natronage for the last six lears, and by his un ceasing application to business, he hopes to merita continuation of the same. He is prepared to perform all operations relating to dentistry, (surgical or mechanical,) with the best and most select materials.

For the satisfaction of those who have never had an opportunity of testing the neatness and durability of his operations and those who may favor him with their custom, he would state that he has been engaged in the dental profession for more than sixteen years; during which time he has spared neither time nor pains in acquainting himself with all the various improvements made in t: e profession-six years of which time has been exclusively spent with three very emi nent workmen from the East, for improvemen in the dental art. From the universal satis faction that he has heretofore given, he does no hesitate to say that in all available cases, however difficult, he insures success.

POETICAL.

For the Register MEMORY.

BY IDA LISTON. I am gazing on the hill, love, Where we sat, side by side, On a bright calm evening, long ago In summer's radiant tide.
The moon was beaming bright, love And the stars were in the sky, Soft words were on your lip, love, Kind looks were in your eye. The place is little changed, love, Save that the summer's glow Has yielded to the autumn's blast And to the winter's snow. The place is litile changed, love. The same old tree is there, And the rock whereon we sat, love, the pleasant summer air. The river murmurs by, love. As there it murmured on, And the same bright moon is there, love, Which on its bosom shope. But my spirit sinks within me, And mine eye grows dim and cold.
As I gaze upon the well known spot-Our meeting-place of old! The place is little changed, love, And yet a change has passed Since on that old familiar stone, I sat beside thee last! Though natures face is all the same. My heart is cold and changed And the kindly love that warmed it then, All, all from me estranged. The stars are shining bright, love, And the moon is in the sky, But the sigh is in my heart, love, And the tear-drop in my eye. I cannot look o'er all that was And all that is not, now, Save with an eye of tearfulness, And with a mournful brow. But heed not thou my tears, love,

And never pause to think Of her who sat beside thee On yonder mountains brink! PRAY FOR ALL. BY VICTOR HUGO. "Daughter, to prayer!" PRAY thou for all who living tread Upon this earth of graves; For all whose weary pathways lead Among the winds and waves; For him who madly takes delight In pomp of silken mantle bright.

Thy way of life is bright,

To dim its shining light.

And I love thee all too tenderly

Then go thy sunny ways, love,

For those who laboring, suffer still; Coming or going—doing ill— Or on their Heavenward course: Pray thou for him who nightly sins Until the day dawns bright--Who at eve's hour of prayer begins His dance and banquet light; Whose impious orgies wildly ring, Whilst pious hearts are offering Their prayers at twilight dim; And who, those vespers all forgot, Pursues his sin, and thinketh not

Or swiftness of a horse;

God also heareth him. Child! pray for all the poor beside; The prisoner in his cell, And those who in the city wide With crime and m For the wise sage, who thinks and dreams; For him who impiously plasphemes Religion's holy law. Pray thou-for prayer is infinite-Thy faith may give the scorner light, Thy prayer forgiveness draw.

Do Ladies take the First Step in Mattes of Love-Making?

'Well, Mr. Balderstone, you are the most provoking person in the world, always bringing up that absurd idea of yours about our marriage. I should have expected you, at positively shameful.'

'Quite a true idea, however-I will go to was; but however that may be, so was the a pleasing effect in the memory. Strange fact. I advert to the circumstance as a curious point in human nature, not as approbriself on that score.' 'Point in human nature! And so, to illustrate human nature; you are to represent me as having degraded myself by drawing you into matrimony! Oh, Mr. B. Mr. B!'

Here the gentleman at the table set up their ears as for a coming joke, while the ladies affected to look excessively indignant. Mrs. Balderstone was all injured innocence.

'What, in brief, is your idea, Balderstone inquired my friend Sleeman.
"Why, it is just this—that in our courtship, I believe it was only in appearance that represented the active voice, and she the passive; for, in reality, intending it or not, she was the means of bringing our acquaintance up to the marrying point. I entirely deny the allegation,' said Mrs

Balderstone; 'but let him go on.'
'Well how was it?' said Sleeman. 'Why, if you would believe her, I performed courtship in the customary manner recognised always somehow proved to be oil; mean it or not, such was the effect of her conduct. And interest, paid attentions, took charge of an album, and allowed myself always to happen to take the next seat to her's at table, till at length it seemed meet to me to propose for her hand, which she, with a great of coyness, accepted.' 'Yes,' interposed Mrs. B., 'that is the tru account.

