

LOCKING VALLEY REGISTER.

Devoted to General Intelligence, Politics, Morality, Literature, Education, the Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Commerce, and Advertising.

VOLUME VI.

COVINGTON, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MAY, 28, 1847.

NUMBER 45

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING BY

N. L. FINNELL,

AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, when paid in advance, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS in six months.

Single numbers in wrappers 5 cents.

Persons wishing to discontinue the paper, must settle all arrears before it can be done, unless at the option of the Publishers.

Advertisements, of 12 lines, or less, will be charged for the first insertion 75 cents, each additional insertion 25 cents. Longer ones in proportion.

A liberal discount made to yearly advertisers.

No advertisement to be considered by the year, unless specified on the manuscript or previously agreed upon between the parties.

The number of insertions must be marked on the advertisement, or it will be continued until ordered out, and charged accordingly.

Law Partnership.

B. W. FOLEY & S. T. WALL.

HAVE associated themselves in the practice of Law in the County and Circuit Courts of Kenton, Campbell and Boone. They will, in the Circuit Courts, be assisted by W. K. Wall, whenever necessary. Office on Market Space, in Covington.

N. B. Conveyancing and the examination of titles of city property promptly attended to.

September 13, 1845. 8-1f

Gedge & Brothers

TOBACCO MANUFACTURERS,

AND DEALERS IN

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES & COUNTRY PRODUCE,

Scot Street, Covington.

KEEP constantly on hand a good assortment of their line, which they will sell, wholesale or retail, cheap for cash or exchange for country produce.

March 8, 1845. 3-3

C. L. Mullins

WHOLESALE & RETAIL GROCER,

3 DOORS SOUTH OF 6th STREET.

HAS now on hand a good stock of Groceries which he will sell for cash or country produce.

Covington, July 11th, 1846.

DR. W. C. RANDELLS, having located in Covington, offers his professional services to the citizens of Covington and vicinity.

Office on Market Space, formerly occupied by Foley & Wall.

July 18, 1846. 5-2

J. B. JONES, & CO.

HAVE just received and are now opening a superior assortment of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS.

Also Groceries, Queensware, Boots and Shoes, &c. &c.

Their solicitude for public patronage, as their terms are as reasonable as those of any establishment in this City or Cincinnati.

N. B. They will receive, in exchange for Goods, &c., either Cash or any kind of Country Produce.

Covington, Sept. 5th, 1846. 7-1f

FASHIONABLE CABINET FURNITURE.—S. J. JONES wishes to inform his friends and the public that he has removed to the new store building, directly opposite his old store on Third st., between Main and Sycamore, where he has now and will continue to keep a large assortment of the most fashionable and modern style of CABINET FURNITURE, consisting in part of French Sofas, Seagrasses—Rose and Mahogany, Centre Tables, Sofa Tables, Parlor Chairs of the finest description, Secretaries, Mahogany Bedsteads, Dressing Bureaus of various styles, with a variety of other articles in his line, all manufactured in the best and most durable manner. He assures those wishing to purchase that he will sell as low as any establishment in the West. He invites the public to call and examine for themselves, and if he cannot sell, he will not charge anything.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7, 1846.

BRASS CHAMBER CANDLESTICKS.—200 pairs assorted 4 1/2, 5 inches; 300 do do 5 1/2, 6 inches.

ALSO—100 do Square, with snuffers complete; 100 do Pillars, assorted, 6, 8, 10, 12 in; This day received and for sale by

TYLER DAVIDSON & CO.,

126 Main st., 3 doors above Commercial Bank.

Cin., Sept. 26, 1846. 10

Medicines, &c.

THE attention of the community is called again to the large and well selected stock of Medicines, which has recently been received by the subscriber, at his Old Store, corner 4th and South sts., Covington, where prescriptions are carefully compounded by an experienced druggist.

Feb. 6th, 1847.

FALL GOODS.

THE subscribers are now receiving their supply of GOODS, suitable for the Fall and Winter trade, which they offer on the best possible terms for Cash or country Produce of all kinds. They have on hand a complete and assortment of Store and Family Groceries, and prices are invited to call and examine their stock before purchasing.

