POETICAL.

G. D. PRENTICE, editor of the Louisville Journal, has been for some weeks at Biloxi, seeking the restoration of his health. A late Journal contains the following beautiful piece of poetry

TO AN ABSENT WIFE. Tis morn-the sea breeze seems to brirg Joy, health, and freshness on its wing-Bright flowers, to me all strange and new, Are glittering in the early dew-And perfumes rise from every grove As incense to the clouds that move Like spirits o'er you welkin clear-But I am sad-thou art not here.

'Tis noon-a calm, unbroken sleep Is on the blue waves of the deep-A soft haze like a fairy dream
Is floating over wood and stream— And many a broad magnolia flower, Within its shadowy woodland bower, Is gleaming like a lovely star— But I am sad—thou art afor.

Tis eve-on earth the sunset skies Are painting their own Eden dyes— The stars come down and trembling glow Like blossoms in the waves below-And, like some unseen sprite, the breeze Seems lingering mid these orange trees, Breathing its music round the spot—But I am sad—I see thee not.

Tis midnight-with a soothing spell The far tones of the ocean swell. Soft as a mother's cadence mild Low bending o'er her sleeping child-And on each wandering breeze are heard The rich notes of the mocking bird In many a wild and wonderous lay— But I am sad-thou art away.

I sink in dreams-low, sweet, and clear, Thy own dear voice is in my ear— Around my cheek thy tresses twine— Thy own loved hand is clasped in mine-Thy own soft lip to mine is pressed-Thy dwn soit up to mine is pressed—
Thy head is pillowed on my breast—
Oh! I have all my heart holds dear—
And I am happy—thou art here:

POETRY BY J. Q. ADAMS. Miss Ellen M. Cockey, of John and Thomas eloquent" penned the following lines: Who shall say that publicelife Is nothing but discordant strife?

And he whose heart is tuned to love, Tender and gentle as the dove, Must whet his talons, night and day, For conflicts with the birds of prey?

This world is fashioned, Lady fair! Of Jay and Sorrow, Ease and Care, Of sudden changes, small and great; Of upward and of downward fate; And whose bends his wood to trace, The annals of man's fallen race, May sigh to find that nature's plan. Is cuthless was from man to man, But natuce cruel, to be kind, Nor to war only man consigned; But gave him waman or, the spot, La mingle pleasure in his lot. That if with men war cannot cease, With wom", a 'grgus eternal peace.

Fair Lady, I have lived on earth Nigh fourscore Summers from my birth;
-And half the sorrows I have felt-Have by my brother man been dealt; And all the ills I have endured By man inflicted, woman cured, The glove from man to man thou know'st Of fierce defiance is the boast; And east in anger on the flor, To mortal combat shows the door. But gloves from woman's gentle handi Of cordial Friendship bear the wand, And in return a single glove Betokens emblematic Love.

Thy gift fair Ellen then I take, cherish for the giver's sake; My hands, the Heart alike shall warm; And speed for thee to God above,
The fervid prayer of faithful love.

HOME. Is there a place that can impart Blest visions to the aching heart? Is there a place whose image dear Can soothe our grief, dispel our fear?

That place is home.

The exile, far in distant climes, Oft, oft remembers by gone times, And o'er whatever land he roves, Remembers still the land he loves-Remembers home.

Whatever hardships be our lot, Still home's the treasure of the heart; Whatever can our bosom cheer. Whatever we regard as dear, Is found in home, sweet home

To the Editor of the Union: I see much in the papers about Palo Alto but nobody has yet given a fair translation of Palo Allo. I give it to you herewith for the edification of our young volunteers.

Yours truly, Palo Alto-what it means. Palo is a pole a mast of a ship, a cane—dar palos, is to give a caning palo is often used figuratively to mean a drubbing alto is high, tall. So that Palo Allo is nothing more or less than a tall

SELECT TALES.

From the Boston Atlus. LA SAINT-DESIRE.

Translated from the French of Mile. A. Quarre. It was a beautiful spring morning; the sun had just risen in the cloudless heavens, and

It was the day of Saint Desire, the birth-day of her father, and she wished to go out, to select among the flowers of the season, the prettiest and most worthy to be offered to him. Geneview was soon ready to follow her young mistress; they crossed the city, and sought the dwelling of the most skilful gardener in the suburbs. As they were approaching it. a wo-like the day of Saint Desire, the day of her father, and she word inferiors, attentive and respectful to her elacters, she unconsciously made herself belowed by every one, by merely following the dictates of a naturally benevolent heart.

