BY "MAC."

During the time the "war fever" raged, was returning on the mail boat from Louisville. I observed, as the boat was about pushing off, a person rigged out in militay costume "making tracks" from down the wharf in the direction of the boat, as if a thousand yelling Mexicans were at his heels. His speed quickened as the last bell tapped. The people rushed in dozens from the houses to view the sight. "Time and tide wait for no man," nor will a mail boat. The last plank is laid hold of to be drawn on board. He falters not; his hedrawn on board. He latters not; his neroic spirit descends to his heels, and the

In turning over the pages of the North British Review, for November last, we find a very able and interesting article upon the history of Italy. The writer refers much of the degradation which that country suffers to its state of subjection to the Austrian power. He says:

. "We have before us a work, printed in 1824, at Milan, directed to be used for instruction and reading in the second class of elementary schools, by order of the Austrian Government. We shall give some specimens of the instruction which it has imparted, and of the notions taught to those who learn to read in the government schools of Austria, presuming that no such books were furnished in the schools existing long before the Austrian government took them under its parental tuti-

The writer then makes an extract with a Perry county, referred to Messrs. Pearl, view to show the instruction which is inculcated upon the fidelity of the people to their Sovereign, and also of the temporal and spiritual punishment which will be visited upon all who are neglectful or unobe servant of that fidelity. He then concludes by saying, "there are a few other passages respecting war that are worth quoting!33

uoting!"
"Question—What must subjects abstain from [besides treason?]
Answer—They must abstain from talk-ng unreasonably of the events of the war. Q .- And why so? A.—Because as they are not aware of the real circumstances of such events, they easily can deceive the populace with their discourse.

Q.—What must citizens and country people do not to be suspected? A.—They must keep quietly at homemind their own business-work and pray.

Q .- How must subjects behave when the enemy causes them losses? A.—They must bear losses with patience, and put their trust in God and their Sovereign."

We give this extract, which we make literally, without any comment, not doubting that every intelligent reader will discover, in the course of his Excellency, President Polk, an exact parallel to that which the Austrian government employs to school those who are in subjection to it in its doctrine of passive obedience.

(This number (27) commences the second half year of the REGISTER since we took possession of it. We are now having printed some very handsome blank Receipts, for the benefit of our subscribers, which we are ready and very willing to fill up at any time when required so to do by any of our kind patrons. A failure to demand those Receipts before the 22nd of February next, will subject a good many to the payment of an additional lifty cents. "A word to the wise," &c.

Counting-House Calendar. We send with this number, to our subscribers, a very handsome Counting-House Calendar, which we hope they will post up, without mutilation, in some con spicuous place in their Counting Rooms, Offices, &c.

Why is it that our papers reach Florence, in Econe County, so irregularly? They are sent to the Post:office early on Saturday morning. And why do they fail to reach Flag Spring, Campbell county, regularly? Sometimes, as we have been informed, they fail to reach there for several weeks in succession!

Our thanks to Messrs. Morehead TIBBATTS and DAVIS, for Congressional Documents; and to Senator Thomas, for Legislative Documents.

OREGON---THE SLAVE QUESTION.

The bill, organizing Oregon into a territory passed the House of Representatives on the 16th inst. The bill contains a porvision on the subject of slavery, similar to the provision on that subject, embraced in the ordinance of 1787.

MR. BURT, of South Carolina, proposed an amendment, recognizing the probibition of slavery as secured by the Ordinance of 1787, only on the ground "that the whole of said territory which lies north of 36° 30 North latitude, known as the line of the Missouri Compromise. The amendment was rejected by a vote of 82 to 113, the Kentucky Members all voting for the amendment except Mr. John P. Martin, final passage of the bill was decided by yeas 133, nays 35. Messrs. Bell, Boyd, Grider, McHenry, Tibbatts, Trumbo and Young, voting in the affirmative; and Mr. Garrett Davis in the negative, Messrs. Thomasson and Martin absent.

We are truly gratified to see that GARRETT Davis voted as a Kentuckian should have most worthy sons; and for his indepenport of Whig principles upon all occasions, sidious encroachments of Abolitionism, on of the Hon. One hundred thousand foreign voters coming into the United States every year!-How long, at that rate, will it require foreigners to outnumber the natives.