Cash paid for Wheat and Flaxseed.

GEDGE & BROTHERS,

October 1, 1846.—12-yl.

GUITARS! GUITARS! GUITARS!!!

Just received and now on hand at the New

Jewelry and Music Store, 123 Main st., a good assortment of low priced Guitars.

ALSO—Violins, French and German Accordions, Flutes, Clarionets, Pipes, Music Boxes, French strings for the Guitar and Violin, &c., all of which will be sold very cheap.

HUNTINGTON'S,

123 Main st., bet. 3d and 4th.

Cin., Sep. 26, 1846. 10

PLUMBE NATIONAL DAGUERRIAN

GALLERY AND PHOTOGRAPHERS

FURNISHING DEPT'S: Awarded the Gold and Silver Medals, Four times in the Exhibition of Gold and Silver Watches, Gold

Chains, Pencils, Keys; Diamond, Ruby, Garnet,

Mechanics' Hall; Cincinnati, Fourth and Walnut, and 176 Main St.; Saratoga Springs, Broadway; Paris, 127 Vieille Rue du Temple; Liverpool, 32 Church St.

June 27, 1846. 49-1y.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.—Just received, direct from the potteries, 100 packs of Queensware, consisting of the Seckels pattern.

Flouring Blue Dining Tea and Toilet Ware;

Blue raised, light, blue Corinthe, and white;

la Perle, Dining and Tea Ware;

China Dishes, Bakers, Twiflers, Muffins, Jugs,

Bowls, Ewers and Basins, Tea Ware and Tea.

Edged Dishes, Bakers, Twiflers and Muffins;

C. C. do do do

Nappies, Bowles, Jugs, Plain and Verona

Teas, Ewers and Basins, and Chambers;

Painted plain and Verona Teas;

For sale by O. ALDRICH, Agent,

Cincinnati, May 16, '46 174 Main

John W. Applegate,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

NOTARY PUBLIC, and Commissioner to take Depositions, the Acknowledgments of Deeds, Mortgages, Powers of Attorney, &c.

for the following States, Kentucky, Illinois and Missouri.

Office north east corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dec. 23-1y.

PRESERVING KETTLES.—Enameled kettles of various sizes, an excellent article for preserving, for sale low by

J. K. OGDEN & CO.

No 162 Main st., sign of the Old Padlock.

Cincinnati, Sept. 26, 1846.

GRAIN SHOVELS.—50 doz Nelson and

Morgan's Grain Shovels, for sale by

TYLER DAVIDSON & CO.

126 Main st., 3 doors above Commercial Bank.

Cin., Sep. 26, 1846. 10

BRUEN HOUSE,

Corner of Broadway and Short streets,

LEXINGTON, KY.

G. LEWIS POSTLETHWAITE, RICH N. BRADLEY,

POSTLETHWAITE & BRADLEY, very respectfully announce to their friends, the old patrons of the establishment and the public generally, that they have leased the above establishment, and are now prepared to accommodate in the best manner all who may extend to them their patronage. The house is now undergoing a thorough refitting and refurnishing, and they think they can safely promise that in a few days they will have one of the most comfortable establishments anywhere to be found in Lexington. Unwilling, however, that their House shall be judged by any professions they may make, they simply request a call from the Travelling public, satisfied to rest their claims to its patronage upon the manner in which they are conducted. Their Suffice it to say they will spare no exertions to render their guests comfortable, and their Hotel worthy of support.

The family rooms of this house are unsurpassed in neatness and comfort, by those of any house in the State, and they are prepared to extend the best accommodations to transient or resident families.

The present proprietors indulge the hope that they will, if they merit it, receive a just proportion of the public patronage, for which they pledge their best exertions.

Nov. 7, 1846. 16f

123 MAIN ST., BETWEEN THIRD

AND FORTH—Watches, Jewelry,

Sliver Ware, &c. W. C. HUNTINGTON is constantly making additions to his stock of choice watches, Gold and Silver, Vest and

Fob Chains, Pins, Rings, Chain and Hair Bracelets, Gold Pens, Pencils, Musical Instruments,

&c., which will be sold as low as the same quality of Goods can be found in the City.