That I deny. The true accunt is this: at our first interview she proved extremely agreeable, and passed a very pretty compliment upon my violin playing. Seeing her then to be an unusually attractive person, I asked leave to conduct her home, and found a gracious acceptance. We met again soon after, and she gave me such a decided preference as a partner in the quadrilles, that I became partial. She expressed a hope that I had brought my violin. I had done so, and in the course of the evening played a few solos. Not only did she listen attentively, but when an impertinent young beau addressed her in the middle of my playing, I observed her frown him into silence. There was so much good sense there! We had a chat afterwards about Wordsworth. when I found her so completely of my own opinion as to the wonderful powers of the then neglected Lake poet, that I became convinced that she was an extraordinary young lady. We so coincided, too, in our taste for the country. How delightful to consort with nature in her own domain—to watch the changes of the seasons, to see the sun rise,

I inserted at the same time in her album all the sentimental verses I had ever written, from schooldavs downwards. She liked the general style of them, amazingly, though there were two lines which she thought might be improved, if I would give them my attention. About that time, spending the evening at her mother's house, I found a young officer present, whom they represented as an old friend. Very, well, he was an old friend, and therefore entitled to be treated on comparatively familiar terms. What was this to me? Strange to say it made me uneasy. I could not bear to hear Georgiana abandoning her fine mind to the frivolous, commonplaces which suit a military understanding, and I came away

'He did not enter into your views about Woodsworth?' said Sleeman. 'Not at all-nor she neither for the time. It happened that just that night I had brought in my pocket—designing to read it to her—a critical analysis of the Excursion, which I had written for a West of England magazine. It had to lie perdu where it was, as Georgiana was too much engrossed with the lieutenant's account of a recent ball, given by his regiment at their last quarters, to have any ear for either poetry or criticism.' Well, your friend y correspondence would be perilled? Yes, and what was the provoking thing, my standing on the footing only of a friend gave me no title to complain. I was wounded, but had to conceal my hurt.

'You have no idea how sulky he looked with it, though,' interposed the lady. Perhaps so. I dare say it was capital fun for you. I went one morning, designing, if not wholly disguise or conceal it. 'Ah, that is a very clever way of softening the matter,' said Mrs. Asperall; but we discept him. Our sense of feminine delicacy is shocked at the very idea of a lady doing anything which is to have the effect of bringing a man to her feet.

'That may be a prejudice,' said I. 'But, anyhow, what we are first concerned about is the fact. Let philosophing come in its was going to press, from Brazos Sanproper place afterwards. It is as natural for a woman to become inspired with a feeling of attachment; as for a man. GREAT BATTLE!

GEN. TAYLOR VICTORIOUS!! IMPORTANT FROM THE RIO GRANDE Battle between Gen. Taylor's force and the Mexicans—The American Arms Victorious—200 Mexicans killed and wounded

By the extreme kindness of Capt. Eddy, of the schooner Louisian, who left Brazos Santaigo on the LGL first, and ar-rived at the English Turn this evening, we are indebted for the following important and interesting account from Point Isabel up to the evening of the 8th inst. Gen. Taylor left Point Isabel on the 7th inst. with 2000 men and 250 wagons loaded with stores, for the fort oppositte Matamoros. On the 8th, while marching, came in sight of the Mexican army, and when quite near, both armies commenced firing with their artillery. The Mexicans from 7000 to 10,000 strong, surrounded Gen. Taylor, but those on the rear were soon forced to retreat. The battle commenced at noon, and a constant roar of cannon was kept up until dark, when all was guiet. OUR ARMY SLEPT ON THE FIELD IN BATTLE ARRAY, ready for and expecting another hard day's work: but in the morning seeing nothing of the Mexiicans, Gen. Taylor sent out Capt. Duncan's company, and found they had all left the battle field; save their dead and badly wounded, together with three field pieces, which they left on the ground. About 200 were left dead. Those who were taken prisoners say that our firing was so destructive that the whole Mexican army was ordered to charge upon that of ours, but most of them positively refused.