Covered with buds and delicate flowers, a May rose displayed it beauties, beside the scentless tuip, and fragrant hyacinth. Louise had seen it on her first entrance, and gazed on it with admiration and joy. But a May rose was very simple-very common, it must be acknowledged-and ought she not to seek something better for her father? . She at length stopped before a foreign plant, of great beau-

It was a beautiful spring morning; the sun had just risen in the cloudless heavens, and the eyes of the promenaders tested with delight on the fresh foliage of the trees, that had just put forth their leaves. All was still quiet in the beautiful house occupied by the rich banker Danteze, in the centre of a pretty city in the south of France, when, having awakened earlier than usual, a pretty girl, sixteen years, of age arose, and called Genevieve, the old nurse, who had brought her up, and begged her to accompany her.

This young girl, who was in such haste to go, was Louise, the only and much beloved daughter. It was the day of Stit Desire the higher of her father, and the constant aim of all his efforts. following lines: 'Sir: You have undoubtedly, sometimes heard of an elder brother of your mother, who had ceased to hold any relations with her after her marriage, and consequently has never had any with you. If it had pleased you to make any advances to this relation, you would perhaps have found him disposed to love you; it only depends upon you, to still gain his affection. I am this uncle. Rich and single, as you know, I have vowed the tenderness of a father to a young person, who merits it, in every respect, being beautiful, wise, and good, which is the best of all.— Will you marry her? All my fortune shall be yours; if you refuse, we shall remain strangers to each other, and I shall make her my heir.

LATER FROM THERIO GRANDE.

The James L. Day, Capt. Griffin, arrived at N. Orleans on the morning of the 23d ult., from Brazos Santiago, having sailed thence, the 20th. Among the passengers she brought over, were Lieut. Col. Payne, on his way to Washington with Mexican trophies, Majors and Page, and Lieut. Sturges-all of the army.

The news by this arrival is not of great in-Wilson, is commined, so is the topological Gens. Arista and Ampudia had both been or dered to Mexico. There was a report in the camp, to which we attach no credit, that Herrera had been restored to Mexico, and that an armistice had been tendered to Gen. Tay-

It is stated upon good authority, that Gen. Taylor will go up the river to Reynosa and probably to Camargo in a very short time.

A company of the 5th Intantry had left for Reynosa on the steamboat Aid. has been almost entirely abandoned by its inhabitants, as also the ranchos between Matamoras and the former place.

From the "Republic of Rio Grande" of the 16th inst.; we make the following extract: FROM TIE MEXICAN ARMY.—By a Mexican citizen, direct from Camargo, we are informed that the Government has ordered the immediate appearance of Generals Arista and Ampudia in the city of Mexico; the former explain satisfactorily the causes of the misfortunes which befel the army in its late unsuccessful attempt upon the American forces-the latter, no doubt, to sustain some very serious charges which he has preferred against Arista. The representations made by these two chieftains, judging from casual expressions immediately after the struction of united forces; differed materially. Gen. Arista passed through Monterey some twelve days ago, upon his way to the city of Mexico. Gen. Ampudia proceeded by the way of Tampico. The almost universal opinion of the Mexican population is, that Arista sold his country for a good round sam of American Gold.

We make the following interesting extracts the altar. The old uncle gazed on her with admiring eyes. They still celebrate Saint from G. W. Kendall, dated Matamoras, June from G. W. Kendall, dated Matamoras, June 14th:

Santa Anna Adopting an American Boy.

Waddy Thompson's recent work on Mexico Santa Anna. Various instances of his clemen-cy are told, and among other remarkable incidents we have the following anecdote "Among the prisoners taken at Mier was a very shrewd and handsome boy, of about 15 years of age, John Hill. On their arrival in Mexice, this bay was not closely confined as the other prisoners were; and he came to see me; and requested that I would ask the President to release him. I told him to go himself, and I was sure that Santa Anna would be more apt to do it on his own account than on mine.