Watches, Jewelry, Musical Boxes, Accordions,

&c., repaired and warranted. Old Gold and Sliver bought at the highest rates, at 123 Main street, between Third and Fourth

Sept. 26, 1846. W. C. HUNTINGTON.

WINTER LARD OIL.—No. 1 Winter

Lard Oil, in good shipping order. This oil will burn all night and keep the lamp in full light. For sale by

THOMAS EMERY,

Lord Oil Manufacturer,

Nov. 7. 33 Water st., bet. Main & Walnut.

Mrs LANGDON & SISTERS.

MILLINERS AND DRESS MAKERS

Scott St., between 4th and 5th, Covington, Ky.

RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of this City and vicinity that they have opened a new Millinery and Dress Making establishment, in the building lately occupied by Mrs. Reed.

They have employed a skillful Milliner, and are prepared to execute work in the latest and best style. They solicit a share of public patronage.

Nov. 2, 1845. 18-1f

THE subscribers after returning their order thanks to their friends, for the VERY

LIBERAL patronage, which they have received during the last fifteen years while engaged in the mercantile business in this City, would inform them that they have sold out their Stock of Dry Goods and Groceries, to Messrs. J. B. Jones

(our former clerk) Jesse Gregory and O. C.

Williamson, which firm will do business under the name and style of J. B. Jones & Co. We have rented to said firm for a term of years, the Store Houses formerly occupied by us, and would earnestly solicit for their continuance the patronage of our friends and former customers, as they are now receiving direct from the factories a supply of seasonable Dry Goods, and complete as any in the City and we have the fullest assurance that they will do all in their power to retain the business of the stand.

A. T. GIBBER.

Covington, Sept. 5th, 1846. 7-1f

POWDER FLASKS!—A fresh supply of Rifle and Pistol Flasks just received and for sale by the dozen or single.

HUNTINGTON'S,

Cin., Sep. 26, 1846. No. 123 Main st.

Notice.

JOHN MACKOY has removed his Store to

Foot of New Brick Buildings, on Madison street, at the elbow of the Turnpike, where in addition to his stock of Dry Goods, he is now receiving and opening a stock of GROCER-

IES, and would respectfully invite the attention of his friends and old customers. Produce of most every kind will be received in exchange for goods.

Covington, April 4, 1846.

TWENTY-FIVE Town Lots for sale, near the College, on the site of the Greenup streets, which will be sold low and on easy terms, by

HIRAM MARTIN.

Or Menzies & Camborn, Agents,

Covington, Jan. 30, 1847. 28-6m

NAILS AND GLASS.—39 Boxes new size Glass, 35 kg. n. d. Nails

For sale low by

J. B. JONES, & Co.

Jan. 30, 1848. 10

NEW WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c.

The subscriber has just received and is now opening a fresh stock of Goods in his line, consisting of Gold and Silver Watches, Gold

Chains, Pencils, Keys; Diamond, Ruby, Garnet,

Amethyst, Topaz, Turquoise Set Finger Rings

&c. &c., all of which will be sold at the lowest prices.

W. C. HUNTINGTON,

Watchmaker and Jeweler,

Nov. 21. 123 Main st. bet. 2d and 3d.

Col. Benton's Speech at St. Louis.

We copy from the St. Louis Republican the substance of the speech made by Col.

Benton at the Rotunda in that city, according to previous arrangement, on the evening of the 13th of May, 1847. The report has the sanction of Col. Benton himself.

Mr. Benton commenced by returning thanks for the honor of the invitation to a public dinner from his political friends.—

He had declined the honor of the dinner, in conformity to the rule which he had long followed; and as for the speech which he might have been expected at the dinner table, he preferred to make it under circumstances which admitted a more general attendance, and would prevent no one from hearing it who chose to listen to it.

The public mind, he said, had occupied the last two or three years, and a big public service, on all of which, he had been called to act a decided, and even a prominent part, and on each of which, it was natural for him to say something on the present occasion. The Oregon question was one of these. At one time big with all the calamities of war, it was now tranquil and happy under

Latest from Santa Fe and California.