One of the head officers rushed into their midst with sword in hand, to urge them to battle, rather than do which—they

ARRIVAL OF THE GALVESTON. The Galveston arrived at N. O. on the 18th. The following news brought by her shows that another battle we may expect, has been fought before this.

On the morning of the 13th Gen. Taylor and staff, with the guard that had brought down the train, &c. started for his camp. He was met by an express a few miles from Point Isabel, informing him that 8,000 fresh troops had arrived in Matamoras, 2,000 of which had crossed over, and 1100 more had crossed the Rio Grande at Barita near the Bocachica, not more than eight miles from Point Isabel at once, and made preparations to leave the next day with such forces as were arriving.

Well Done Kentneky.

The requisition from the War Department on the State of Kentucky for two Regiments of Infantry and one of Cavalry, has been met promptly by our gallant citizens. On Monday evening last the entire number was complete. and the officers of the various companies commissioned. Nor is this all. Some fifteen or twenty companies had been formed for whose services there is now no call. There was a general rush to Frankfort by the messengers of the different companies, in order to be enrolled in time. The whole number has been raised in I6 counties, and we have not a doubt, that when the balance of the state is heard from, that Kentucky will have raised at least TEN THOUSAND VOLUNTEERS, over the requisition of the Way Department. Below we append a list of the companies commissioned by the Governor, with the exception of one Regiment,-the Louisville Legion,-which has already left for the Seat of War:

FIRST REGIMENT OF CAVALRY OR MOUNTED MEN. 1st Company, Capt. Wm. J. Heady of Jefferson 2d Company, Capt. A. Pennington, of Jefferson. 3rd Company, Capt. Wm. R. McKee, of Fayette. 4th Company, Capt. Th. F. Marshall, of Woodford.

Commanders of Companies are charged with the place designated for rendezvous, by suc route and mode of transportation as they shal respectively deem most expeditious and comfortable to the soldiery.

The Companies will furnish their own subsistence, forage and transportation to the place of General Rendezvous, when it will then be furnished by the United States, or by the State of Kentucky. Each officer and soldier is entitled to compensation for travelling to the place of rendezvous, at the rate of one day's pay and ra-tions for every twenty miles from his place of Inspections and musters into the service will commence on Tuesday, the 9th day of June, and continue until completed.

By order, P. DUDLEY, Adij. Gen'l.

MUNIFICENT .- Mr. George R. Kenner of this county drew an order in favor of the "Kenton Volunteers" for $75. It was very acceptable to them, as they are somewhat dependent upon the generosity of the community, before being mustered into service.

Army Movements.

We are informed by Lieut. Powell of the Guard Riflemen that Col. Croghan is expected to-day, to review the companies which have been received, and muster them into the service. We did not understand whether the inspection would take place in this city or at the Barracks in Newport.

Gen. Taylor. Every true heart in the land must feel the glory and importance of the American General on the Rio Grande. All must intensely hope that he will continue, as he has begun, cool, brave, and victorious. We have great faith that his countrymen will not be disappointed in this hope. In fighting his way to the camp opposite Matamoras, he has achieved one of the greatest victeries, that dignify our arms. Old "Rough and Ready" has won unfading honor. Fortune may fail him hereafter, but cannot take away his laurels. He will fight himself out. He cannot be "cashiered for his supineness."

In the Ky. Intelligencer of the 27th inst., there is an ill-timed and malignant attack upon the Hon. Garret Davis. It is not proper, at this time, to notice the movements of an unjust party in this country. We will allow them just party in this country. We will allow them ment of United States infantry, numbering in to enjoy their party feeling, until the battles all, regulars and volunteers, about one thousand of the country shall have been fought, and her embarrassments removed.

The Volunteers for the Rio Grande. On the 26th inst., according to our information, the call of Governor Owsley for volunteers had heen answered by thousands and tens of thousands. Three thousand was the extent of the requisition, consequently, several thousand who patriotically volunteered their services were disappointed. We hope they may not be needed and that their disappointment may easily be soothed. They are as much entitled to be regarded as "some of the gallant sons of Kentucky" as if they had fortuned to be the first that applied. Superior means of intelligence, importance and convenience to the Capital are the causes which gave their more fortunate brethren priority We hope there may be no farther necessity for Kentuckians to volunteer, but when there is, we verily believe 10,000 will come forward at a week's notice.