A few days afterwards the little fellow red turned to my house very handsomely dressed, and told me that he had been liberated, and gave me the following accounted whathad passed hetween himself and the President. When between himself and the President:—When he requested Santa Anna to release him, the latter replied—"Why, if I do, you will go back and fight me again. The Santa Fe prisoners were released on their parole of honor not to bear arms again against Mexico; and it was not three arms again against mexico; and it was not inten-months before half of them had invaded the country again; and they tell me that you killed several of my Mexicans at Mier." The little fellow replied that he did not know how many he had killed, but that he had fired some fifteen Erwin and Fowler, Capts. Smiths Stockton or twenty times during the battle. "Yery and Page, and Lieut. Sturges—all of the army." says Santa Anna, "I will release you, and, what is more, I will adopt you as my son." and educato you and provide for you as such." in his family, and treated with the most paren-tal kindness. He was afterwards placed at the principal college in Mexico, where he was pursuing his education when I left the country. Santa Anna not only paid the charges of his education, but in all respects cared for him as a son. Some time after his own discharge, little Hill came to me to request that I would the release of his father. I told him no; that he was more successful than I was; to go and try his own hand again. He did so, and obtained at once the release of his father, and afterwards of a brother, who were also among the

Mail Robbers Caught.

D A. Robertson, U. S. Marshal, after a chase of three weeks through the cities of the East and West, succeeded in arresting the mail Robbers who robbed not long since the Southern mail. Myron W. Pettis, with a hundred aliases, was arrested at Silver Creek, New York, and George H. Wilson at Cleveland. They are both in the Columbus jail. Mr. Robertson found about $2500 in money, (part of which has been identified,) certificates of deposite, &c.

Mr. Robertson has shown no little energy and inct in pursuing the scamps. He has had a real race of it, but fortunately he secured then when they fancied all was safe,

The following is from a Cleveland paper U.S. Marshal Robertson, of Columbus, and Deputy Marshal McKinstry, of this place, have arrested three of the robbers supposed to the concerned in the Louisville and Cincinnati, mail robbery. One was pursued and arrested at Sily ver Creek, the other two were arrested in this place yesterdry. One of them, a mere lad, by the name of Wilson, was found with over eighteen hundred dollars in bills, answering the department of next-scene of money lest in said mail. scription of packages of money lost in said mail, and a note of Joy & Webster, Buffalo, of $800, for money loaned by Wilson. The others were flush with funds, one having a large purse of gold, the contents of which he plied freely to vade the limbs of the law .-- They will be tried at the present term of the United States Court, about setting at Columbus.

A Hunting Story. The Nashville Orthopolifan tells the follow-

We heard a "hunting" story a few days agd which is a match for Captain Scott and the coon—the narrator vouched for its truth. Some years ago two young men left this city on hunting excursion, one of them having an gun. They proceeded a mile or two below when they observed a Turkey-buzzard a ghr on the very topmost branch of a tall sycamore.

The young man by way of trying the powers of ered. Well, it's all for the best. The Mex bis new gun, took aim at the buzzard the gun icans would never have made anything out of course missed fire, but at the same instant the bird fell dead at the foot of the tree. Can our contemporary of the New York Spirit of the Times, who appears to be au fair in all things relating to field sports account for this wonderful phenomenon?

The Tariff.

The House has passed McKay's Tariff bill. and, strange to stay, after all their bluster and assumed independence, Messrs. Brinkerhoff, Rathbun, and Tibbatts voted for the bill. Well, there is no prophetic vision that can foretell the future action of some politicians! Who would have dreamed after the recent speeches of these gentleman that they would have recorded their votes in favor of this measure? The National Intelligencer remarks upon the passage of the bill: The bill for the reduction of Duties on the importation of Foreign Goods and Manufactures has passed the House of Representatives. The majority on the final passage of the bill was nineteen votes; exhibiting a combined effect of Executive influence and Party Deill, against the undoubted wishes of the people, and as we suppose, against their actual instructions : to a portion at least of those Representatives who composed the majority on the final vote, such as has rarely been witnessed even in the popular branch of Congress.