We copy the following from the St. Louis Republican of Monday, the 17th:

Yesterday evening, several gentlemen arrived on board the John J. Harlan, direct from Santa Fe and California, and received the following information, and received the annexed letter from the City of Angels.

Lieut. Wm. G. Peck, of the Topographical Corps, left Santa Fe in company with Messrs. Woods and Sandford, and their party. At the time he left Santa Fe, Col. Price was still there, and all was quiet, but it was believed to be that a sudden and quiet quiet which superior force alone compels. Although the insurrection, which we have heretofore noticed, had been put down, the general opinion was that it was only a matter of time before it would rise again. The civil government was going on trying the insurgents, Judge Baughman presiding.

After Lieut. Peck was some days from Santa Fe, he was joined by Mr. A. C. Smith, from Chihuahua, Lieut. Theodore Talbot, who went out with Col. Fremont; Lieut. E. Beal, of the United States Navy; C. Toplin, U. S. Army; Christopher Carson, Robert E. Russell and others from California. From these gentlemen we learn, that the court at Tucson had condemned a number of the insurgents to be hung, and that eleven had been executed, and a large number whipped. Six were hung on the day that Lieut. Talbot passed through Tucson.

These executions excited the Mexicans very much, and when Mr. McKnight passed through Tucson they were endeavoring to raise volunteers for another insurrection. The Alcalde and other influential men were opposing the effort, but with much success remains to be seen.

When Lieut. Peck and his party were about five miles this side of the Rio Grande, the Arkansas were attacked by about ninety Comanche Indians, who succeeded in stealing ten of their horses and mules. The party with Lieut. Peck fell back and waited five days, hoping to be joined by other parties coming from the second day the Comanches again attacked them, and succeeded in carrying off all their horses and mules, thirty-nine in number. In the second attack they had a fight of some duration, in which one man, named Williams, was severely but not mortally wounded, by a spear or lance, in the body. Several others had their clothing cut by the balls fired by the Indians. A musket ball struck the Alcalde, wounding him, but he was not killed. The night they were joined by the gentlemen above mentioned, and supplied with fresh animals.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

At the bend of the Arkansas, a party of Pawnee Indians made an attack upon their camp, and attempted to take a sample among the horses, but did not succeed. They, however, stole two horses. They fired a good many arrows into the camp, but without effect. They appeared to have but one gun among them. These gentlemen report that it is the intention of the Indians to leave the country, and that they think they are strong enough to contend with, and are very hostile to us. This being the case it behooves the general government immediately to send out a force and whip them into better behavior.

We found Gen. Kearney with instructions from the Secretary of War to occupy the country and institute a civil government; but Com. Stockton, who was also here, maintained that the conquest had been made by him and Col. Fremont, as an incident to it, the right of forming a civil government belonged to him; and that Gen. Kearney's orders were now obsolete, because the business for which he had come had anticipated by others.

The Comodore therefore, appointed, as before remarked, Col. Fremont as Governor, and myself as Secretary of State, and ordered the convocation of a legislative assembly, which is to meet on the 1st of March.

This is truly, in many respects, a fair land. We are now luxuriating in oranges, grapes and pears, crops of the last year.

I do not know when I shall certainly return. If allowed to remain in my present position, I cannot leave here this year. If ordered to leave it, I may reach home some time in the course of the year.

I am, with much respect,
Your old friend
W. H. R.

Tom Johnson and Bill Jones.
OR THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DRINKERS.

Yesterday morning, like Caius Marius mourning amidst the ruins of Carthage, Tom Johnson, with his heart full of gloom and his head full of the fumes of a week's frolicking, sat biting his nails in front of the Recorder's office. Presently he was tapped on the shoulder by a very squabby man with a very broad-skirted coat, and a countenance that seemed to say, "Lord ain't I happy!" with a face cadaverous with woe, "Tom Johnson said, slowly, 'William Jones, you are too familiar; recollect where you are, sir.'"