Kenton County.

Two companies from our county, "The Kenton Rangers," and "The Covington Guards" crowded in by hard pressure. The Kenton Riflemen and the Montgomery Guards had their complements nearly made up, when the information that it was too late arrived. A misunder standing as to the number, required for a com pany produced confusion and delay in this part of the county. The horse company which was about to be raised, when the news arrived that the cavalry Regiment was made up, it is thought may yet be received, by a failure that may take place, in the companies already reported.

Interesting Ceremonies-Prisoners of War.

Gen. Romulus de la Vega, his two Aids, and Lieut. Col. Martinez, were presented on the 18th, by particular invitation, to Major General Gaines. The ceremonies were conducted in the ladies' splendid drawing room of the St. Charles Hotel. Gov. Johnson, and suite, Major Gen. Lewis, and suite, and other gentleman in full uniform were present, making a most splenrid appearance. Gen. Vega was attended by Gen. Debbuys, and Mr. Prieur, Collector of the Port, both gentlemen acting as interpreters for the oc. casion. The most courteous civilities were exchanged, among which General Gaines renewed his wish of having Gen. Vega and his friends form a part of his family while in the city. The accomplished lady of Gen. Gaines introduced a large number of ladies to the Mexican General, who seemed much pleased with this part of the ceremony.

Gen. Wool.

This gentleman has been placed, by the General Government, at the head of the Kentucky forces for the Rio Grande. He is said to be a fine officer, and well calculated to command the gallant sons of Kentucky. We had hoped that Gov. Owsley would have been permitted to make through the politeness of our friend, Maj. CHARLES all appointments of general command, to the ingly fertile, and will yield an annual revenue ject. The Right Spirit

The people of Baltimore held a large War Meeting on Saturday last. While Gen. Houston was addressing the meeting, the thrilling news was received and announced of the engagements with the Mexican army and the achievement of two decisive victories, which was received with much cheering by the audience, not however, without the most heartfelt regret at the announcement of the death of the gallant Ringgold and others.—

The following resolution was adopted by meeting:

Resolved, That we hail with fraternal sympa thy the manly hearts that bent in the ranks of our gallant little army on the "Del Norte.,' They' constitute a cherished school of instrucdead, disdaining any fear, they counted light the cost of life in glorious battle lost. nonored in the hearts of their countrymen.

Old Rough and Ready. During the two battles of the 8th and 9th, Gen'l Taylor headed his troops in the most cool and gallant manner His escape from hurt seems almost a miracle. He has won the hearts of his soldiers by his willingness to share with them the most imminent perils. His motto is-"I wish no man to go where I am not willing to lead.12 He has been dubbed "Old Rough and Ready."

The steamer James L. Day, Capt. Griffin, arrived this morning fram the Brusos St. Jago, which place she left on the 16th inst. bringing intelligence two days later than the Galreston. The news is important! Captain Griffin informs us that Gen. Taylor left Point Isabel on the morning of the 13th, with about two hundred men, and a supply of provissions for the army at the camp. After proceeding a short distance, however, he deemed it expedient to return and increase his escort, and take with him a large mantity of supplies. President Polks Meseage .- Mr. Polks message recommending an increase of the army and navy, in consequence of the state of relations with England on the Oregon question, and with men, composed entirely of infantry, to proceed | Mexico, has attracted attention. The message produced exactly the same effect as it appears to have done in London. Every body, on a first ti, and were landed at the Brasos at 11. D., the warlike at all. The Presse finds that Mr. Polk imitates th conduct of England in preparing for war, but finds it a grave matter that he should announce that his opinions have undergone no change a to the rights of the United States to the whole of Oregon. With such declarations, the Presse says, it is all nonesense to talk of the hope of making an arrangement. This language of the Presse is the more repurpose of dislodging the Mexicans from their markable from the fact that some months ago it declared that England would sooner abando Oregon than have any trouble about it. The Courier-Francais says that the message is not more of a menace than Lord Aberdeen's letter and speeches, but nevertheless finds it very This newspaper has always maintained that neither England nor the United States is entitled to Oregon, and it seizes this occasio to recommend the French Government to insist on the whole territory being declared neutral. The Siecle finds that Mr. Polk could not act otherwise than recommend an increase of naval and military forces; and that, upon the whole, the question between England and the States remains where it was. It adds that Mexico presents more dangers to the United States than Oregon; for any annexation of Mexican territory would be opposed by England, and probably by France, whereby there would be a complete subversion of alliances and political interests; the National, the republican newspaper, does not dent's firmness, and thinks that it will eventually force England to give up.