Tea and Coffee, the objects without which no advantage to the revenue can rationally be expected from the passage of this bill, were struck out of it by acclamation; but to secure the votes of the democracy of the Empire State, (indispensable to the passage of the bill,) a duty of twenty per cent upon the value has been laid upon the article of Salt, the most indispensable of all the necessaries of life without the daily use of which the poorest man in the country would be unable to keep body and soul together. An examination of the proceedings of yesterday, and of the Yeas and Navs on the several questions. will show that this duty probably would not have passed the House, could the bill for stripping American Manufactures of their present protection have been passed without it. So that the majority may almost literally be said to have been procured, as children in the nursery are told that birds are caught, by sprinkling salt upon their tails.

The bill, having passed the House of Repre sentatives, has now to undergo consideration in the Senate, what its reception there will be we have no means of judging. Whatever its ultimate fate may be the ninety-five Representatives of the people who have manfully battled against it in the House of Representatives are entitled to the thanks of the friends of Home Industry all over the United States, as well o those who till the soil as of those who prepare it: products for market.

One effect of the passage of the Tariff bill in the House of Representatives will be to prolong the Session of Congress to an indefinite length. Had the bill been rejected, the session would, in all probability, have ended on this day forthight.

BOONE.

From communications which we have received from Boone, we are induced to believe, that a warm contest is going on both for Senator and member of the Lower House in that County. We have no doubt that our candidates, from what we can learn, deserve the ardent support of their friends, and will receive it. We hope, at least, that should our political friends be defeated, the people generally have taken care that el the candidates will go warmly for the works of Internal Improvements in this part of the "late. We regret that our time and space will not allow the publishing all the communications we have received this week.

Blue Lick Springs. We learn that large numbers of visiters are daily retreating to this delightful and fashionable watering place. We know of no place in the be more pleasantly whiled away. The Messrs Holladay have made considerable improvements ing unable to agree upon a verdict. since last year, and persons attending the Blue Licks will find every want most dilligently cared for. Go, then, ye city-heated mortals, and find that this world can be made pleasant by seeking the right place, even in July and August.

Col. Marshall's Regiment of Kentucky Cavalry embarked for Memphis on Saturday J. W. Venable.

This young Artist has deservedly won golder opinions, since his return to our city, by the admirable and trathful productions of his facile pencil. The bannes painted by him for the Sons of Temperance, of this city, were much admired at the great celebration at Maysville. Great as was the display of banners on that occasion, none attracted so much attention or elicited so much praise as those by Mr. Venable. The one is a representation of Moses, just after he has smote the rock, from which is gushing a clear and fresh fountain. The other figures on this banner are also executed with great power and truthfulness. The other banner is a picture of the Genius of Temperance. Her posture is admirable. She sits upon a rock, near which gushes from a hill a pure and sparkling stream. But we must not attempt a description of these beautiful paintings. They speak for themselves, and we advise all who wish to see a fine specimen of art, to call and see them.

The Difference. When Gov. Owsley filled the field offices of he Kentucky Volunteers with Whigs, the Dem scrats were struck with horror. Even old man Ritchie, of the Washington Union, poured forth a violent phillippic on the subject. It was an outrage not to be borne. Oh! it was too bad. Party should have been forgotten, they cried. n such cases. But mark the change. Mr. Polk proceeds to appoint the Brigadier, 4 Quarermasters, and 4 Commissaries for Kentucky, very one of whom belongs to the Locofoco party; and lo! not a word of causure escapes from the lips of our Democratic friends. Thus do they practice what they preach!

PAYMASTER.

We learn that Maj. C. S. Clarkson, of this ity, has received the appointment of Paynaster of the U. States Army This is an excellent selection. Mai. C. is a gentlemen of high standing, and is well qualified to fill the place to which he has been calle !.

It will be remembered that Maj Clarkson wa chosen Col. of the new My. Mounted Regiment, and went to Washington for the purpose of having the Regiment accepted by the Presipent. This could not be done, in consequence of the requisition being filled. But in view of the well-known patriotism and decided qualifications of Maj. Clarkson the President has wisely honored him with the appointment of Pay-

The Sunday Schools.

The celebration of the 4th, by the Sanday Schools of this city, was conducted with great taste and propriety. Near 700 "lovely little ones" joined in the procession. The address of Rev. Mr. Frost, on the occasion, is highly spoken of. This is a goodly custom of our city, thus to commemorate our National birth-day, and we hope it will ever be so observed.

Fourth in Cincinnati.