"Well, and don't you souse I do know where I am? Why, you ain't had no bit of this mornin' I reckon, for your face looks as solemn as a tombstone with a werry old epytaph on it."

"Jones, I am brooding over my woes!" "Tom Johnson, now you take my advice—never brood over your woes—voes is eggs, which, when hatched, produces some of the d—destablamtaged, regged red-eyed chickens that ever crowded."

"What would you have me do? I am, a miserable man—my money is gone, my credit is gone, and ah! there's something that tells me I, too, shortly shall be gone."

"All the fault of bad lucker."

"Liquor!—do not name the poisonous drug!"

"Oh! that men should put a devil in their mouth to seal their lips and keep their tongues from speaking of it!"

"Tom, you oughter be indicted for that. You can't cord to law, accuse the devil for hookin' what never was—even Satan can't steal vacuum, you know! ha! ha! I got you, there!"

"Hush, be quiet, I am not in the mood to hear of your bad lucker."

"I know you ain't in the mood you're in the street, and you've got a fit of the red monkeys on you."

"What Red monkeys?"

"Regular, ring-tailed, British sossers, in werry bright scarlet coats, and breeches to match."

"Explain yourself, for heaven's sake for I feel as though I was going mad!"

"My fingers tremble, my brains throbs, my breast is burning, there's a hissing in my ears, and I feel—I know not what I feel."

"Exactly, all werry excellent symptoms, but there's a cure a temporary cure—"

"What is it? Not brandy?"

"No, not brandy—whiskey's a better medicine. You're an excited man, just from the country—never been on a bender, and it's necessary you should be a little strung up afore I commenced topilosophyze. Take a swig at this—there—I know'd you'd like it."

"Thanks—I feel better—but those crimson animals you were speaking of—they belong to what family? what genus?"

"Don't be so fast—they belong to most families, and is the particular property of all the people of genius. The disease, like every thing else in this world, has two sides. There's the blue devils and red monkeys, and a host of smaller fry such as spiders, snakes, and other reptiles, but the devils and the monkeys is the roots of the disease which I must, like a good doctor, strike at in the first place."

"Well, my dear Jones, go on—get though soon, please, for I feel very strange."

"Very natural you should feel strange—but now I'm agoin' to commence. Poor people is werry much attached to the blue devils, but the red monkeys belong to the rich: blue devils is democratic—red monkeys is aristocratic. As hamlet said to his wiscious marna—'look on this pickler and on this—the blue and the red. A poor man, workin' hard for his livin', and havin' a interestin' family consistin' of a sick wife and four children, and one of them crippled, goes out to his business in the mornin', with a strong arm and a light heart. He finds the shop where he worked the night afore a heap of smokin' cinders he looks so skored that the people pin their eyes at him as much as to say 'he's got it afore!' He turns around to seek work some place else, but no one offers him a single job—he feels as if he had an avvil pressin' on his heart, and his throat swells up as if he was chokin' when he thinks of his poor wife and children at home! He passes a doggery—there's the licker in blue, red and yaller bottles, all seemin' to say 'hello! old feller, walk in and take a drink!' He thinks to himself one glass can't hurt me—it'll cheer me up and somethin' will surely—well, I'll do it any how!" The licker's down, and afore night the man's afraid to go home—he drinks and drinks, and at last falls dead drunk on the bar-room floor. He's kicked out—picked up by the watchman, and if you want to see a man with the blue devils strong upon him, just take a squint at him the next mornin' in the Recorder's dock with his head bound up to keep it from bustin', and holdin' on to the rails of the dock as if he was sea-sick!"

"But Jones, those red gentlemen that you were speaking of?"

"Oh, they generally comes from the country. I see one young man as had the red monkeys werry bad. He was one of the double XX's, and wasn't used to drinking but he thought by way of variety he'd just go on a frolic, soabout 'leven o'clock one mornin' he commenced with a julep. A friend came in asked him to 'jine' him and afore they had done drinkin', a third feller, who was b-l for fightin', swore that they should take a glass with him. Well this young man begin to feel pretty lively, and some one who dropped in by accident proposed a game of cards. At it they went, and afore twelve that night our verdant young friend had lost all his daddy's money, and was, as his companions remarked, "gloriously corned." The next mornin' he woke up with a cold shiver, and saw a long somethin' crawlin' right over his breast. Like lightning he jumped out of bed, and there, right over the wash-bowl, sat a tall red monkey looking at him werry seriously. Down stairs he went and told the landlady, who went and saw the young man's red flannel drawers on the wash-stand, and found that the snake was nothin' but hissspender!"