In the course of a discussion in the Chamber of Deputies, it was remarked that M. Thiers, and indeed every other speaker, spoke strongly in favor of maintaining the English alliance; and M. Thiers also declared, when speaking of the United States Navy, that he could never bring himself to believe that under statement, France could be plunged into war with the Uni-

It was generally believed that as soon as it was ascertained that bostilities had ommenced on the frontiers, that Commodore Conner would make an attack on the town and

YELLOW FEVER IN MEXICO.-Charles W Dais, who states that he practised medicine in Matamoras in 1832, has written a letter to the Union, in which he says:

"Since that time I have had constant corres pondence with the residents of that place, and know that the yellow fever has prevailed bu twice, and then owing to extraordinary circum stances. Both times the river has overflowed its banks in the month of August, inundating the prairies, and this was succeeded by an extraordinary cessation of the rainy season and a burning sun.

Captain Walker.

This brave partizan, says the Richmond Enquirer, has acquitted himself with so much gallantay that, if he gain no more renown, he de serves and must receive the most honorabl praise from his countrymen. We learn that he once lived in this city, a cabinet-maker. If he have to boast many more deeds of valor, he may some day, in virtue of the military prestige powerful in this country, be employed in a cabinet-making of a different kind. To this the Intelligencer responds: The above paragraph, unless we be greatly mistaken, is er-oneous. Capt. Walker, (Samuel H., as we suppose him to be,) lately one of the rangers operating on the Texan frontier under Colonel Hays, is a native of Maryland, and was formerly a resident of Washington city, where he has many family connexions. He is a carpenter by trade, and is yet a young man. His first entry upon military life was as a volunteer in the company which left here for Florida in 1834; and, after returning from that expedition, he resumed and pursued his occupation in this city, for some time, until the spirit of adventure led him first to emigrate to Florida, and from thence to Tex-as. While here, as we are informed, he was a

Steamers Spencer, McLane and Legare; schr Ewing, Woodbury, Morris, and Forward,-with an aggregate force of 250 men and thirty-five guns, of from thirty-two to twelve pound cali-

We have no doubt that these vessels will be of very great service in the war with Mexico, by reason of their light draught of water. We hope that Congress will speedily carry out the proposed measure of uniting the Revenue and Post office Navies with the Navy proper, thus placing the entire naval establishment of the country under one head. On Saturday evening the 23d inst., Covington Division, No. 4, Sons of Temperance held a called meeting, members of Covington Division, No 1, and all others of the Order, who were in the city, were invited to be present, and participate in sary, every 3 or 4 hours, until it operates to our deliberations. There was a full meet-

After a free interchange of feeling amongst the Brothers present, the following resolutions were passed by acclamation.

Resolved, That as some of our worthy rothers are now enrolled and mustered into the service of our common country, among her gallant defenders, that w take this occasion to tender to them our sincere and hearty wishes for their prosperity and welfare, and that we furthermore implore them to be ever mindful of the obligations they have taken upon themthink that Mr. Polk's message changes anything selves, as Sons of Temperance. And that on the Oregon question. It admires the Presi- we do enjoin upon them, to succor each other in sickness and distress; to counsel the brethren when far away, and to hold by the pledge, as the main stay of their success and prosperity in life.