The Anniversary of our National Indpenlence who celebrated in various and appropriate forms by our neighbors of the Queen City. We attended the celebration at the Melodeon, which went off in fine style. The Religious exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Thomas, the Declaration of Independence was read by Geo. O. Bartlett Esq., and the oration delivered by M. L. Sheldon Esq. Each of these gentlemen acquitted himself with great credit. The address of Mr. Sheldon was a chaste, beautiful and eloquent production. A fine band of music was present and assisted in the exercises.

The Sons of Temperance celebrated the gloious Fourth, at Maysville, in grand style. All accounts represent the display as large and imposing, and the exercises as highly interesting. About 100 of the brethren of this city went up to participate in the festivities. There was a grand display, a splendid dinner, and a number of eloquent speeches. So passed the day, in iov, and sobriety.

Gen. Butler.

We are really gratified that W. O. Butler has received the appointment of Maj. Gen'l, of the Volunteers. He is a high toned Kentuckian, and we have no doubt his selection will be recoived with general satisfaction in this State.

A Flare Up.

Great confusion and consternation have been created in the Locofolio camp, at Washington, by the sudden bolting of certain leading Locofocos. Mr. Brinkerhoff a leader of Ohio, has come down upon Mr. Polk's Administration like "a thousand bricks." He is bold, and determined, and denounced McKay's Tariff bill with great resoluteness. The Union, thereupon, reads him out of the party. What is to come out of this family war, we know not.

Licking Convention.

Let it not be forgotten that this Convention assembles at Blue Licks on the 15th inst. It is a matter of too much importance to be neglected, and we trust a large delegation will be present. Nostone should be left untuned to effect this great undertaking. The public interest demands it, and Licking must be made naviga-

Stickney's Circus.

This highly popular Circus has been perform ing in this city during the past week. Every body who attended appeared delighted with the performance. It is composed of an excellent company, and cannot but afford general satisfaction, wherever it goes. The riding of Miss Rosaline Stickney, and the difficult feats which she performed were executed to the satisfaction of all who witnessed it. May success crown ber, wherever she may go. The riding of Mr. S. P. Stickney, upon four horses was decidedly a rich treat, and cannot be beat The company is now performing in Cincinnati, where it will remain a few days.

> We learn that Maj. Clarkson has determined not to accept the office of Paymaster, tendered him by the President. More of the Locofoco War.

Mr. Tibbatts, of the Kentucky district across the river, made a speech on the Tariff. He too, differs with his political brethren, and goes for a judicious Tariff! A letter writer thus sums up his speech :- Cin. Gus.

Mr. Tibbaits, of Kentucky, commenced saying that he was a fifty-four forty man; but in consequence of recent events with regard to our boundary, a day of reckoning will come. "Let the galded jade wince," our "withers are un-wrung." We have no more to fear from England on this continent, than from Mexico; and, while we are blustering about Mexico as an imbecile nation, we have placed ourselves in a humiliating attitude by surrendering to Great Britain our rights. We were told that Julius Casar would fight for the maintenance of terri-tory against a king, much less surrender to a queen! We once had a President who never would have yielded an inch to any nation; on the contrary, he would have met and bearded the lion in his den. It might appear strange to his democratic friends, but he believed in a fariff for revenue, with discriminations for protec-tion. This was the doctrine of Madison, Jackon, Cass, Van Buren, and Mr. Polk himself The question of power was settled by the conwhich he enumerated. As to the bill before the committee, some of its provisions are equally bjectionable. He hoped, therefore, gentlemen objectionable. He noped, therefore, gentlemen would come forward in a spirit of compromise—if they cannot get all they want, let them take a part. [A voice: "the whole or none."] Let the West look to it—lest, between the conflicting positions between the North and the South, he be ground between the upper and the nethand progress, the confidence which the great men of "the party" have reposed in him, of his __the firmest anchor of his dearest hopes. "remarkable conversation" with Mr. Polk, be fore he became his Organ, of his sacrifices of personal comfort, his cares and his labors and exertions to support the Republican party. And he thinks it cruel, that on "the great question of the age," he should not be permitted his seniments without rebuke from members of Congress. Hear the old Gentleman: Have we not, then, a right, of expressing our pinions freely on the tariff, without reproach or ersonal animadversion from any representative people, though we are printers to Con gress? They may sacrifice us if they please .--They may cut at our office if they desire it. It is their right as it is their duty to regulate its Brinkerhoff and other members to leave us at least our independence and our principles. * * If Mr. Brinkerhoff's change of course had proceedvery different motive. We ask how long it has been since the member from Ohio protested against these specific duties, as well as minimums? How long has it been since he varied his views? Has it not been within the last three weeks !-Within that time, did he not apply to the President of the United States for an office! Was he not so anxious himself to obtain a share of the spoils, that he desired to become a paymaster in the army, (one of the three paymasters which the late law authorizes to be appointed.) that the Executive could not confer any but the highest offices upon them, where the field of selection should be kept as wide as possible for the sake of the overruling benefits which it would produce—such a member of the Cabinet, a judge of the Supreme Court, a foreign minister, or a General to command our armies in a crisis of war? The constitution itself forbids any Senator or Representative, "during the time for which he was elected," being 'appointed to any civil of-fice under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, &c., during such time." The office of Paymaster of the army instead of discharging the honorable commission strike at the administration which thinks it ils other well.