"OLD VIRGINIA." For a while the Old Dominion appeared very tardy in raising her quota of the troops lately required by the President, and being our native state, we began to feel a little sore under the frequent twittings we saw her getting from number of our contemporaries on account of her tardiness. She has, however, not of age, would be taken as Apprentices only furnished the number required of her but two additional companies; and her apparent tardiness is thus explained to us by a friend there: "When the requisition for volunteers first came on, the Whigs proposed to the Democrats that each party should furnish an equal number of volunteers, and divide the offices equally. To this proposition the Democrats agreed, in apparent good faith. The Whigs went to work in good earnest and raised their proportion in a very short time, some of the companies turning off more than they took; but when the time came in many parts of the kingdom. round to form themselves into companies and elect their officers, they found that the Democrats had been all the while debating the question, whether it would not be bet ter for them to stay at home and defend the President, and let the Whigs go Mexico and defend their country. The Whigs then, to save their state from disgrace, had to muster up recruits enough from both parties, to fill up their companies, which they have done, and if they should pass your way, you will see as tine a looking set of fellows as you ever have seen The Whig town of Petersburg furnished two fine companies, while the three strong Locofoco counties of Page, Rockingham, and Shenandoah, have not, as I have been informed, furnished a single company."

" AID AND COMFORT." We have been tol that orders have been sent to the different type foundries in the United States, by a number of the Democratic presses, to have these words stereotyped, and a large num ber of the types cast; it being understood which property estimated to be worth that the Editor who uses them oftenest will stand first on the list of promotions.

> "AID AND COMFORT." President Polk uided the Mexicans to place at the head of their army the ablest General that ever wore an epaulette in her service; this was certainly giving the Mexicans " AID." He is now making the most powerful exertions to place at the head of our army, a man who was never in but one battle, that of the Nashville Inn, in which he came off second best; and whose appointment would, peraps, drive such able and experienced Generals as Scott, Taylor. Of course the father could say no more. The son joined Captain S* x's company of mounted drageons, and is now in Mexico.

The Register is very much vexed about the pay of the soldier engaged in the unwar against Mexico. Every body wants the pay increased. But the reason t has not been done, is found in Mr. Crit enden's objections to an amendment to bounty land. These propositions have all been introduced in such a way as was calculated to retard legislation in relation to the war.—Ky. Intelligencer.

"Every body wants the pay increased. We are truly glad to hear that. But surely every body did not want the pay of the soldier increased when nearly every Democratic member of the House of Representatives voted against Mr. Stewart's proposition to increase the monthly pay from sev en to ten dollars a month, which would, even with that increase, have been some thing like the Indian's pay for preaching.

He reports that the first business transacted by the Mexican Congress was to lay on the table the American overture for peace. They then passed a resolution declaring their determination to prosecute the war to the last extremities-in the words of our informant, to make it a war to the hilt. An act was also passed to raise half a million of dollars a month as required by the Executive estimates for the support of the army—though how the money was to be raised does not yet ap-

There is little doubt, we think, that in the capital and its vicinity a very exasperated state of feeling prevails among the Mexican population. In the remoter provinces all accounts would indicate there is greater apathy .- Washington Union.

The misfortune of having an unsightly name has often given rise to legislationthe afflicted nominee-the "pet" of the family circle being often obliged to apply for a right to change his patronymic. An instance in point, and one which afforded some wag an opportunity to display himthe Commonwealth of Kentucky deem it self, was that of a poor unfortunate indithe duty of our government to prosecute the vidual whose name was Hogg, and who existing Mexican war with all the vigor and applied to the Legislature to change if to store the Turiff of '42, with an addition of energy which is demanded alike by the in- Hoge. EQUIPPING OF THE VOLUNTEERS.—A letter rom New-York published in the Nation al Intelligencer, says "the begging system adopted here is disgusting to every body, and the recruits among the rest. Did you ever hear of a Government, in the commencement of a small war, allowing the troops to be fitted out by private subscription! The officers are mortified and well they may be. Why does not the Secretary of War order the commissary here to pay the incidental expenses of the officers, and provile funds wherewith to furnish quarters and clothing to the troops The true frends of the country cry 'shame! and refuse to subcribe, because they deem the proceeding mean and unncessary.' In these parts, remarks the Alexandri Gazette, the same cry of "shame?" is raised, but knowing the necessity of the case, the States, the Corporations and the People, "give ail and comfort to the enemy," by appropriating their funds to organize the volunteers, and place them in the service of their country. The Washington Union of the 16th, antounces the receipt of the Diario of Mexico, of December 25th. It gives the adopening of the Mexican Congress, from which we make the following extract:

The popular, representative, federal form of government, the sovereignty, independence, and liberty of the States in everything that relates to their administration and internal government, shall be respected, and the constitution and laws emanating from the representatives of the Mexican people be faithfully observed. The war which the nation finds itself compelled to sustain against the North American re public shall be prosecuted with valor and constancy, until the justice of our cause be acknowledged and our territory evacuated. I have thus, gentlemen, very briefly sketched the policy which the new government proposes to observe, in compliance with the oath which I have just

The government of the United States, on its part, compelled, as it is, to hasten the operations of the war, in order to bring it to a close, Thus, a meeting must soon take place between the armies of the nations. From the number and valor of our troops, the enthusiasm and skill of their chief, and the justice of our cause, we have a right to ezpact a favorable result. Nevertheless, this shall never be a final or decisive action. Invaded and occupied as is not only the territory in question, but a large portion of what never beloaged to Texas, entire States in which the sovereignty of Mexico has never been disputed, involved in a war or races, and aggrieved in the most unjust and atrocious manner that can be conceived, our honor and the future condition of our children-that sacred interest which nations cannot be unmindful ofrequires us to sustain a prolonged and obstinate strife, until respected for our valor and constancy, we can raise a barrier against the immoral ambition of our neighbors, and secure the fortune of our race ous sons of the south. By a decree of the Mexican Congress, dated the 21st of Dec., the President and Vice President (Santa Anna and Gomez Farias) were to take an oath before Congress, on entering upon their duties, "to sustain the independence of the repullic, with the integrity of its territory, and to observe and cause to be observed the constitution of 1824," &c.

In a long report of a select committee of the Congress, appointed to consider the ways and means of prosecuting the war the monthly expenditures of the army under Santa Anna are estimated at $368,789, and those of the garrison at Vera Cruzat $80,000. In this city, on the morning of the 6th inst.. fter a painful illness. Mrs. MARY THEOBALD, vile of G. P. Theobald, Esq , in the 53d year of ble : the uniform to be heat and simple, so as t ier aze.

We announce the death of this most excellent and pious lady, with no ordinary feeling of sorrow. Oppressed by the event, we feel incompetent to sketch her character or portray the the principles of Civil Engineering, Architec many excellencies that adorned her life, and ture, and Navigation; Surveying, Drawing, &c. her one of the most useful and admired members of the circle in which she moved. The christian virtues clustered around her and ges. made her, by the unostentatious practice of them, an ornament of the church of which she taught Greek, Latin, French, German, and had been for years an active member. Her abihad been for years an active member. Her abiding faith in Christ, which was never shaken, and the hope of a blessed immortality, which last struggle, to blunt the sting of death, and dispel the terrors of the tomb. And she is now, as we believe and trust, in the full enjoyment of those glorious triumphs which the Saviour promised to his followers.

Her memory will be long cherished by her many friends. Her guileless heart—her purity if life—her active benevolence and her christian simplicity of manner, will never be forgotten by them. They will derive comfort from the recollection of them, and from the assurance that she is now, and will be forever, beyond the reach of sin and sorrow—where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at

But who can fully appreciate the affliction of her bereaved husband? He has lost the most affectionate of wives—the partner, through long life, of all his toils and cares. His loss is beyond the reach of earthly consolation. His friends extend to him their sympathy—it is althe comfort they can give. They mourn with him-their tears mingle with his over her grave Lexington Observer and Reporter.

Birney's Tonic Febrifuge. A Certain Cure of Fever and Ague.