"What did they do to him?"

"They blistared and bled him—sweated him and doctored him all sorts of ways—but he died!"

"Died!" said Tom, with horror—"did he die from the flannel red monkey?"

"Yes, he didn't do any thing shorter, and so will you if you don't leave off drinkin'."

"But why don't you die—you drink a great deal!"

"I can't—I'm a kind of a wanderin' Jew of a blue devil—come, let's go and take a drink."

And the Red Monkey and the Blue Devil went to the nearest grog-shop.

The Twelve-Months' Volunteers.
We understand that the terms of service of the several volunteer regiments mustered for the period of twelve months will expire at the following dates:

Twelve months' Volunteers under Major General Scott.
Captain Blanchard's company Louisiana volunteers, July 30, 1847.
Colonel Coffey's Alabama Regiment, between the 8th and 29th June, 1847.

Colonel Jackson's Georgia Regiment, between the 10th and 19th June, 1847.
Colonel Forman's 3d Illinois regiment, between the 8th June and 2d July, 1847.
Colonel Baker's 4th Illinois regiment, between the 9th June and 2d July, 1847.

Baltimore and District of Columbia battalion, between the 30th May and 8th June, 1847.
Colonel Thomas's Tennessee mounted regiment, between the 6th and 15th June, 1847.

Colonel Campbell's 1st Tennessee foot, between the 28th May and 2d June, 1847.
Colonel Haskell's 2d Tennessee regiment, between the 4th and 18th June, 1847.

Volunteers under Major Gen. Taylor.
Three regiments of Ohio, between the 23d and 29th June, 1847.
Three regiments of Indiana, between the 18th and 26th June, 1847.

Two regiments of Illinois, between the 17th and 30th June, 1847.
Three regiments of Kentucky, between the 17th May and 15th June, 1847.
Mississippi regiment, between the 3d and 15th June, 1847.

Arkansas regiment, between the 30th June and 3d July, 1847.
From this statement we are happy to say that the reinforcements for General Scott's army, which for several weeks have been en route, including those that mustered here Vera Cruz by the end of May, will be fully equal to the number of twelve-months' men who are to be discharged in June and July, as they will, of course, remain in the field for service up to the end of the twelve months which they are engaged.

BOOT AND SHOE MANUFACTORY.
The subscribers beg leave to inform their old customers and the public, that they have a good assortment of Boots & Shoes, on hand also a lot of the best Philadelphia Calf and Morocco Skins, and are prepared to make to order.

"Thanks—I feel better—but those crimson animals you were speaking of—they belong to what family? what genus?"

"Don't be so fast—they belong to most families, and is the particular property of all the people of genius. The disease, like every thing else in this world, has two sides. There's the blue devils and red monkeys, and a host of smaller fry such as spiders, snakes, and other reptiles, but the devils and the monkeys is the roots of the disease which I must, like a good doctor, strike at in the first place."

"Well, my dear Jones, go on—get though soon, please, for I feel very strange."