15 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. The steamship Britannia arrived at Boston on Saturday, morning, and the news was expressed to Philadelphia from whence it was communicated to the Baltimore Sun by Magnetic Telegraph, some twenty-four hours in advance of the mail.

The news is of considerable importance, and very interesting, particularly so far as relates to the reception of the news of the victories of Gen. Taylor on the Rio Grande,

The corn bill has triumphed in the committee of the whole in the House of Lords by a majority of thirty-three. Consequently all fears as to its final passage are at an end. There has been a decline of one eight pence in the Cotton market, though the demand continued steady.

In England and Ireland the wheat and potatoe, as well as all other crops, have a fine and prosperous appearance, and the prospect of a plentiful harvest was considered good on the 19th uit., when the Britannia sailed.

Sir Robert Peel's retirement is more confiden tly spoken of than by former arrivals.

The war between the United States and Mexico engroses public attention. The victories of the Americans on the Rio Grande have changed public feeling in England and France from sympathy for the Mexicans to contempt. This change of opinion, however, is as unjust to the Mexicans as the former feeling was to the Amer-

Mr. Guizot's organ is still pointing out the necessity and policy of France and England interfering by a joint action of some kind to protect Mexico from what it terms the rapacious and tyrannical conduct of the United States in seizing on the territory of a weak and unfortunate nation. The government organ, however does not touch on the subject, and the probability is that the organ of Mr. Guizot is used as a feeler to ascertain the views of the eople in regard to such a movement. Correspondence of the Register. PETERSBIRG Ky. July, 7th 1816. Mr. EDITOR :- The canvass in Brone is going on admirably; our friends Hawkins and Watts are gaining ground daily. On last Friday at Landing Dr. Hawkins and Mr Brasher, the candidates for the Senate in the 25th Senatorial Baer Abraham District, closed their labors, for a time, in the county of Boone; and have now passe I into the counties of Gallatin and Carrol, where no doubt, they will meet a hearty welcome from their nu- Berry J 3 nerous political friends.

While in this county they were in the habit | Boyd T F of discussing several local questions, about which Bery Cynthia Ann there was little or no difference of opinion, save the law of 1833 prohibiting the importation of Slaves into Kentucky &cor Against this law Mr. Brasher has made war for two years. Dr. Hawkins is for the law as it is and defends it with great ability and clearness. To make a long argument, short he takes the broad, but patriotic and statesman like view of stitution. He had many objections to the duties levied on certain articles by the act of 1842, the people of Kentucky are wholly dependent upon their daily labor for the bread they eat, and that in proportion as negroes are introduced into this State, just in the same proportion will the laboring population, be displaced and deprived of the means of subsistence-and that is not all-many of them will be compe'led if the law is repealed to leave their homes and The Union is in a great trouble at these friends and early associations to seek employ-'discourteous" allusions to the Administra- ment and subsistence for themselves and little tion and to Mr. Ritchie. It enters into an his- ones in some new and unhealthy region. The torical memoir of Mr. Ritchie in the ancient law of 1833 according to the De's showing is Dominion and at Washington, showing his rise the best protection the laboring man has-the best ark of his safety, happiness and prosperity

