them a call. They will give the market price for Jeans, Linens, Socks, &c. &c. LENDRUM & ARTHUR, Corner of 4th and Scott sts. Covington, Ky. Nov. 8, 1845. 16-ly

Just Received,

PER Steamer Columbia, direct from Pittsburgh, a general assortment of IRON, NAILS and GLASS, which we will sell