"Very natural you should feel strange—but now I'm agoin' to commence. Poor people is werry much attached to the blue devils, but the red monkeys belong to the rich: blue devils is democratic—red monkeys is aristocratic. As hamlet said to his wiscious marna—'look on this pickler and on this—the blue and the red. A poor man, workin' hard for his livin', and havin' a interestin' family consistin' of a sick wife and four children, and one of them crippled, goes out to his business in the mornin', with a strong arm and a light heart. He finds the shop where he worked the night afore a heap of smokin' cinders he looks so skored that the people pin their eyes at him as much as to say 'he's got it afore!' He turns around to seek work some place else, but no one offers him a single job—he feels as if he had an avvil pressin' on his heart, and his throat swells up as if he was chokin' when he thinks of his poor wife and children at home! He passes a doggery—there's the licker in blue, red and yaller bottles, all seemin' to say 'hello! old feller, walk in and take a drink!' He thinks to himself one glass can't hurt me—it'll cheer me up and somethin' will surely—well, I'll do it any how!" The licker's down, and afore night the man's afraid to go home—he drinks and drinks, and at last falls dead drunk on the bar-room floor. He's kicked out—picked up by the watchman, and if you want to see a man with the blue devils strong upon him, just take a squint at him the next mornin' in the Recorder's dock with his head bound up to keep it from bustin', and holdin' on to the rails of the dock as if he was sea-sick!"

"But Jones, those red gentlemen that you were speaking of?"

"Oh, they generally comes from the country. I see one young man as had the red monkeys werry bad. He was one of the double XX's, and wasn't used to drinking but he thought by way of variety he'd just go on a frolic, soabout 'leven o'clock one mornin' he commenced with a julep. A friend came in asked him to 'jine' him and afore they had done drinkin', a third feller, who was b-l for fightin', swore that they should take a glass with him. Well this young man begin to feel pretty lively, and some one who dropped in by accident proposed a game of cards. At it they went, and afore twelve that night our

COVINGTON Foreign Wine and Liquor Store.
South side Market Space.
HAS now in store some very superior French Brandy; Maderia, and Port Wine, suitable for families, and sick persons; likewise fine Liquors, and Wines, at moderate prices for getting as pure articles from the vine as are to be found in any other City. Good double Rectified Whisky always on hand at Cincinnati market price; Leaf Sugar; Pepper Sauce; Vinegar, Tobacco &c., &c., for sale Wholesale and Retail.

R. WHITE, Agent.
Covington, May 1st, 1847.—31-3m.

STEEL FIRE SETS.—100 sets of Steel Show also, Tong and Pickers and Shovels for sale by
J. K. OGDEN & CO.,
162 Main st, sign of the Old Padlock.
Cin. Sep. 26, 1846.

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES, At Wholesale and Retail.
J. B. CASEY,
HAVING purchased at his late partner's in the firm of J. B. Casey & Co., returns his thanks to the citizens of Covington and the adjacent country, for the very liberal encouragement they have extended to the firm, and would respectfully inform them that he has now on hand a full supply of Dry Goods and Groceries, at the old stand, south side of Market Space, to which he will make such additions as will keep his stock complete, and which he will sell at as low rates as can be obtained in Cincinnati.
Covington, March 20, 1847.

ALTER'S GINSENG PANACEA!
The Great Remedy—Approved by the Faculty,
For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, and all other affections of the Bronchial tubes.

PREPARED entirely from the Ginseng and warranted to contain no preparation of Antimony, Mercury or Opium.

More than 2000 bottles have been sold in the City of Cincinnati, alone, within two months, and in no case has it failed to give entire satisfaction.

The Ginseng Panacea is now ordered by Physicians of the first respectability, in their regular practice, and its claim to be considered the only article ever discovered capable of speedily and permanently allaying bronchial irritation, which is the sole cause of coughs, asthma, bronchitis, and according to Dr. Eberle who but expressed the opinion of all the first authorities in Europe and America, of two-thirds of all the cases usually regarded as true tuberculous consumption must be considered as forever settled.

We select the following names from a long catalogue of persons who have felt its healing influence on their own person, or seen it in their families, and we wish it distinctly noted that they are persons accessible to all who wish to enquire; we attach no certificate. If you are at all interested see them for yourselves; they are scattered over the city and can be easily found.

IN OUR OWN CITY:—

G. W. Phillips, Broadway, between 5th and Harrison streets.
W. Parvin, Broadway, near Yeatman.
G. W. Coffin, Buckeye Bell Foundry, 2d st.
J. Vananduzen, at Hope's warehouse, Sycamore st.

J. A. Trainor, Surgeon Dentist, Congress st.
Bigger, Sec. Equitable Ins. Co. 3d st.
Stoms, firm of J. F. Daic & Co., Sycamore and Lower Market.
N. Noble, Canal Collector's Office.
M. Guthrie, Holmes' paper store, Main, near 5th street.