Resolved, further, That we have full confidence, that our Brethren when engaged in the service of their country will not only conduct themselves as Sons of Temperance, be better, braver soldiers, and as such, with our blessing, we are willing to send them forth, thus doubly armed for the fight. It was then ordered, that a copy of the proceedings be presented to the captain of each of the Volunteer companies of our city, and that they be published in our city papers, and in the Temperance Or-

DISEASE OF THE LUNGS Use Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remed or colds, coughs, consumption, bronchitis, &c f you are suffering with any of the numerous complaints which it is intended to cure. You cannot, in the entire list of Syrops, Balsams, Expectorants, &c., &c., find a remedy that is more worthy of trial-that has proved itsel nore valuable or even its equal. There is prob ably no medical preparations of the present age that has so rapidly advanced in public favorthat has so speedil, won an enviable popularity and that solely by the reputation of its wonder. ful merits. Since its introduction into the western country, it has built up for itself a name which has thrown completely into the shade all the old standard preparations for the cure of this large and exceedingly distressing class of diseases. If you are affected with any of the complaints which have their origin in a cold, do not neglect it a single day, but make immediate use of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, and if it is in the power of medicine to give relief, you will be speedily and effectually cured.

The Beautiful Die,

And those also whose lives have been marked by active deeds of benevolence and untiring de votion in ameliorating the condition of man. Alas! how rejentless are thy darts, oh death! CAN CONSUMPTION BE CURED This question is asked by many anxious souls who, perhaps are in the last stage of the disease, or have some near or valuable friend thus afflicted to this answer, painful as it is to say, that few ever recover. Death cannot be deprived of its prey, when disease has knitted its fatal threads upon the vitals. It is therefore of the utmost importance for all persons who may have a bad Cold, Cough, pain in the breast and side, soreness of the throat, difficulty of raising up the phlegm and matter that accumulates upon the lungs, in the primary stages, and leads to are afflicted, I would recommend them to procure at once a few bottles of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy; which is certain to remove all the first symptoms that often hang so long to the system, and finally destroy life.

SPRINGFIELD, Ky., May 14,-1845. GENTS.—I take this opportunity of informing you of a most remarkable cure performed upon me, by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild In the year of 1840 I was taken with an infla-mation of the bowels, which I labored under for six weeks, when I gradually recovered. In the full of 1841, I was attacked with a severe cold, which seated itself on my Lungs; and for the space of three years I was confined to my bed.—

I tried all kinds of medicines, and every variety at all hours. of medical aid without benefit; and thus wearied along until the winter of 1814, when I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

My friends persuaded me to give it a trial, though I had given up all hopes of recovery, and had prepared myself for the change of another Through their solicitations I was in duced to make use of the genuine Wistar's Bal-sam of Wild Cherry. The effect was truly as-tonishing. The Rev. G. G. Moore, Episcopal Minister at Paris Ky, writes to us as follows.

Paris, Ky. Oct. 6th 1845. Gentlemen, I am pleased to learn that you are about to send your valuable Compound Syrup of Sassafras and Wild Cherry to this place for sale. Having used it myself, and in my family for a year or two past, I am free to say, that in cases of Colos and Affections of the Lungs and CHEST, I have never known anything to equal it. You will certainly deserve the thanks of the Community, and particularly of these afflicted with Coughs, for having provided such a specific: 1.1 not the thing least to be desired in it, it 2 asant to the taste.

Yours very respectfully G. G. MOORE. Certificate of Joseph Powell Esq. Having used the Compound Syrup of Sassafras and Wild Cherry in my family for more than two years in 'Co'ds and Coughs, I am fully pre pared to testify to its virtues.

My son has been subject to the Croup for sev eral years, and frequently came near dying with it before I made use of this Syrup. Since using which, I can state with great pleasure to Parents generally, that he has been entirely relieved from every attack at the beginning, by simply Coughs, and have never known it fail of curing the worst Case, when used in time.

Indeed so valuable do I consider this Medicine, much on their pockets. that I would on no account suffer my family to without it through the winterseason. It need only be tried to be appreciated.