HE demand upon the Proprietors for their unfailing Remedy for that terror of all new countries, has become so great, that they have determined to put it into the reach of all persons in the United States.

In no instance has it failed to produce a speedy and effectual cure, with a perfect restoration of general health. It is prudent in most cases to continue the use of this Medicine for several days after it has been checked.

The Indians of our country, especially those removed from the haunts of man, have long been known to possess the art of curing by extents of simple herbs and roots, diseases which have baffled the skill and experience of the most eminent Physicians; - a long residence in the In-dien country of the North, and among the different wild tribes of the Prairies, has enabled the Proprietor of the Febrifuge to present a remedy which must command the gratitude of all in-dividuals suffering from Fever and Ague.

Since the discovery of the principal ingredient as an active principle in the speedy and certain cure of Fever and Ague, no remedy as substitute has equalled it although from the dif ficulty of its preparation many have been tried oy eminent physicians. Prepared only by Birney & Brother, Drug-ists, corner Lower Market and Sycamore sts, lincinnati. For sale in Covington at the Drug Store of

BIRNEY'S INDIAN VEGETABUS PILLS.

PILLS.

T is well known to physiologists that vitality is in constant conflict with the physical and chemical influences to which all inanimate matter is subject. When the organs of digestion become weakened and lose their healthy tone, they fail to resist properly the chemical action of the various substances taken as food into the stomach; lience arises the fermentation and formation of new and injurious agents, which so materially affect the health and spirits of a large class of persons. Dyspepsia, involving in its train every form of bilious disease and often death, is the inevitable result. To remedy these disorganizations and restore vigorous digestion. disorganizations and restore vigorous digestion, these pills are confidently offered to the public; composed of vegetable substances, the virtues of which were learned by the proprietor from the Indians of the prairies These pills will not fail for properly administered to effect a thorough

Covington, Nov. 7, 1846.

Washington, Jan. 6, 1847. The House to-day reversed its prompt decision of yesterday in regard to the project for a Lieutenant General or Field Marshal. The party drill was put into operation. The "Union" looked daggers to the malcontents; while the "Intelligencer" was merry with its jokes and sarcasms on the occasion.

What was to be done! Here was a scheme upon which Mr. Pola, the great head of the party and the dispenser of the Government offices and the Government contracts, and the ten thousand other streams of alluring-patronage, had deliberately set his heart.—He wanted a man at the head of the army in whom he could have full confidence, and upon whom he could rely, confidentially and democratically! Generals Scorr and Taylor were Whigs in sentiment and not therefore the men for him! He had thrown himself and his war and conquest schemes into the keeping of Col. Benron and implored the stern yet pliant and ambitious Missouri Senutor to save him! Col. Benton had cured the best of workmen, they are now maforces of the country, with sundry civil East or West, and at as fair prices, and on reafunctions into the bargain, and a salary of some $7000 per annum, wouldn't be bad to take! Mr. Bedinger's speech was a highnitched piece of declamatory abuse of the Whigs, full of tropes and quaint figures. and not a little desultory withal. Mr. Bedinger is a very pleasant, genteel young man, of the Virginia school, proud of the Old Dominion, proud of Harper's Ferry in his District, where he saw the eagle take his flight and dodge the storm, and not a little proud of his own personal appearance, which has a right to be.

Mr. RATHEUN introduced a substitute for the whole bill, changing the character of the force to be raised. He profers volfor the whole bill, changing the character of the force to be raised. LAYTON'S BALOON VOYAGE, AND THIS DESCENT UPON THE WATER R. CLAYTON has made another trip to the east and has just returned with a splendid stock of Gold and Silver Walches, Jewelry, Watch Pools and Materials, Dentist Files, Silver Ware

Jerome's best Brass Clocks. &c. &c., Numerous Watch Makers and Dealers in Jew elry from the interior of Ohio, Indiana, Ken tucky, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa and Mississippi can testify that they have bought Watches and Jewelry as cheap at Clayton's as they evel bought the like in the east, and some articles such as Gold Pencils, Gold Chains, Thimbles Watch Glasses, Quelet's Mainsprings, &c., at from 5 to 10 per cent. less than they paid for such in New York and Philadelphia.