A. Maish, Tanner, 2d near Sycamore st.
J. Jones, Assistant Clerk Hamilton Co Superior Court.
Shepherd, 5th st. east Broadway.
Davis, Columbia.

E. H. Wheadon, firm Wheadon & Blinn Auctioneers.
Dr. Koer, 14th st. between Vine and Race.
Kernan, firm of Kinkbine & Kirman, Main.

O. F. Benjamin, Importer, 3d st. between Main and Sycamore.
A. Newell, Tanner, Symmes st.
H. Lyon, Finisher, Front st.
W. Johnson, Carpenter, 3d st.
Capt. Adams, Columbus House.

B. V. Jones, corner Longworth and Race.
S. Sterling, corner Vine and Centre.
Mr. Hunter, at J. D. Jones, 3d st.
N. M. Flower, Sycamore st.
J. Ferris corner 9th and Vine.
Dr. Drake.
Cincinnati, March 7, 1847. 33.

FOSTER HOUSE.
Corner of Third and Greenup Streets, COVINGTON, KENTUCKY.

THE undersigned having permanently located in the City of Covington, has taken the above named House and opened it as a House of Call for Travellers and others, and hopes to be able to accommodate all who may favor him with a call in the very best style. His House is new and has been newly furnished with the latest style of Furniture. His Table will be furnished with the best markets afford; and his servants attentive and ready.

He has engaged the services of Mr. Lawson Horner, who will be pleased to see his old friends.
His near location to the River offers inducements to travellers and servants, who cannot stop in Cincinnati on account of the season.

THOMAS J. HOLTON.
Covington, April 10th, 1847.—1f.—38.

PROSPECTUS OF THE MASONIC MIRROR, AND ORGANO OF THE GRAND LODGE OF KY.
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE, DEVOTED TO MASONIC INTELLIGENCE AND LITERATURE.

The third volume will commence in March, 1847. Each number will contain 32 octavo pages, exclusive of title page and index. Will contain a summary of the proceedings of Grand Masonic bodies, and the latest information from the Fraternity in different parts of the United States.

The plan of the work will continue the same: its primary object the advocacy and dissemination of the great and glorious principles of Free Masonry. Indeed it is our object to make the Mirror a work of the first character—one entirely worthy of the patronage of the Fraternity throughout the Mississippi Valley.

The Fraternity is the subject of Free Masonry, comprising a wide range, and embracing the most interesting truths in morals religion and philosophy, will claim the constant attention of the Editors. Masonic Intelligence, Biographical Sketches, Masonic Orations, Poetry, Essays, and indeed every thing calculated to advance the principles of the Order, elevate the Craft, sustain morality, dignity and adorn humanity, and spread universal benevolence among men, shall constitute a leading feature of the work.

All communications to be addressed, post paid, to WM. C. MUNGER, Publisher, Covington, Kentucky.

TERMS.
The Mirror will contain THIRTY-TWO OCTAVO PAGES, printed on new type, and fine white paper, purchased expressly for the work, and forwarded to subscribers at Two Dollars per annum, or ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTEEN CENTS, if paid in advance.

To Lodges or clubs, we offer the following reduced rates:—
EIGHT COPIES, FOR TEN DOLLARS
FIFTEEN COPIES, FOR FIFTEEN DOLLARS
(Any Brother sending us fifteen subscribers, and $15, shall be entitled to a handsome Diploma and an extra copy of the work for twenty subscribers and $30, an extra copy, and a copy of the "Craftman" and Freemason's Guide.")
For twenty-five subscribers, and $35, a "Craftman," and Diploma, and an extra copy, will be sent free of postage.

Secretaries are particularly requested to lay the work before their Lodges, and the Brethren, to form clubs and forward to subscriptions.

HARDWARE.

Tyler Davidson & Co.,
No. 136 Main, between Third & Fourth Sts. CINCINNATI.

ARE now in receipt of a very heavy stock of FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC HARDWARE.

In