This has been a favorite measure with Mr Brasher-but I believe he is now but little disposed to stir it if let alone. The Dr. however will not let him alone-for he has had Mr. Brasher crawfishing both from this and the Tariff ever since their speeches at Beaver. Sometimes Mr. Brasher is for the unconditional repeal of the law-again he is for a modification, and now he is just for whatever the people desire, if he Deily Christopher can only ascertain w'at that is. I had various medicines country. recommended to me, which I used without any beneficial effects whatever, until I procured a bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. The use of one bottle afforded relief entirely relieving me of cough, & restoring my lungs to healthy action. The use of it for a short time increased my general health and strength to such an extent, that I was stronger and more healthy than I had been for years before. From the trial I have made of the medicine, I can confidently recommend it as a powerful Tonic, a certain cure for affections of the lungs, unless it may be in cases of Consumption, obstinate and of long

HEALTH. [Read the following statement of facts from Mr. E. Bailey, a highly respectable merchant of Vienna, Johnson county, Ill nois.] Messrs. Phelps & Blaklsley, St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen :-- A desire to benefit the afflicted through out the land has alone induced me to make the following statement of facts respecting one of the most astonishing cures cver recorded. my son, now seventeen years old, has been afflicted during his whole life with a constant cough, pain in the side and chest, accompanied with night sweats and hectic fever, which produced great emaciation and debility; and at intervals during the night his expectoration would become so great as to endanger his life from strangulation .- During this time he was attended by many physicians of the highest repute, whose prescriptions gave but temporary relief-in fact, so a'arming were the symptoms, and so inveterate was his disease, that I was compelled to believe him beyond the reach of medical aid. All our neighbors and friends who caw him regarded him as one who was rapidly approach ing an early and premature grave. After having thus exhausted the skill of our hest physicians without obtaining relief, I was prevailed upon by the advice of a friend to make use of Wistar's Bulsam of Wald Cherry.

He commenced its use about the 30th of De ember 1814, the first bottle of which gave astonishing relief, and I began again to indulge in the fond hope that he might yet be restored to

After having continued the use of it, until three bottles had been taken, the disease was signal. Salve is for sale in Coxington at John three bottles had been taken, the disease was signal. Salve is for sale in Coxington at John Dough entirely overcome and his shaltered constitution recommendated to sound and permanent health, which he continues to enjoy up to the present time.

I believe the genuine Dr. Wistar's Balsam o Wild Cherry to be one of the most valuable me dicines ever discovered --- knowing, as I do, that the a love cure was effected solely by its use. I am gentlemen, very respectfully,

Your most obedient zervant, April 9, 1816. . F.LI. BAILY. Cures similar to the above are constantly being performed in all parts of our country, and we should indeed be destitute of all feelings of humanity, did, we not call upon all who are affirted with pulmonary diseases to resort at once to the use of this, the only remedy that can be relied upon for a cure.

ζ. 7 Strangulated Heruta or Rupture Certain Death!

How very important then is it for those who are implored, to get cured of this affliction, before the bowel or omentum becomes strangulated. Very few persons know the serious and dangerous consequences of a RUPTURE; consequently pay but little attention to it, until the bowel that passes through the orifice of the ruptured part, ecomes the seat of inflammation, at once stopping their circulation and natural evacuations. It is at this critical time proaching. This is the usual course of these tion of Ladies Dress Goods.

Commercial Institute

GUNDRY & BACON'S OMMERCIAL INSTITUTE, N. E. Corner of Vine and Fifth sts., Cincinnati, O. The design of this Institution is to qualify young men in a thorough practical manner, for the Counting House. The Course will embrace Book-keeping by Double Entry, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Letter Writing and Practical Penmanship.

BOOKKEEPING BY DOUBLE ENTRY A complete course of practical Instruction will be given in this Science, embracing every Department of Trade and Mercantile accounts viz: Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Exchange. Shipping, Banking, Individual. Partnership and Compound Company Business.

The subject of Closing and Re-opening Books Balancing and Adjusting Individual and Partnership concerns, will be explained and illustra In place of the common method of copying after any particular printed work, the pupil is exercised in opening, making the Original Entries, Journalizing, Posting, Balancing, Closing and making out the Balance Sheets of over twenty different sets of Books, containing Entries in every variety of Mercantile Transactions—thus obtaining in a short time a more ex tensive knowledge of the science than could be acquired for years in a Counting House.

COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS, Which will be taught according to the most improved methods used by Merchants and Brokers in the valuations and allowances of Merchandise, Calculations of per centage, Interest, Commission, Exchange, Equation of Payments,

COMMERCIAL LETTER-WRITING. Embracing the general particulars of Letter Writing as connected with the different branches of Trade, in concluding the general forms of Invoice, Accounts, Sales, Bills of Exchange, &c. PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP,

Taught in all its variations. In completing the above course, the principals will obligate themselves to make every pupil a good practical enman. A good hand writing is not only one of the greatest accomplishments, but it is also indispensibly necessary to the business man as well as the accountant. An individual however good in accounts, if deficient in writing cannot be considered properly qualified to take charge of set of books.

It should then, be an important consideration with every young man in entering an Institution to acquire a knowledge of tookkeeping, to go where he can also, at the same time be made a good writer, and thus obtain all, rather than part of these qualifications which are equally essential to the Bookkeeper.

Reference can be shown from some of the firs Reference can be shawn from some of the city, who have qualified themselves at this Institution.

CURE YOUR COUGHS AND COLDS AND PREVENT CONSUMPTION!

BY TAKING "DR. JACKSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP O SASSAFRAS AND WILD CHERRY."

THIS elegant preparation has established it self upon a solid foundation wherever i has been tried. It has no equal for the speed cure of Coughs, Colds and other affections of the ungs, Weakness and Pains in the breast, &c. &c. Amongst many certificates received from those who have used it, we will only extract a few.

The Rev. G. G. Moore, Episcopal Minister at Paris Ky, writes to us as follows.

PARIS, Ky. Oct. 6th 1845. Gentlemen, I am pleased to learn that you re about to send your valuable Compound Syrup of Sassafras and Wild Cherry to this place for sale. Having used it myself, and in my family for a year or two past, I am free to say, that in cases of Colds and Afrections of the Luncs and Curst, I have never known anything to equal it. You will certainly deserve the thanks of the Community, and particularly of those afflicted with Coughs, for having provided such specific: 1.1. not the thing least to be desired in it, it P asant to the taste.

Yours very respectully G. G. MOORE.

Certificate of Joseph Porcell Esa. Having used the Compound Syrup of Sassafras and Wild Cherry in my family for more than two years in Colds and Coughs, I am fully pre pared to testify to its virtues. My son has been subject to the Croup for several years, and frequently came near dying with it before I made use of this Syrop. Since which, I can state with great pleasure to Parents generally, that he has been entirely relieve from every attack at the beginning, by simply I consider this Syrup invaluable in Colds and Coughs, and have never known it fail of curing the worst Case, when used in time.

Indeed so valuable do I consider this Medicine, that I would on no account suffer my family to be without it through the winterseason. It need only be tried to be appreciated.

J. W. POWELL, Covington, Ky. · Covington, October 7th, 1845. DRS. BENNETT & PRETLOW—I have been using the Compound Syrop of Sassafras & Wild Cherry in my family for more than a year, and find it all it purports to be; having always proved efficacious in my family whenever used as direc-ted, in Coughs, Colds, &c., and it gives me pleas ure to contribute my evidence in favor of its

In the case of a young man who was some time in my employ, its effects were truly wounderful! He had laboured under great weakness of the breust, loss of apppetite, Dyspepsia, Cough, and general debility, and was for weeks unable to attend to business. I prevailed on him to take this Syrup, which relieved him right away, and by the time he was through with the secon bottle was restored to good health. It is now nore than a year and he has not been troubled since with disease.

Yours &c., JOHN R. STEWART. Other references, and ample directions accomper bottle. Agents will be supplied on favorable terms, by the proprietors.

Private Diseases.

EREAL AFFECTIONS n their various stages and most complicated orms, offers inducements which can be rarely equelled by any other individual. Constitutional debility, impotency, sterility. seminal weakness, nervous affections, and all other deplorable diseases which are brought on by the destructive habits of inconsiderate youth, and excessive indulgences of the passions, which ruin the constitution, impair intellectual vigor and produce general premature decay, can be radically cured, and the unfortu-nate sufferers restored to health and vigor.

Dr. Brown is the only regularly educated surgeon in Cincinnati, who gives his whole attention to these complaints. His diplomas and certificates can be seen at his office.