Credit in some particular cases, may be a blessing, but nine times out of ten, it is a great curse. It holds up to the buyer the cards and the dice: it tempts him to play a game of chance it induces him to buy more than he needs, and thereby a dead stock is accumulated; it vents him from competing with his neighbor, who buys with cash: it soon leads him to borrow money at a high interest, and it ends in either his ruin, or the keeping of him poor for life. The cash system, then, is the honest road to wealth. It holds out not the temptation of a upon him, and will simply append a few from rapid fortune, but that which is far better—a his nearest neighbors—persons well and favorably gradual increasing business, free from trouble and anxiety, and one which must, with proper industry, lead to wealth and independence.

No-from Nature's ample bosom grows A healing balm for all our woes Health is every thing; without it we are misg erable beings.

Let us see what the Press, Dr. White, and his Patients, and the Public say of the remedies which have gained such flattering and extensive celebrity over the whole Ohio, Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas Valleys, and wherever they have come within the knowledge and reach of the public-that seem to be so eminently worthy of trial for all our woes. We are satisfied that the remedies and means are at hand, that may greatly prolong the dura-tion of human existence. We advise every individual not to disregard his health-perhaps fame—when the best energies of both body and mind are depressed, or weighed down by smouldering Drugs and Diseases within. We do not believe that one, of all the Compounds, official or otherwise, prepared with all the collected wis-dom of the past, in this or any other country, can so soon unload the system of the remains of diseases and deleterious drugs; so clearly and eminently work their own efficiency and growing fame, year after year, at home and abroad—as

Dr. WHITE'S VEGETABLE ELIXIRS. Blessed with the gift of a kind providence our selves, good health, we do not often give a preference of one over the other, to Allapathic, Ho-mocopathic, Hydropathic, or the "Reformed Practice of Medicine,"—but when all who have witnessed the effects, gratefully appreciate, and far and near, embrace every opportunity to call the attention of their afflicted friends to "Dr. White's Botanic Medicines," we may and ought to join in giving notoriety to medicines which are doing so much good, and which when fully known are esteemed above all others, and above all price.

His Elixirs have performed the most extraordinary cures of any other known medicine, having snatched, as it were, from untimely graves thous ands of persons afflicted with Consumptions, Colds, Coughs, Inflamation of the Lungs, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Scrofula, Female Weaknesses, the Secret and Mercurial Diseases, Ague and Fever, Rheumatism, Dropsey, &c; White's Magic Liniment and Vegetable Pills are unequalled for their sanative and curative powers. Let the afflicted try Dr. W.'s medicines, and they will bless the day that they were induced to do so. Thousands of grateful hearts are proclaiming the wonderful cures performed upon hem, when every thing else had proved it self futile. Myself and a boy living with me, have had ve ry bad coughs for months and years, and having ed in vain, everything, from the most famed to the less known medicines that seemed to give hapes of relief, and when Dr. White's Vegetr-ble Elixir was recommended to me, I could not but give way to my feelings, and pronounce his too a humbug. On reflection, however, I obtained a bottle, containing three gills, on the condition of no cure no pay—and double pay if it did cure. This one bottle cured the boy and myself, and I have reasons for believing that its equal cannot be found in the United Statesand therefore, in as strong terms as friend Bry-ant has, do I also urge the afflicted to try Dr. White's remedies. As long as I can procure them, I intend never to be without them in my

for asking you to publish the following:—

I had been afflicted for five years with fevers, ague and fever, spinal effections, scrofula, colds, and coughs, and other distressing derangements of my saystem which were carrying me rapidly to the last stage of consumption, the most of which time I was under the care and attendance of the best physicians in Portsmouth, in this State, all of whom finally gave me up, and pronounced me incurable. Last Spring I came to this city with the lingering hope of obtaining relief from the Medical Faculty here, but, after the lapse of four or five months and at cost of two hundred dollars, with no better results than those at Portsmouth, and my physicians here, also, having pronounced my case hopeless I was ad vised by my friends to call on Dr. White; I did so, and his remedies, including attendance and advice, to the amount of five dollars and HE subscribers have constantly on hand a twenty five cents, through the goodness of Prov large assortment of Watches, consisting of idence, haverestored me to health; and I assure Gold & Silver patent lever, Duplex, Lapine & the distressed and despairing that if afficted and reduced as I was before using Dr. White's All kinds of Watch trimmings; such as Chains, medicines, and I had wealth, I would give it all for the relief I have obtained from their use Diamond.