The way that he accomplishes this great revo-lution in the price of goods, is by buying exten-sively with Cash of the different manufacturers, and then selling for cash and nothing else but Cash. Not even the wealthiest portion of the community can get a single article of him on credit. They might promise to pay in a day or two, and of course their pay would some time o other be certain; but this promise and this cer tainty of getting the money, although they would satisfy most tradesmen, would not answer Clayton's purpose: for that day or two might be six months, which would make the interest of the amount purchased more than balance the small profits he puts on his goods.

The fact then stares every one in the face, That by having no expense in book keeping, no expense in money collecting, and no bad debts whatever, R. C. can do wonders in the way of selling cheap.

The Cash System is becoming daily more admitted. It divests trade of care and anxiety. it holds out no temptation to cheat or swindle it allows a man with a small capital to compete nay even undersell the most splendid establishment built upon Credit, and it will make him popular: and will speak well of him, except it be few short sighted, envious competitors, and even their slander will help to increase his business. In short, the Cash System is the bonest man's road to wealth.

T has been ascertained by Chemical analy sis, that in 15,142 parts of Brewer's Yeast there exists but 15 parts of Carbonic Acid Gas, this becomes disengaged from the Yeast by a gentle heat, and is retained by the dough, which causes the rising of the Bread. It is easily seen what a small proportion of leaven there is in any quantity of Yeast-only about the thousanth part, the balance being of no advantage whatever.

MR. JOSEPH I. YOUNGLOVE-Sir: As a duty I we to the community, and partiicularly to the afflicted, I would state that I had been for a number of years laboring under lisease and weakness of the lungs, which caused me to cough a great deal, and produced a conseu nt debility of my system generally, to such a degree, that it was with difficulty I could walk, to do which even for a short distance, I experienced great fatigue. I had various medicines recommended to me, which I used without any beneficial effects whatever, until I procured bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. The use of one bottle afforded relief entirely relieving me of cough, & restoring my lungs to healthy action. The use of it for a short time increased tent, that I was stronger and more healthy than I had been for years before. From the trial I have made of the medicine, I can confidently recommend it as a powerful Tonic, a certain cure for affections of the lungs, unless it may be in cases of Consumption, obstinate and of long

JAMES A. LEWIS. March 7, 1846. Bowling Green, Ky. ANOTHER INVALID RESTORED TO HEALTII.

Read the following statement of facts from Mr. E. Bailey, a highly respectablemerchant o Vienna, Johnson county, Illinois.] Messrs. Phelps & Blaklsley, St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen :- A desire to benefit the afflicted through out the land has alone induced me t make the following statement of facts respecting one of the most astonishing cures ever recorded. my son, now seventeen years old, has been afflicted during his whole life with a constant cough pain in the side and chest, accompanied with night sweats and hectic fever, which produced great emaciation and debility; and at intervals during the night his expectoration would become so great as to endadger his life from strangula tion .- During this time he was attended by many physicians of the highest repute, whose prescriptions gave but temporary relief-in fact, so larming were the symptoms, and so inveterate was his disease, that I was compelled to believe him beyond the reach of medical aid.

All our neighbors and friends who saw him egarded him as one who was rapidly approach ing an early and premature grave After having hus exhausted the skill of our hest physicians, without obtaining relief, I was prevailed upon by the advice of a friend to make use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

He commenced its use about the 30th of De ember 1814, the first bottle of which gave asonishing relief, and I began again to indulge in the fond hope that he might yet be restored t health.

After having continued the use of it until three bottles had been taken, the disease was entirely overcome and his shattered constitution and emaciated form restored to sound and permanent health, which he continues to enjoy up to the present time.

I believe the genuine Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry to be one of the most valuable medicines ever discovered --- knowing, as 1 do, that the a love cure was effected solely by its use.

1 am gentlemen, very respectfully, Your most obedient servant, April 9, 1846. ELI. BAILY. Cures similar to the above are constantly peing performed in all parts of our country, and we should indeed be destitute of all feelings of numanity, did we not call upon all who are afflicted with pulmonary diseases to resort at once to the use of this, the only remedy that can be relied upon for a cure.
